CHICAGO PRODUCE MARKET. CHICAGO, August 31.-|Special Telegram to the BEE. |- The grain markets were firm and steady to-day. Slightly improved prices and increased speculative business in wheat is reported, no especial change in the volume of trade in corn being observable. The bank rupt stock of California wheat in Liverpool. or as much of it as is liable to be forced on the market, has been greedily snapped up by English bargain hunters, who are unable to get as much of wonderfully cheap property as they wanted. Decided changes in senti ment followed and market cables, private and public, were more reassuring than they have been for weeks. "All artificial causes of depression may now be considered as practically eliminated from the situation and the markets of the world are on a healthy basis at last," was the observation of one of the leading grain merchants of Chicago this morning; and the great majority of the trade seem to have arrived at a similar conclusion. There is no violent upheaval of speculation but the increase in general speculative inquiry is manifest and this gradual revival of cannot be interpreted otherwise than a most healthful sign. The closing prices for two days do not show any very important enhancement in values, but the average of prices to day was materially higher than vesterday, and the tone was better all around. The official announcement that the proprietors of two elevators in which was stored about 375,000 bushels of so-called "stump tail" wheat, had been moved as a result of official inquiry into its condition , to buy in reficial inquiry into its condition, to buy in receipts and agree to ship out grain, produced no effect because such action had been anticipated and its effect in a sense discounted. The trade will be heartily glad that this bugbear has been at length removed. First trades in September wheat were on a basis of 68%c. The highest quotation was 68%c. Section was 68%c, and the close was 68%c. October opened at 70%c, ranged at 70%c low, and 70%@70%c high, closing at 70%c. December opened at 73%c, sold up to 73%@73%c and closed at 73%c, sold up to 73%@73%c and closed at 73%c, october opened at 73%c, sold up to 73%@73%c and closed at 73%c, sold up to 73%c and closed at 73%c and nental 234, Western Union 234, Louisville & Nashville 216, Union Pacific 216, Reading 11/4, Northwestern 15/4, St. Paul 11/4 and New England 1% per cent. Chicago houses transacted a better business but their trading was of a mixed character. The total sales were 426,309 shares, against 209,800 shares

Corn was steady to-day, with fair speculative inquiry very evenly distributed over the list of deliveries noted. There was also rather free buying to till outstanding contracts, speculative short sellers, as a rule, not being entirely satisfied with the outlook. A satisfactory shipping demand is reported, lake engagements for the day being 252,000 bushels, and receipts continue liberal, yesterday's arrivals footing up 395,000 bushels, and to-day's rereipts being estimated at 465 cars. May corn opened at 443,443,45c, ranged from that figure to 454,4643,5c, and closed at 45c. October opened at 413,4443,5c. September opened at 403,5c. ranged at 404,443,6c. and closed at 403,5c. ranged at 403,6c. and closed at 403,5c. and closed at 403,5c.

In the speculative market for oats to-day In the speculative market for oats to-day there was not much new business, most of it, as for several days past, being in the way of changes. September contracts were transferred to October at 1@1% of difference, and the premium on May over September was 6% c. The duliness and weakness in cash property had a depressing effect upon futures and prices for October and November suffered a break of % % 4c. May oats were only % lower at the close, but a generally heavy tone prevailed on the whole line.

In provisions yesterday the revival of in-terest was continued. In a general way more activity was displayed and the market more activity was displayed and the market possessed attractive forces to a sufficient extent to induce a comparatively good attendance. Traders were disposed to watch the trade closely and the feeling was again stronger, an advance of 7½c being established on January pork, 2½@c on short ribs. January, the leading winter future, closed at $12.40 for pork, $6.52½ for lard and $6.37½ for short ribs, For September lard sold at $0.35@6.40@6.42½ on the split and short ribs at $7.97½@8.00, closing at $6.40@6.42½ and $8.00 respectively. September lard was chauged over to October at a premium of about 5c and September short ribs at a premium of 2½@7½c. November and December lard sold at prices closely approximating the market for October, which ranged at $6.42½@6.47½.

