A WET DAY AT CAMP THAYER

The Rain On Sunday Dampens the Ardor of Officers, Soldiers and Visitors.

ARRIVAL OF SEVERAL COMPANIES

Original and Amended Articles of Incorporation Filed—A Remarkable Freak of Nature—Other Capital City News.

FROM THE BEE'S LINCOLN BUREAU. Rain fell upon Camp Thayer yesterday. It dampened mother earth, it dampened the ardor of the veterans, and it dampened the new and glittering uniforms of the officers in common with the uniforms of the high privates in the rear ranks. It was a damp time for dress parades, and soldiers with low-cut shoes. If old Colorado could have seen the militia that trod the streets of Lincoln yesterday going into camp he would have sworn by all the scalps at his belt that he never saw a war path in his life, and that he had been wholly engaged in agricultural pursuits since becoming a citizen of Colorado. Yesterday in the camp, like preceding days, was wholly given over to preparation. Each company as it arrives is furnished with the tents requisite for its accommodation, and the members are assigned to their location on the grounds, where they stand their tents for the week. Three tents are assigned for Governor Thayer and his staff, a like number for General Colby and staff and the colonel of each regiment has his offices headquarters. Among the early arrivals in the morning were General Colby, of Beatrice, and Colonel Phillips, of the same place, in command of the first regiment. The Beatrice company accompanied them and reached the grounds in advance of the impeding rain clouds. At noon company D of the second regiment, in command of Captain Bishop, arrived from Nebraska City. Major John C. Watson, judge advocate on the staff of the governor, accompanied in the blue and gold uniform, accompanied them, and the second regiment was adjourned until 2 o'clock.

A man named Whitman owed Thomas Gary a board bill and refused to pay it, whereupon the latter assaulted him. Whitman had Gary arrested for assault and battery.

The sewer pipes for the main sewer to the river have arrived, and the work of putting them in will soon be begun.

Mr. Schneider was fined $7.50 by Judge Reuter for disorderly conduct.

Dennis Hayes and Al. Hardly were assessed $7.50 each for using obscene language before ladies.

An infant daughter of A. J. Conghey, local editor of the Stockman, died at 9 o'clock Saturday evening, and will be buried at 10 o'clock Tuesday.

Jack Yates, foreman at Hammond's packing house, is the happy father of a baby girl.

Mr. J. H. Abshire and daughter, of Chillicothe, Ia., are visiting the family of G. M. Hunt.

The mayor of the city, Colonel Savage, has returned from the west.

A. Kilmer, John Gorman and J. Young made a trip to the Valley Sunday and returned with about sixty "snaps" and other small game.

Mr. Dewitt, manager of the Star Union Lumber company, returned from Chicago where he attended the funeral of his mother.

D. Brockway and George Johnson, stock dealers, and Jacob Latz, a dry goods merchant, of Griswold, Ia., were in the city looking up locations for business houses.

Albright station will have a flour mill in the near future.

ALLEGED GOLD DISCOVERY.

Alderman Smith has a sample of gravel taken from a well at a depth of 170 feet, which, on being inspected with a microscope, appears to be rich with an incrustation of a metal that closely resembles flake gold. The particles were examined by an old prospector, who declared that the metal was gold, and from the sample picked up, he was of the opinion that there was a deposit of large quantities not far distant. Mr. Smith will send the "dirt" to Creighton college and have it analyzed, and if his expectations are realized, South Omaha will have a boom equal to the Black Hills, Pike's Peak and other western bonanzas. After viewing the pieces of gravel through a glass, the reporter called on several old citizens, but could not learn of gold ever having been found, though some years ago it was asserted that there was a rich deposit close to Omaha.

CAPITAL STOCK INCREASED.

The Omaha & Council Bluffs Bridge company has filed its stipulation of articles of incorporation by which the capital stock is increased from $500,000 to $750,000. The amending article relative to capital stock, as passed by unanimous vote of the stockholders, is as follows:

The amount of capital stock of the Omaha & Council Bluffs Railway and Bridge company, of Omaha, Neb., shall be and the same is hereby increased to $750,000, of which $100 each, being the amount necessary to construct said railroad and bridge, and the authorized capital stock of said company, as to which the capital stock may be increased to $750,000, of which $100 each, 10 per cent of all stock subscribed to be paid at the date of subscriptions and the remainder at such time and on such conditions as ordered by the board of directors.

This amended article and announcement of increase of stock is signed by J. H. Williams, P. F. Murphy, George E. Wright and T. J. Evans.

THE MAKING OF MEDICINE.

