Real estate was moving rapidly to-day—everybody's feet were full of it. Strangers in South Omaha often take the bill clerk's room in the freight depot for the post office and call for letters, while others drop letters in the mail box. Alderman Rafferty has purchased two lots on the corner of Twenty-fourth and streets, and will erect business houses thereon.

The school board has advertised for bids for furnishing fuel for the school houses. The bids will be received until Saturday. The opening ball at the new Reed Alderman F. M. Smith is spoken of as prospective candidate on the republican ticket for county commissioner. His friends are confident that if he will allow his name to be used he will receive the nomination and that his election will be assured.

The condition of the streets here dur-ing or shortly after a rain are almost im passable by either teams or pedestrians This has been the case since South Omaha became a town, and business is very much impeded. It is almost time sidewalks were built. The city officers say that as soon as the grading on N street is completed the sidewalks will be put down, though that may not be until winter sets in.

Political Affairs. FIFTH WARD DEMOCRATS. A meeting of the Fifth Ward Demoeratic club was held in Justice Kroeger's office. Speeches were made by a number of people. Judge Shea was not satisfied with Governor Thayer's alleged mingling with Omaha affairs; Dr. Beckett wanted prohibition opposed; Mr.

Beckett wanted prohibition opposed; Mr.
Medlock wanted all young men to cast their lot with the democracy; Judge
Kroeger entertained the same views; Mr.
Osthoff also gave prohibition a slap.
The chair then appointed Messrs. Fleming, Shea, Callen, Beckett, O'Connor, Kroeger and Flynn to act as candidates to be voted for at the primary election as delegates to the county convention which delegates to the county convention which is to be held on next Wednesday week. Mr. Medlock was appointed inspector of the primaries. The following committee on registra-tion of voters were appointed: First dis-trict, O'Connor, Kroeger and Conlan; Second district, Shea, Osthoff and Callen.

The next meeting of the club will be held on Friday evening at 8 o'clock.
FOURTH WARD REPUBLICANS. A very enthusiastic meeting of the Fourth Ward Republican club was held in Germania hall last night. About thirty new members were added to the list. The president of the club, J. R. Webster, delivered a few remarks and was followed by several others. It was decided to appoint a committee of five to act in unison with similar committees from the other ward clubs to try and secure the republican national convention were instructed to be present at the primaries and invite all the republican voters of the ward-to join the club. The voters of the wardto join the club. The necessity of registration of all voters was discussed and impressed on all present. The club endorsed the candidacy of Frank Moores for the office of clerk of the district court and gave him the privilege of appointing the delegates from that ward to the county convention. More addresses were delivered and the meeting then adjourned until 7:30 next Thursday night. Thursday night.

The Second and Sixth ward democrats also held meetings but little business of importance was mansacted.

The republicans of the First ward will meet in Metz' hall this evening.

MENS' UNDERWEAR.

The time for neavy underclothing is at hand and we are prepared to supply the whole city with these garments. We are large buyers which means low prices. We buy these goods direct from mills and com as sion houses pay no jobbers profits and we guarantee to save you from 25 to 50 per cent, and on the finer grades even more. Our a sortment comprises over 50 different qualities, among the leading styles of which we recommend an excellent all wool scarlet shirt and drawers at 50c, and a splendid camel's hair regular made at 55c apiece. Either one is sold by other houses for double the money. We also carry a large line of California flannel underwear, and particularly mention one we sell at one dollar as being a better shirt than you buy elsewhere for $1.50.

Our line of cassimere shirts, winter hosiery, gloves and other furnishings is equally large and prices throughout very low.

Our hat department is a great success. We venture to say that we are selling more hats than any exclusive hat house. And why shouldn't we?. It will not surprise you when you compare our prices with those of others. An elegant fur derby of the latest blocks for $1. Just one-half what others charge for same quality.

For rainy days we call attention to our large stock of rubber clothing and umbrellas, all of which we sell at less than wholesale prices.

All goods marked in plain floures and at strictly one price at
