Huge Brick Blocks Blown to Atoms and Residences Scattered Like Houses Built of Cards-Another Death Reported.

Half the Town in Ruins.

DAVID CITY, Neb., July 30 .- [Special Telegram to the BEE. |-The most devastating and sweeping tornado that has ever visited this section struck our city last night about 6 o'clock, scattering death and destruction along its ragged, furious path. Everything is in a shocking state of demoralization, lumber, fragments of buildings, buggies, implements and general debris being scattered everywhere, blockading streets and thoroughfares. The day preceeding the storm was unusually hot and sultry the thermometer registering 106° with a clear sky until evening when a harmless looking cloud became visible in the southwest and another in the northeast. The wind came up rapidly. The two clouds met a short distance southwest of the city when the work of destruction and death began with a rapidity and furore that was sweepingly terrific. Houses were unroofed and blown to atoms, large brick blocks demolished, barns, sheds, trees uprooted and blown into fragments. Hail and flying timbers filled the air for about five minutes, when all was over and people were frantically rushing to and tro in search of the injured. A horse belonging to Mike Domuth was picked up, carried across the square, dashed against a building and instantly killed. A team of mules belonging to Hon. Matt Miller were blown from the square into Doties' pasement but were uninjured. Loomis Dexter was killed by falling brick and subsequently dug from the ruins of Paddock's block. He is a poor man and leaves a wife and three children. Those injured so far as can be learned are as fol-

ONCE MORE ON THE WARPATH

Schouvaloff's Promises Broken and Germany Again Rampant Against Russia.

THE TEUTONS FEEL OUTRAGED

Report That Boulanger is Intriguing With an Ambassador of the Czar and a Reign of Terror in France Predicted.

Germany and Russia. [Copyright 1887, by the N. Y. Associated Press] Benlin, July 30.—Instead of the Russian government ceasing war on the German commerce, as promised by Ambassador Schonoaloff, fresh measures paralyzing the trading relations are either impending or are already in operation. Under Schonoaloff's assurances the crusade against Russian stocks ceased. During the week Russian securities have been neither bought nor sold, but anti-Russian feeling again excited by the fresh display of hostility on the part of the St. Petersburg government will not now be allayed until some practical check is given to the systematic persecutions of Germans by Russians. M. DeGiers has informed the German ambassador after the ministerial council, that the law upon which the imperial ukase was based could not be modified nor its operation delayed. At the same time negotiations, the object of which was to obtain special exception in the cases of Princes Radziwell and Honeblohe and other German dignitaries, who are land owners in western Russia, met with a curt rejection. The St. Petersburg cabinet has succeeded in affronting and offending the high placed dignitaries and the whole German commercial world. Russian officialism shows a similar spirit to that of the ministry, an instance of which is the revival of the trontier law, which had long since lapsed, under which persons crossing the frontier are not permitted to carry German colnage of a denomination less than a thaler of gold money. Measure which the reichstand had under consideration to prevent German investments in Russian paper, and which were dropped under promise of the restoration of harmonious relations, are again under discussion, and it is expected that the result will be the absolute exclusion of all new Russian loans from the German markets. There is no whisper now of the czar meeting Emperor William. The former will go to Copenhagen August 1 without touching at a German port.

LEGISLATION STOPS STRIKES. The annual report of the elders of the Berlin mercantile community, referring to the extensive strikes and socialist demonstrations during the year 1886 in America, London, Beigium and France, draws the inferences that Germany was spared similar incl dents largely through the beneficial operation of government legislation.

BOULANGER ANDRUSSIA. The Deutches Tageblatt says it has information that General Boulanger is concerned in an intrigue with the Russian ambassador, and that the Russian government, being convinced that Boulanger will return to power, is hounding him on to take concerted action with Russia against Germany. The Tageblatt predicts an early state of anarchy in France, and the establishment of a reign of terror, when it is certain, says the paper. the gap in the Vosges will play the role of safety valve, for which emergency Germany must be ready. The latest advices from Alsace-Lorraine prove that the gap will be well watched during the coming maneuvers of the French troops.

