Lincoln Defeats Wichita By a Score of Three to Four-Hastings Wrests Another Victory From St. Joe.

Two Out of Three.

TOPEKA, Kan., July 28.- Special Telegram to the BEE. |-The Omahas took the third game of the series to-day from the Topeka sluggers by a score of 15 to 7, giving them two out of three. The battery work of Harper and Jantzen was notably excellent, while Sullivan, of the Topekas, was in bad form, and was finally compelled to retire in favor of Werden. The Omahas are hitting well and improving in their fielding. Following is Queer Accounting. OMAHA, Neb., July 28 .- To the Editor of the BEE: The reports of the directors of the different country schools show a varied and peculiar style of bookkeeping. That from Bob Taylor, director of District No. 53, is peculiarly noticeable. Only two items are mentioned, $1,300 for teachers and $1,500 for "other purposes." The taxpayers of 53 would like some explanation of the meaning of "other pur-poses." If it includes expenditures for fuel, rents, etc., why is it that the amounts are not placed opposite the proper places on the blanks furnished? "Other purposes" at a cost of $1,500 seems to be a rather costly article. Now I as a party interested, am in favor of itemized accounting, and would like to have some light on the subject.

A Short Description of Each of the New Officers Chosen.

NINETEEN BRAND NEW COPPERS.

In Athletic, Fine Looking Set of Mer -The Grand Army of the Republic Well Represented.

Below is a short sketch of each of the new men added to the police force. They are a manly lot of cops. The oldest man appointed is forty-two, the youngest twenty-three, the average age being thirty-one.

Frank Johnson is a strong, well-built fellow of thirty-four. He is a brick moulder by trade and has resided in Omaha two years. He served for some time in the army, and is strongly recommended by the officials with whom he served. Anthony Vanous was born twenty-three years ago in Cedar Rapids, Ia., and is of Bohemian blood. He is a promising young fellow, nearly six feet in his stockings and has been married about a year. One good feature of his appoint-ment is his thorough acquaintance with the Bohemian tongue, for which he will find continual use in his new position.

Patrick T. Havey is a native of Bridge-port, Conn., and has resided in Omaha nearly five years. He is about twentyseven years old, weighs one hundred and seventy pounds, and is the perfect picture of physical health. He is a leather fin-isher by trade, and has served as a noncommissioned officer in the regular army for five years.
Michael Kissane is a check clerk at the Union Pacific freight house. He is a native of the Emerald isle, but came to America in his early boyhood. He is twenty-nine years old, and live feet ten in height, and has lived in Omaha for tive years.

Willard E. Clark is also twenty-nine years old. During the past year he has been driving on the street car line to Hanscom park, and is a man of many friends. He is nearly six feet in height and is a machinist by trade.

George B. Curry is also a street car driver. He is a rugged at hletic fellow, six feet two and a half inches in height, and is about twenty-eight years old. It is a native of Munard county, Illinois. J. H. Savage is a native of Boston, and the storms of thirty-seven winters have rested lightly on his rotund figure. He looks almost strong enough to cope with his fellow townsman, John L. Sullivan, and is doubtless capable of rendering excellent service in his new office. A. F. Ward is a six-footer. He is a native of Wisconsin, having been born at St. Croix Falls twenty-seven years ago. Most of his life he has been a clerk, but at present he is doing police duty in South Omaha. George F. Mahood is a handsome, finely built fellow of thirty-five, and strange to say is a single man. He is bright, keen and ready, and in intelligence and appearance is a model for a metropolitan policeman. He served one term in the Fifteenth U.S. infantry and did gallant serve. It is to be hoped that in his new position he will meet the expectations of us friends.

William Cullen is a native of Ireland and is thirty-three years old. He, too, has done good service in the United States army, was a corporal in the in-fantry and also served in the quarter-master's department. He has been a resident of Omaha six years, and during that time has been employed in the boiler shops. He is temperate and frugal and has already accumulated a neat sum for a rainy day. Benjamin F. Walker, another six-footer, is from Indiana and is forty-one years old. He has served on the Omaha police force before and did good service, but was removed through political influence. He, too, has worn the blue and fought for his country's flag. At present he is deputy sheriff.