CHICAGO, August 31.- | Special Telegram to the BEE. J-CATTLE-Receipts of native cattle to-day were much larger than was generally expected, in fact the week's run is a surprise to most people. It can be accounted for partly on account of the sharp advance that has taken place in the past five or six weeks, but one of the main reasons for the big run this week is the fact that many cattle are compelled to be marketed on September contracts. There are some sections where feeders are still compelled to haul water for miles and of course men in that fix who have contracted their cattle for September 1 will let them go as soon as possible. The market to-day was slow and weaker and prices were 10c lower than yesterday and 10@ 15c lower than on Monday, the decline being on nearly all kinds, A good many coarse and thin cattle were unsold at a late hour. Prices for cattle are not much different from one week ago to-day. There was a comparatively light demand for neavy cattle yesterday and light demand for heavy cattle yesterday and to-day. As supplies have been large and the foreign market has gone off considerably, buyers this week have been more easily supplied than for several days past. Shippers and exporters bought quite lightly to-day. A Pennsylvania butcher bought 1,179-lb grassers at $3.10 and paid $5.60 for some choice 1,200-lb high grade steers. Shippers paid $3,25@3,75 for common 1,130 to 1,224-lb steers. $3.40@4,30 for $83 to 1,830-lb cattle, with 1,146 to 1,391-lb steers at $4.30@4,45 hnd $5.15@5,25 for three cars of fine 1,588 to 1,630-lb cattle. Dressed beef men paid $2,25@5,00 for thin 1,000-lb steers to choice 1,472-lb averages. They got some coarse 1,436-lb for thin 1,000-lb steers to choice 1,472-lb averages. They got some coarse 1,426-lb steers at $3.70 and paid $4.80 for some fine 1,208-lb Nebraska steers, also single fancy 1,850-lb steers at $5.50. Shipping steers, 1,350 to 1,500 lbs, $4.35(25.15; 1,200 to 1,550 lbs, $3.50(26.60; 950 to 1,200 lbs, $3.00(26.30). Stockers and feeders lower, at $1.65(25.10; cows. bulls and mixed, $1.25(26.30); bulk, $2.00 (26.40, Texas steers, $2.45(26.30). Western rangers were 10c lower. Saies: 245 Wyoming, 1,117 lbs, $3.40; 105 Wyoming Texans, 1,052 lbs, $3.40; 87 Wyoming Texans, 937 lbs, $3.10; 57 Wyoming, 1,183 lbs, $3.00; 195 Wyoming, 1,146 lbs, $2.90; 131 Wyoming, 1,182 lbs, $3.00; 231 Wyoming Texans, 958 lbs, $3.00. a good 5c, making a decline since Monday of 10 to 15c, yet a single load sold to-day for the highest price this week, namely, at $5.50. Outside the above, only a few lots of choice made $5.40, and at the close the best on the market would not bring over $5.35, with prime packers as low as $5.15@5.29, and common at $4.00 @5.05.1Light sorts sold down to $5.15@5.20 for corn-fed stock, $4.80@5.05 for grassers.

FINANCIAL

NEW YORK, August 31 .- [Special Telegram to the BEE. |-STOCKS-There was a decided change for the better in the financial outlook. Innendoes regarding the standing of certain large speculators have subsided, they having obtained substantial assistance that placed them in such shape that the bears were afraid to continue their raids. Liquidation has been so heavy that nearly all the weaklings have been shaken out and the short interest largely increased. Strong parties took hold of the market, and scared the shorts into covering, and the result was that in a majority of the stocks sharp rallies accompanied by active trading resulted, and advances of 163 points were recorded. The uncertainty regarding the position of Elijah Smith and the Transcontinental railroad company has been removed by the accession of $5,000,000 foreign capital. The syndicate will take up $3,000,000 Oregon Navigation bonds more than agreed upon. The Oregon Transcontinental company has sold part of its holdings of Oregon Navigation through Villard to a Boston syndicate for $6,000,000. Besides the Oregon Navigation bonds held by the Oregon Transcontinental have also been sold to the same syndicate. The Oregon Transcontinental company still has about $9,000,000 Oregon Navigation stock left. Manhatton opened 1% per cent higher, but broke to 93%, and railled to 90 by 2 o'clock. Gould is quoted as saying that he regarded Manhattan as among the most desirable of his many investments, and that the road will sooner or later have to provide for the carrying of 1,000,000 passengers daily, and that its debt has been funded into 5 per cent. bonds, and all taken by strong capitalists. Russell Sage said: "I do not believe that bargain hunters will find any better opportunity for picking up good stock than the present time offers. I was a large buyer of Manhattan, and I believe the stock is one of the best among my securities. I believe the period of tight money has passed, and from this time on funds will be cheap, particularly for the reason that banks, which have been straining themselves to carry individual operators, have now been relieved through the suspension or failures of the people. The result will most naturally benefit many. Everything points to better times, and there is no reason for such raids as yesterday." J. S. Morgan and Drexel, Morgan & Co., are said to have arranged with Garrett for a blanket mortgage to cover all outstanding mortgages of the Baltimore & Ohio. This will release the Baltimore & Ohio telegraph system, which Gould has heretofore been unable to secure owing to its being included in the old mortgage, but which will, in all probability, be secured by him. The Baltimore and Ohio express has also been released and sold to the United States Express company for $2,500,000 $1,000,000 in cash, and $1,500,000 in United States Express stock. The purchase of the bonds by the treasury attracted less attention than usual; $3,250,000 were offered at $1.07% to $1.00-98, but only $407,700 were accepted at $1.08 15-16 to $1.09. Small purchases rather disappointed the bulls, but had no material effect on the market. A firmer feeling con-tinued until nearly the close, when last sales in the active stocks were at almost out side figures, and recorded net advances ex tending from ¾ to 5% per cent, Oregon Nav igation being in the lead. Northern Pacific preferred gained 2%. Oregon Transconti-
