SPIRIT LAKE, Ia., July 26.-[Special Telegram to the BEE. |-The lowa State Rowing association are holding their annual regatta In the presence of a large concourse of people. Owing to the limited capacity of the hotels, visitors are compelled to sleep in tents, hammocks and sleeping cars. The first race of the day, the junior double, was called at 3 o'clock. The entries were as follows: Mc-Gregor, Walters and Kramer: Cedar Rapids. Greene and Gates; Council Bluffs, Sadler and Livingston: Des Moines, Rawson and Walters, McGregor's position being the first and the balance in the order named above. The race was a pretty one from start to finish, McGregor leading before the first quarter. Council Bluffs showed up in fine shape, fully Connect Builts showed up in the shape, fully demonstrating their superiority as scallers. At the turning stake Council Bluffs was leading by at least five lengths and kept this position until the finish, McGregor coming in second, Cedar Rapids third, and Des Momes fourth. They made a bright and interesting class as they stood up before the court and looked as if they might be guilty of anything the magis-trate felt disposed to charge them with. "Well, gentlemen," began the court, and a unanimous smile rippled over the faces of the boys, "you are charged with gambling, playing with a poker, I believe the officers say, but I don't see how you could gamble with a poker. How about it, what do you do, Wolf?" and the court fastened its eagle eyes on the head of the class.

closed with the following resolution: Blesolved, by the city council of the city of Omaha, that the council without fear or favor wild do every act and thing necessary to carry out all the provisions of the charter for metropolitan cities and will co-operate and act in harmony by the said charter that acts within and in accordance with the pro-visions of the same for the good government of the city. But it is the intent and purpose of the council to oppose all false assumptions of authority whether assumed through ignor-ance, vanity or fanaticism or for political or partisan purposes. partisan purposes. This was adopted without much enthusiasm. Later, the subject came up again when Mr. Bedford offered the following resolution:

Whereas, For a considerable time past, serious differences have existed and do still exist between the city council and the board of fire and police commission as to the rules and regulations which shall govern the police department of the city, and

The present condition of affairs in this respect, places the present acting po-lice officers under great disadvantage, in the performance of their duties to the public as well, as in maintaining order and discipline in their own ranks, all of which is greatly detrimental and dangerous to the interests and welfare of the city. Therefore Resolved, With a view of speedily and properly settling the difficulty that a com-mitte of five from the council and the chairman of the following commit-tees, namely judiciary police, grades and grading and rules be and are hereby ap-pointed a special committee to solicit a conprioring and rules be and are nerely ap-pointed a special committee to solicit a con-ference with the said board of fire and police commissioners and at as early a day as prac-ticable to meet and agree upon and draft-such rules and regulations for the organiza-tion and government of the fire and police department as may be satisfactory to the con-faring bodies and for the bast interest of the begat interest as may be satisfactory to the con-fering bodies and for the best interest of the city, which rules and regulations so agreed upon shall be reported back to the council as soon as possible. Mr. Bedford said that it was just, fair and equitable that this, the first step should be taken to settle the difference which existed between the commission and the council. He thought the resolution should be adopted and that the council should act immediately. Mr. Hascall made a long speech in opposition to the resolution. Mr. Ford moved to lay the resolution on the table.

Mr. Bailey favored the reference of the resolution to the committee on judiciary. Mr. Ford withdrew his motion. Mr. Bedford wanted to know if a ref-resolution. The chair did not think it would.

Children feel the debility of the changing seasons, even more than adults, and they be come cross, peevish, and uncontrollable. The blood should be cleansed and the system invigorated by the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"Last Spring my two children were vaccinated. Soon after, they broke all out with run-ning sores, so dreadful I thought I should lose them. Hood's Sarsaparilla cured them completely; and they have been healthy ever since. I do feel that Hood's Sarsaparilla saved my children to me." MRS. C. L. THOMPSON, West Warren, Mass.

Purify the Blood

Hood's Sarsaparilla is characterized by three peculiarities : 1st, the combination of remedial agents; 2d, the proportion; 3d, the process of securing the active medicinal qualities. The result is a medicine of unusual strength, effecting cures hitherto unknown. Send for book containing additional evidence. "Hood's Sarsaparilla tones up my system, purifies my blood, sharpens my appetite, and seems to make me over." J. P. THOMPSON, Register of Deeds, Lowell, Mass.

Omaha Gun Club Shoot,

The Omaha Gun club held their regular weekly shoot for the club badge at their grounds, back of Shaw & Field's warehouse, yesterday afternoon. The attendance was unusually large, and the shooting splendid. As was observed in the BRE, it would take good shooting to beat. Following is the score, 25 blue rocks, 21 yards rise:

THE ELKS' NEW QUARTERS. To Be Fitted up Sumptuously and

Magnificently.