George W. Lowry served a year in the Sixty-ninth Illinois volunteers, being at the time only a boy of eighteen. He did gallant service, however, and received an honorable dismissal. He is forty-two years old, six feet high, and weighs about 200. He is a railroad conductor of long experience, and has been a resident of the Gate City four

George W. Raworth is forty, and previous to his election to the police force he has been a conductor on the Union Pacific railway. He is a man of fine physique, is well educated, and gives up his position as a conductor so as to be more at home with his family. Simpson Osborn will drive the patrol.

He has for four years been a driver for the Pacific express; he is a man well qualified for his new position, is intelligent, and understands thoroughly the care of horses. He is thirty-eight, and has lived in Omaha fourteen years. D. J. Ryan is a Canadian by birth. He came to Omaha at the age of fifteen and has lived here for twenty years. He is thoroughly acquainted with the city. He is over six feet high, and is of well built, compact frame. At present he is serv-ing the Union Pacific railway in the capacity of check clerk.

Edmund M. Scanlon is from the county of Kerry, Ireland. He won full title to American citizenship by five years' faith-ful service in the Fifth United States cavalry. He is a tailor by trade, is thirtyfour years old and a man of tine appear-

A. C. McCraeken was born in Ohlo about thirty years ago. He is a bright, intelligent, well educated gentleman. He was for three years deputy sheriff of West Side, Crawford county, Iowa. For three years he was a commercial traveler and since his residence in Omaha has been engaged in the real estate business. A more competent man could not be chosen for the place. William H. Shoop was in the army for five years, holding the position of ser-geant in company t of the Second infan-try, and has been most strongly recomwheaton. Shoop is a native of Indiana.

Jesse Newman is the only one of the new appointees of southern birth or negro blood. He is a fine-looking, athletic mulatto of 29 years. He is sober and in-dustrious and has accumulated some property. Among the men who recommended him were Peter Williams and Dr. M. O. Ricketts, which doubtless had much to do with his appointment. New-man has been a resident of Omaha for 12 years and is well acquainted with the city.

Packing House Matters. Early in the spring the BEE mentioned the fact that Mr. Myerson, formerly of Sheely & Co., and Mr. Buchanan, formerly manager at J. E. Boyd's packing house were considering the question of building a packing house at the stock yards. They have a last decided to build a house with a capacity of about 500 hogs per day, and the only question remaining to be settled is the exact location of the house. Messrs Myerson & Buchanan are anxious to have the house as near the yards as possible and have se-lected a spot near the brick yard, which will be a source of general satisfaction.

ENLARGING THE ARMOUR HOUSE.

A few additions, and improvements have been made in the Armour hog house, which, although only the beginning of a series of extensive additions, has increased the capacity of the house from about 600 hogs per day to 1,000 or 1,100. Armour is already engaged in figuring on plans for several new buildings. Contractors were at the yards a few days ago and estimated the cost of removing the high ground back of the present house at $26,000. The ground in question is only about two acres in extent.

Prospective Stars. The result of the recent meetings of the police and fire commissioners was announced yesterday afternoon in the ap pointment of the following officers: Frank Johnson, Patrick Havey, Antoin, Banouns, Michael Kissane, W. E. Clarks G. B. Curry, A. C. McCracken, John H. Savage, A. F. Ward, G. F. Mayhood, Wilnam Collins, B. F. Walker, G. W. Lowry, G. W. Rayworth, Simpson V. Osborne, D. J. Ryan, E. M. Scanlon, W. H. shoup, Jesse Newman, (colored.) These men are to report on the first of next month, when they will be assigned to duty.

The commission also had under consideration charges against a number of older officers, but had not decided upon the action they would take respecting many of the accused ones. This will probably be done to morrow. It is thought there will be some sensational events when discharges are made among the old men. The rumor is that prominent members of the council have issued the private manifesto to the boys that in case of discharge they must not give up their stars nor recognize the order of the commission. The new appointees will not be recognized by the council, and some of the members assert this openly. It has been observable that Captain Duff Green, the first appointed of the commission, has so far been ignored by the city fathers.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY. John Goodlet is Held Up By Two Highwaymen.

