An Aphorism Which Rev. A. W. Lamar Believes is Wrong.

GOD'S OVERRULING PROVIDENCE.

A Number of Lessons Drawn From the Conversion of Onesimus in Rome For the Comfort of Parents.

The Conversion of a Runaway Slave.

Yesterday was the last Sunday on which preaching service will be held in the body of the First Baptist church.

Selfishness, said the preacher, is the greatest source of evil to the human family—blighting more than half of human happiness and marring more than half of human character.

After the ceremony followed a bountiful supper, at which congratulations were read from distant friends. After supper followed the usual dance.

On Wednesday the newly married couple leave for Cheyenne, taking with them their new home a magnificent array of costly presents.

Second, We see how wonderfully God can overrule sin. That it was wicked in Onesimus to rob his master, none can gainsay.

Fast Drivers Arrested. W. W. Douglas and W. Hudson, two salesmen, were arrested yesterday afternoon by officer Pulaski for fast driving.

Two young men of Garden Plain, Kan., fought with slingshots in church yesterday which should I escort a young woman to her home.

hours. I prayed to God that if he would spare me that I would go home and give my heart to Jesus.

Let all parents and wives whose loved ones are not converted take heart, for God can bring the wanderers back.

O young man far away from home and God, you have come in here to-night, after all your twists and turns God brought you here to-night.

Philadelphia News: "How can I get that man arrested?" asked a woman wearing a plain black suit and a black hat, over which was drawn a blue veil, to a Philadelphia gentleman as he hurried by the lamp-post at southeast corner of Eleventh and Marble streets last evening.

"What has he done?" "He picked my pocket not a second ago."

"The gentleman lost not a moment, and an instant later he had grasped the man by the arm. The latter turned as he felt the touch on the arm, and asked with a slight foreign accent, "What is the matter?"

"This lady says you picked her pocket," replied the gentleman, indicating the lady, who had meanwhile come up with the pair.

"Sir!" came the indignant exclamation. Then a moment of pause, later a sneering smile, and then the words: "I am at liberty to search you, sir."

"You watch him," said the gentleman, and he went off for a policeman. He had not noticed that the excitement had caused the woman who sat near by to faint.

"Nineteen years ago Mrs. Annie Tomlin, of Mauricetown, N. J., had $20 stolen from her while sick on a schooner at Boston. A few days ago she received a letter from Philadelphia with a $20 bill enclosed, saying that that amount had been taken from her pocketbook at the time and place above mentioned.

In the City of Mexico everybody lives over a shop, if the house be two stories or use the lower floor for stabling horses, quartering the servants, etc. Even the millionaires often rent the ground floor for their well residences for business purposes.

THERE NEVER WAS

Placed before the public such a stock of boys' and children's clothing as we are showing this season. More than one-half of our second floor is devoted to their display and the prices we have marked them at were never known in the history of the trade.

We are showing boys' suits, at $1.60 that our competitors say are cheap at $3.00. They are strong and nice winter suits, plaited and well gotten up.

For $2.25 we have a splendid fancy chevrot suit, elegantly made up, which would be cheap at $4.50.

But the greatest of all bargains is our all wool cassimere suit at $2.50. This is beyond a doubt as good a suit as was ever offered at double this price. We placed 250 of them on our counters last week and had to telegraph for more. We have again all sizes.

In finer grades we show a large variety of silk mixed cassimere chevrots and worsteds elegantly trimmed and made.

Boys' overcoats we offer from $1.35 for as good a coat as you can buy elsewhere for $3.00 up to the finest grades of chinchillas and cassimeres, which, in style and make, are the product of the most skillful and artistic cutters and tailors.

All goods marked in plain figures and at strictly one price.
