TO BE A GREAT SUCCESS.

[FROM THE BEE'S LINCOLN BUREAU.] The work at the Nebraka state fair grounds yesterday was a work of preparation. It was the opening day of the day of the fair and long lines of freight cars stood on the different tracks at the grounds from which were uhloaded the products that will make the fair the grandest of all ever held in the state. For days every stall for cattle and horses has been engaged, and workmen are at work building additional ones so that all exhibitors will be supplied. Stock was arriving in large numbers yesterday, and every man on the ground was rushing each exhibitor to his special place. The entries yesterday were far ahead of the entries on the same day at any other fair, and the clerks were enrolling them as rapidly as possible with the additional fact in view that they had an all night's job before them to catch up with work. Messrs. Dinsmore and Jensen, of the state board, who have been at the Iowa state fair during the week arrived at Lincoln yesterday ready for business. They report securing a large amount of handsome stock at the Iowa fair that will be brought stock at the lowa fair that will be brought here for exhibition and will arrive at the grounds to-morrow. A large number of dining halls are being opened for business and new buildings for special exhibits are going up on every hand. The painters have decorated the handsome buildings owned by machinery men, so that all is as bright and myting on the grounds as could be desired. B & on the grounds as could be desired. B. & M. trains will run every ten minutes to and from the grounds. The new rapid transit street railway will have its cars in motion for the fair, and transportation will be found abundant to and from the city. All incoming passenger trains on the B. & M., Northwestern and Missouri Pacific from the east will land passengers at the grounds.

THE FISH EXHIBIT. Manager O'Brien, of the state hatch-ery at South Bend, arrived at the state fair grounds with an immense line of acquariums and other paraphernalia for the fish exhibit that the fish commission will make. A force of men were set at work at an early hour putting the build-ing in shape and locating the acquariums. The fair managers have built an addi-The fair managers have built an addi-tion to the building and put in an inde-pendent water supply for the exclusive use of the fish. Commissioner May, who is indefatigable in the work of this exhibit for the fair, arrived on the ground yesterday and will remain through the fair.

BEADY FOR THE FAIR. Lincoln people are ready for the great state fair and with ample accommodations for the thousands that will visit the oity during the coming six days. The ho-tels have made elaborate preparations to accommodate their patrons. They have hundreds of cots ready to accommodate hundreds of cots ready to accommodate a rush and a large number of rooms out-side the hotel rented and furnished for the fair week. Boarding houses and many private individuals have made equal proparations to house and feed a multitude, and accommodations will be provided for all who attend. Business will be suspended in the city in the after-noons of four days the coming week that the city may attend the exhibition. JAY-ETE-SEE.

JAY-ETE-SEE. This great attraction for the fair ar-rived on the groudds Thursday afternoon and is to be seen at his quarters at the speed stables. The horse travels by spe-pant and terrible expression. When he is alive and excited I know of nothing in all nature of so dreadful appearance as the eye of the ratilesnake. It is enough to strike not only birds and little animals but men with nightmare. I have on several occasions examined them closely with strong classes and feal with all force with strong glasses, and feel with all force what I state, and I will tell you that there are few men on the face of the earth who can look upon an angered ratilesnske through a good glass—bringing him ap-parently within a foot or two of the eye —and stand it more than a moment. CARBOLIC SMOKE BAI The Old Clown's Days are Over.

The Old Clown's Days are Over. Louisville Courier-Journal: Colonel W. C. Crum, the advance agent of Fore-paugh's circus, says: "The day of the clown is nearly over. Formerly they were half the show, but now they at-tract but little attention. The enlarge-ment of the show is the chief cause. The big shows now have two or three rings, and the circle of seats is so far off that the people cannot hear the jokes of the clowns. In the old days an average clown received from $100 to $200 a week. Dan Rice, who was considered the great-est of all, was paid $1,000 a week, which was the highest salary a clown ever re-ceived. He was a bright, ambitious young fellow, possessed of much originality, and he reached the top notch of his profession. Or ean educated young Englishman, a graduate of Oxford university, who pos-sessed excellent comic talents, was brough over to this country, and he was brough over to this country, and he was brough over to this country, and he was brough over the clowns ranges from $20 to $50 a week. A good many Lincoln people were on the grounds yesterday with no other object than toget a glance at the animal and it is certain that of all the fair attractions the present year Jay-Eye-See will eclipse them all in public appreciation. STATE HOUSE NOTES. The board of transportation has replied to the communication of Mr. Griffitts, of the Omaha freight bureau, reciting that no charges are preferred in his com-plaint, of matters within the state over which the board has jurisdiction. The which the board has jurisdiction. The complaint, if it was so intended, is, in the opinion of the board, a matter for the inter-state commission.