About 11:30 last night, as John Goodlet, jr., salesman for S. P. Morse & Co., was returning to his home at 2123 Poppleton avenue, he was suddenly confronted by two highwaymen near the corner of Twenty-second and Pierce streets. The locality is a lonely one after dark and affords many hiding places, and so sudden was the apperance of the robbers that the first intimation Mr. Goodlet had of their presence was the glittering barrel of a revolver protruded in his face. was in the hands of a white man. His confederate, a negro, held an overgrown Arkansas toothpick within easy reach of Mr. Goodlet's throat and sententiously remarked, "hands up." Goodlet promptly obeyed while the highwaymen went through his pockets, and relieved him of a gold watch and chain and some loose change. Mr. Goodlet very fortunately had but little money about him at the time, having taken the precaution earlier in the evening to send a large amount of money home by his brother. The robbers were much disgusted with the somewhat meager plunder, but let Mr. Goodlet pass on without further molestation. He promptly summoned the police, and John Longs a negregory corresponding with the Jones, a negro corresponding with the description of the colored highwaymen, was captured and lodged in the city jail. The other robber is still at large.

INNOCUOUS DESUETUDE.

The Heat of Summer Melting Down the Salvation Army. The adjunct of a cornet blower to the musical attractions of the Salvation army doesn't appear to have augmented that body to any material extent. Neither ha it added much to the attention which the salvationists create as they march through the streets of the city. Last night the army consisted of the leader of the band and the player on the loud-toned cornet, two sisters beating tambourines, the base drum artist and a companion and two privates of the rear rank. As a matter of fact, the soldiers have fallen off in numbers, people in carriages turn off on side streets to avoid the army and fewer persons line the route of march. It is a noticeable and peculiar fact that religious revivals do not thrive in warm weather. The salvation enthusiasts flour-ish best in cold weather. People's fears of a lurid and fathomless hereaftar cannot be materially worked upon with the thermometer caressing the nineties. It is in the deep and dreary midwinter, when the mercury is away down, that the revival does most flourish. Just why this should be so is perhaps due to the strange contradicions of which the human family is made Stonings, public insults, arrest and incarceration-all combined couldn't phaze the salvation army in the late days of the winter and the raw ones of succeeding spring. But now-now the salvation army is falling into innocuous

NARROW ESCAPE.

Collision Between a Fruit Car and an Express Truck. Travel is rather heavy nowadays on the Union Pacific and the overland train which leaves this city at 8:20 generally goes out in sections. Last night the train came into the depot on the second track north of the platform. The first track was reserved for section No. 1. When the train proper came in Mr. McKenna, in charge of the Pacific Express com-pany's business at the depot, had his men and trucks on hand, ready for the trans fer of parcels. One truck, in charge of William W. Thurston, was drawn up to the express car on the second track. He had a pile of goods to handle that stacked up, looked like a pyramid. Suddenly on track No. I a fruit car was backed down without any warning, as is always the custom. The conseas is always the custom. The consequence was that it attack the express truck, knocked over a lot of empty eigar boxes consigned to a party in Fremont and crushed Mr. Thurston against the car. He was taken from his perilous position in a few moments and removed to the express office, where it was found that he was seriously injured on the left side. The damage to the boxes amounted to a trifle, but the railroad men and others around were outspoken in their feelings towards the brakeman whose carelessness caused the collision and so seriously injured Mr. Thurston.

Athlectic Entertainment. There will be a grand pienic and athletic entertainment at Hascall's park, Sundayunder auspecies of the Thurston hose company, the proceeds of which are to be devoted to the payment of the company's expenses to the tournament, to be held in Leadville early in August. Among other sports there will be a 100 yard handicap foot race, open to the world, for a cash prize of $100, for which Bryan, Whitney, Campbell, Jeffreys, Brezee, Hughes, Kendall, Cunningham, Clark, Fletcher, Ashinger, will be convenient both to the yards and to the side tracks. The stock yards company will hold a meeting in a few days, at which they will decide as to whether they will be allowed to build on that ground or on the grounds immediately joining the Swift packing house. Although the capacity of their house will not be very large, it will not fall far should mark the occasion.

