A RIDE THROUGH THE CITY.

One too Many Men in a Family Likely to Cause a Tragedy-A Missing Bankrupt - Other Local News.

All For Grover.

Yesterday morning there was a meeting of gentlemen in Max Meyer's store to make arrangements for the reception of President Cleveland on the 12th of October The board of trade was represented by President Max Meyer, John A. McShane and P. E. Her; the Knights of Pythias by Colonel Burrell, Captain Crager and Julius Meyer, and the council by President Beckel and Councilmen Bailey,

Ford, Hascail and Lowry. Mr. McShane presided and Max Meyer

acted as secretary.

It was announced that the president would arrive on the 12th of next month and that his stay would not be longer than an hour and a haif, and it was necessary therefore that the reception contemplated should be in keeping with that

A drive through the city was decided upon as the means to interest the president and the people. Along the route could be arranged the civic and military societies which should desire to take part in the reception.

The Knights of Pythias, it was announced, would form on Tenth and Farnam streets, on both sides of those thoroughfares, and thus extend possibly to Fifteenth, as it was thought there would be at least 3,000 knights present. Through these lines the presidential party could be driven, and after the passage of the same the knights would fall in and pa-rade until it should become necessary for the presidential visitors to move at a rapid gait to pass over the route.

Several routes were proposed, the most favorable one being the following: Tenth to Farnam, thence to Sixteenth, thence to Dodge, Fifteenth, Capitol avenue, Fourteenth, Douglas, Tenth, Harney, Eleventh south to a favorable crossing, thence north on Tenth past Brownell hall to the

This route is subject to revision, and to-day, with this end in view, a sub-committee consisting of Messrs. committee consisting of Messrs. McShane, Bailey, Bechel, Julius Meyer and Her will travel over it, meeting afterward to decide upon a selection. It is quite probable that the president will be driven around the high school, from which place he may be able to get an excellent view of the entire

A committee of five on decorations was suggested and this led to the suggestion a meeting of citizens to subscribe money with which to decorate the city on the line of the presidential drive. The committee will meet again this

Family Troubles Caused By Too Many

A. Harvey, a porter on the Union Pacific railway, who resides on Leavenworth street between Thirteenth and Fourteenth, is having anything but a felicitous time with his wife, whom he married six years ago in St. Joseph, Mo. Harvey's duties keep him from home the greater part of the time. no doubt thinking it His wife, not good for her to be alone, made a mash on a moke named Johnson who works in a livery stable on Eighteenth street and had him with her during the absence of her husband. One night recently, Harvey came home un-expectedly and found Johnson enjoying the fruits of his labor and basking in the sunlight of his wife's eyes. Harvey locked the door and Johnson started to run off but was caught, and now carries a badly punished head. Johnson continued his visits and on a later occasion was warned to keep away, when he flourished a revolver at the outraged husband and defied him to

Then his trunk was held. He said he had a bank account at Sibley, Ia. and asked the clerk to telegraph for any amount. The clerk did so but the an-swer was unsatisfactory. Then the gor-geous gentleman wrote: "Dear Hattie. Things have gone wrong with me. The Missouri river claims me to-night, K. Hattie, the baby, for me. Dick

There was a little sensation here Thurs day night, when a young man from Omaha had Maggie Maroney, alias Lilly Roach, alias Neilie Taylor, a fallen dove belonging to Dug Johnson's bagnio arres-ged. The complainant said the girl lived n Omaha, was only thirteen years old, and that her parents did not know where she was, but thought she was working for some respectable famcharge of a policeman, but was released yesterday morning, as she claimed to be of age. She has been in the dive only four weeks, and was then a very innocentlooking thing, not appearing over four-teen, but has been contaminated by the society in which she has moved. The girl's father has been notified to come after her.

THE COURTS. What Was Done Before the Judges Yesterday.

There was very little business done in the district court vesterday. The case of Wilson against Shields occupied Judge Groff's attention and the Hartman case demanded Judge Wakeley's time.

sions in criminal cases this morning and Monday morning he will commence to hear the criminal cases ready for trial.

The Councilmen and the Blankets. Several of the councilmen spoke yesterday to a BEE reporter disclaiming all responsibility for the suffering of the prisoners in the city jail, because of lack of covering, during those cold nights. They claim that Chief Seavey made a requisition upon the comptroller and that the latter had failed to recognize because he had been informed it he would be held personally responsible for any goods delivered to him on his order. Mr. Goodrich, the comp-troller told Mr. Hartman this and further that all that it was necessary to do to secure the blankets was for him to put his name to the requisition. the councilman claimed, Mr. Hartman refused to do. How the blankets, were subsequently obtained, the councilman could not tell. The intent was not to be careless of the prisoners but to show that they do not recognize the chief, especially when the members of the commission may do all that is required in such emergencies.

After Rothery.

Officers from Council Bluffs were in the city last night looking for Herb Rothery, and they made themselves quite numerous near several dwellings. District Attorney Daily, of the Bluffs, telephoned that Rothery was in South Omaha and thither a whole posse went. The facts are that Rothery is now in Australia, having taken the train the next day after his sentence and gone directly westward to San Francisco, whence he shipped,

U devotional exercises were conducted by Mrs. Eila Pearson, and, after reading minutes of the last convention, and receiving reports of committees on credentials, and the roll call of officers and delegates, the report of the local unions took place. These were highly interesting. They dwelt upon the progress made in the work and the genera. good to the community established. One report stated that there was not a saloon to be found anywhere in Burt county. The semi-annual report of the treas-urer shows the society out of debt, and s balance in the treasury of $25. The expenditures were slight-only $9.31. Arrest of a Robber.

A German named C. J. Schaefer was arrested last night for attempting to rob a young Swede named Charles Carison at Palmquist's boarding house on the corner of Tenth and Dodge streets. Schaefer, in company with a younger man, took lodgings at the boarding house yesterday afternoon. About 6 o'clock Carlson came home and went into his room, which happened to join that of the two strangers. Following him into his room, they seized and tried to strangle him, mean while attempting to rifle his pockets. Carlson fought desperately and managed to keep them at bay. Alarmed by his loud cries for help the would-be robbers fled without obtaining any booty. About 10 o'clock Shaefer was captured by Officers Bloom and Cullen in a saloon on Ninth street near Dodge. The younger thief is still at large, but the officers expected to have him in custody by this morning.

The suicide came here recently from Columbus, Ohio, where he was en gaged in the commission business. It is understood that a woman was indirectly the cause of his rash act. The body has not been recovered.

Police Alarm Keys.

Councilmen Bailey and Manville have noticed that there are certain police alarm boxes which are beyond the beats of the nearest policemen, and to which no keys can be had in case of need unless by hunting up the nearest officer, who may be blocks away. They suggest that keys in such cases ought to be left for use with some of the most reliable and intelligent neighbors, the same as is done with tire alarm keys.
