Rosebuds in a Divorce Suit.

Minneapolis Journal: The dreary monotony of a divorce case was dragging its soul length along in Judge Rick's court yesterday. The woeeful contestants were listening eagerly when a handsome, broadshouldered youth entered the room with a young lady on his arm. He was overflowing with joy. His face was constantly wreathed in smiles which seemed to fill the gloomy courtroom. She was happy, too—bashfully, surreptitiously, happily, and she looked at him with the love that is given to a man by his first marriage.

Weddings in Old Trinity.

New York Sun: Assistant Sexton Patterson was sitting comfortably tilted backward upon two logs of a stool, the other members of the Trinity choir.

IMPETUES.

The devil will play his last card on judgment day, but Gabriel will trumpet. A man may scoff at religion and laugh at the pleadings of a holy man, but he will not be able to do so when he is called to account.

MODES FOR MEN.

Shaving muzz and complete toilet sets of oxidized silver are very much in vogue and not easily tarnished. The covert coat will be worn more or less.

BRIGHT LITTLE PEOPLE.

"Johnny," said the Sunday-school teacher, "what is our duty to our neighbors?" "To ask 'em to tea soon as they get settled," said Johnny.

EDUCATIONAL.

The new laboratory at Yale costing $75,000, is nearly finished. It was designed by E. S. Runkle, of this city.

FOUND AND LOST A FORTUNE.

Tough Struggle of the Discoverer of the New York Oil Fields.

O. P. TAYLOR'S RISE AND FALL.

How the Plucky Old Man Pushed Forward Over Obstacles and Died at the First Dawn of Success.

"Do see Professor Orton agrees with Doc Smith that neither oil nor gas will be found near Omaha," remarked a rather seedy looking individual who was standing at the corner of Fifteenth and Farnam streets yesterday.
