

IMPORTANT CHINESE VISIT.

Arrival of a Notable Diplomatic Party Yesterday Morning.

CHINA TO BE AMERICANIZED.

Opening up the Flowery Kingdom to United States Systems—Interviews on the Subject—A Russian Count.

The overland train which arrived here yesterday at 7:50 a. m. had among its passengers a very distinguished party, consisting of Ma Kie Chang, imperial envoy from the government of China; his secretaries Li Kia Tu and Chu Kai Ta; Count E. C. de Metkiewitz and his secretaries S. A. Stern, E. T. Barberie and Frank B. Rae. They occupied the drawing room Kamella, and are on their way directly to conclude the agreement made by a Philadelphia syndicate and the government of China relative to forming a national bank there on the American plan, opening up railroads, establishing telephones and introducing other American features hitherto ignored and unknown in China.

Count de Metkiewitz is a tall, wiry looking man about forty-five years of age. He wears his whiskers, which are of a decided red color, in the regular English style and looks more like a gentleman of that nationality than a Russian. He speaks with a decided foreign accent, dresses very plainly, is conversant with the languages and customs of nearly every country under the sun, for he has been a great traveler and his line may be called quite a remarkable character.

REUNION PRECAUTIONS. A Demand For Accommodations For the Visiting Legions. To All Ex-Soldiers of Nebraska: We hope that each and every one will try and meet at the coming reunion at Omaha, and will try to be in camp on Tuesday, 6th. Comrades, let us try and get as many in line as possible. We wish to make arrangements for a grand old reunion, of all Nebraska men, at as early a day as possible. Comrades, you all want a few days' rest and recreation, and now is the time to take it. Farmers, turn your horses into the pasture. Mechanics and merchants shut up your shops. Lawyers and agents, give your clients a few days' rest, leave all cares at home and come up to the reunion and talk over old times and compare notes with the "old boys" and we will guarantee that you will never miss the time, but it will be a time ever to be remembered by you. Bring your wives and families with you and let us have a camp meeting of our own. The J. M. Jones, President.

Sec. Nebraska Soldiers' Association. State papers please copy. The Custer Post Resolutions. "I notice," said a veteran yesterday, "that the Herald has gone wild over a resolution adopted on Wednesday last, and published in the Bee last evening, suggesting that citizens in their decorations hang no portraits other than those of men who had led the soldiers to victory. The resolutions were intended to anticipate an attempt to place upon the triumphal arch at Sixteenth and Farnam, a portrait of President Cleveland. The old soldiers respect the office but have little respect for the man who let substitute for the poor house, and now, if he will not be over-riden by that of the country, would have humiliated the veterans by returning to the late rebels the flags which had been wrested from them in their rebellion. They would not have marched under such an arch."

Situations Secured. Valentino's Shorthand Institute never fails to secure situations for its graduates. Ask or send for circulars, 1515 Dodge st., Omaha. THE PUMBER'S DIAMOND. How He Lost a $150 Brilliant in a Fight. C. C. Deifel has been in the employ of C. J. Collins, plumber, at 1324 North Seventeenth street, at $1 a day. Yesterday while engaged with a couple of other hands putting in the water pipes at the exhibition building, Collins found fault with Deifel's work and discharged him. Deifel demanded his pay, and Collins proffered him a ten dollar bill, asking first, however, for a receipt in full. This Deifel refused to do, claiming that Collins owed him for four days at $1 per day. The men became involved in a heated controversy, and finally clinched, but separated after a brief struggle. Deifel then appealed to the other workmen to stop work until he was paid what was due him. This they declined to do, stating that such a procedure was at variance with the constitution of the union, and that he would have to try his case before President Conway of the Plumbers' association. Deifel then turned to Collins and said, "damn you, I'll get my money in spite of you," and walking out of the building proceeded to the police station, where he was inquiring of one of the official attaches how to go about it to get his wages. At this juncture Collins came in and calling to "Police Captain Corrick" said: "There's the man who has got my pin arrested him. Deifel was at once arrested, searched and locked up. Then Collins went before the county attorney and made a complaint, charging Deifel with robbery. The case is now pending in court, taken place in the exhibition building. Deifel had torn a $150 diamond pin from his shirt front. The pin was not found upon Deifel, who claimed the right to immediate trial, and was accordingly arraigned before the court and pleaded not guilty. Both men made their statement, and the judge and Attorney Simeral being of the opinion that Collins had not made out a case, Deifel was discharged. Deifel is now at the court saying that he would proceed to the nearest justice and sue Collins for his back pay.

