FINANCIAL.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.-[Special Telegram to the BER.]-STOCKS-The short decline in stocks last week has little feeling among the bulls, who were encouraged by the rapidity with which the prices of securities that showed the most weakness went up. Trading has been fair on the average, but chiefly of the professional character, but the impression prevails that the minimum of the depression has been reached and that the reaction was merely the result of the bears overtrading Sharp covering has resulted, the amount of short stocks bought in being placed at 250,000 shares in some properties, particularly in Western Union, Connor taking 10,000 shares on the way down to 74. The market to-day was dull and easier, but the declines were comparatively small, extending to 214 points, the latter being on Northern Pacific pre ferred and Oregon Railway & Navigation. Aside from the decline in these stocks there were no special features. The stocks above referred to are being freely sold on the idea that the divided leases of the Oregon Navigation company will be expensive burdens for the company, and Northern Pacific preferred was further affected by the report of the proposed new issue of bonds. The companies appear to be drifting into a condition where they will be compelled to acknowledge their insolvency and submit to reorganization. The statement that St. Paul net earnings for months prior to September 1 were $25,000 below last year, while no surprise to the bears, opened the eyes of some who hitherto been blind. Pittsburg have reports a further weakening in the prices of iron and steel, with a dragging market. The bank statement, which showed $2,100,000 increase in the surplus reserve, for a few minutes stimulated prices, but the market soon relapsed into its previous dull and weak condition. The close was barely stendy at about the lowest prices of the day. Compared with the closing prices of last Saturday there were advances extending to 6% per cent, Manhattan leading with 6, Oregon railway 5, Rock Island 434, Chicago, Burlington & Quincy 3, New York Central 23, Michigan Central 23, North-western 23, St. Paul 23, Union Pacific 2%, Missouri 8%, Texas Pacific 2%, Lackawanns 214, Western Un-ion 3, and Louisville & Nashville 3. St. Louis & San Francisco was 1/4 and Northern Pacific preferred % per cent lower. The total sales to-day were 109,705 shares, including 12,800 of Reading, 13,300 St. Paul, 8,784 Northwestern, 4,755 Richmond Terminal, 9,835 Northern Pacific preferred and 9,910 Lackawanna. GOVERNMENTS-Government bonds were dull but steady.

OMAHA LIVE STOCK.

Saturday, Oct. 22.

Cattle.

Cattle. Although the receipts of cattle continue light there was quite a moticeable increase as compared with yesterday, there being thirty-nine in to-day and only twenty-six yesterday. The market was quiet and the number of cattle sold necessarily small. No especially new features were developed, values remaining about steady at yesterday's prices.

Hogs.

prices.

Hogs. The receipts of hogs show a gain over yesterday of six loads, there being twenty-six loads in to-day. At the opening of the market there were only twelve loads in the yards. The balance of the receipts came in three or four cars at a time during the most of the forencon. The buyers started off by offering prices that were about 5c higher than yesterday. Later in the morning there was a little flurry on the market and prices advanced fully be above yesterday's market. per lb. advanced fully loc above yesterday's market, two loads reaching $4.35. The excitement was short lived and the late arrivals sold at about the morning prices.

Sheep. There was very little doing in tho market.

Durno, mother of Mrs. Auchmoedy, arrived from Ulster county, New York, Friday. Mrs. Durno has been in the east for the last six months visiting rela-tions and friends, whom she had not seen for twenty years. Her arrival afforded her the pleasure of witnessing the, happy celebra-tion. blage of waiting friends. A profusion of beautiful plants lent their grace to the platform and organ loft. During the waiting moments the sweetest harmonies were called from the pipes by the skillful touch of the organist, Miss Nena Cook.

Shortly after the hour named the tones of Tannhauser's wedding march rang out, and the bridal escort came into Or Miss NEALLY STEVENS, the talented planist of Council Bluffs, the Indianapolis Journal has this to say: "A positive pleasure to the music-lovers of this city was the plano recital given last night, at the First Baptist church, by Miss Neally Stovens, the eminent young planist. The audience was composed of leading musicians, who thoroughly appreciated the excellence of the J. O'Connor, Frank Goodhue, Will Blessings and Seymour Cook, jr., offciating as ushers. Following them came the bridesmaids, Misses Hattie them was composed of leading musicians, who thoroughly appreciated the excellence of the playing. Miss Stevens has an exquisite touch -delicate, yet firm-and in the "Caprice Es-pagnol," by Moszkowski, the notes seemed like "peeled drew drops." The first number was the "Hungarian Rhapsody," by Liszt, whose pupil Miss Stevens was while study-ing in Europe. Every number was good. The "Toccta and Fugue," by Bach-Taussig; "Die Zufriedenheit," by Mozart-Kullak, was of the severely classical style. Then numbers by Chopin and Rubinstein were of a different style, and the Moszkowski and Liszt compositions of the modern school, Denison and Florence Coe, then the bride, in white satin dress and tulle veil, carrying in her hand a bunch of white roses, and finally the bride's parents. The groom, accompanied by his brother, Arthur C. Wakeley, of Omaha, as best man, met his bride at the chan-cel steps and led her to the altar where the beautiful marriage rite of the Episcopal church was most impressively administered by Rev. F. T. Lee. At its close the Swedish wedding march filled the church with its joyful music and the Liszt compositions of the Moszkowski and Liszt compositions of the modern school, giving the planist an opportunity for render-ing widely different compositions, and they were given with a finish delightful to listen to."
