CHICAGO, Sept. 26,-[Special Telegram to the BEE.]-Almost all the news was in favor were followed by the statement that the of the bulls to-day and the result was a lively market all around, with a very satisfactory amount of business transacted. The early interest was in October wheat, in which the scalpers seemed to fear there might be a squeeze. This option opened %@%c higher and rapidly advanced 1/c further. Cables were firm and reported an increased consumptive demand, with the tendency of prices upward. In some instances the limit on foreign buying orders was advanced 1/c. New York was strong, higher and advancing, dull but steady. as were the other outside markets. Large lines of short wheat for New York were said to have been covered here this morning. The exporters were said to be buying. Fleming & Boyden continued to buy October and John M. Shaw was a persistent buyer. The purchases of October for many days by the first named house brought out plenty of guesses, the latest of which is to the effect that they are for account of elevator owners who now have comparatively small stocks in store and desire to induce free shipments from the country to fill bins, and expect to bring this desirable object by raising their about the level of prices. Elevator owners are said to be offering rebates to keep the wheat here that is already in store and one of them, who owns about one-quarter of the No. 2 spring in store here, is credited with having proed a scarcity by refusing to part with any of it at less than 14c above the market. The visible supply statement was a surplise. The alk had been that there would be a small alk had been that there would be a small decrease or a small increase, but not much variation from the stock of a week ago. The announcement of a decrease of 908,000 bushels appeared to be the force necessary to accelerate the movement of the early morn-ing and wrices advanced another 3/c almost immediately, and remained Brm, closing at the highest point of the day, with the vol-ume of business greater than for many days. The October option closed at 71%c, December at 74%c and May at 79%c779%c. The gain for the day over Saturday's close was 1%c0 1%c in October and December and 1%c in May.

There was also an unusually large business done in the corn pit. The opening was fractionally above Saturday's close-at 41%c for October and 44%@44%c for May-and the fractionally above Saturday's close-at 41% c for October and 44% (241% c for May-and the advance was almost continuous, amounting on the day to %c in October and %c in May. Hutchinson was a continual seller of the May option and W. T. Baker a buyer of Oc-tober corn. Irwin, Greene & Co, were also buyers and towards the close of the session Field, Lindley & Co, bought. The receipts here were considerably less than expected, but the estimated receipts for to-morrow are large-#25 cars. Shipments to-day were 688, 000 bushels. Vessel room was taken for 155,000 bushels. The market closed firm at the highest prices of the day-42c for October and 45% c for May. Oats were steady and firm all the forenoon, with but little doing in a speculative way. Price changes were within the smallest possi-ble range. There were sellers of May at 29% most of the session, but just before the 1 o'clock close the morket acveloped consid-erable firmness and 20% c was freely bid for that future. September and October rested at 25% c and November 25%. The regular cash market was again nominal, car lots sell-ing entirely by sample. In provisions the day's sensation was mother unexpected break in October short ribs. Finding that its sudden declines of stak week and the week preceding failed to shake out the tailers, the house controlling this line of product again withdrew its sup-port. Using the large receipts of hors as a pretext, it opened the market for them 200 under Saturday's closing. The break suf-fered brought out large quantities on stop orders, and from $5,000; Bis one 70,000 lbs