The directors of the Elks Club met last evening at the Millard hotel, and closed negotiations with Mr. Loomis, of Freeland, Loomis & Co. of Boston, who are putting up the new building for the Continental Clothing Company, corner of Fifteenth and Douglas streets, for their new club quarters. Mr. Loomis offered them the fourth floor of this new structure on a five years' lease which was accepted, and the Elks are now assured of admis-able club apartments. The elevator it has been arranged, will run until 13 o'clock at night throngu the week, and until 10 o'clock Sunday evenings, and the entire fourth floor will be elegantly and elaborately fitted up by Mr. Loomis according to plans and specifications to be submitted to him by the club. These new quarters will afford the club most magnificent apartments, including a lodge room 44x68 feet with the ceiling 17 feet high. Another largo apartment 74x66 feet, with a 13-foot ceiling, and still another 14x66 eet with an 11-foot ceiling, but all of which space will not supply any too much room. Some $6,000 or $8,000 will be expended in fitting up and appointing these rooms, and can be taken for granted that it will be done after the richest, most sumptuous and attractive fashion, making one of the most complete and elegant club rooms in the city of Omaha.

"Do you think there is any flaw in the law, Mr. Simeral?"

"Not that I can discover, and the best lawyers in the state are with me. If there was any flaw you can rest assured it would be discovered before this."

"I see that the enacting clause reads, 'Be it enacted by the legislature,' etc.usually it is by the senate and house, etc. Does that make any material difference? "No sir, I will cite you the constitu-tional provision. Article 3, section 10, of the constitution reads as, follows:

"In all bills passed by the legislature the enacting clause of a law shall be "Be it en-acted by the legislature of the state of Nebraska, et

"Now do you think that Governor Thayer whould sign a bill that had no enacting clause? Bo you think those opposed to the bill who have engaged the best attorneys in this state for consulta-tion would let such a flaw pass. It is sheer nonsense. 1.9.7

THE CITY COUNCIL

A Lively Series of Resolutions Affecting the Fire and Police Commission. At the meeting of the council last night, among other matters the subject of the relations existing between the fire and police commission was brought up in a series of resolutions, the first of which was introduced by Mr. Hascall, These set forth the fact that the council had passed for the government of the police force reasonable rules and regulations such as required by the charter ; that the same had been vetoed by the mayor after having been repudiated by the commission; that the latter had ap-pointed officers unknown to the people, and that in the furtherance of the schemo

Upon coming out Mrs. Baer noticed extremely distressed and weakened condition of the girl. The muffled cry of an infant, awakened the suspic-ions of Mrs Baer, and an ex-amination disclosed an infant wrapped closely in an old dress and thrown be hind the trunk. Medical assistance was summoned, but it was discovered that life was extinct in the child. Both mother and child were taken to the county poor house. The coroner, however, was not summoned until last evening, when he, in company with Dr. Keogh viewed the body of the child. A careful investigation showed no marks of violence on the body; the child had been a plump, healthy one, the lungs were in lated, showing that there had been life after the birth, but it had probably been extinguished by suffocation, the dress baying been wrapped very closely about the child's head. An inquest will be held as soon as the condition of the mother will permit it. This may not be very soon, however, as the lack of proper care before the birth is liable to retard the speedy recovery of the mother, and may make her case a serious one. Nothing can be ascertained as to who is the father of the child.

RUMORS OF MAYNE.

That He is Insolvent is a Mistake-The Sentiment Here.

The many friends of C. E. Mayne, the enterprising real estate man of this city, were startled during the past forty-eight hours by the rumor of his failure. Like all rumors, and especially those without any foundation, the report grew as it circulated. At last before the astonished people had fully recovered from the shock of the first report, a second came that Mr. Mayne would perhaps be able to pay 60 cents on the dollar. Then came the truth of the matter that the gentleman was solvent and would be able to pay has entire indebtedness. Mr. Frank pay his entire indebtedness. Mr. Frank Johnson, cashier of the Bank of Commerce, gives it as his opinion that Mr. Mayne financially is in ex-cellent condition and that upon his recovery from his present indisposition, will return to his valuable interests here.

Of whatever creditors Mr. Mayne has Mr. George Barker is perhaps the largest, and he expressed his unbounded faith in Mr. Mayne's solvency. While Mr. Barker thought that Mayne has has of late had too much "horse" on the brain for the good of prosperous business, yet he was satisfied that the report of his failure arose solely from the unfortunate neglect of small buls, which through pure carelessness on his part were permitted to be put off from day to day. The fact of the mat-ter was that Mr. Mayne needed real good rest. Mr. Barker was not losing any sleep over his claims against the absent real estate man.

Colonel S. S. Curtis and Dr. Mercer both expressed it as their opinion that Mayne was all night and the reports arose from the fact that Mayne had been disposing of some paper, and probably had not been as attentive as his large business would demand.

Mr. Mayne is expected nome August 1. He is now in Davenport, Ia.