Another Boulanger Proposition. PARIS, July 30.-Deputy Laur, who re cently stated that eighty-four generals had invited General Boulanger to head a coup d'etat, in favor of the restoration of the monarchy, now asserts that M. Dellaposse, deputy for Lacance, made similar overtures to General Boulanger.

A Reply to Fitzgerald.

CHICAGO, July 30.—The executive commit-tee of the Anti-Coercion association has written President Fitzgerald, of the Irish Naten President Fitzgerald, of the Irish National league, replying to the statement made in these despatches last night. They think his action is due to a misunderstanding of the aims and purposes of their association, which, they say, is not hostile to the league, and is ready to send its funds through the league treasurer. They claim the reason for the organization of the society was that the Chicago branch of the league had practically ceased to exist. Upon what grounds they base this statement they do not say.

ANOTHER BANK GOES UNDER. The Columbian of Philadelphia Makes

An Assignment.
PHILADELPHIA, July 30.—The Columbian bank, a state institution, closed its doors this morning, and a notice was posted stating that by order of the board of directors the bank would make an assignment for the benefit of creditors. All efforts to obtain benefit of creditors. All efforts to obtain any statement as to the amount of liabilities or assets proved futile. It is believed, however, that the failure is a complete one. President Bell, of the Farmers & Mechanics' bank, with whom the Columbian have kept accounts for several years, stated that the checks of the latter were dishonored because they had no money to their credit and furthermore had no securities on deposit. It is understood from reliable sources that the chief causes of the failure were the heavy advances made on consignments of the lives-Staynor party of New York and the advances made on consignments of merchandise shipped from South America and other points which were not taken up by the consignees, thus leaving the bank in a crippled condition. The failure caused some excitement in the city, although among financial men was not much of a surprise.

Among the bank's assets are bonds and stocks put down at $133,000, but their market value is very doubtful. The solicitor for the bank states that there are probably $100,000 of the funds tied up in merchandise which was bought in foreign countries on letters of credit issued by the Columbian and the bank paid drafts attached to bills of lading when presented. They were unable to realize on these goods and they are now in storage.

NEW YORK, July 30.—Henry N. Stayner, of the firm of H. S. Ives & Co., denies that any dealings with his firm embarrassed the Columbian bank, of Philadelphia, and he states that the bank is lindebted to his tirm in the sum of $67,000, he said he had made no such statement for publication. He would not, however, deny the fact outright. Ives any statement as to the amount of liabilities

IN THE LAST DITCH.

The Chicago Boudlers Are Holding a Final Consultation.

Chicago, July 30.—; pecial Telegram to the Bre.—The eleven boodlers who have been deserted by Klehm and allowed to fight their battle without their chief, are filled with consternation. All sorts of rumors were affoat concerning them to-day and some of them were on pretty good authority. There wasn't one of the thieves who have stood their trial to be seen around the board rooms to-day. There were rumbrs floating around although they were in the air. A man who looks like a ghost of the past, one of those who were the henchmen of the gang and knew their secrets and told them everyone to State's Attorney Grinnell, stole "They're all gone," he said, mournfully. "The boys are holding a meeting to-day," he continued, "but I don't exactly know where. It's in the house of some one of them, though." This information was generally understood to be correct though it could not be absolutely verified. It is the last rally the boodlers will make. To-day they are holding counsel among themselves as to whether it is best to carry the fight into the bitter end or to make a general surrender on Monday morning.

How Hanover Lost. NEW YORK, July 30 .- There was a sensa tion at Monmouth park to-day when the Dwyer Bro,'s great and hitherto invincible three-year-old, Hanover, was beaten, and over a good bit of ground, too, by D. D. Wither's Laggard. To be sure Hanover had to lug an extra import of fifteen pounds, but even at that he was a hot favorite. It seems to be the general opinion that Hanover has been overworked. There was a very large attendance and bright weather. Rain about noon took semething from the speed of the track.

As they swing into the stretch Bradford was in front, with Laggard at his heels and Hanover last. Passing the stand Bradford led by a length, while Hanover was a head in front of Laggard. All were going under a pull, but Hanover did not go easy, as usual, or pull as hard on his bit. On the lower turn, Bradford opened up a gap of two lengths between himself and Hanover, who was still but ahead in advance of Lagrard. Toward the far end of the back stretch Bradford came back a length. Laggard put on steam on the upper turn, and as he went by Hanover, the cry was heard "Hanover is beaten." On came Laggard, increasing his lead at every jump, and dashed past the judge's stand winner by eight lengths. Bradford was two lengths behind Hanover. Time—2:14.