THE POLICE JUDGE CASE. After weeks of delay, two of the com-mittee that heard the charges against Police Judge Parsons met and adjourned until Monday evening, when the testi-mony will be laid before the city council at its regular session.

SALOONS VS. COUNCIL.

A short time ago the city council passed an ordinance repealing a former ordinance that allowed the saloons in the city to run until midnight from the 10th to the 20th of September each year. This ordinance was in force when the differ-eat saloon men took their licenses in the eat saloon men took their licenses in the spring, and it is stated that this fact of later hours during fair week is stipulated in the licenses. For this reason the saloons of the eity claim they have a legal right to run during the time until midnight and that the repealing of the ordinance is not right. They have re-tained counsel and will keep open until midnight and let the city prosecute, if it so desires.

There are two forms of chronic rheu-matism: one in which the joints are swollen and red without fever; in the other the joints are only stiff and painful. In either form Salvation Oil may be re-lied on to effect a cure. It kills pain. 25 Popular discrimination in favor of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup has given it a larger sale than any other remedy of its class. Price 25 cents.

The Rattlesnake's Awful Eye.

Forest and Stream: A few days ago a farmer friend of mine, living four miles south of Abilene, told me what he had lately witnessed. He was riding along on lately witnessed. He was riding along on a prairie, and saw a prairie dog within a few feet of him, which refused to scamper to his hole, as prairie dogs usually do when appaoached by man; on the con-trary, he sat as if transfixed to the spot, though making a constant nervous, shud-dering motion, as if anxious to get away. My friend thought this was strange, and while considering the spectacle, he pres-ently saw a large rattlesnake colled up under some bushes, his head uplifted about six or seven feet from the dog, which still heeded him not, but looked steadily upon the snake. He dis-mounted, took the dog by the head and thrust him off, when the snake, which had up to that moment remained quiet, thrust him off, when the snake, which had up to that moment remained quiet, immediately swelled with rage, and be-gan sounding his rattles. The prairie dog for some time seemed benumbed, hardly capable of motion, but grew better, and finally got into his hole. My friend then killed the rattler. Now, was this a case of charming? If not, what was it? was it?

And to one who is familiar with the eyes of rattlesnakes it does not seem un-reasonable that they should have such power. If you will examine the eye of one when he is cold in death, you will perceive that it has an extremely mang-

Carbolic Smoke Ball Co.—Gentlemen: About the first of August I commenced using your Carbolic Smoke Ball and Debellator Package for hay fever. This lisease has troubled me for the last five years, the attack coming on about the first of August and continuing until frost came. Seeing the Smoke Ball advertise-ment I decided to give the remedy a tiral, but never expected to receive much ben-efit from it. However, I was agreeably disappointed. I have had but one attack since I commenced using this treatment St. Louis, Ill., was suffering at the same time with a severe case of nasal catarrh, and continuous droppings of mucous matter into the throat. I was also sub-ject to sick headache, which troubled me faithfully and according to directions, and am entirely cured. Yours truly, L. H. than eight years my mother has taken treatment from several professional friends, and I am sorry to say, exhausted my own stock of knowledge in trying to cure her of catarrhal deafness and neuralgia, but all our efforts failed. How-ever, like Mark Twain, 1 am trying ever, like Mark Twain, I am trying everything that comes along, and gave the Smoke Ball a fair test. To my utter sur-prise and great joy, m less than one week her neuralgia entiroly disappeared, and she is now free from all pain.
