The U. S. Masonic association has swelled its membership to 3,700 and has only had five death losses. As its head-quarters are in Council Bluffs, the citizens take pride in its success.

M. I. and M. H. Sears returned yesterday morning from a hunting trip to Wayne county, Nebraska. Prairie chickens were very scarce, but ducks and snipe were found in large numbers. In the case of Poole vs. the Union Pacific railway in the federal court, the jury were still out wrestling with it, the pros-pect being good for a disagreement. Invitations are issued by Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Penn to the marriage of their daughter, Kate Alma, to Hugh A. Cole, the ceremony to take place in the First Methodist churca, next Thursday even-

Major Lyman yesterday notified the court that he was no longer engaged in the case as attorney for the defense, and he understood that Colonel Scott, of Omaha, had also withdrawn. If so, it would be necessary for the court to appoint some attorney to defend Jones. It seems that from his able counsel retiring from a further fight in his behalf it will be rather a rocky road for Jones from Within a week or ten days the dirt tramway will be in active operation, carrying the Bluffs onto the bottoms where they will do the most good. The line starts from Third street and Fifth avenue and runs down Third street to Ninth avenue and along that avenue to the creek. The rails have been placed along the line ready for laying so soon as the ties are put down. The cars will be run by put down. The cars will be run by horses, and an immense amount of dirt will be carried very easily. This will enable the property owners to get their lots filled easily and speedily. This being the first tramway laid in this city there is some curiosity to see how it will

Dr. J. C. Robertson, who for fourteen years has had a successful practice in Washington county, Ia., has removed to this city, and has opened an office at No. 525 Main street. Dr. Robertson has purchased a lot on Fifth avenue, and expects to soon start upon the building of a resi dence. He is a thoroughly educated and experienced physician, a graduate of the state university, and also of Bellevue, and was further a private student of Dr. Bryant, whose name is before the pub-lic just now as one of the presidential party. He is a valuable addition to the medical circles of the city, as well as to the social circles.

Mrs. Mary Lown, of Platteville, Colorado, died September 15 of heart disease at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Ozment. She was aged 77 years. The remains was brought to this city, ar-riving yesterday, accompanied by rela-tives Services were held in the Catholie church, and the remains laid away beside those of the husband who died several years ago. She had several relatives living in this vicinity, among them a grand daughter, Mrs. William Ashton, of Seward, Neb.; Mrs. Donelly, and sons and daughters, of Glenwood, who were in attendance at the last rites.

Mrs. Amy drove around by the city building yesterday morning to see how much of the ground lately sold by her to the city was being taken for the new fire patrol house. She discovered that the lines had been laid off for a much larger slice of her lot than she contem-plated in her contract, and that the excavation for the foundations extended several feet beyond the point which she thought was right. She protested against this, and claimed that the city was encroaching some twenty feet further than t ought. The city engineer had run the lines, and so she sought him out to learn what he meant.

In the case of C. Wesley, indicted for resisting an officer, a motion has been pending for a continuance, Mr. Wesley claiming that Dr. Wall and Mr. Morris were necessary witnesses, and he could not secure their attendance. He was examined before Judge Deemer yesterday as to his knowledge of the facts set forth in his affidavit for a continuance, and the court held that it was sufficient. The county attorney agreed to admit that If these witnesses were present they would swear to the facts claimed by Mr. Wesley, and in view of this concession Judge Deemer decided that he would not grant the continuance, but proceed to try the case so soon as it could be reached.

Songs of the Stars.

In police court yesterday there was a light grist. There were five fellows brought in together, as they had been found hanging about one of the railway yards. Two were charged with being vagrants and the three others with being drunk. It appeared that they had been at work together near Omaha, and when they got through with that job the gang came to this side to see what they could get. Three of them got whisky and all of them got locked up. They told such a straight story that the sober ones were discharged and the others given the lowest tine. One boy, George Williams, was before the bar for stealing a pair of stockings from Marcus' store on Broadway. He was sentenced to lifteen days in jail and allowed until 2 o'clock to go and get his baggage moved down to the new board-ing place. He evidently lost his way and wandered beyond the city limits, as he did not turn up again.

