Real estate was moving rapidly today-everybody's feet were full of it. Strangers in South Omaha often take the bill clerk's room in the freight depot for the post office and call for letters, while others drop letters in the mail box. Alderman Rafferty has purchased two lots on the corner of Twenty-fourth and S streets, and will erect business houses

The school board has advertised for bids for furnishing fuel for the school houses. The bids will be received until Saturday. The opening ball at the new Reed hotel will be given by the order of Odd Fellows as soon as the building is completed A Mr. Merrill is erecting a dwelling on Twenty-seventh street. Alderman F. M. Smith is spoken of as prospective candidate on the republican ticket for county commissioner. His friends are confident that if he will allow his name to be used he will receive the nomination and that his election will be The condition of the streets here during or shortly after a rain are almost im passable by either teams or pedestrians. This has been the case since South

Omaha became a town, and business is very much impeded. It is almost time sidewalks were built. The city officers say that as soon as the grading on N street is completed the sidewalks will be put down, though that may not be until winter sets in. COUNCIL MEETING. The council held an adjourned meet-

Political Affairs,

FIFTH WARD DEMOCRATS. A meeting of the Fifth Ward Democratic club was held in Justice Kroeger's office. Speeches were made by a number of people. Judge Shea was not satisfied with Governor Thayer's alleged mingling with Omaha affairs; Dr. Beckett wanted prohibition opposed; Mr.
Medlock wanted all young men to cast their lot with the democracy; Judge
Kroeger entertained the same views; Mr.
Osthoff also gave prohibition a slap.
The chair then appointed Messrs. Fleming, Shea, Callen, Beckett, O'Connor, Kroeger and Flynn to act as candidates to be voted for at the primary election a delegates to the county convention which is to be held on next Wednesday week. Mr. Medlock was appointed inspector of the primaries.

The following committee on registra-tion of voters were appointed: First dis-trict, O'Connor, Kroeger and Conlan; Second district, Shea, Osthoff and Callen. The next meeting of the club will be

The next meeting of the club will be held on Friday evening at 8 c'clock.

FOURTH WARD REPUBLICANS.

A very enthusiastic meeting of the Fourth Ward Republican club was held in Germania hall last night. About thirty new members were added to the list. The president of the club, J. R. Webster, delivered a few remarks and was followed by several others. It was decided to appoint a committee of five to act in unison with similar committees from the other ward clubs to try and secure the republican national convention at Omaha. The treasurer and secretary at Omaha. The treasurer and secretary were instructed to be present at the primaries and invine all the republican voters of the ward to join the club. The necessity of registration of all voters was discussed and impressed on all present. The club endozæd the candidacy of Frank Moores for the office of clerk of the district court and gave him the privilege of appointing the delegates from that ward to the county convention. More addresses were delivered and the meeting then adjourned until 7:30 next meeting then adjourned until 7:30 next Thursday night.

The Second and Sixth ward democrats The Second and Sixth ward democrate also held meetings but little business o importance was transacted.

The republicans of the First ward wil meet in Metz' hall this evening.

Bohemian Benevolence Mrs. Frank Bandhauer and Mrs Charles Kauffman went to Schuyler yester day morning to attend the installation of the officers of the Ladies' Bohemian Be nevolent society of that place. MENS' UNDERWEAR.

The time for neavy underclothing is at hand and we are prepared to supply the whole city with these garments. We are large buyers which means low prices. We buy these goods direct from mills and commission houses-pay no jobbers profits and we guarantee to save you from 25 to 50 per cent, and on the finer grades even more. Our assortment comprises over 50 different qualities, among the leading styles of which we recommend an excellent all wool scarlet shirt and drawers at 50c, and a splendid camel's hair regular made at 55c apiece. Either one is sold by other houses for double the money. We also carry a large line of California flannel underwear, and particularly mention one we sell at one dollar as being a better shirt than you buy elsewhere for $1.50.

Our line of cassimere shirts, winter hosiery, gloves and other furnishings is equally large and prices throughout very low.

Our hat department is a great success. We venture to say that we are selling more hats than any exclusive hat house. And why shouldn't we?. It will not surprise you when you compare our prices with those of others. An elegant fur derby of the latest blocks for $1. Just one-half what others charge for same quality.

For rainy days we call attention to our large stock of rubber clothing and umbrellas, all of which we sell at less than wholesale prices.

All goods marked in plain figures and at strictly one price at