Fined For Selling the Game. DENVER, Col., July 30 .- [Special Telegram to the BEE.]-The Topeka and the home club opened the third series of the Western League games at the new grounds, River Front Park, which are conceded to be the finest west of St. Louis. The audience numbered 3,000 people. On the part of the visitors the game was a slugging one from beginning to end. Their in and out fielding and battery was faultless with a single exception. The home club played the poorest game they have ever played in Denver. Their fielding and batting was careless. ver. Their fielding and batting was careless, their pitching miscrable. The only redeeming feature was Meyer's catching which was good. It seems to be the general impression that Sproat, to be revenged for the line imposed upon him while playing in the east, sold the game. At a meeting of the directors of the Denver club to-night Sproat was suspended and fined $350. Following is the KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 30 .- [Special relegram to the BEE.]-President Menges returned from Leavenworth this evening, where he went to arrange the transfer of the league records by ex-Secretary Murphy to Secretary Elliott, of St. Joseph. President Menges states that a meeting of the league will be held in this city Tuesday next, at which the eighth club probably will be discussed. It is considered a foregone conclusion, and this statement is endorsed by high authority, that Wichita will be dropped and the season completed with six clubs. Em-poris, Kan., has made application for mem-bership in the league, but it is not believed the place can support a western league team. If Wichita is dropped the schedule of games will be entirely rearranged. Kicked on the Umpire. Cricket.

The first important match of the season came off yesterday at the old base ball grounds between the Quidnuncs and the employes of the freight audit office of the B. & ployes of the freight audit office of the B. & M. railroad. The former having lost the toss, were sent to the bat by their opponents. After an inning of an hour they retired in a "meditative mood," with the prosperously small score of 35 runs to their credit, and the anticipation of defeat. The glorious uncertainty of cricket was never, however, more singularly exemplified than when "the hitherto invincible Randallites" failed to aggregate the necessary score to win. The batting of Mr. Jopp for the winning side, and the fielding of Messrs. Francis and Taaffe, helped to save the Quidnunes from certain defeat. The following is the score:

Base Ball To-day. Yesterday afternoon dodgers freely distributed about the streets announced the fact that a game of base ball would be played today at Association park betweed the Union Pacific club and the Omaha nine. The dodger was misleading. It should have stated that the Wichita club and the Omahas would that the Wichita club and the Omahas would cross bats. The Wichitas are a good combination and the game to-day should be a good one. In their recent games they have beaten Topeka two and Lincoin one, and they will no doubt give the Omahas a hard tussle to-day. The following are the players and their positions:

But Slight Changes in the Financial Situation in the West.

MONEY VERY EASY OF ACCESS

New York Exchange Quiet and Rather Dull-Dealings in Stocks Very Limited and an Unen-couraging Outlook.

Western Financial Matters. CHICAGO, July 80.—[Special Telegram to the Bee. |-There is very little change to note in local tinancial affairs, and the general situation is about the same as noted during the past two or three weeks. Within the past few days there has been a little more inquiry for money from the speculative and shipping branches of the produce trade, in anticipation of the delivery of property on August contracts, and borrowers experienced no difficulty whatever in obtaining all the favors asked for, as the liberal reduction in stocks of grain and provisions here during the past month or six weeks has materially increased the loaning facilities of banking insitutions. Merchants in the wholesale trade enlarged their demands to some extent, and the good paper presented was readily accepted. Lumbermen borrowed sparingly. Rather more money is being forwarded to the interior, especially to move wheat, corn and oats, but it is largely through commission houses. Live stock dealers have forwarded some money to the far west.

