CHICAGO PRODUCE MARKET.

CHICAGO, Sept. 12 .- | Special Telegram to the BRE. |-There was only a moderate speculative activity in the grain market to-day and prices averaged somewhat lower than on Saturday. The visible supply of wheat increased only 254,000 bushels, which was below expectations, but this fact did not cut much of a figure. During the corresponding week last year visible stocks increased 1,905,-000 bushels and the total was 44,870,708 bushels, or 13,660,000 bushels more than now. Local stocks of wheat decreased 3'5,000 bushels and now foot up only 5,638,000 bushels. The week's changes leaves the total stocks of grain of all kinds in Chicago elevators 9,501,-402 bushels, a little more than one-third the quantity in store last June. The opening quotations were 693ge for October, 73c for December and 78%c for May. This range was very little different from that ruling at the close of business Saturday. October and May hitched up a trifle during the earlier trading and the tone of the market was one of steadiness. Outside news were uninteresting and outside orders were scarce. New York took some interest in the deal, but not much. Local operators were not especially active and the market behaved in a listless manner. Toward the close a feeling of weakness gained the ascendancy and the market wavered and then softened. 1 o'clock prices being the inside for the session, and %c under Saturday. October ranged at 69%@70c high and 69%c low, December 73c high and 72%@72% low, and May 79@78%c, the market resting on the bottom when the recess gong tapped. Cables were dull and inclined to heaviness and domestic market and crop news were destitute of sensational features likely to effect prices either

The corn market was narrow, with seasons of activity within rather contracted limits, of activity within rather contracted limits, the tone being on the whole quiet. The feature of the market was free selling by parties who have been conspicuous bulls ever since the advance based on poor crop prospects began six or seven weeks ago. Hutchinson led in the selling to-day. During the morning session he parted with probably nearly 1,000,000 bushels of September and October cort. It is not thought be sell any tober corn. It is not thought he sold any great quantity of May, though he might have done so. As a rule the operators who con-stitute what is termed the "local talent" were bearish, but the market was, nevertheless, strongly supported, and offerings were absorbed with far more readiness than seemed possible. Whenever property came on the narket too fast prices would recede fractionally, but the moment the pressure was withdrawn the market reacted quickly. The whole crowd, taken collectively, seemed to be bullish, and it was difficult to locate the buying in any particular quarter. Nobody seemed to lead or care to lead, but it is certain that a large quantity of long property was absorbed with very little effort. The i o'clock range was 1/6@1/4c under Saturday, but the average throughout the long session was about identical with Saturday's closings. was about identical with Saturday's closings. Cash corn is $4@%c above the shipping point, yet Hutchisson & Baker continue to move it out rapidly. Lake charters to-day foot up $70,000 bushels, against which were posted receipts aggregating $10,000 bushels, with the arrivals tor Sunday and to-day estimated at $80 cars. Local stocks show a slight/decrease compared with last week, and if the outflow compared with last week, and if the outflow keeps on at the present rate next week will show a larger decrease. New York stocks are light and the rush from the country gives promise of a let up. October opened at 42½c and ranged at 42½d42½c. November opened at 42½d and ranged at 42½d42½c high and 42½c low. May opened at 45½c low. The 1 o'clock quotations were the inside.

Oats in the speculative branch of the trade were extremely quiet, there being a light lead of the light way and little or no change in trade in all futures and little or no change in prices further than an improvement of about &c in November, which sold at 261.c. May sold from 30@30½c together at the opening to 30½@30½c together and closed at 1 o'clock at 80½c, or the same as Saturday. October was pegged at 25½c seller the month and sold very sparingly, closing strong at 254c and that was bid for gill edge receipts of No. 2 cats to go to store.

Provisions exhibited considerable strength.

The range of prices all around was scarcely as high as at the close of last week, yet there was no weakness and the small decline noted was no weakness and the small decline noted scarcely affected the situation of the general market. The day's trading, which at best was only moderate, was confined largely to the October and January product. The latter month is steadily growing in favor and for pork sold to day at $12.60@12.70, for lard at $0.60@6.62%, and for short ribs $6.50@6.55. September lard and short ribs were quoted the same as October. For October stort ribs ranged from $8,77% early up to $8,90 at the close. October lard sold at $6,57% @6,60 and closed at $6,57%. Lard for delivery months outside of October and January was quiet. Cash lard sold freely at $6,57% @6,60 and cash short ribs at $8,90. Sixteen.pound green hams brought $% and closed at $% @8%.

AFTERNOON SESSION—Wheat lower: September closed at about 684@8%;

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK. CHICAGO, Sept. 12,- | Special Telegram to the BEE. |-CATTLE-The receipts to-day were 5,000 less than last Monday and fully 3,000 less than was expected. The proportion of native cattle was small. The market was fairly active and with a few exceptions prices were fully 10c higher, quotations in some cases showing considerably more advance and others showing none. Cattle at $5.15 sold higher than one week ago, but perhaps not much different, as there were four car loads in the lot and there are few orders for big cattle in such bunches. Some 1219-tb distillery steers sold at $4.70 and 18 fine heifers, fed with the same lot, averaged 1197 lbs at $4.60. Dressed beef men paid $3,00@5,00 for cattle, as high as $4.75 for 1258-lb steers and as low as $4.35 for 1405-lb beeves. Some 888 to 987-ib yearlings sold at $3.65@3.90, Kansas City, St. Louis and Buffalo reported big runs, but the trading in the markets all steady to stronger nevertheless. Hoos—Estimated receipts 14,000, last Monday 9,608. Trade was active with little or no day 9,608. Trade was active with little or no change in prices as compared with Saturday. During the early morning values ruled about a nickel lower in the Rock Island division, but later on the less was regained and the general market closed steady. A few fancy heavy lots sold at $5,55,65,60 and good but choice weights at $5,40,65,50. Packing and the ordinary run of shipping sorts sold within a range of $5,00,65,40, with common at $5,10,65,25. Light sorts, $5,25,65,40; grassers, $4,80,65,25.

character that prevented the bulls from taking hold. The loans on another of Ives' roads, the Dayton & Michigan, were said to have been called. Room traders sold freely and the course of prices was downward from the opening. The bulls, although disappointed at the decline, appeared hopeful and said that important negotiations were pending which, if brought to a successful head, would help the market. Buying pointers were out for Western Union and in some quarters it was predicted that the next state ment would show 1% per cent earned on its stock for the last quarter. It had more support than any other stock. Ed Stokes was reported to have advised his friends to buy it, and at one time during the morning it advanced 1 point, but receded before 2 o'clock. The imports of $11,000,000 in gold since July 23 were regarded by the bulls as an important factor. They also claimed that the treasury would make large purchases of bonds this week and would probably advertise for 4's, also currency bonds. The predictions, however, had little or no effect upon the market, as it remained rather weak and feverish to the close, when last sales were nearly at inside figures, with the exception of Western Union, which rallied 36 per cent during the last hour and closed 1/4 per cent higher than Saturday. The important declines net were at 1611. The total sales were 257,08 shares. GOVERNMENTS-Government bonds were strong and steady.
