For Coroner. County Democrats Nominate.

The Douglas county democratic convention was held in the council chamber yesterday afternoon. Euclid Martin called the meeting to order and was made temporary chairman. R. Engleman was appointed temperary secretary. A committee of five was appointed to examine credentials, and while they were doing this, a recess was held.

About fifteen minutes later the convention was again called to order, and the report of the committee on credentials was adopted, and the temporary organization was made permanent. It was then voted that the ward and precinct delegations cast the full vote of the ward or precinct they represented where vacancies occurred.

A motion was then adopted to proceed to the nomination of a county judge. A. N. Ferguson placed before the convention the name of George Shields. which was seconded. Fred Bosthwick presented the name of C. J. Smythe, which was seconded by Mr. Minnehan. The members of the convention then proceeded to take an informal ballot, which resulted as follows:

mal ballot. Mr. O'Connor objected to manner of balloting, claiming that many of the delegates did not wish to announce their vote, and that it was not democratic. He then made a motion to reconsider the vote by which the convention decided to vote by wards and precincts, and a motion was carried that each delegate vote individually and that the majority of the ward dele gation vote for the absent delegates of their ward. A second ballot was then taken on the nomination of county judge. It resulted as follows:

Smythe....... Upon the announcement of the result it was found that 106 ballots had been cast, or three more than the convention should properly have. Then there was a kick. Many would not listen to the objection, and they yelled to have Shields' nomination made unanimous, Then there was a division and everyone was confused. Chairman Martin was rattled. Motions and amendments poured in upon him by the dozen, and there was little chance of any of them being entertained. Finally they decided to proceed to another ballot, which was started. Before it had been fully east Smythe arose and requested that his name be withdrawn as a can-didate. He stated that he believed that it was the wish of the convention that Shields be the nomince. The balloting was immediately stopped, and Shields was elected by acnation. He was brought to the front, and in a short speech thanked the convention for his nomination and Smythe for his withdrawal. Smythe was also brought to the front. He stated that he was a democrat, and dared any man to question it. He further said that i was true that he had voted for Van Wyck while in the legislature, but that when he did vote for him he had a big share of the democrats in this county at his back. He stated that his reason for doing this was the fact that no democrat could be elected to the position, and that Van Wyck was the nearest man to the democratic party. For doing this he had no apology to make. In closing, he stated that he would support the democratic nominee for county

The names of George Guy, Thomas Riley and Thomas Burrell were presented for the office of sheriff. The first ballot was a formal one and resulted as follows:

Riley 29 Burrell 16 Guy's nomination was made unani-

Upon motion of Mr. Points the nomination for the office of county treasurer was left to be filled by the county central committee.

T. A. Megeath was nominated by acclamation as the candidate for the office of the recorder of deeds, and in a short address thanked the convention for the nomination and stated he believed that he would be the holder of that office after January 1, 1888.

Gustav Benecke was nominated by ac-clamation as the candidate for clerk of the district court. This was upon the motion of J. E. Riley, seconded by Louis Heimrod.

M. D. Roche was nominated for county clerk by acclamation.

Charles Conoyer was nominated for superintendent of public schools by acclamation. The name of C. J. Smythe had been placed before the convention. but he positively refused to accept the nomination.

The name of M. W. Palmer was presented for nomination for county surveyor by J. E. Riley, and Mr. Moriarty presented the name of D. W. Ellis. Mr. Moriarty objected to the nomination of Mr. Palmer, stating that he had been informed by a person in the convention that Palmer had been mixed up in a "job" with Doe Smith. Mr. Riley defied Mr. Moriarty to tell who that person was, and he was forced to tell that i was no other person than Mr. Ellis. This fact probably had something to do with following ballot, which nominated Palmer:

John C. Drexel, the present incumbent of the office of coroner, was renom-inated by acclamation. He accepted the nomination in a short speech.

George Timme was the first name presented as a candidate for county commissioner, third district. D. W. Canon presented the name of John W. Hall, and A. H. Lee the name of Eli John-son, sr. The result of the first ballot was as follows:

Eli Johnson, sr......11 The ballot was made a formal one and

. Timme declared the nominee. Mr. Mc arty presented the name of P. J. Corrigan for commissioner from the fourth district, which was seconded by Pat Ford, who believed that an Irishman should be placed on the ticket somewhere. Theodore Gallagher pre-sented the name of Mr. W. G. Sloan, which was seconded. The first formal ballot was as follows:

nominee by a unanimous vote. The first aspirant for commissioner om the Fifth district was James H.

words seconded the nomination. Pat words seconded the nomination. Pat Ford positively refused to be a candidate, preferring council honors. The names of M. P. Murphy and L. M. Anderson were also placed in nomination.
The result of the ballot was as follows:
M. P. Murphy. 42
L. M. Anderson 41
James H. Winspear 17
Pat Ford 1

None of the names presented receivng a sufficient number of votes for a nomination, it was voted to proceed to a second ballot and drop the names of the two candidates who received the lowest number of votes. The name of James H. Winspear was formally withdrawn. The result of the second ballot was as democratic nominee.