"CHARITIES AND CORRECTIONS." Encouraging Work of the Committee

prominent local movers in the Conference of Charities and Corrections, made calls on some leading Omahans. They say they were most cordially and practically received and their initiatory trip was most encouraging. It should be remembered that the funds the committee are collecting is not for the purpose of entertaining or supporting the delegates while here. They never accept any such kindnesses, and in fact passed a resolution to that effect at their last meeting. It is only for the purpose of paying for the exposition building during the week of session, also printing, stenographic work, publishing the proceedings, etc. The committee be-lieves that all Omaha should be alive to the importance of the gathering, and, as they expressed it, in the language of the day, "chip in." The following letter from Mrs. Dr. Dinsmoor explains itself: OMAHA, July 28.—All persons who are members of any charitable association are by wirtue of such relationship members of the "National conference of charities and corrections," which holds its annual session in Omaha, Neb., this year, commencing August 25 and ending on the 31st. Hotels and railroads make liberal terms. Let each society send one or more delegates, with a paper stating that fact. The conference will welcome ing that fact. The conference will welcome

Charities and Corrections. THE SOLDIERS REUNION.

Notes of the Progress Made in Its Preparation. At the last meeting of the council permission was given to grade the road leading to the ground on which the next encampment of the soldiers of this state is to be held. The intent of the managing committee is to make this the grandest success that has ever been attained in a reunion in this city.

"An elegant camp ground, in full view of the city, with abundant tentage and eating facilities have been provided. A full and enjoyable programme for ever day-naval engagements, camp fires and music at night. Every one who can pos-sibly do so should take this opportunity

This is perhaps the last reunion which will be held in this state outside of Grand Island, where, it is expected the rennions will hereafter take place annu-

The Fair and Quarantine. precautions to see that nothing will prevent the attendance of fine cattle from abroad. The amount of talk that has peen indulged in of late with reference to quarantine regulations would seem to operate against the attendance of a first states. But this matter has been so attended to by Mr. McShane that no trouble need be feared in the premises. He is now sending out his instructions which show that there are quarantine rules against stock from Kausas, Missouri, Iowa, Wyoming, Minnesota or Dakota. There is quarantine rule against cattle, however, from Illinois. Cattle coming from Iowa, Missouri and Minnesota will not be delayed on the east side of the river by the veterinarian at that point They will be shipped immediately to the fair grounds, where Dr. Ramaciotti, of this city, the deputy for the state livestock commission, will receive the neces-sary affidavits. This arrangement will be a source of great accommodation to

A Good Appointment. A special telegram from Washington announces the appointment of James B. Lazear, of Omaha, by the comptroller of the currency, as national bank inspector for Dakota. Mr. Lazear is now a partner of Mr. C. T. Taylor in the insurance business, but was formerly in the banking business at Brooklyn, N. Y., and later cashier in the First National bank at Central City. He comes from an old banking family, and is said to be an expert accountant and financier. The bankers of Omaha are unanimous in endorsing the appointment of Mr. Lazear as

Albright's Car. A representative party of Omaha's moneyed men, accepted W. G. Albright's invitation and started for Kearney last evening in the chartered Pullman car Ormas. It seems there is to be some real estate dealing in Kearney to-day, and that the thirty gentlemen leaving Omaha last night thought they would go up and look on. The party was a jolly one, and it is ten to one that the porter will not be called upon to "unfold the drapery of his berths on wheels" until Fremont is reached. There were some at the depot who said the party was not going up on real estate business, but only to enjoy a ride on the lakes of "Kil-Kearney" on Commodore Juan Boyle's steam yacht. If you suffer pricking pains on moving

The report that Manager Bryan, of the Des Moines base ball club, has been appointed manager of the Omaha club in place of Mr. Philbin, is a ridiculous mis-take. He was finally thrown into the ditch, and when they jumped on him and succeeded in getting; $45 all the money he had. Morres' clothes were badly torn, and he was badly used up in general. The assailants were white men. No ar-
