MINOR MENTION. A cheerful home. N. Y. Plumbing Co. The Warren house for rent. Helter, tailor. Fall goods cheap. The North Second street cut is being pushed through rapidly.

George Francis Train threatens to leave in Council Bluffs the last of this month. Cody's wood-working establishment on Washington street is being enlarged by an addition. Ladies, see combined writing desk and sewing machine. Domestic office, 105 Main street.

A. E. Cooper and Ida Monroe, both of Omaha, were carefully spliced yesterday by Squire Biggs. The machinery is being put in position for the tower electric lights. The system will be complete in a few days.

At Clark goes to Lewis, Ia. next week, where he will open a bank, and transact a general loan and banking business. There is a bad break in the Third street culvert near Fourteenth street which should receive immediate attention.

A perfectly constructed house prevents sickness. Get the new house in the Warren block, for rent by Odell Bros. Mr. John J. O'Herne and Miss Catherine Lafferty were married yesterday at 8 o'clock a. m. by Rev. B. P. McMenomy.

Laborers are at work on Harrison and Bancroft streets raising them to grade and putting them in shape for public use. Chaplain Lozier, Iowa's fighting parson, is to be here on the 19th at a camp of entertainment to be given by the Union Veterans' organization.

A marriage license was granted yesterday to R. M. Williams and Alice McCombs, the former of Pottawattamie, and the latter of this city. Mayor Groneweg is in favor of light and sunshine, at least he is having some of the shade trees around his residence on Washington street removed.

R. M. Williams, of Rockford township, and Alice Combs, of Harrison county, were united in the bonds of double blessedness, yesterday, by Squire Barnett. Charles J. Beckman is doing an artistic job putting his patent fence around the new residence of Henry Sptman, corner Fourth avenue and Tenth street.

The Knights of Pythias may well feel proud of the splendid showing they made at the president's reception. They were certainly the finest appearing company in the city. Mr. Luther Bevell, who was severely injured by the falling sign on Broadway a few days ago, is able to be out of doors. It will be some time before he can resume his daily labors.

The funeral of the little son of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Walters took place yesterday afternoon at the home of Grace street. The remains were taken to Fairfield, Ia., for interment. Weightman is pushing the work on the Vine street sewer. The pipe is already laid more than half the length of the street, and part of the force are now working on the remaining sections.

The Manhattan betting board yesterday offered $25 to $10 on Groneweg, and Plumer, $25 to $10 on Hart, Wyman and Cooper, $25 to $20 on O'Neil and Hendricks, $10 even on Waterman. Miss Ada M. Clark died at the institution for the deaf and dumb Tuesday of malaria fever. She was aged eighteen years. Her mother arrived yesterday, and the body was taken to Clarinda for burial.

The city council will meet in adjourned session this evening. Efforts are being made to complete the public improvements already begun, before cold weather sets in, which necessitates much work by our city fathers. Judge Aylesworth held court yesterday evening upstairs in the city jail, owing to the unfinished state of affairs in the lower story. The needed repairs are now completed, and his honor will now assess taxes at the usual place, today.

A German band rendered some very fine music on the streets yesterday, considering the small number of pieces. The amount of money contributed by this city to build up different bands would amount to a very considerable sum. As an evidence of the unsectarian character of the public library, we refer to the fact that Rev. B. P. McMenomy is one of its trustees, and his name has been lately added to its well filled shelves which is explanatory of the Catholic religion.

D. C. Noonan has a force of twenty men busily at work getting the streets in readiness for the block paving. The surfacing on north Eighth street will be completed tonight, and the full force will be put to work on Fourth street, which will have to be cut down nineteen inches from its present grade. Voters should make a note of it that the board of registry meets next Tuesday. As every voter, whether registered before the time, must appear in person, traveling men and others expecting to be absent more or less should arrange their business so as to be here while the board is in session, otherwise they cannot get their vote in.

Last evening A. B. Howe, familiarly known as "Bruce" Howe, was happily married, the bride being Miss Fannie Westcott, the accomplished musician and organist of the Presbyterian church. The ceremony took place at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Westcott, No. 905 Washington avenue, only a few intimate friends being present. Rev. Dr. Phelps officiated. Mr. John Hilditch and Miss Clara A. Hilditch were married Wednesday evening in St. Paul's church by Rev. T. J. Mackay. The ceremony was witnessed only by a few intimate friends. Mr. Hilditch is an employe of the Union Pacific, belonging to the transfer force. The bride arrived from England but a few hours before the ceremony, having made the voyage alone. She was married in her traveling costume, and appeared as a beautiful, sensible young woman, more than ordinarily attractive. They will make their home in this city.