The following deligates were then appointed to attend the judicial conven-tion to be held in this city October 17. William Neve, A. Frick, First ward; J. Donahue, sr., D. #### LIVE STOCK SHIPPERS MEET. Many Questions of Interest Discussed

-New Members. A meeting of the Live Stock Shippers' association was held at the stock exchange building, South Omaha, yesterday afternoon. The meeting was called to to order by Vice President Anderson. Communications were received from the Union Pacific and B. & M. railroads refusing to grant passes to shippers with one load of stock. Among the new members who joined the association were the following: William A. Paxton, Omaha; Thomas M. Self, Brock; Fred Fuller, Fullerton; John M. Young, Florence; Thomas Stretch, Val-paraiso; Pat Murphy, Rogers; George Varnes, Missouri Valley; J. W. Stoker, Logan, Ia.; W. F. Roden and J. Culver, Missouri Valley.

The Iowa members brought up the subject of the great delay in transferring stock from Council Bluffs, but it was stated by the chairman that the Union Pacific had promised to do better as soon as additional could be completed

The old subject regarding the commission men sending out buyers into the country came up again. It was stated by those present that since the association took the matter up at a recent meeting there had been less cause for complaint in Nebraska. In Iowa there was more or less cause for complaint, as the shippers of that state have not taken any part in the association previous to the present meeting, and for that reason some commission men have been sending buyers over there. One firm in particular was mentioned as following that practice. The secretary was instructed to have 1,000 copies of the constitution of the association printed for distribution among the members and prospective members. A motion was passed that a banquet be given at the next regular meeting of the association to be held in January. In addition to the routine business a great many questions of interest to shippers were informally discussed.

THE KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

What the Visiting and Resident Members are Doing.

THE FIRST COMPETITIVE DRILL

Grand Inaugural Ball at Exposition Hall Last Night-Prominent Members of the Order-Sprigs of Myrtle.

The Drill.

At 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon the first competitive drill of the uniform rank took place at the fair grounds. In class A a prize of $1,000 had been offered but five entries were required. By reason of the inability to secure the requisite number of entries, there was no drill in that class.

In class B, open to the world, a prize of $500 was offered, and Apollo division No. 11, of Lincoln, after going through a thirty-minute drill, was awarded the prize. Though the necessary number of entries were made, Apollo had everything its own way, as none of the other divisions entered competed for the prize. The judges were Colonel Taggert, and Guy V. Henry, of the army, and Colonel M. C. Burkwell, aide-de-camp to the major-general.

Apollo division was instituted at Lincoln, October 11, 1886, with the following officers: Captain, Charles M. Keefer; Lieutenant, H. W. Kelley, Herald, Walter Keens. These have continued in office ever since the division's organization. At the beginning the division had thirty-one members. It now has fifty, and in the parade of yesterday had twenty-four men and three officers in line. In October, 1886, this same division, then but thirty-six hours of age, captured the state prize of $750 for excellence in the tactics of the order. It is made up of a fine body of men, and the knights of Omaha will not begrudge the gallant Apollo its success and progress.

At exposition hall the Pythian warriors sheathed their swords and laying aside the cares of war, prepared to enjoy themselves as only the Pythian can. To excellent music the knights and their ladies tipped the light fantastic, and the affair was one long to be remembered by the happy participants.

Notable Pythians.

General W. L. Dayton, brigadier general of the Uniform Rank, was born at Princeton, Ill., March 22, 1857. In 1881 he came to Lincoln and has ever since been practicing medicine in that city, making a specialty of the eye and ear. He was a member of Lincoln division No. 1, served as captain of that division and was aide-de-camp with rank of colonel on the major general's staff at the time of his election to his present

General Dayton is about five feet ten. sparely but tersely built, with a decidedly prepossessing face. As a Pythian he is one of the "brightest," and as a disciplinarian he stands second to none. Very popular with his men his term of service is destined to build up the Nebraska division of their rank, and if his highest hopes and endeavors for the "good of the order" are realized Nebraska Pythianism will progress to a greater extent during the next year

Colonel J. Leon Fournier, of St. Louis is aide-de-camp on the staff of the major-general for the state of Ohio. Colonel Fournier was born in Paris. France, in 1880. In 1851 he came to the United States and located in New Orleans. In 1873 the colonel became a knight, joining Centennial lodge No. 5 at Hot Springs, Ark. Colonel Fournier is the Adonis and disciplinarian of the major-general's staff. He is an old secret society man, being connected with different associations as follows: P. C. of Harmony lodge, No. 6, K. of P. Corsicana, Tex.; S. K. of Ashland di-vision, No. 5, U. R., K. P., New York city; past grand outer guard, K. of P. of Texas; ex-deputy grand chancellor, K. of P., of Texas; P. S. of Garland lodge, No. 7, I. O. O. F., Hot Springs, Ark.; Robert E. Lee Castle, No. 107, K. G. R., New Orleans, La.; Branch No. 172, order of the Iron Hall, St. Louis, Mo.; Ohio lodge, No. 28, order of the Golden Chain, Columbus, O.