The Chautauqua Move Progressing Finely-The Democratic Caucuses -The Public Doings-Bits of News and Personals.

Points From the Pen. Captain O'Brien returned yesterday morning from his trip to Fort Madison, whither he took several prisoners who are to there serve various terms for crookedness.

The colored man Winters, who was caught going through a saloon on Main street, was on his arrival recognized as having been there before. He had served four years for a like offense, so he does not enter upon his second and shorter term as a novice.

Carbee, the dashy drum major, looked quite differently with his close shave and checkered clothing, from when he "marched that Broadway down," with his bearskin hat, his bright adornments and gaily tossing his baton. He was given a job in the chair factory. On the trip to Ft. Madison he lost none of his assurance, and did not quail even when he reached the iron doors which shut, him out of the world and which shut him out of the world, and separates him from the bride to whom he was wedded through the bars, and with whom he has not yet been permitted to live ever one day.

It was a surprise to the Council Bluffs officer to find "Humpy" Anderson there as a convict. Scarcely two months ago Humpy was prowling about this city as usual, doing all sorts of sneak thievery, and was arrested for stealing several joints of stove pipe, that being as near to taking a red hot stove as he could come. He had since then got taken for going through a store in Crawford county, and has at last got where he has belonged for

The young man, O'Brien, who burglarized Mr. Stork's house, and also went through Mr. Phillips' residence, was let off very easy by Judge Deemer, who gave him only eighteen months. A strong appeal was made in his behalf, it being claimed that he was a hard worker, supporting a widowed mother, etc., and that he got into the scrape when so drunk that he did not realize what he was doing. There has been some pity for the young tiary he was immediately recognized as a young man who had been there before. He had been sent there for a burglary committed near the home of Judge Deemer, who sent teneed him for his offense here. The judge had forgotten the occurrence, as he was not on the bench at that time. Had it been called to his attention the young man would probably have got a young man would probably have got a much heavier sentence, and not been able to so touch the heart of the human judge. When the black "Texas," Richard Baker, entered the penitentiary, Cuff Johnson another colored inmate from Council Bluffs, could not but "give him the laugh," with the remark: "Texas, you know you ought to have been here before, but I knew you were coming."

The swarthy wife of Texas, Mrs. Baker, was also sentenced to Fort Madison. Judge Deemer's attention was called to the fact that no women were received there, but that she would have to be taken to Anamosa, but he thought this was a mistake, and so ordered the woman taken to the same prison as her husband. The sheriff followed directions, therefore, but on arriving there found that she could not be admitted. She was there-fore brought back, and is now in the jail here, awaiting transportation to Anamosa. Captain O'Brien had her for a traveling companion, therefore, both ways on the trip. Judge Deemer chanced to be going out home on the same train which bore the prisoners to Fort Mad-ison, and on returning he chanced to get onto the same train, and found that Mrs. Baker was being brought back for a fresh

The Chautauqua. The week has been one of progress in the Chantauqua assembly enterprise. The work of securing subscriptions has been more difficult than it should have been, in view of the worthiness of the enterprise. Still in such a move it is necessary to explain fully what the assembly is to be, and what it will accomplish. Many who were at first lukewarm are now very enthusiastic, and it is believed that so soon as the public can be made fully acquainted with the value of the move, there will be many generous supporters. Over half of the necessary amount has been secured, and the rest will be forthconing without doubt.

Another meeting is to be held next Tuesday evening in the Presbyterian church. There will be good music by Messrs. Tulleys and the Badollet brothers. with Miss Westcott as organist. Several interesting speakers have been secured and it is hoped that the public generally will respond to the invitation to be present. The enterprise is one which will prove of advantage to every property owner and resident of this city, and as such should at least be given the time necessary to get a full understanding of its importance. With such an understanding the question of finances will be very easily determined.

The Democratic Delegates.

Last night the democrats held their ward caucus to select delegates to the county convention to be held Thursday next in this city. The following is the

FIRST WARD. G. H. Jackson, chairman; F. C. Guan-ella, secretary. The chair appointed the following committee to bring in names of delegates: Richard Rawins, Jesse Walters and W. J. Conners.

