

COUNTY CONVENTION CALLED

A Rebuke to the Patronage Peddlers of the Republican Committee.

BECHER'S TRICK REPUDIATED

The Union Pacific Short of Coaches and Using Pullman Cars—Arrival of a Church Bell—Other Local News.

Republicans—Attention.

Whereas, the right and sole authority to appoint delegates to the state and judicial district conventions is vested in a convention of delegates elected by the voters of the respective precincts at the primary election called through public notice in republican newspapers, and

Whereas, at a meeting held in Omaha on Saturday, September 17, certain members of the county committee, together with sixteen persons not members of said committee have usurped the power rightfully vested in the republican voters of this county, and empowered a sub-committee of twelve persons, four of whom are not members of the county central committee, to appoint the whole delegation to which Douglas county is entitled at the state convention.

Now, therefore, we, the undersigned members of the central committee, do hereby revoke the said election and all pretended appointment of delegates thereunder, and in order that the republicans of Douglas county shall voice their choice as members of the various conventions hereby call upon them to elect delegates at a primary election, to be held in each precinct in this county, on the first day of October, 1887, to-wit: In each of the nine wards of the city of Omaha, the polls shall be open on said day from 12 o'clock (noon) until 6 o'clock p. m.; in the precincts outside of Omaha and South Omaha, between the hours of 9 and 10 a. m. of said day; the said primary election to be held at the same polling places in the city at which the city election was held on the 3d day of May, 1887; and in the respective county precincts at the same polling places at which the regular election was held in November, 1886.

The number of delegates and alternates which the republicans of the respective precincts are called upon to elect shall be as follows: Each of the nine wards of the city of Omaha, eight delegates and eight alternates; South Omaha, eight delegates and eight alternates; each of the precincts of the county, outside of Omaha and South Omaha, three delegates and three alternates, and the said delegates and their alternates are hereby called to meet in convention on the 4th day of October, 1887, at the exposition building in the city of Omaha, at 10 o'clock a. m. of said day to elect thirty-two delegates to the state convention which meets at Lincoln, Wednesday, October 5, 1887, and the same number of delegates to the judicial district convention which is to meet in the city of Omaha on the 17th day of October, 1887, and the said convention shall also, if it is deemed expedient, nominate all county officers to be voted for at the general election to be held November 8, and transact such other business as may properly come before it.

SOUTH OMAHA NEWS.

The third story has been put on the slaughtering department of Swift's packing house and the brick work on the other parts is under headway.

The addition to the stock exchange will be made in the near future.

The grading of Q street in the Third ward is nearly completed.

M. Cody of the Chicago Lumber company was in South Omaha with the view of making some improvements in the company's establishment.

The contract for the grading of the railroad company's ground for the new depot and sidings has been let for $10,000 to Omaha parties.

Charles Vanorsdel has sold his feed store on N street to C. Cuddington, of Central City, Neb., who will take charge immediately.

Judge Routhier had a large docket yesterday morning. Ed. McCormack, disturbing the peace, had his trial continued till Tuesday. Charles Howe, drunk, fined $7.50. John Murray, drunk, $7.50.

Charles Wells, drunk, dismissed. Matt McCormack, charged with stealing $25 from Matt Mozer, was dismissed, the complainant paying the costs.

Patrick Hennessy, a tough case, got into an altercation with the habitude of Reardon's saloon. Knives were drawn and but for the prompt arrival of an officer blood would have flowed. Hennessy was lodged behind the bars. The others escaped but the police are looking for them.

J. D. Clark, a resident of Iowa, is in the city looking for a business location.

A small packing house for the slaughter of beef and sheep will be erected in South Omaha as soon as the location can be secured. A party from a foreign city was here looking for a site.

Short of Coaches.

