

BOULANGER UNDER ARREST.

Minister Ferron Orders that the General Be Deposed.

THE BIG SCANDAL IN THE CAFE.

Caffarelli Found Guilty By the Council - Wide-spread Excitement in France Over the Developments in the Case.

Decorations and Dips.

Paris, Oct. 13.—(New York Herald Cable-Special to the Bee.)—The excitement over the Caffarelli scandal continues unabated. The public feel that the affair is only at the beginning. Forty police agents have been searching Paris and scouring the country trying to find Gen. D'Audlan. Not even the faintest trace of him has yet been detected.

LONDON'S POOR.

What to Do With Them the Greatest of All Problems.

[Special Issue, by James Gordon Bennett.]

London, Oct. 13.—(New York Herald Cable-Special to the Bee.)—A problem scarcely inferior in importance to the Irish question must shortly call for the consideration of the government, namely, what to do with the unemployed, continually increasing in number. All who cannot find employment in other parts of the country flock here, filled with the spirit of the old legend, "London is a city of gold."

CLEVELAND IN KANSAS CITY.

The Presidential Party Listens to the Loud Murmurs of the Kaw.

A DRIVE THROUGH THE PLACE.

Grover Lays the Corner Stone of the New Y. M. C. A. Building—A Public Reception Follows the Ceremonies.

The Demonstration in Kansas City.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 13.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—A demonstration in Kansas City in honor of the president of the United States was a noisy and tumultuous proceeding, but attended with no more disorder than seems to be inevitable wherever the president appears.

A GAME OF COWHIDE.

The Consequence of Indulging in Too Much Poker.

COLUMBIA, Mo., Oct. 13.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—Waterbury, Collette county, is agitated over a series of cowhides growing out of the fascinating and popular game of poker.

A PROCUIRER PINCHED.

Mrs. Hattie Burner Arrested in St. Paul on a Kansas Warrant.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Oct. 13.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—Mrs. Hattie Burner was arrested last night by detectives on a requisition issued by the governor of Kansas and honored by Governor McGill. She is wanted at Topeka, Kan., on an old charge as a procurer.

COLUMBUS NOTES.

COLUMBUS, Neb., Oct. 13.—(Special to the Bee.)—At the church of St. Francis, in the monastery here, yesterday morning, Bishop O'Connor officiated and confirmed about fifty children.

THE INSANE ASYLUM HORROR.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Oct. 13.—People have been flocking in crowds to the Northern Ohio insane asylum to-day, anxious to obtain news of friends among the patients.

DAVITT AND THE KNIGHTS OF LABOR.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—The people were given an opportunity to greet him and his wife. The reception continued until 5 o'clock, and there were still a number of people waiting to be pointed.

A SHOCKING TRAGEDY.

FOND DU LAC, Wis., Excited Over the Work of a Fiend.

FOND DU LAC, Wis., Oct. 13.—The city is highly excited over the discovery of a shocking tragedy which was committed near the limits of the town at an early hour this morning.

PLANNING MILL BURNED.

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 13.—A fire this morning destroyed the building occupied as a planing mill and furniture factory by Allen & Bartlett, John Balkwill and John F. Arndt.

CIVILIZING AFRICA.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—Consul General Gardwell, of Cairo, Egypt, in a report to the department of state, calls special attention to the successful labors of the American missionaries in the valley of the Nile.

FOR WEATHER INDICATIONS.

For Nebraska: Warmer, fair weather, light to fresh southerly winds.

For Iowa: Warmer, fair weather, light to fresh variable winds, shifting to southeasterly.

For Eastern and Central Dakota: Warmer, fair weather, light to fresh southerly winds.

SALT LAKE CITY EXCITED.

Rumor of the Assassination of the President by a Crazy Hackman.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Oct. 13.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—This city was thrown into a fever of excitement to-day by a report being circulated to the effect that a crazy hackman had assassinated President Cleveland in Kansas City as he was being driven to the train.

A "COMPROMISE" MEETING.

Railroad Officials and the Board of Transportation Confer.

A STAR CHAMBER GATHERING.

Suicide of a Young Lady at Cortland - The Hastings News Suspends Publication - Nebraska and Iowa News.

Reporters Excluded.

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 13.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—The state board of transportation and representatives of the Nebraska railroads have been in conference all day and will meet again to-morrow morning.

A Young Lady's Sad Suicide.