The names submitted were: G. H. Jackson, W. J. Conners, F. C. Guanella, Robert Huntington, jr., James Nichols, E. C. Whittlesey and R. S. Rawlins, and the same declared the choice of the caucus. G. H. Jackson was recommended as committeeman from the first ward. A registration committee was chosen, composed of H. Shoemaker, Jesse Walters, F. C. Guanella, Robert Huntington, jr.

and W. J. Conners. SECOND WARD. Chairman, G. A. Holmes: secretary, Colonel Whittlesey. The chairman ap-pointed as committee to select delegates, Thomas Bowman, J. M. Shea, Ira Hen-

THIRD WARD.
Chairman, Dr. W. A. Ellis,

Delegates—Pat Lacy, E. Britton, W. A.
Ellis, C. A. Hammer, George Blaxsim,
John M. Shea, P. Ganoude, F. Kinney,

William Galvin. Committeeman-L. Swearingen.

THE FOURTH WARD.

The democracy of the Fourth ward has already established a reputation—for havoutcapped all previous ones. It was a double header. In response to the published call there was a large gathering at W. H. Ware's office. It was evident that the after was cut, though not dried. Let was settled by the Judge James appeared long enough to ligetionable schedule.

get it started his way, and when it began to be too hot he slipped out, leaving Ware and Ed. Troutman to carry out the plan.

Ware was made chairman and W. S. Williams secretary. Troutman moved to have a committee of three appointed to select eleven delegates. The crowd would not submit to this, and R. W. Whittlesey moved as an amendment that they ballot for delegates. The amendment was evidently carried by an overwhelming roar of voices. Ware overwhelming roar of voices. Ware declared it lost, Then Troutman's motion was put. There was another thun-dering of "noes," but the chairman declared the vote carried. He named as the committee: E. A. Troutman, James Madden, W. S. Williams.

Aladden, W. S. Williams.

That committee reported as delegates:
W. H. M. Pusey, John Shoentgen, W. C.
James, W. H. Ware, James Madden, J.
W. Peregoy, E. B. Bowman, Martin
Hughes, A. T. Elwell, J. K. Cooper, W.
S. Williams.

There were several calls for a division of the house, but Chairman Ware refused to entertain such requests. The justifi-cation claimed was that there were many in the room who belonged to a labor organization, and were not there strictly as democrats, and they had no right to vote. There was a wild scene for the few minutes the caucus lasted, and hot

R. W. Whittlesev and J. R. Diedrich were the chief spokesmen for the majority, while Judge Robinson was enthusiastic for Ware and Troutman, A motion was made to have W. H. Ware motion was made to have W. H. Ware the ward committeeman for the coming year. He being in the chair, with refreshing modesty, after his previous peculiar rulings, asked Secretary Williams to put the motion. It was so overwhelmingly lost that Williams even declared it lost, and in the confusion that followed Whittlesey moved that as they could get no fair piay the democrats of the Fourth ward should go to Snyder's warerooms ward should go to Snyder's warerooms and there hold a cancus. The crowd rushed out for that place, leaving Ware, Troutman and two or three others alone. On gathering in the wareroom J. R. Diedrich was made chairman, and George McPeek secretary. The causes of grievance were stated, and the crowd selected the following delegates viva voce: E. E. Aylesworth, W. L. Biggs, Elmer Pratt, C. A. Reed, Jerry Meyers, Ed DeKay, W. B. Reed, George McPeek, John Cusick, W. A. Mynster, J. G. Tipton.

For ward committeeman W. B. Reed was chosen. A petition and statement of facts was drawn up for the signature of those present, to be presented to the convention. The contestants claim that they do not object to the gentlemen chosen in the first caucus as delegates, but the manner in which they were selected.

Railroad Leases Expire.

DUBURUE, Ia., Oct. 1,-[Special Telegram to the BEE.]-The lease made by the Illinois Central of the Dubuque & Sioux City road terminated last night at 12 o'clock, and to-day the Illinois Central took formal possession of it. The lease was made twenty years ago. The lease of the Iowa Falls & Sloux City road also expired at the same time. The latter road will be operated by the old company, but under the control of the Illinois Central. It is announced that the present officers and agents of these roads will continue to act until further notice. The practical effect of these changes is to give the Illinois Central complete control, when for some time it has had partial control.

