

THE DAILY BEE.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION. Daily (Morning Edition) including Sunday... For Six Months... For One Year...

Sworn Statement of Circulation. State of Nebraska, County of Douglas, J. S. ... Sworn to and subscribed in my presence this 15th day of October, A. D. 1887.

The Bee Publishing Company, Proprietors. E. ROSEWATER, Editor.

THE DAILY BEE.

Sworn Statement of Circulation. State of Nebraska, County of Douglas, J. S. ... Sworn to and subscribed in my presence this 15th day of October, A. D. 1887.

THE DAILY BEE.

Sworn Statement of Circulation. State of Nebraska, County of Douglas, J. S. ... Sworn to and subscribed in my presence this 15th day of October, A. D. 1887.

THE DAILY BEE.

Sworn Statement of Circulation. State of Nebraska, County of Douglas, J. S. ... Sworn to and subscribed in my presence this 15th day of October, A. D. 1887.

THE DAILY BEE.

Sworn Statement of Circulation. State of Nebraska, County of Douglas, J. S. ... Sworn to and subscribed in my presence this 15th day of October, A. D. 1887.

THE DAILY BEE.

Sworn Statement of Circulation. State of Nebraska, County of Douglas, J. S. ... Sworn to and subscribed in my presence this 15th day of October, A. D. 1887.

THE DAILY BEE.

Sworn Statement of Circulation. State of Nebraska, County of Douglas, J. S. ... Sworn to and subscribed in my presence this 15th day of October, A. D. 1887.

THE DAILY BEE.

Sworn Statement of Circulation. State of Nebraska, County of Douglas, J. S. ... Sworn to and subscribed in my presence this 15th day of October, A. D. 1887.

THE DAILY BEE.

Sworn Statement of Circulation. State of Nebraska, County of Douglas, J. S. ... Sworn to and subscribed in my presence this 15th day of October, A. D. 1887.

THE DAILY BEE.

Sworn Statement of Circulation. State of Nebraska, County of Douglas, J. S. ... Sworn to and subscribed in my presence this 15th day of October, A. D. 1887.

THE DAILY BEE.

Sworn Statement of Circulation. State of Nebraska, County of Douglas, J. S. ... Sworn to and subscribed in my presence this 15th day of October, A. D. 1887.

THE DAILY BEE.

Sworn Statement of Circulation. State of Nebraska, County of Douglas, J. S. ... Sworn to and subscribed in my presence this 15th day of October, A. D. 1887.

THE DAILY BEE.

Sworn Statement of Circulation. State of Nebraska, County of Douglas, J. S. ... Sworn to and subscribed in my presence this 15th day of October, A. D. 1887.

THE DAILY BEE.

Sworn Statement of Circulation. State of Nebraska, County of Douglas, J. S. ... Sworn to and subscribed in my presence this 15th day of October, A. D. 1887.

THE DAILY BEE.

Sworn Statement of Circulation. State of Nebraska, County of Douglas, J. S. ... Sworn to and subscribed in my presence this 15th day of October, A. D. 1887.

THE DAILY BEE.

Sworn Statement of Circulation. State of Nebraska, County of Douglas, J. S. ... Sworn to and subscribed in my presence this 15th day of October, A. D. 1887.

Disagreeing Statesmen.

There may have been some exaggeration in the reports that have come from Washington within the last few days regarding a vital disagreement between the secretary of state and the attorney general; but it is by no means unlikely that Mr. Cleveland will find on his return to Washington that the situation in his official household is not so peaceful as when he left.

The cause of the alleged difference between these statesmen is said to be the position taken by the United States district attorney for Alaska in the cases against the British vessels seized for capturing seal in Alaskan waters. Briefly stated the district attorney asserts the jurisdiction of the United States over the whole of Behring sea, agreeably to the position taken by the department of justice and the treasury department that the limits of Alaska, within which the taking of seals by any one but the Alaska commercial company is prohibited, correspond to the limitations set down in the treaty of cession with Russia, regardless of the general principles of jurisdiction in the seas.

