THE SUNDAY BEE: JULY 24, 1887 .- TWELVE PAGES.

A move is on foot to organize a stock company to take the Hotel Manawa, the during Monday night.

6

BUSINESS OFFICE, No. 43. NIGHT EDITOR No. 33.

N. Y.Plumbing Co.

store on upper Broadway.

day evening at 8 o'clock.

Wier, both of this county.

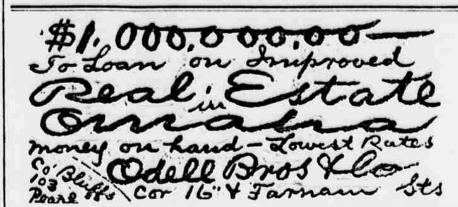

First street.

well.

house property.

ommendation on the basis of the highest average as shown by the examination.

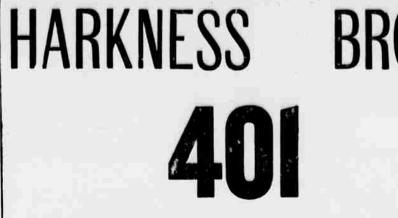

NOTICE. Bluffs. WANTS.

415 Broadway, Council Bluffs.

No. 419 BROADWAY

BROADWAY, COUNCIL BLUFFS.

CLOSING OUT ALL Summer Dress Goods, White Goods

Parasols, Gloves, Mitts, Hosiery, Etc., Etc.

capital to be $15,000 and the shares to be $25 each. The hotel is one of the principal attractions of the lake. The lake is becoming the most popular summer re-sort in this part of the country. The two cities need this resort, and enough patronage is being secured from them alone to keep all the interest alive. There are many, also, who come from a dis-

For female diseases and chronic dis-eases of all kinds, call on Dr. Rice, No. 11 Pearl street, Council Bluffs, Iowa.

When you are in the city stop at the Pacific house. Street cars pass the door every fifteen minutes for all the depots.

Meals 50 cents each. J. W. & E. L. Squire's abstract books are a marvel of systematic accuracy. Have you seen their new lien book; it is a monster and contains 900 pages.

Personal Paragraphs.

Mr. and Mrs. D C. Bridges spent Sunday with their friends here.

Mrs. B. W. Jacobs leaves this morning for a visit to friends in Des Moines. D. O. Finch, of Des Moines, United States district attorney, is at the Bech-

W. Tulleys and family have re turned from a pleasant stay at Spirit Lake.

N. P. Dodge and his two sons have returned from a pleasant trip to Clear Lake.

roads. One wants Seventh street, while the other wants Eighth street. The rails A. S. Hazelton has returned from his eastern trip and visit to friends in New for the unfinished 1,800 feet of track ar-rived yesterday, and will all be laid Mon-day. In fact the entire road, round Hampshire

Mrs. Dr. Green has gone to Colorado in the hope of bettering her health by a climatic change.

houses, switches, turn-tables, etc., will all be completed by Tuesday noon except the crossings, and Mr. Graves thinks they H. Ouren, of Silver Creek, has returned from Chicago where he has been to dis pose of some of his cattle. County Superintendent Laird and wife returned yesterday to their home in Car-son, the teachers' institute here having closed.

Ed. L. Howe, jr., leaves this morning for Des Moines to arrange for the open-ing of the new hotel Goldstone, which occurs Monday, August 1, in that city.

Charles Huntington, one of the BEE carriers, starts east this morning intend-ing to visit friends in Michigan and see the sights of Chicago and Milwaukee. J. French, an employe of the water works compary, now goes to Wyoming to work ior a company there. Mr. French is an enthusiastic Salvation army man, Rev. T. J. Mackey, rector of St. Paul's church, has gone to Colfax for rest and recreation. He has worked hard and carried heavy responsibilities, and his health is somewhat shattered.

Paul Aylesworth, son of Judge Ayles-worth, goes east to-day. He will visit with friends in New York until the col-lege year opens in the fall, and will re-main at his books there until next sum-

Mrs. W. W. Chapman, Mrs. J. T. Broadheck and Miss S. D. Rehse have been spending a week at lake Manawa. and have been enjoying themselves hugely. They made several sketches and paintings of the hotel and the beach.

For rupture or hernia, call and get Dr. Rice's new invention. It makes a man of you in five minutes. No. pain. No. 11 Pearl street.

At the Pacific house you will save from 50c to $1 per day. Try it and be con-vinced.

One thousand head of one, two and three-year-old steers for sale. Will give credit to reliable parties. Enquire of A. J. Greenamayor, 623 Mynster st., tele-211.