Pullman Obtains an Injunction. DES MOINES, Ia., Oct. 1.—| Special Telegram to the BEE. |—The clerk of the United States court here placed on file to-day an order from Justice Miller, of the supreme court, granting a temporary injunction against the collection of taxes levied by the state against the Pullman Sleeping Car company. The tax was charged to the roads using Pullman cars. The roads tried to collect it in turn from the Pullman company, Last year the Pullman company resisted the collection of this tax, and were defeated in a test suit in the United States circuit court. This year the company again resisted, claiming to be protected on the ground that their business belongs exclusively to the inter-state commerce. Fifteen counties along the line of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy road are temporarily restrained by this in-junction from collecting the sleeping-car tax. The case will be argued at the coming term of the federal court here, the injunction applying only till that time.

The Des Moines & Northwestern Sold. DES MOINES, Ia., Oct. 1 .- | Special Telegram to the BEE.]-The Des Moines & Northwestern railroad, extending from this city 150 miles northwest to Fonda, Pocahontas county, was to-day repurchased by the original builders and owners, namely, General G. M. Dodge, of New York city, and Messrs. Polk & Hubbell, capitalists, of this city. For several years the road has been operated as a part of the Nebraska system, but the failure of the Wabash company to comply with the terms of the lease occasioned the retransfer to the original owners. It is stated that next year the road will be broadened to a standard grage and be extended to ened to a standard guage and be extended to Sioux City. Ia., and Sioux Falis, Dak.

The Rapid City Fair.

RAPID CITY, Dak., Oct. 1.—[Special Telegram to the Bee. | The first annual exhibition of the Rapid City fair association closed this evening. It was held four days and was a great success. It was the finest stock show ever seen in the Black Hills. The racing each day was very exciting and good time was made. There were no accidents or other unpleasant features.

Va., occurred this afternoon at St. John's Episcopai church, under the direction of the Knights Templar.

THE FISHERIES COMMISSION. This Country Thought to Be Lacking

th Ability.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—[Special Telegram to the Bre.]—A gentleman who has had several years experience in the diplomatic service predicts that if anything comes out of the fisheries commission it will be to the disadvantage of the United States. Said he to-night: "The British have selected as members of this commission three of their most experienced diplomats, Joe Chamberlain is looked upon as the most shrewd and sharp politician in British politics to-day. We have in the United States only one man fit to cope with him, and that man is James G. Blaine. He can beat any or all the American commissioners in points of diplomacy. Sir John McDonald is looked upon, too, as the shrewdest man in Canadian politics, The United States commissioners were selected from the poorest possible material. While Mr. Angell might have been able to nerotiate a treaty years ago, he has been baried in a university for years and is not posted in diplomacy to-day. Mr. Putnam is a fairly able lawyer, but by no means one of the first rank. He cannot prove other than a mere tyro in the hands of "Brummagen Joe," as Chamberlain is termed. Bayard has shown how little he knows of the treaty-making art, and besides he is as deaf as a post. If, therefore, anything at all comes of this meeting, it will certainly be to the advantage of the British. Fortunately, however, the United States senate will have the power to nullify any action which the commission may take." The United States commissioners were se

The Smokers' Delight. The cigar and topacco business of T. D. King & Co., No. 543 Broadway, has had a phenomenal growth. Although one of the youngest eigar factories in the district it has speedily grown to be the largest. The firm's retail business has also increased rapidly, necessitating an enlargement of their quarters. The improvements now completed make this ne of the most attractive eigar stores in the west. The whole place has been fitted up elegantly, mirrors, draperies and adoroments making it entitled to be called "the smokers' delight." The new ade cases and wood fluishings in cherry and maple are especially admired. This work shows the skill and taste of Strock Bros., who have recently established a factory in this city, and who need no better evidence of their ability to do all kinds of interior finish-

The shop in the rear of these handsome retail parlors is also enlarged, and made convenient as well as capacious. The stock is too large and too varied to permit a full description.