THE NEWS IN THE BLUFFS.

The Jones Murder Case Comes Up For a Fourth Trial.

THE MORSE DIAMOND MYSTERY.

Serious Questions of Tax Titles - The Sinners Brought Before the Police Bar - Issues of All Sorts.

The Jones Murder Case.

In the district court yesterday the case of Jonathan Jones was called, and the afternoon spent in empanelling a jury. This case has dragged along until it is decidedly chestnutty, and still its one of great importance, and one which has greatly interested the public. David Roberts was killed in 1878, and Jonathan Jones, a neighbor, was arrested charged with murder. On the first trial he was found guilty of manslaughter, and sentenced to fourteen years in the penitentiary. After serving a short time he secured a new trial, and was the second time found guilty, but was sentenced to only seven years. In May last he was tried a third time, and again found guilty, but Judge Carson granted a new trial, and now the case comes up again. The defense has been that there was no sufficiency of evidence, and further that Jones was not in such mental condition as to be responsible for his acts. Jones has certainly for several years been in a partially insane or demented condition, and this has been apparent to many. It is claimed that this shadow upon him has rested since childhood, and that he has always been queer. The state will endeavor to show that even if he is insane now, he was not so at the time of the tragedy. Jones is in court, but as on the previous trial he seems unconcerned as though he was made of wood. He is past the prime of life, and seems to be much of a wreck mentally and physically.

W. A. Myer is conducting the prosecution, and Colonel C. R. Scott, of Omaha, is for the defense. The case will occupy several days. Judge Deemer announces that he will hold court day and night until the criminal business is disposed of. The evening sessions are therefore in order, and all concerned are being compelled to put in full hours.

The case of Morse, indicted with Rothery in the stealing of the Burhorn diamond, was given to the jury about 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The prediction was quite freely made that there would be a disagreement, as on the previous trial.

Before the Bar. There were several parties before Judge Aylesworth yesterday morning for being keyed up too highly. M. E. Fealing deposited $7.00 to balance his account. Anson Hill was fined $8.10 and William Emmett $1.00. Andy Rogers paid $3.00 and promised to send the balance of the $7.00 as soon as he could earn it. Samuel Allen pleaded not guilty and was sent out to find the prosecuting witness. The judge said he had no fears but what he would come back as the magnetism of his job of whisky, which was held at the police station, would prevent him from going far. William Lauren was discharged, with instructions to get out of the city inside of two hours.

The cases of the three men, Turner, Monroe and Wilson, charged with the larceny of a rubber coat from M. Marcus, came before Judge Aylesworth yesterday afternoon. After examining a few witnesses the cases were continued until this morning. The case of R. A. Parrott was also called and after pleading guilty to several charges, he said that he would start for Colorado within an hour if released, as all he wanted to do was just to go home and get some clothes. His wife was afraid to trust him, as he had threatened her life, so he was remanded to jail. This morning she will bring his clothing to the police station, and he will be escorted out of town by an officer. Mrs. Parrott had applied for a divorce before his arrest, and will be satisfied if he will only stay away, and cause no more trouble. He has shamefully abused his family and they have lived in constant terror lest he should execute his oft-repeated threats to kill them. He is useless as a citizen and a curse to his family, and if again found in the city, will be promptly locked up, where he will have no opportunity to gratify his increasing appetite for human gore.

Mr. and Mrs. Parrott were wedded in Atchison, Kan., in 1868. They have five children. Parrott has been married three years ago, and played upon the sympathy of veterans, claiming to have been a valiant himself. He gained quite generous contributions to relieve his distress, but he was soon discovered to be a fraud, and has since been a general nuisance of himself. The woman seems to be hardworking, and to have suffered much at his hands.

Notice to Claim Property. The owners of certain restaurant property and tents, sent to Lincoln, Neb., during the state fair, by the team of M. E. Matherbee, of Council Bluffs, Ia., can have same by calling on him and paying charges; if not, same will be sold November 1, 1887, for said charges.

