Theodore Bray's stallion, Dillard Alexander, is in from the Macedonia breeding farm. Regular communication of Bluff City lodge, No. 71, F. & A. M., this (Tuesday) evening, August 16. Visiting brethren cordially invited.

Figuring on this basis the city in this batch of judgments will be called on to pay in costs, in interest and in the difference between buying for cash or warrants, the snug little total of between six and seven thousand dollars. If it were possible for the city to get its finances down to a cash basis, or practically so, the city would now have between six and seven thousand dollars to put into other departments.

John Murphy was arrested yesterday for being ugly drunk. He was so obstinate about being searched that the officers had quite a hard time, being obliged to throw him onto the street and hold him. After being put into the steel cell he yelled so lustily that the hose was turned on him and a half hour's drenching was necessary before he would behave himself.

The upper floor is divided into rooms. The front one is a large sleeping room, with wardrobes, closets, wash bowls, and a bath room. A pot is to be put in, by which the fire hose can quickly slide down to the main floor. Back of the front room is another large room, which can be used by the firemen. In the rear of the second floor is room for feed and for grain boxes. In the details every possible convenience is to be provided, both for the comfort of the firemen and for the efficiency of the department.
