Visible Supply Statement a Basis For Wheat Trading.

CORN TRANSACTIONS SMALL

Opening of the Week in Provisions Gives Little Promise of Activity -Cattle Trading Moves Along Quietly.

Dealing in Grain.

At the session of the open board of trade, yesterday, Mr. White, of Plattsmouth, and several others were present. Thirtythree and a quarter cents were bid for Octhree and a quarter cents were bid for October wheat. Mr. White offered 5,000 bushel at 34c. Edward Peck, of this city offered 33½c for corn to be delivered on the 26th instant. But the delivery could not be effected, although White agreed to take 33¾c. The offer was not accepted. Mr. White succeeded in selling 5,000 bushels of November corn to Mr.
Pack at 33¼c that being a reduction of one. high 5,000 bushels of November corn to Mr.

Peck at 33¹4c, that being a reduction of one-half cent off the price originally asked.

Several other deals of an unimportant nature were made. The board convenes again to-day at 11:30 a. m.

CHICAGO PRODUCE MARKET.

CHICAGO, Oct. 24.-[Special Telegram to the BEE.]-Trading in wheat was upon the basis of the visible supply statement-first upon guesses as to what it would be, and later upon the actual figures. First reports from New York and Minneapolis made it appear that the increase would be larger than expected Saturday and the talk was of 1,500,000 bushels, or thereabouts, and the result was weakness. Later, when an actual increase of 1,057,000 bushels became known, there was a reaction to about the opening figures, but upon a lack of outside buying orders, prices fell away again and the closing was at the low point for the session. There was a good buying of December early for St. Louis account, under which that delivery advanced 4c, but other futures did not follow, May, which opened at 78%c, only reaching 78%6678%c as the highest point. There appeared to be abundant demand early for May wheat at about 7814c, and offerings at that figure during the first part of the session were very readily absorbed. The opening was at Saturday's closing figures-73c for December and 78%c for May. December sold up to 73½c and down to 72%c, where it closed. May sold up to 78%@78¾c down to 78%@78¾c and closed at that figure. There was news enough for the corn traders to-day, but it appeared to have very slight effect. The volume of business was exceedingly small and the pit was almost deserted during much of the session. The vis-ible supply statement was an undoubted surprise. An increase of about 500,000 bushels had been looked for, but when an actual de-crease of 218,000 bushels was announced the only effect visible was an advance in prices of about 3c. The entire range of prices here was but 3c. December opened at 40%c, advanced to 41c, sold down to 40%c and advanced to 41c, sold down to 40% and closed at 41c asked. May opened at 44% c, which was also the highest point touched, sold down to 44% and closed at 44% (444% c. Oats in the speculative market were very quiet to-day, the limited business transacted being confined almost entirely to May, which was steady until near the close, I o'clock bids being 34c above Saturday's closing. Near futures were without material change, though seller the month sold off 34c to 25c.

In provisions the week's opening failed to give any promise of increased activity. Early in the day there was a little movement in a speculative way, but the firmness of sellers rather curtailed trading and as the day advanced the old dullness returned. Traders were inclined to regard the market with a conservative leaning and acted as if they believed prices too high and the feeling too strong to awaken much life in the line of speculation. Based on Saturday's closings January pork at 1 o'clock showed an advance of 10c, the different deliveries of lard of 23c of 10c, the different deliveries of lard of 2)4c and January short ribs of 2)4c. January—the trading future—sold at $12.10 @12.17¼ for pork, $6.22¼@6.25 for lard and $6.15@6.17¼ for short ribs. Pork for the same month closed at $12.12½ bid, lard at $6.22¾ bid and short ribs at $6.12½ bid. Lard closed at $6.30 for October, $6.17¼ for November, $6.17¼@6.20 for December and $6.52¼ for May. October short ribs were held at $7.02½@7.05, resting at $7.05. For November pork prices ranged at $12.12½@(12.15.

AFTERNOON SESSION-Wheat higher; October 70%c, November 71%c, December 78%c. Corn firm. Oats firmer; October 25%c, November and December 25%c, May 29%c. Pork sold and closed for January delivery at $12.12%; other deliveries neglected. Lard was quite and unchanged. Short ribs for October delivery were quoted at $7.023/4; January sold and closed at $6.123/4.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK.