Tax Title Questions. Judge Aylesworth rendered a decision in regard to a tax deed which interests many, as the same question involves a great many similar deeds. It appears that the treasurer has been in the habit of carrying the delinquent taxes on a separate book instead of having them appear on the regular tax list, as required by law, under the construction given to it by Judge Aylesworth. The judge deems that this requirement of law is for the purpose of protecting the property owner, for if the delinquent taxes appear in another column, on the same book the treasurer is reminded that there are delinquent taxes, and the property owner, when he goes to pay his taxes, is very likely to come into possession of the same important bit of information. By keeping the delinquent tax list on a separate book, the taxes are overlooked and the property may be sold for taxes without the knowledge of the owner. Hence the purpose of the law requiring delinquent taxes to be kept on the same book, in an additional column. The same question is pending in the district court in some cases brought there, to quiet title, and some further decisions are being looked for. The matter is a very important one, and the courts may cause quite a change in tax titles by their decisions.

Money to loan. Cooper & Judson. Every one making a cash purchase of 25 cents at T. D. Ring & Co's. cigar store gets a chance in the annual prize drawing. Twenty elegant prizes.

Personal Paragraphs.

R. A. Price, of Hardin, was at Kiel's yesterday. Postmaster Lavenburg, of Armour, was at Kiel's hotel yesterday. J. A. Frazier, a stock dealer of Sioux City, was among those at Kiel's yesterday. Hon. R. S. Hart, of Avoca, was in the city yesterday looking after his political interests. Miss Ida Sharp, who has been visiting Miss Phillips, has returned to her Omaha home. D. W. Townsend, of LaMars, Ia., the contractor for the carpenter work of the new court house, is at the Kiel hotel. A. W. Wyman, of Keg Creek, is making his headquarters at Kiel's hotel, while looking after his political chances. F. Nutt, formerly of Glenwood and of Pacific Junction, and now located in Edwards county, Kansas, was yesterday at the Creston greeting his many Council Bluffs friends. Mr. Hugh Smith writes to his father, Rev. Thomas Smith, a glowing letter from Los Angeles, Cal. He is full of enthusiasm over the new and rapidly developing country. Mrs. W. H. Lynchard, who sustained a very severe dislocation of her hip by being thrown from a street car, is improving, although still suffering greatly. She was able to walk a little yesterday with the aid of crutches, and is hoped she will entirely recover in a short time. At the Ogden house yesterday: F. A. Hayden, Chicago; F. J. Meinberg, Philadelphia; W. F. Bliss and wife, San Francisco; H. M. McCourtney, New York; M. H. Fisher, Creston; and C. K. Mead, Des Moines. At the Pacific: George Robinson, New York; H. M. Wood, Des Moines; Fred D. Smith, Rochester; A. J. Pickett and C. D. Demeritt, Chicago.

The Bechtel House. The financial troubles of the Bechtel hotel have resulted in the sheriff taking possession. There is a first mortgage on the building and real estate for about $9,000 in favor of H. L. Knowles, New York, and foreclosure proceedings have commenced. There was a second mortgage, and a chattel mortgage on the furniture, owned by Charles Straub and Herman Brown, of this city. It was under this chattel mortgage that the sheriff took possession, and the work of inventoring began. Thus it seems that the liabilities are from $18,000 to $20,000. It is thought that arrangements can be made by which Mr. Bechtel will continue in possession of the property, or will secure for him the rental income. His long residence here, his wide circle of friends, his known integrity and his former prosperity causes much sympathy for him in his present financial troubles. He lays the cause of his present misfortunes to prohibition, by which his bar has been closed and the income of the hotel greatly reduced. Others do not agree with him in this, but whatever may be the cause the fact remains, much as it may be regretted, that he is in a stress of financial bad weather.

Remember the radiant home stove has had the test of years in every vital part. It is no new experiment, but the best stove made. See our goods at 41 Main street. COLE & COLE.

When the new county jail was first built it took only eighteen pounds weight to turn the great iron cylinder. Now it requires two as strong men as can get at the crank, and then it will hardly budge. J. W. and E. L. Squire lend money.

John Miller has returned from the west and is planning on opening a meat market on South Main street, about October 1, in company with Michael O'Connor. Mr. Miller has had a large experience in this business, and enjoys an extensive acquaintance in the city. The new firm will undoubtedly do well.