Articles of incorporation of the Interstate Medicine company were also yesterday entered on record at the secretary's office. The nature of the business of the company is the manufacture and sale of medicines. The company is located at Beatrice, Neb. The capital stock is fixed at $50,000, divided into 500 shares of $100 each.

Circumstances go to show that Bennett will have a difficult time in escaping prison.

KEEPING CROWDS FROM FIRES.

Last evening Chief Seavey issued orders to his men that immediately after the alarm of fire is turned in from the business center the officer in charge of the patrol wagon and a detail of police with respect to the fire as rapidly as possible, it will be the duty of the police to stop all vehicles in the vicinity of the fire to keep the crowd back at such a distance that the fire will in no way be interfered with, and to render every assistance to the firemen.

COMING HOME TO DIE.

At a period of life when budding womanhood requires all her strength to meet the demands nature makes upon it, many a young woman returns home from the severe mental strain of school with a broken down constitution, and her functions disarranged, to go to an early grave. If she had been wisely counseled and given the benefit of Dr. Pierce's "avorite Prescription" her bodily development might have kept pace with her mental growth, and health and beauty would not have given way to decline and death.

Jake Gibson, of Tallahassee, was sitting in the forks of an old oak tree eating a watermelon, when a thunder cloud came up. Lightning struck the tree, split it into fragments, and knocked Jake to the ground. Glenn, his son, a colored boy, and others, rushed up, poured water in his face, and began to rub him. They were about to give up hope of reviving him, when Jake rose, looked around half dazed, and inquired, "Uncle Glenn, what's my watermelon?"

Electric Lustre Starch is the best laundry starch in the world.

The first source of pleasure was provided by the police. The earliest excursionist to reach the wharf at the foot of Davenport streets found a squad of them there. They stood on the bank looking as darkly mysterious as possible and addressing acquaintances in the gathering crowd in sad and pitiful tones as though to say, "Joe, for Jimmie or Jack, old boy, I'll be mighty regretful to lay the hand of the law on you but it's me, your old friend, that'll do it sure, alack, if you madly persist in jimmie's gang." The peepers stood there getting the laugh out of the boat loader up and as the voyage passed them to the dock in a devil-may-care fashion that ought to have made the law feel mighty small potatoes.

One or two really respectable, very nice gentlemen, weakened at the sight of the bobbies and stood on the bank, not afar off, guessing at consequences and pretending that they merely happened there, sort of en passant as it were. "What is this, Billy?" asked one of these in an honest tone of voice, addressing a passenger on the upper deck.

"It's Sunday school picnic, Frankie," shouted back Billy, "don't you see our escort of police to keep off the hoodlums?" But when the bells rang and with a great churning of muddy water the vessel cast off, even the timid ones grew firm and scrambled aboard.

For a long time all interest centered in the performance of the police, and as the boat swung free into the current a cheer was given over on warrants sworn out by Chief Seavey of the following parties: James Lindsay, Arthur Rothery, Herib Rothery, Henry Parrish, Lon George, J. McHenry Johnson, J. G. Conrad and Conrad Koehler, captain of the J. M. Abbott. Several other warrants are out, but the parties charged in them have not as yet been arrested. Bail was furnished for those arrested in the sum of $250 each, except in the case of Lindsay, who was held for $1,500, and the prisoners were discharged. The hearing for all was fixed for September 13. Lindsay is held as the principal in the affair and the rest as aiding and abetting. Clarke kept from police reach all day yesterday and quickly left for New York to get bail. The law provides that those arrested are to be tried in sections 7 and 8 of the penal code as follows:

Section 7.—If any person shall actually engage as a principal in any premeditated fight or contention, commonly called a prize fight, every person so offending shall be imprisoned for not less than ten years or more than three months, and pay the costs of prosecution.

Section 8.—If any person shall engage, for the purpose of exciting or assisting any such fight or contention, as a spectator, or as a participant, or as an aider and abettor, every person so offending shall, on conviction, be imprisoned for not less than five dollars nor more than one year, and pay the costs of trial, the jail for not less than ten days, nor more than three months, and pay the cost of prosecution.

Whether the warrants will hold is questionable, as the fight is said to have occurred beyond the jurisdiction of Douglass county. Seavey says he is determined to settle the question and fix the location if it require actual surveys to this end.

A visit to the several sporting resorts last night found many who participated in the fight as lookers-on and a few of those arrested. The air was blue with imprecations of the whole police force, Chief Seavey coming in for a double share of abuse. Suits for large sums against the city for the action of the police are threatened by all of the arrested parties. Arrangements are on foot to bring towards an excursion on next Sunday week in the Abbott to the spot of the recent fight for the exhibition of alleged athletic sports.
