EDUCATIONAL UNIFICATION. The Labors of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Nebraska.

PROSPEROUS INSTITUTIONS. York the First on Record - Bishop Fowler's Visit - The University at Lincoln - Good Work for Education.

Perhaps in no way can the immense strides that Nebraska has taken in the last decade be shown than by a resume of the educational work of the different denominations during that time.

character and diligent labor, is making larger percentage of university students than could be secured in any other way.

Another college has been chartered and a good beginning made at Central City, on the Union Pacific railway.

and as soon as its work and aims are fully understood, men all over the state will give of their means to sustain and develop an institution that is representative of the church at the seat of government.

The main building and the grounds are gift from the citizens of Lincoln, not to Lincoln, but to the great Methodist family of the state first, and then to all denominations who desire to educate their children at the university.

Other minor misunderstandings should be forgotten, and a rational effort should go up from all the churches and all the friends of education, to help on the good work for the benefit of this and the coming generations.

The trustees of the university will be held by Rev. C. F. Creighton, D. D., a man every way fitted by character, ability and education for such a position.

He is an earnest, conscientious, aggressive man who will honor the position, and make the university an honor to the church.

SIGHT SEEING IN LONDON. A Bee Correspondent's Visit to the Metropolis of the World.

RECEPTION IN FASHION - Buffalo Bill's Shed - The American Exhibit - Franz Soppel's Letter.

LONDON, August 30. - [Correspondence of the BEE.] - A short ride on the Great Western railway from Oxford, brought us to what we had been looking forward to as one of the most important points of our tour, the city of London.

As the wondrous of London are not every to be enumerated in so short a letter as this, I shall not hesitate to leave the city to your imagination and good judgment.

with the exhibition, is Buffalo Bill's shed, that show which has met with wonderful success in London, and may be said to have achieved world-wide renown.

Among various other curiosities from the wild and woolly west, was one tent labelled "Nebraska cowboys." It is needless to say that I made my way through the crowd and snatched a peep at the body by jumping over the ropes into the tent.