Owing to the unexpectedly large travel this season, the Union Pacific has found itself short of coaches. The consequence is that the company has had to call on the Pullman Car company for assistance, and for several days past the fine palace coaches of the latter have been used to transfer passengers arriving from the east, and destined for this city, across the river. Many ludicrous scenes have occurred, and the passengers, those who arrived at the train in ordinary coaches could not understand the change to palatial cars at the transfer. They imagined it was a ruse to get extra fare from them, and with difficulty, in many instances, that some could be persuaded to enter the cars.

A Presbyterian Bell.

The bell provided for in the will of O. F. Davis for the Presbyterian church of this city has arrived and is of beautiful shape and musical tone. It has been accepted by the church and commended by the following resolutions:

Resolved, That in gratefully receiving the gift of Mr. O. F. Davis, we place upon record our sense of our brother's helpfulness and generosity during the period of his connection with our church; and that we call upon the members of the church to emulate his benevolence and devotion to the Master's kingdom, to assemble themselves together, as of old, for the praise of God, for the worship of God.

Resolved, That this minute be publicly read to the church and sent to Mrs. Davis, with our heart-felt condolence and sympathy.

Pullman Business.

The Pullman drawing room and sleeping car business has been unusually large of late. In fact it is almost double that of any other season at this point. To-day six Pullman cars will leave Denver for the Grand Army of the Republic encampment at St. Louis, and seven will leave Lincoln, Neb., for the same destination with passengers from different points in the South Platte country. The Wabash company which is in another division than Omaha, as far as Pullman car jurisdiction is concerned, have made a requisition on this division for extra cars. In fact, business is lively all along the lines.

K. of P. Notes.

This evening a meeting of the regimental officers of the Omaha regiment Knights of Pythias has been called to be held in Myrtle armory on Fourteenth street near Dodge. The call is authorized by Colonel Burrell, and the adjutant, James Donnelly. On next Tuesday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock there will be a dress parade of the regiment at the base ball park, at which all the members are expected to attend, by way of preparation for the forthcoming celebration in connection with the meeting of the grand lodge K. of P., of the state.

Mr. Eustis Explains.

To the Editor of the Bee: Your paper contained a local article criticizing the Burlington company from the standpoint that the harvest excursion tickets sold in the east by the Burlington on the 30th were not good via Omaha without extra charge. I am surprised that your reporter did not obtain from this office the facts, which are as follows:

1. The harvest excursion tickets in question, as well as any other kind of ticket, either east-bound or west-bound, reading via Pacific Junction from the east, to Lincoln or the west (and the reverse), are good without extra charge via Omaha, in accordance with bulletin instructions to conductors, first published January 1, 1887, and since repeated from time to time.

2. On the morning of the 31st, the date when said excursionists arrived in Omaha, the train from the east arrived in Omaha in two sections, largely filled with passengers holding the said harvest excursion tickets.

3. All passengers now in this state who hold said form of tickets reading via Pacific Junction can go via Omaha on their way east without extra charge.

4. Stop-over is allowed at Omaha, either east-bound or west-bound, on these tickets, as well as at all other points in the state. Yours truly, P. S. EUSTIS, G. P. & T. A.

Ignorant Railway Officials.

Some railway employees are excellent guides to the traveling public. A man having occasion to go to Bellevue bought a ticket for that place, the ticket seller stating that the train left at 10:15. It was at the B. & M. depot. On either side of the platform there were several trains, and not knowing which to take, the passenger asked a well-dressed official, who was ordering the disposition of freight, and was told there was no train for Bellevue at 10:15; that it went at about 9 in the morning. He was assured that the ticket was good, and he followed the official, who made no difference; he adhered to his original statement. Then the passenger said he wanted to go to the rifle range shooting. In answer to this he was told that the rifle range was in the vicinity of Outlook lake. It is a moment it was discovered that the train wanted was standing so near the official in question as to be almost within arm's reach.

Are You Going East?