The Alaskan matter appears quite certain to be a source of more or less prolonged and perhaps aggravated diplomatic controversy, in view of which the country could be congratulated if any present disagreements between the secretary of state and the attorney general should result in the retirement of both of them. The withdrawal of the latter to private life would gratify a very general public desire entertained for more than a year past, while the country would feel safer with respect to the fair settlement of any controversy with a foreign power if almost any other man of recognized ability were in the place of Mr. Bayard. Doubtless, also, the president would feel relieved and the administration would not be weakened if both these statesmen were out of official life.

Ballou's Monomania.

Mr. Ballou has been a standing candidate for office ever since he struck Omaha. In fact the man is actually demoted on the subject of office. He would run for anything. About ten years ago he wanted to be probate judge, and was beaten by over 500 majority while other republican candidates on the same ticket carried the county by handsome majorities. A few years later he blossomed out as a candidate for state superintendent of public instruction, and actually secured a majority of the delegates at the state convention by trading, but before the chair had announced the vote his unfitness for the position dawned upon the convention, and the delegation changed over to Superintendent Thompson, and left poor Ballou high and dry.

A Halt in Railway Construction. At the beginning of the present year, according to Mr. Henry V. Poor, provision was made for the construction within the year of fully twelve thousand miles of railroad.

How Watson Refused Office.

Now that DeWitt Watson has refused on compulsion to hold an office, let all editors follow his example. They can well afford to.

His Name is Legion.

It would be interesting to know how many penniless criminals in New York have been detected, arrested, convicted and railroaded to Sing Sing since proceedings were first begun against Jacob Sharp.

STATE AND TERRITORY.

Nebraska Jottings.

The Beatrice Democrat advises real estate men that the city will be built and built for the town. Plattsmouth is unable to negotiate her 5 per cent paving and sewer bonds, and work will probably be delayed until spring.

PROMINENT PEOPLE.

Thomas Hughes is writing a memoir of Dr. Livingstone. The scene of Mr. Haggard's next novel is to be Cyprus. Archdeacon Farrar is writing a book on church history.

A Stem Winder.

Cadet Taylor wants the republicans to take their coats off for the straight judicial ticket. How would the following straight ticket suit him? PAT O. HAWES, JULIUS S. COOLEY, DAVID VAN ETTEN, FRANK WALTER.

The Size of Mittlewitz's Want.

Count Mittlewitz might organize a libel trust and bring all his actions against American newspapers together. He wants $64,000 in all from this source.

That Rabbit's Hindfoot.

This gift conveys a timely warning. Your mouth hath now and then exploded at half cock. You did not know the thing was loaded. This rabbit's hindfoot, I've a notion, may suggest that, to prevent a premature explosion, 'Tis not best.

Aristocratic Diversions.

At present aristocratic England is busy shooting partridges and pheasants. Between slaughtering birds and racketing tenants the average English lord manages to have a royal jolly time.

Trembling in the Balance.

The fate of Secretary Vilas hangs trembling in the balance. The Mississippi man who sent the president that left hand foot of a graveyard rabbit killed in the dark of the moon can, procure one for Mr. Vilas

How Watson Refused Office.

Now that DeWitt Watson has refused on compulsion to hold an office, let all editors follow his example. They can well afford to.

His Name is Legion.

It would be interesting to know how many penniless criminals in New York have been detected, arrested, convicted and railroaded to Sing Sing since proceedings were first begun against Jacob Sharp.

STATE AND TERRITORY.

Nebraska Jottings.

The Beatrice Democrat advises real estate men that the city will be built and built for the town. Plattsmouth is unable to negotiate her 5 per cent paving and sewer bonds, and work will probably be delayed until spring.

PROMINENT PEOPLE.

Thomas Hughes is writing a memoir of Dr. Livingstone. The scene of Mr. Haggard's next novel is to be Cyprus. Archdeacon Farrar is writing a book on church history.

A Stem Winder.

Cadet Taylor wants the republicans to take their coats off for the straight judicial ticket. How would the following straight ticket suit him? PAT O. HAWES, JULIUS S. COOLEY, DAVID VAN ETTEN, FRANK WALTER.

The Size of Mittlewitz's Want.

Count Mittlewitz might organize a libel trust and bring all his actions against American newspapers together. He wants $64,000 in all from this source.

That Rabbit's Hindfoot.