CORTLAND, Neb., Oct. 13.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—Miss Lizzie Plater, aged nineteen, committed suicide this afternoon by taking poison. She has since last spring, with her brother, been keeping house for the Cooper boys, who own a large farm six miles south of Cortland.

Captured After a Hard Struggle.

FRIEND, Neb., Oct. 13.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—Ferdinand Arndt was put under $1,000 bonds some time since for threatening to kill his devoted wife.

Found Under a Bridge.

DEBQUE, Ia., Oct. 13.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—George Clark, a young man living in East Dubuque, was found under a bridge this morning.

Given Up For Lost.

GLOUCESTER, Mass., Oct. 13.—The schooner Thomas L. Sarr, which sailed from here August 19 with a crew of fourteen men on a fishing voyage, is given up for lost, with all hands.

Arrested For Assault.

RAPID CITY, Dak., Oct. 13.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—Josephine Wallace was arrested to-day, charged with complicity in the assault on John White at Minnie Golden's bungalow some time since.

A NOTED CROOK'S ESCAPE.

STILLWATER, Minn., Oct. 13.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—Frank Landers, alias Wilbur F. James, the notorious diamond swindler and confidence man, who swindled many diamond dealers and others of St. Paul, managed to make his escape from the penitentiary last night.

A Brutal Professor.

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., Oct. 13.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—George Koerber, a young man twenty-one years of age, living with his mother two and one-half miles north of here, fell in love with a neighbor's daughter, Lena Fahrenkrug, about two years ago.

He Loved Lena.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 13.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—George Koerber, a young man twenty-one years of age, living with his mother two and one-half miles north of here, fell in love with a neighbor's daughter, Lena Fahrenkrug, about two years ago.

The North Nebraska Shoot.

NORFOLK, Neb., Oct. 13.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—The north Nebraska sportsmen closed a two-day's tournament here last evening.

At Home to Rest.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—The steamer Newport from Liverpool, which was on her way to the late General Kilpatrick on board, was docked early this morning.

He Loved Lena.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 13.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—George Koerber, a young man twenty-one years of age, living with his mother two and one-half miles north of here, fell in love with a neighbor's daughter, Lena Fahrenkrug, about two years ago.

Business Failure.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 13.—The Cleveland Drug company, doing a wholesale business, made an assignment to-day. The assets are said to be $80,000, and liabilities $50,000.

A "COMPROMISE" MEETING.

Railroad Officials and the Board of Transportation Confer.

A STAR CHAMBER GATHERING.

Suicide of a Young Lady at Cortland - The Hastings News Suspends Publication - Nebraska and Iowa News.

Reporters Excluded.

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 13.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—The state board of transportation and representatives of the Nebraska railroads have been in conference all day and will meet again to-morrow morning.

A Young Lady's Sad Suicide.

CORTLAND, Neb., Oct. 13.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—Miss Lizzie Plater, aged nineteen, committed suicide this afternoon by taking poison. She has since last spring, with her brother, been keeping house for the Cooper boys, who own a large farm six miles south of Cortland.

Captured After a Hard Struggle.

FRIEND, Neb., Oct. 13.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—Ferdinand Arndt was put under $1,000 bonds some time since for threatening to kill his devoted wife.

Found Under a Bridge.

DEBQUE, Ia., Oct. 13.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—George Clark, a young man living in East Dubuque, was found under a bridge this morning.

Given Up For Lost.

GLOUCESTER, Mass., Oct. 13.—The schooner Thomas L. Sarr, which sailed from here August 19 with a crew of fourteen men on a fishing voyage, is given up for lost, with all hands.

Arrested For Assault.

RAPID CITY, Dak., Oct. 13.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—Josephine Wallace was arrested to-day, charged with complicity in the assault on John White at Minnie Golden's bungalow some time since.

A NOTED CROOK'S ESCAPE.

STILLWATER, Minn., Oct. 13.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—Frank Landers, alias Wilbur F. James, the notorious diamond swindler and confidence man, who swindled many diamond dealers and others of St. Paul, managed to make his escape from the penitentiary last night.

A Brutal Professor.

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., Oct. 13.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—George Koerber, a young man twenty-one years of age, living with his mother two and one-half miles north of here, fell in love with a neighbor's daughter, Lena Fahrenkrug, about two years ago.