The Limited Express of the Michigan Central, "The Niagara Falls Route," which leaves Chicago at 3:10 p. m. every day, is in many respects the favorite train East, on account of its splendid equipment, admirable service and fast time, for which no extra charge is made. It carries superb Wagner Palace Sleeping Cars, running through without change to Toronto via the Canadian Pacific, to New York via the New York Central & Hudson River, and to Boston via the Boston & Albany railroads. Niagara Falls is passed early in the morning, and the train halts several minutes at Falls View, where the scene is unrivaled.

Commissioners' Resolution.

The county commissioners at a meeting yesterday morning passed the following resolution regarding the numerical index being prepared by County Clerk Needham.

Resolved, That I. N. Watson be employed by this county to check over the new numerical index, now being prepared by the county clerk, at the rate of $25 per hour of actual labor and an assistant at 50c per hour of actual labor, the latter to be employed only until the county clerk selects a man, and that the man selected by the county clerk shall receive no higher compensation than the one employed by the county in case his work is found to be correct, but should his work prove correct then the county will pay nothing for the services of the man appointed by the county clerk.

Grand Auction Sale of Real Estate in Grand Island, Nebraska.

Twenty of the finest residence lots in the city will be sold on Monday, Sept. 26th, at 9 a. m. All inside property and specially desirable. The railroad fare from his home to Grand Island will be refunded to each purchaser living in Nebraska.

Grand Coming Event.

The Emmet Monument association held a large and enthusiastic meeting Thursday night for the purpose of arranging a ball to be held sometime next month. It is to be given in aid of the Irish National Land league and promises to be on a grander scale than any social event in behalf of the said cause yet held in this city. The names of the donors of the arrangements are sufficient to guarantee the success of the ball. They are Deputy County Treasurer Groves, P. O'Malley, P. J. Barrett, J. M. McMahon, J. C. Lee, J. F. Moriarty, S. H. Broderick and T. Tallon.

Dr. S. R. Patten, dentist, room 313, Range building, Omaha, Telephone 50.

Copy Books in the Schools.

The Spencerian system of copy books adopted at the board of education meeting last Monday will be adhered to, notwithstanding a feeling that the old system would be again adopted. The choice made at the meeting referred to has stirred up a lively agitation among certain publishers, but nevertheless the new system will be retained.

Cold Water Nominations.

The Douglas county prohibitionists have held a caucus and are the first to usher their ticket into the field. The following are their candidates: County treasurer, John F. Helm; county judge, John J. Wolstein; county clerk, Charles Watts; register of deeds, G. G. Wallace; sheriff, John P. Daley; coroner, Dr. James McLaughlin; county superintendent, Henry E. Grimm; clerk of the district court, John Dale; commissioner, Third district, S. C. Brewster; Fifth district, John R. Canon.

The Gas Well.

The proprietors of the natural gas well are earnestly engaged in its development. Every night finds prominent citizens on the ground observing the tests. In a few days, it is said by those who know, there will be some further public exhibitions of the power of the gas which will settle the question of the importance of the discovery.

POLICE COURT.

Judge Berka Disposes of a Good Grist of Cases.

Anton Schuts was before Judge Berka yesterday morning charged with a criminal assault upon the person of Mrs. Anna Howell, on the 20th inst., near the B. & M. roundhouse. The original charge was withdrawn and that of assault and battery substituted. The parties are Bohemians, and considerable testimony was given through an interpreter. The case will be disposed of this morning.

A man named Leon was arrested here some six weeks ago as a suspicious character and ordered to leave the city. He represented himself as living at Beatrice, and his occupation a "circus man." He was again arrested Thursday night and gave the name of McKenzie. When the jailer recognized him and asked him if his name was not Leon he said it was, but that he gave the name McKenzie to avoid recognition. This time he was arrested for discharging fire arms within the city limits. The effect of the shot was the killing of a dog, and when his story was heard the judge, in the absence of other testimony, proposed the lowest fine and costs to satisfy justice. This was refused, the defendant demanding a jury trial, saying that he would run the gamut of every tribunal in the state, finally winding up with the supreme court. He will be up again at 3 o'clock to-morrow.

R. W. Peterson got five years for having a character known as suspicious, and W. Lawson for being a chronic drunkard got $7.50.