A Costly Bag of Corn. George Metcalf, a Union Pacific baggage smasher, was arrested yesterday, for beating C. O. Fife, a pop corn man. Metcalf claimed that he gave Fife a $5 gold piece in payment for a bag of corn and Fife insisted that it was a nickel. Being unable to get his change, he concluded to take it out of Fife's hide, which he did after the most scientific fashion, hitting his eyes, breaking his nose and dislodging a couple of his incisors. The court held that while the provocation was great, Metcalf had no right to take the law and Fife at the same time in his own hands, and fined him $7 and costs.

Dress Cutting School, 1013 Howard. Lessons given in scientific dress cutting free of charge for a few days. Visitors invited. Remarkable Recovery. Some days ago a boy named Joseph W. Adair attempted to jump on a dummy train just after it crossed the bridge. The boy was thrown against a pile of timbers lying along the side of the track and a splinter entered his forehead to the depth of two inches. It was thought impossible that the boy should live and even his attending physician had little faith in his recovery. He was taken to St. Joseph's hospital at the time and, strange to say, he was pronounced nearly well and removed to his home, corner of Eighth and Cassel streets yesterday.

CITY RAILWAYS.

Some of the Latest Moves by the Local Carriers.

The City Horse railway company yesterday extended the Sixteenth street track north from Izard to Nicholas. The intention is to run the line along the latter thoroughfare to connect with the line on the latter thoroughfare with the rest of the track near Stephenson's stable.

RAILROAD MATTERS. C. N. Fogg has been appointed claim agent of the B. & M. His place in the loss and damage department has been filled by E. M. Reed. The Union Pacific will run a half-hourly train to the grounds every day during the reunion, leaving Tenth street crossing and stopping at several cross streets.

The Belt Line will run hourly trains from the depot, Webster and Fifteenth, to the fair grounds and return all next week. Harold Robinson, a clerk of the Union Pacific supply department, has assumed a new position in the office of the general storekeeper of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe, at Topeka.

An Adventure With a Footpad. And once more the festive footpad comes to the front. Last night as Isaac M. Guill, proprietor of the House of Lords saloon, was returning from a drive with a lady friend on Sherman avenue, he was attacked by a highwayman. Just opposite the old Athletic park a man caught Guill's horse by the hind and pushed him back on his haunches. Simultaneously with this move, Guill, who was unarmed, seized the whip, and as the footpad, still clinging to the horse with his left hand, leaned back and thrust a revolver in the face of the occupants of the buggy with his right, struck him a furious blow across the face with the lash. The man, with an exclamation of pain, put the hand holding the revolver to his face as if to ward off further injury, but still hung on to the horse. Realizing that he had a desperate customer to deal with, Mr. Guill leaned forward and slashed him again and again over the head. The horse becoming frightened reared and plunged, and finally broke loose from the road agent, and ran at a breakneck speed up the avenue, leaving the would-be robber sprawling at the side of the road.

A Sorrowing Widow. Mrs. Masterson, widow of the engineer who was killed at the washout near Denver a few days ago, and her infant child passed eastward through this city Thursday night with the body of the husband and father. This is a particularly sad case. The deceased was killed while making a run" to oblige a friend. He had just purchased a home in Sterling, Colo., and there seemed to be a bright future for him. His body was found imbedded in the sand two miles below the bridge where the engine was wrecked. The other family of the accident was a young boy of industrious and honorable parents whom a tramp had induced to run away from home.