Rates of interest are a little more favorable to borrowers, yet the changes were slight. Call loans were readily accepted at 6 per cent, and time loans ranged at 6@8 per cent,

according to the amount of money required and the standing of the borrower. Money in eastern markets was easier early at 4@6 per cent, but near the close of the week more stringency prevailed, and rates were advanced to 7@8 per cent. Advices from abroad indicate an easy feeling in that quarter. Money is abundant, with little demand from legitimate sources, and rates of interest extremely low. New York exchange was quiet and rather dull throughout the week. The offerings were only slight and the demand was limited. Sales were made between banks at 40@60c discount per $1,000, and the market closed steady and at 50c discount. Foreign exchange was in moderate supply and the demand was only fair. The exports of breadstuffs, provisions, cotton and petroleum were not so large and the offerings of shippers' sixty-days documentary bills on London were lighter and sales were made at $4.805(@4.814, and closed steady at $4.81@

A decidedly weak and unsettled feeling was manifested in the New York stock market during the past week and a material reduction in prices for most of the leading properties was submitted to. Apparently there was more pressure to sell by large operators and a slight decrease in the earnings of some of the lines and reports of crop ings of some of the lines and reports of crop damage in some sections were the influences brought to bear in weakening the market. Outside parties, too, were not inclined to trade to any extent and foreign speculators were backward about taking hold. Advices from abroad indicated a decidedly easy feeling in American stocks and lower prices were reported. Some realizing by 'ton s,' who have been worried out, also added to the depression in a general way. The sales on the New York stock exchange for the week argregated 1,658,500 shares. Business on the Chicago board of trade stock exchange was exceedingly quiet during the past week. Operators were not inclined to do much trading in stocks and business in local securities was limited. The duliness and weakness manifested in the eastern stock markets had manifested in the eastern stock markets a considerable effect here, and there is little prospect of increased business before the early part of September. A few transactions were made in St. Paul to even up trades, but outside of this business was very limited. Petroleum attracted more than ordinary attention during the week just was very limited. Petroleum attracted more than ordinary attention during the week just closed, and trading was active at very irregular prices. The offerings were unusually heavy, while the demand was very active from "shorts," yet now sufficient to support the market. Prices declined 4@5c. The sales on the New York petroleum exchange aggregated 10,501,000 barrels.

A little more life has been manifested in produce circles during the past week, and merchants generally report an improved trade in all branches, with prospects favoring an active business during the balance of the summer and fali. New York grain is arriving rather freely, especially winter wheat and oats, and the shipping demand has been well maintained, and the property widely distributed. Prices are very low and have reached a point where the chances of losses by investment are small. Consequently there is considerable baying in a quiet way by merchants in all distributing markets, both foreign and domestic. The condition of growing and maturing crops has been regarded as an important factor in grain circles during the past week and indirectly had considerable influence on the course of prices. The movement of grain from Chicago shows a further reduction in stocks on hand, and shipments of provisions have been sufficiently large to further reduce the supplies of all kinds. Consequently money facilities for the moving of crops have been somewhat improved by the balance of money in favor of the west. Speculative trade shows a little more life, with outside parties giving longer deliveries the preference, due to the effect of the weather on crops in different sections.

There is some inclination by outside parties is trade in hog products for mid-winter delivery, but so far the business has been limited. The packing of the west for the summer season now shows a decrease as compared with the returns of last season to date, with prospects of a further decrease during the balance of the season.

CRIMINAL CARELESSNESS.

A Misplaced Switch Causes a Fatal Railroad Accident. CONCORD, N. H., July 80 .- A misplaced switch on the Concord railroad caused an accident this morning at Hooksett, by which two persons were killed and several wounded. The collision was between the up accommodation passenger train which was nine minutes late and a mixed train which was standing on a siding. The passenger train, because of a misplaced switch, ran onto the siding and crashed into the locomotive of the mixed train, wrecking both locomotives and baggage and mail cars of the passenger train. Many of the freight cars on the mixed train were also wrecked. The pecuntary damage will be heavy, Brakeman Fred Barney, of the Pittsfield train, was found under the cowcatcher of the engine of the passenger train. He was removed with difficulty and carried into the freight station near by, where after lingering in terrible agony for half an hour he died. Before he died he said his fellow brakeman, George Salter, had left the switch open. The express messenger, George French, was killed, and several trainmen and passengers badly bruised and cut. siding and crashed into the locomotive of