He Loved Lena.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 13.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—George Koerber, a young man twenty-one years of age, living with his mother two and one-half miles north of here, fell in love with a neighbor's daughter, Lena Fahrenkrug, about two years ago.

The North Nebraska Shoot.

NORFOLK, Neb., Oct. 13.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—The north Nebraska sportsmen closed a two-day's tournament here last evening.

At Home to Rest.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—The steamer Newport from Liverpool, which was on her way to the late General Kilpatrick on board, was docked early this morning.

He Loved Lena.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 13.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—George Koerber, a young man twenty-one years of age, living with his mother two and one-half miles north of here, fell in love with a neighbor's daughter, Lena Fahrenkrug, about two years ago.

Business Failure.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 13.—The Cleveland Drug company, doing a wholesale business, made an assignment to-day. The assets are said to be $80,000, and liabilities $50,000.

A SHUT-OUT FOR THE BROWNS.

The Detroit Club Knocks Out the St. Louis Men in Fine Shape.

FINE FIELDING BY THE FORMER.

The Base Ball Status in Omaha Somewhat For Business Men - Seriously Consider-Other Sporting News.

A Bad Defeat.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 13.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—Detroit won the fourth game of the world's championship series played here to-day. Three thousand people were present.

Second Iowa Cavalry Reunion.

MUSKOGEE, Ia., Oct. 13.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—There were over two hundred survivors in attendance at the reunion of the Second Iowa cavalry and the reunion was the most successful in the history of the organization.

A Triangular Fight.

DES MOINES, Ia., Oct. 13.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—There is a lively fight going on in the Twenty-fifth senatorial district, composed of Iowa and Johnson counties.

Arrested for Misrepresentation.

DEBQUE, Ia., Oct. 13.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—Lawrence, alias Reed, of Cherokee, Ia., is having an examination before United States Commissioner Hobbs on a charge of drawing a pension by representing himself to be a widow.

Resigned.

DAVENPORT, Oct. 13.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—The Davenport Burner company made an assignment to-day for the benefit of its creditors.

Found Under a Bridge.

DEBQUE, Ia., Oct. 13.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—George Clark, a young man living in East Dubuque, was found under a bridge this morning.

Given Up For Lost.

GLOUCESTER, Mass., Oct. 13.—The schooner Thomas L. Sarr, which sailed from here August 19 with a crew of fourteen men on a fishing voyage, is given up for lost, with all hands.

Arrested For Assault.

RAPID CITY, Dak., Oct. 13.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—Josephine Wallace was arrested to-day, charged with complicity in the assault on John White at Minnie Golden's bungalow some time since.

A NOTED CROOK'S ESCAPE.

STILLWATER, Minn., Oct. 13.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—Frank Landers, alias Wilbur F. James, the notorious diamond swindler and confidence man, who swindled many diamond dealers and others of St. Paul, managed to make his escape from the penitentiary last night.

A Brutal Professor.

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., Oct. 13.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—George Koerber, a young man twenty-one years of age, living with his mother two and one-half miles north of here, fell in love with a neighbor's daughter, Lena Fahrenkrug, about two years ago.

He Loved Lena.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 13.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—George Koerber, a young man twenty-one years of age, living with his mother two and one-half miles north of here, fell in love with a neighbor's daughter, Lena Fahrenkrug, about two years ago.

The North Nebraska Shoot.

NORFOLK, Neb., Oct. 13.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—The north Nebraska sportsmen closed a two-day's tournament here last evening.

At Home to Rest.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—The steamer Newport from Liverpool, which was on her way to the late General Kilpatrick on board, was docked early this morning.

He Loved Lena.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 13.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—George Koerber, a young man twenty-one years of age, living with his mother two and one-half miles north of here, fell in love with a neighbor's daughter, Lena Fahrenkrug, about two years ago.

Business Failure.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 13.—The Cleveland Drug company, doing a wholesale business, made an assignment to-day. The assets are said to be $80,000, and liabilities $50,000.

A SHUT-OUT FOR THE BROWNS.

The Detroit Club Knocks Out the St. Louis Men in Fine Shape.

FINE FIELDING BY THE FORMER.

The Base Ball Status in Omaha Somewhat For Business Men - Seriously Consider-Other Sporting News.

A Bad Defeat.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 13.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—Detroit won the fourth game of the world's championship series played here to-day. Three thousand people were present.

Second Iowa Cavalry Reunion.