CHICAGO, Oct. 24.-[Special Telegram to the BEE.]-CATTLE.-Trade moved along quietly and steadily, with little or no variation in values as compared with the close of last week. Some salesmen who had natives that exactly suited the buyer and the buyer really wanted the stock, got a slight advance, but the average sales of natives showed no particular change. Also, salesmen that had nice and handy little Texans claimed they were getting a little more money for their stock. Big Texans and rangers sold about the same as at the close last week. Native butchers' stock sold as low as at any time, with bulls quoted 10@15c lower. There was little or nothing doing in the stocker and feeder lines. Cattle that were carried over from Saturday had a pinched and famished look after standing through the severe rain and snow storm of Saturday night and Sunday. With stockers appearances oftentimes makes the sale. The few fresh cattle were bought by yard speculators, as there were but few countrymen present. Shipping steers, 1,350 to 1,500 lbs, $2,00@5.0; 1200 to 1350 lbs, $3,20@4.40; 950 to 1200 lbs, $2,75@3.50. Stockers and feeders, $1.75@3.10; cows, bulls and mixed, $1.40@2.75; Texas steers, $2.15@2.70; cows, $1.65@2.20. Western rangers steady; natives and half breeds, $2.50@3.65; windows tered Texans, $2.30@3.10.

Hoss-The comparatively light run was a genuine surprise and had the effect of getting buyers out promptly and some of the late ones had to hustle to get what they wanted. As to prices, there was little or no variation when compared with the opening of Saturday. Parties that had to carry over their stock claimed they got 5@ 10c more than was bid Saturday at the close. A few lots of butcher weights sold at $4.55@4.65; mixed and packing sorts, $4.45@4.55; common, $4.25@4.35; light sorts, including Yorkers, $4.45@4.50. A few singeing pigs made $4.60@4.65.

FINANCIAL. NEW YORK, Oct. 24 .- [Special Telegram to the BEE. |-STOCKS-Opinions regarding the stocks were much at variance to-day. The bulls appeared to be well organized, but were doing little talking for publication. They regarded the easy money market as a good thing in their favor, but were not inclined to purchase stocks heavily. The bears were encouraged by the comparative case with which prices declined Saturday and the impression prevailed that the rally had expended its force and that there was not sufficient short interest of investment buying to support the market. London was a fair seller of St. Paul, Union Pacific, and Reading. The bears, headed by Cammack and Bateman, sold freely, although the market was dull and dragging and a weak undercurrent was noticeable. The market opened quiet, with declines extending to % per cent. Bear pointers were given out on St. Paul, Louisville & Nashville, Erie, and Northern Pacific, and the selling in these and Missouri Pacific was larger than any other securities. St. Paul dropped 134, Northwestern 196, Union Pacific & Louisville & Nashville 1% and Missouri Pacific 23/ per cent. Northern Pacific preferred broke 1/4 per cent, but ex-hibited more stubbornness than most of the other stocks, despite the talk about the proposed issue of $12,000,000 new bonds necessary to straighten out the company's affairs. New England disappointed its friends, who had figured on a good rise on the report of its being bought for control, and prices declined 1% per cent. The rest of the list was slow and weak with declines of 14001 point. The market continued heavy, with prices steadily declining until the last half bour, when a small rally occurred, but last sales were at nearly the inside figures. The grangers showed the greatest weakness, St. Paul dropping to 70%, but reacted to 70%. The net declines extended from 14 to 34 per cent. Manhattan and Rock Island had the lead. The Vanderbilts were off 11/6114, Manitoba 134, Reading 34, Chicago, Burlington & Quincy 2, and Western Union 1% per cent. The total sales were 252,185 shares. Government bonds were

Saturday, Oct. 22.

Cattle. The receipts were liberal, there being 160 cars of fresh receipts on the market. There was some inquiry for good corn-fed native steers, but the supply was light, the bulk of the receipts being rangers. The few corn-fed cattle that did change hands went at about steady prices. A few western cattle sold as feeders, but the market was not active. Several bunches of stock cattle, both year-lings and 2-year-olds, were sold by the head.

Hogs. Hogs.

The receipts of hogs were twenty-two cars, as against twenty-six cars on Saturday. The market opened with only some twelve cars in, and the balance came in the morning. The quality of the hogs was fair, but there were no top loads as good as the loads which brought $4.35 on Saturday. The market opened fairly active, the buyers taking the hogs as fast as they arrived, at about steady prices. There were only two prices. steady prices. There were only two prices nearly everything going at $4.25@4.30. Everything was sold.

An Insane Soldier. Private Wachta, of Company E, Twenty-first infantry, stationed at Sidney, Neb., was taken to Washington, D. C., yesterday by three of his comrades. For some time Wachta has shown signs of derangment, and on Friday he became so violent that it was nucessary to place him in confinement. He will be placed in the government hospital. It is stated that his case is an incurable one.

A Pleasant Surprise. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Brown took possession of their residence on Cuming and Twentyseventh streets Sunday evening, and for several hours the house was fully of gaity and merriment. A fine repast was served by the ladies. The successful management of the affair may be largely attributed to the efforts of Mesdames Black, Hess, Simon, Blath Trostler, Jacobs and the Misses Gladstone, Jacobs, Riegleman, and others.