This gift conveys a timely warning. Your mouth hath now and then exploded at half cock. You did not know the thing was loaded. This rabbit's hindfoot, I've a notion, may suggest that, to prevent a premature explosion, 'Tis not best.

Aristocratic Diversions.

At present aristocratic England is busy shooting partridges and pheasants. Between slaughtering birds and racketing tenants the average English lord manages to have a royal jolly time.

How Watson Refused Office.

Now that DeWitt Watson has refused on compulsion to hold an office, let all editors follow his example. They can well afford to.

His Name is Legion.

It would be interesting to know how many penniless criminals in New York have been detected, arrested, convicted and railroaded to Sing Sing since proceedings were first begun against Jacob Sharp.

STATE AND TERRITORY.

Nebraska Jottings.

The Beatrice Democrat advises real estate men that the city will be built and built for the town. Plattsmouth is unable to negotiate her 5 per cent paving and sewer bonds, and work will probably be delayed until spring.

PROMINENT PEOPLE.

Thomas Hughes is writing a memoir of Dr. Livingstone. The scene of Mr. Haggard's next novel is to be Cyprus. Archdeacon Farrar is writing a book on church history.

A Stem Winder.

Cadet Taylor wants the republicans to take their coats off for the straight judicial ticket. How would the following straight ticket suit him? PAT O. HAWES, JULIUS S. COOLEY, DAVID VAN ETTEN, FRANK WALTER.

The Size of Mittlewitz's Want.

Count Mittlewitz might organize a libel trust and bring all his actions against American newspapers together. He wants $64,000 in all from this source.

That Rabbit's Hindfoot.

This gift conveys a timely warning. Your mouth hath now and then exploded at half cock. You did not know the thing was loaded. This rabbit's hindfoot, I've a notion, may suggest that, to prevent a premature explosion, 'Tis not best.

Aristocratic Diversions.

At present aristocratic England is busy shooting partridges and pheasants. Between slaughtering birds and racketing tenants the average English lord manages to have a royal jolly time.

How Watson Refused Office.

Now that DeWitt Watson has refused on compulsion to hold an office, let all editors follow his example. They can well afford to.

His Name is Legion.

It would be interesting to know how many penniless criminals in New York have been detected, arrested, convicted and railroaded to Sing Sing since proceedings were first begun against Jacob Sharp.

STATE AND TERRITORY.

Nebraska Jottings.

The Beatrice Democrat advises real estate men that the city will be built and built for the town. Plattsmouth is unable to negotiate her 5 per cent paving and sewer bonds, and work will probably be delayed until spring.

PROMINENT PEOPLE.

Thomas Hughes is writing a memoir of Dr. Livingstone. The scene of Mr. Haggard's next novel is to be Cyprus. Archdeacon Farrar is writing a book on church history.

A Stem Winder.

Cadet Taylor wants the republicans to take their coats off for the straight judicial ticket. How would the following straight ticket suit him? PAT O. HAWES, JULIUS S. COOLEY, DAVID VAN ETTEN, FRANK WALTER.

The Size of Mittlewitz's Want.

Count Mittlewitz might organize a libel trust and bring all his actions against American newspapers together. He wants $64,000 in all from this source.

That Rabbit's Hindfoot.

This gift conveys a timely warning. Your mouth hath now and then exploded at half cock. You did not know the thing was loaded. This rabbit's hindfoot, I've a notion, may suggest that, to prevent a premature explosion, 'Tis not best.

Aristocratic Diversions.

At present aristocratic England is busy shooting partridges and pheasants. Between slaughtering birds and racketing tenants the average English lord manages to have a royal jolly time.

THE DAILY BEE.

Sworn Statement of Circulation. State of Nebraska, County of Douglas, J. S. ... Sworn to and subscribed in my presence this 15th day of October, A. D. 1887.

THE DAILY BEE.

Sworn Statement of Circulation. State of Nebraska, County of Douglas, J. S. ... Sworn to and subscribed in my presence this 15th day of October, A. D. 1887.

THE DAILY BEE.

Sworn Statement of Circulation. State of Nebraska, County of Douglas, J. S. ... Sworn to and subscribed in my presence this 15th day of October, A. D. 1887.

THE DAILY BEE.