Fencing the Claim. The lost ground claimed by the Catho-me." "But you're safe, you know, way up here. Then you'd rather carry men than women. You gain time and—" "No, I wouldn't, I'd rather carry the "No, I wouldn't, I'd rather carry the lie church, an account of which was given some time ago in the BEE, was yesterday fenced in. This indicates that the No, I wouldn't. To father carry the ladies. Men are too bossy. It's just a spurt now and then with the ladies." While he was talking the stage was doing an active business in letting peo-ple in and out and making changes. Each of the driver's four limbs seemed trained to some special service and each claimants have strong faith in their cause. The lot is fifty feet front on Main on Pearl street. The enclosure is next to the old Catholic church, and by the fencing is made a part of the premises. The lot is valued at least at $10,000 cash, and trained to some special service, and each responded to calls almost automatically. if the title proves as now appears it is a rich find for the Catholic society. The responded to calls almost automatically, "People think we don't do much busi-ness, but they forget that our class of people"—and he spoke with some pride —"only ride three or four blocks. These are not the sort of people the horse cars carry that ride from Harlem to the Bat-tery for five cents. Now, a horse car matter probably will not be allowed to rest without a lawsuit, but Rev. Father McMenomy is advised by his attorneys that the claim is just and can be easily maintained.

The Motor Line.

can make four trips a day, and I make nine. You see they'll have to do pretty J. K. Graves left last evening for his well in four trips to equal me." home in Dubuque, having settled all arrangements in regard to the Manawa motor line.

was to be made was to be settled be-tween the Milwaukee and Rock Island will be in place this coming week.

A Sad Sight.

was in so dranken a condition that in attempting to board the dummy train at the broadway depot he fell, hurting his forehead quite badly, and causing the blood to flow freely. He was taken to the police station in the patrol wagon. He refused to give his name.

For Spirit Lake.

He says that the crossing question has been compromised and that the railroads have agreed to allow a grade crossing. It three pairs of horses a day, fresh every will be remembered that several of the three hours." "And how many hours do you work?" while the meeting of the railroad com-mission said they would fight a grade crossing to the end. Mr. Graves further stated that the only remaining trouble was that street on which the crossing was to be made was to be settled be "Twelve hours." 'It's easier then, on the horses?"

"What do you think of fifteen hours? That was what I filled for years on the horse cars?" "Then you like this better?"

"What is the average?" "A take in about $2.50 a trip."

much as I do the angry look she gives

"Not in point of work. Here we got it all to do. Then I had an iron brake. Here I use my arms and do 'the conduc-tor's work besides."

tor's work besides." But you have no conductor to obey." "Do you think the driver obeys the conductor? There's where your'e de-ceived by good clothes and shiny brass buttons. That's always the way. The driver, he's got to mind his time; that's all he's got to do. And if the conductor bangs him too long on the bell he can re-

From the Kitchen to the Police Court The arrest of Mrs. Harry Skelton ou a hangs him too long on the bell he can re port him." charge of vagrancy has caused no little "How can you tell whether all those sensation among the acquaintances of "How can you ten whether an those people inside are paying their fares?" "Oh, one kind of people you don't have to watch, of course, I know; but that makes no difference in the stage." the family. Her husband is now in Kearney, Neb., and they have lived here for several years. Her troubles are said to be due to a passion for stimulants, and You speak like an Englishman. be due to a passion for stimulants, and the officers felt that her conduct war-ranted them in making the arrest. There was much sympathy felt for her by many. Judge Aylesworth investigated the mat-ter, and knowing her history and her former good standing in social circles, concluded to let her go to some of her old friends, who will care for her until her husband can send for her. It is under-"No, I'm an Irishman, but my wife is English, and she's taken all the brogue out of me. There's a woman now getting out." He began to laugh softly. "She's forgotten something." "How can you tell?"

"I felt that the door was about to close. then it opened again. If you could see she's probably looking for her purse or husband can send for her. It is under-stood that he is still loyal to her and will do all in his power to see her placed in a right position before the world. her parasol. You see, I've been driving for some time." The stage bowled along lower Fifth avenue. There was a soft wind blowing and the leaves whispered above, and their shadows danced under the electric Yesterday afternoon an old man, white light beneath. "I'm always glad to get down here. I haired and graudfatherly in appearance, think this is the prettiest part of the whole route." Then the stage ran gayly through the park and claffered down to Bleecker street, where the sidewalk was lined with men and maids, told off as if about to enter the ark, and all waiting for chances at the top sents.

"Say, 1 Sam, whistle us 'Croppies he A large number of Council Blutfs peo-doon." "I don't know it, sah." "Oh, yes, you do. Give it to us and we'll give you $5." ple have gone and are going to Spirit Lake to witness the regatta. One special car finely decorated, is to start out this While Sam was considering the propo-sition a bystander explained to the reevening. Among those who are of the evening. Among those who are of the party starting to-night are Mr. and Mrs, E. H. Odell, Mr. and Mrs. Merriam, Miss Julia Officer, Miss Cory, Miss Zurmuch-len, Mrs. Erb, Misses Brown Farns-worth, Ballard, Walker, Oliver, Crane, Campbell, Mrs. and Miss Wies, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Shea, Fred Loomis, Dr. Sey-bert, John Piumer, Charles Haas and brother, Mr. Cooper, Mr. H. C. Cory,