CHARLES FRANCIS ADAMS says he can't see where there was any need of a Pacific railroad investigation.

GOVERNOR ADAMS of Colorado, does not manifest much respect for the general government.

If Chief Colorado is discrete he will be quiet. Stranger things than the killing of a few lawless Indians have happened in this country.

SENATOR CULLAM it is alleged has said that he will do all he can to repeal the Interstate Commerce law at the next session of Congress.

THE street car conductor has made his appearance in Minneapolis and has come to stay.

THERE should be some way to compel non-resident express wagon and omnibus owners to pay a liberal license during their residence when they compete with our resident expressmen who pay license all the year round.

PARSON NEWMAN, who disappeared from public view soon after the close of the last presidential campaign, has turned up again on the Pacific coast.

ACCORDING to McShane's investigation, Commissioner Timmo has been approached by a man who proposed to give him for him if he came down with the stamps, but Timmo fought shy of that bold, bad man.

LAST Thursday morning the New York Star indulged in the following comment: "Harmony is to be the order of the day among the creditors of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton Railroad."

VERY few people have any idea of the large amount of eastern capital that annually finds investment in the west.

THE fact that this country imported more iron and steel during the fiscal year ending on the 30th of last June than ever before in any one year, except 1880, is significant of the great demand which the west year has developed.

THE continued high price of beef is becoming a subject of general complaint in the east.

THE examination of teachers for state certificates will begin at Fremont on the 17th and at Aurora on the 28th.

THE Denver base ball club is tumbling in financial rapids.

THE corner-stone of the Larimer county house was laid at Fort Collins, Thursday.

THE police of Denver are in the midst of another campaign of reform.

AT the laying of the foundation stone of the Imperial Institute the Queen used glasses in public for the first time.

AT the recent garden party at Buckingham palace great enjoyment was expressed over the arrangements.

THE terminus of the Black Hill line, and Douglas, Wyo., the end of the main line, this city, as well as the country immediately contiguous, suffered a relapse.

The outbreak of the White river Utes, under the leadership of the troublesome old chief, Colorado, is giving Colorado an unwonted degree of excitement.

It is to be hoped the uprising will be quelled without bloodshed, and if it shall be the first thing that to be done should be the disposal of the troublesome chief, Colorado, where his appetite for mischief could find no opportunity for gratification.

price, but they could not do it alone. If there is public wrong that should be checked by law it is the crime of combinations to force fictitious prices upon the necessities of life.

This is an era of new parties. They are springing up like mushrooms all over the land, have their little birthday and disappear.

The council should lose no time in directing the clerk to procure the necessary blanks and books which will be required at an early day under the new election law for metropolitan cities.

The police very properly compel post-office loungers to "move on" during business hours. Now, if the postmaster would order his janitor to brush the cobwebs from the ceiling and uncover the dial of the alleged clock which hangs in front of the general delivery, the patrons of the office would feel under lasting obligations.

The Rev. Dr. Savidge has taken up the cases of the loafers. The able doctor, it is to be hoped, will not lose his grip on this subject until he has converted the last loafer in town and transformed him into a piece of industrious humanity.

THE OUTLOOK AT SIDNEY.

Better Now Than It Has Been For Year Before.

ITS NATURAL ADVANTAGES.

Buffalo Gap's Prospects Getting Brighter—Marble Recently Discovered There—The Business Boom at Fairbury.

Sidney's Success.

SIDNEY, Neb., August 14.—[Correspondence of the BEE.]—The Sidney of today is far different to that of the winters of 1870-77, when it was well known to the Black Hills, being the gateway to the vast mining interests of the north.

The products of the soil embrace all kinds of grain—vegetables, hay, millet in large quantities and of the best quality.

The population of the county is estimated at about 7,000 inhabitants, and a complete census would undoubtedly show many more.

The school system of the county is well organized and in charge of Mrs. Julia Smetton, an efficient and experienced educator.

Two prominent assailants of Blackstone in Valley county came together with a crash in North Loup last week.

Callaways have changed their tune perceptibly, if accounts voice the general opinion, on the James-Hayes tragedy.
