Overdressed Ignoramus. The Peculiar Persons Who Assemble at a Wagner Concert. An Able Sermon in Figures. Deserted by Her Escort—Overdressed Ignoramus—Holding a Bustle—An Embarrassed Man—Clara Belle's Letter.

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—(Correspondence of the Bee.)—Wise Father Hewitt, otherwise known as the mayor, has permitted the opening of another music-bear resort right in the heart of the city.

So it was on this morning with this man and this bustle. He poked out in the top of a bath house door, at the end of a plump and pink arm, the unclad condition of which was excused enough for the lady's non-appearance.

THE LISTENERS GOT UP and walked away, just as some one said: "No, that shall be given—'Not always,' he remarked, looking at the gorgeous ignoramus.