Six vagrants and a like number of drunks were disposed of in the afternoon. Charles Moss was fined $5 and costs for violating a hack ordinance by not having his lamps lighted Thursday night. L. D. Clay, charged with embezzlement, was discharged.

The cases of Belle Smith and Mr. and Mrs. David Crowe, who were charged with stealing a watch, were postponed until the 27th.

Victimized a Newspaper.

The Truth newspaper has been taken in by a smooth young fellow styling himself J. Evans Sterling. He has been employed as solicitor for that paper for a few weeks. His scheme was to make out duplicate bills, collect them, and return the original bills as unpaid. When his trick was discovered, however, he had disappeared. Just how much money he secured is unknown.

Died in the Hospital.

A man named H. A. Hanzinger died of consumption at St. Joseph's hospital yesterday morning.

EPPS'S COCOA

GRATEFUL—COMFORTING

BREAKFAST.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and assimilation, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a pure, delicious, and healthful beverage which may be taken in any form, and at any time, and which is well adapted to all climates and all constitutions. It is by the judicious use of this article of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle poisons, which find their way into the human system through the food and drink, are constantly doing their worst to destroy us. We are often aware of their presence in the blood, but never know their true nature, until they have become so numerous and so powerful as to manifest themselves in some of the most distressing and dangerous diseases. By the use of Epps's Cocoa, these poisons are expelled from the system, and the blood is purified and properly nourished. It is a weak point, and we may escape many a fatal ailment by drinking this pure and healthful beverage. Sold only in half pound tins by Grocers (labeled thus): JAMES EPPS & CO., LTD., ENGLAND. Ho magister Chemists, LONDON, ENGLAND. Mention this paper."

THE BEST WAY

To attract trade is to keep reliable goods and sell them cheap. We have done so and have had the satisfaction of seeing our business rapidly grow to be one of the largest in the country. The immense stock which we carry this season will easily convince you of the fact; with such a stock we cannot afford to make high prices, nor the profits exacted from the public by smaller houses—such a stock is the people's guarantee for fair dealing and low prices.

We have opened the fall season with an enormous variety of business and dress suits. They embrace all the new styles and novelties of the season in

WORSTEDS, CHEVOTS AND CASSIMERES.

Among the many special bargains we start in the season with, we mention the following:

400 men's all wool cassimeres suits, heavy weight, of attractive greyish color, serge lined, and well and substantially made, $5.50. It may sound big to tell you that these suits are actually worth twice this amount, but an examination will convince you that we are not exaggerating, and you will have to admit that you never saw such a suit offered for less than $10.

Another great surprise is our all wool corkscrew sack suit, elegantly made and trimmed, which we will sell for $6.50. No house ever sold such a suit for less than $12.

These are only a few samples of what we have in store for you this season.

WEST VIEW!

This is beautifully located and view in all directions fine. One dollar invested here will return ten.

Grand Island has a population of 12,000, is the end of a division of the U. P. railway and terminus of the St. Joseph & Grand Island railroad. The O. & R. V. railroad starts from Grand Island, penetrating the North Loup country. The B. & M. railroad passing through Grand Island toward the great agricultural, coal and cattle country of the great northwest. This makes Grand Island the Gate City to the great northwest, a country rich in agricultural and mineral resources.

The Union Pacific shops, of solid stone, the finest in the state, are located here, capable of employing 800 hands. The new brick cannery factory, employing 150 hands, has just completed its first season's work. The Soldiers' Home, a chair factory, a number of two and three story brick blocks, a four-story brick hotel (costing $75,000) and many fine residences. The operation of three and one-half miles of new street railway, the completion of a new $50,000 gas works, making two gas and electric light companies; the extension of our $45,000 system of waterworks now in operation; the erection of extensive stockyards by the U. P. railroad company, all evidence a steady and permanent growth which promise the doubling of our population in the next twelve months.

Seven fine lots given away to purchasers and those present as the sale progresses.