Colonel M. C. Barkwell, aide-de-camp to the major general, of Cheyenne, has an interesting history. On August 3, 1844, the colonel opened a pair of inquisitive eyes in Perry county, Indiana, up in the events of the world. Since that time he has mingled with people of all climes and classes, and his opportunities for information have been thoroughly utilized. At the age of eighteen Colonel Barkwell enlisted in the Twenty-third Indiana volunteers under Colonel John W. Stevenson and in the brigade commanded by General John M. Thayer. Being detached from that regiment, he entered the Fifth Ken-tucky, or Rosser's brigade, as medical cadet. At Chicamaugua he was wounded in the leg, and returning home again, entered college and took up his medical studies, graduating in 1866. For three years he filled the chair of anatomy in the Indiana Medical university, and on account of illness resigned and entered the United States army as acting assistant surgeon. Was stationed at Fort Omaha for some time and served in the North Pacific survey and in 1873 was ordered to Fort D. A. Russell. In 1874 he resigned from the army and moved to Cheyenne where he yet lives, engaged in the practice of medicine.

He became a knight in 1876, joining heyenne lodge No. 2. He has served in all capacities in the subordinate lodges, passed the chair, held the position of supreme representative one term and was re-elected last year.

In 1877 he joined the Uniform rank in which he served as lieutenant and herald. In 1878 he was appointed D. S. C. of Wyoming territory, then hav-ing only two lodges. During his term five lodges have been added and Wyoming has been created a proud jurisdic-tion. Wyoming is one of the youngest jurisdictions, but it has within its borders more knights in ratio to its population than any other state or terri-tory in the union.

In 1884 Colonel Barkwell was ap. pointed aide-de-camp, a position he holds to-day. An extended army experience makes him a more than ordinary valuable man to the order. He is a Pythian in every sense of the word, his besetting sin being his love for a good joke. The lodge at Cheyenne of which Colonel Barkwell is a member cost $15,000, and he reports the order in a good condition throughout the jurisdic-

Held Up in a Saloon. While in Gus Schultz' saloon yesterday about 11:30 o'clock Robert Dalon indiscreetly showed a large roll of bills while paying for some drinks. A moment later, while his back was turned, a couple of crooks who had spied the money seized him and attempted to rob him. In the struggle that followed Frank Crow, the bar-tender, lent a helping hand by striking Dalon over the head with a beer mallet, inflicting a long cut just above the ear. Dalon was knocked down by the force of the blow, but hastily scrambling to his feet again. he rushed out and called the police. At the time the police were all busily engaged with the crowds along the route of the presidential procession. Officer was found, but too late to capture the crooks. While walking quietly down Douglas street, about 4 o'clock yesterday, Officer Cullen was astonished by Will Gibson rushing wildly at him and giving him a stinging blow over the left ear. Cullen did not know Gibson, but as he had an air of respectability he was not disposed to arrest him, thinking it was a mere drunken freak. Gibson, however, poured out such a volley of profanity and showed such pugilistic inclinations that Cullen finally arrested him. Gibson did not wish to be disgraced by a public ride in a police patrol, and it looked for a while as though there would be a pitched battle between the officer and prisoner. The force of law, however, prevailed, and Gibson was taken to the central police station. reason is known for his attack on the

THERE NEVER WAS

Placed before the public such a store of boys' and children's clothing as we are showing this season. More than one-half of our second floor is devoted to their display and the prices we have marked them at were never known in the history of the trade.

We are showing boys' suits, at $1.60 that our competitors say are cheap at $3.00. They are strong and nice winter suits, plaited and well gotten up.

For $2.25 we have a splendid fancy cheviot suit, elegantly made up, which would be cheap at $4.50.

But the greatest of all bargains is our all wool cassimere suit at $2.50. This is beyond a doubt as good a suit as was ever offered at double this price. We placed 250 of them on our counters last week and had to telegraph for more. We have again all sizes.

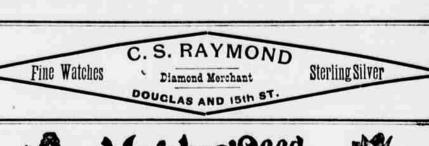

In finer grades we show a large variety of silk mixed cassimere cheviots and worsteds elegantly trimmed and made.

Boys' overcoats we offer from $1.35 for as good a coat as you can buy elsewhere for $3.00 up to the finest grades of chinchillas and cassimeres, which, in style and make, are the product of the most skillful and artistic cutters and tailors.

All goods marked in plain figures and at strictly one price.