MUSKOGEE, Ia., Oct. 13.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—There were over two hundred survivors in attendance at the reunion of the Second Iowa cavalry and the reunion was the most successful in the history of the organization.

A Triangular Fight.

DES MOINES, Ia., Oct. 13.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—There is a lively fight going on in the Twenty-fifth senatorial district, composed of Iowa and Johnson counties.

Arrested for Misrepresentation.

DEBQUE, Ia., Oct. 13.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—Lawrence, alias Reed, of Cherokee, Ia., is having an examination before United States Commissioner Hobbs on a charge of drawing a pension by representing himself to be a widow.

Resigned.

DAVENPORT, Oct. 13.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—The Davenport Burner company made an assignment to-day for the benefit of its creditors.

Found Under a Bridge.

DEBQUE, Ia., Oct. 13.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—George Clark, a young man living in East Dubuque, was found under a bridge this morning.

Given Up For Lost.

GLOUCESTER, Mass., Oct. 13.—The schooner Thomas L. Sarr, which sailed from here August 19 with a crew of fourteen men on a fishing voyage, is given up for lost, with all hands.

Arrested For Assault.

RAPID CITY, Dak., Oct. 13.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—Josephine Wallace was arrested to-day, charged with complicity in the assault on John White at Minnie Golden's bungalow some time since.

A NOTED CROOK'S ESCAPE.

STILLWATER, Minn., Oct. 13.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—Frank Landers, alias Wilbur F. James, the notorious diamond swindler and confidence man, who swindled many diamond dealers and others of St. Paul, managed to make his escape from the penitentiary last night.

A Brutal Professor.

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., Oct. 13.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—George Koerber, a young man twenty-one years of age, living with his mother two and one-half miles north of here, fell in love with a neighbor's daughter, Lena Fahrenkrug, about two years ago.

He Loved Lena.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 13.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—George Koerber, a young man twenty-one years of age, living with his mother two and one-half miles north of here, fell in love with a neighbor's daughter, Lena Fahrenkrug, about two years ago.

The North Nebraska Shoot.

NORFOLK, Neb., Oct. 13.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—The north Nebraska sportsmen closed a two-day's tournament here last evening.

At Home to Rest.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—The steamer Newport from Liverpool, which was on her way to the late General Kilpatrick on board, was docked early this morning.

He Loved Lena.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 13.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—George Koerber, a young man twenty-one years of age, living with his mother two and one-half miles north of here, fell in love with a neighbor's daughter, Lena Fahrenkrug, about two years ago.

Business Failure.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 13.—The Cleveland Drug company, doing a wholesale business, made an assignment to-day. The assets are said to be $80,000, and liabilities $50,000.

Ward's Home Run.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—The Times says: Among the many rumors which were circulated yesterday as to the cause of the hurried marriage of Miss Davray and Ward, was one that affected George McDermott, a lawyer residing at 155 East Forty-sixth street.

Northwestern League.

DES MOINES, Ia., Oct. 13.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—The Northwestern league was played here to-day, resulting in the score of Des Moines 14, Duluth 4. This being the last game played, leaves the percentage of the four highest clubs as follows: Duluth, 65; Milwaukee, 65; Des Moines, 62; St. Paul, 60. The order of the remaining clubs is: Minneapolis, La Crosse, Duluth and Eau Claire.

Races at Latonia.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 13.—At Latonia. Weather fine and track excellent. Seven furlongs: Lucky Jim won, Evance second, Ray third. Time—1:31.5. Seven furlongs: Clance won, Dudley second, Monarch third. Time—1:30.5. Five furlongs: Flitter won, Irma H. second, Balance third. Time—1:14. One mile and one-half furlongs: Little Minch won, Sour Mash second, Montrose third. Time—2:15.

Jerome Park Meeting.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—The weather at Jerome Park was cold but bright, and the track fast. Three-quarters mile: Cyclops won, Ross second, Orvid third. Time—1:17.5. For two-year-olds, three-quarters mile: Belinda won, Speedwell second, King Card third. Time—1:17. For three-year-olds, mile and three-quarters: Firenze won, Hanover second. Only two starters. Time—3:09.5. Mile and a quarter: Royal Arch won, Ben All second, Lady Favourite third. Time—2:11.5. Mile and one-sixteenth: Choctaw won, Nettie second, Womercourt third. Time—2:15.5.