A BURGLAR AND OUTRAGER.

A Desperate Villain Breaks Into a House and Assaults a Girl.

THE VICTIM PROSTRATED.

Union Pacific Switchmen Looking for Bosses' Scalps-Another Morning Fire-Kiley Likely to Die-Other City News.

A Bold and Villainous Outrage.

A dastardly outrage was committed at the private boarding house kept by Mrs. Jake Schreiner, 1418 Chicago street, at half past 3 o'clock vesterday morning. Two of the domestics. Nellie Hoskins and Minnie Chrisjohnson occupy a room on the ground floor in the rear of the house, and the weather being somewhat sultry, and their room close, they left the back window hoisted. At the hour above mentioned, Minnie, who occupied the same bed with Nellie, and was also on the outside, was awakened by some one touching her on the arm. She sat up in bed, only to see the figure of a man in front of her, and holding a revolver at her head. He ordered her to lie down and keep still, threatening to kill her if she made any outcry or attempt to alarm the house. She, in her ex-treme fright, obeyed the rufflan, who then turned to the window, and in a subdued voice called: "Keep a sharp lookout there, pard, until I am through, then you can come in," thus indicating that there were two of the fiends."

The man in the room then ordered Minnie to awake her friend, which she did, and telling her not to stir on penalty of having her throat cut, the brute got into bed with the two girls. He immediately turned his attention to Nellie, and grasping her by the throat the two began to struggle. It was at this critical juncture that Minnie sprang from the bed, and despite the fact that she thought she must encounter a second villian in the yard, she sprang from the window. To her delight there was no man there, and hurrying to the front of the house she screamed to Mrs. Schreiner in her room above, and quickly succeeded in arousing the house. She was almost stupefied with fear, but gave the genthemen boarders to understand that there was a man in her room, and thither they rushed together. They quickly burst in the door but the scoundrel room, They had fled, leaving the outraged girl lying inand led, leaving the outraged girl lying in-sensible across the bed. Search was at once instituted about the premises but no clue to the man was found. Kate Welch, however, another domestic had by this time come from her room above and she said she had seen a man run across the yard and scale the found about the time Minnie's piercing shrieks had been the time found in four of the base broke upon the air from in front of the house. She obtained a tolerably fair look at the miscreant, and when the police, who had imme-diately been sent for arrived, gave them a description which an hour later led to the arrest of Pat Rooney, a young hoodlum of the toughest make. He was arrested in a saloon near the corner of Eleventh and Chicago streets, and asserting his innocence was taken to Mrs. Schreiner's and con-fronted with Mrs. Welch. The latter, while she was almost certain, could not be positive that he was the man. He was conducted to that he was the man. the police station and arraigned before Judge Berka as a suspicious character. He pleaded not guilty, but was given twenty days in jail in order that he might be in safe keeping until the outrage upon Miss Hoskins could be thoroughly investigated. Dr. Rlaph called upon the young girl yesterday morning and found her prostrated with nervousness and on the verge of hysteria. Her throat showed signs severe cloking she had received, whil her body and limbs were severely bruised and contused. Rooney is a vile looking wretch, and the opinion is that he is the right man.

Sunday night Joseph H. Foy, LL. D., closed his pastorate of the First Christian church of this city. The Doctor's successor has not yet been chosen. A large element of the church seem in favor of recalling their old pastor Rev. J. W. Ingram, now pastor of the Christian church in San Jose, Cal. A committee has been appointed to correspond with ministers. The committee consists of W. J. Van Aernam, Oscar F. Stephens and W. J. Mount. Among the gentlemen named in connection with the vacant pulpit are J. T. Toof, for several years pastor of the Christian church in Quincy, III., who re-signed two years ago in order to take an ex-tensive tour in foreign lands. He has just returned to the United States and has not yet accepted a settlement. leave the country. The outgoing pastor warmly en-dorses both J. W. Ingram and Dr. Toof. The Rev. Mr. Gaff, who has a son in Omaha, has also been mentioned in connection with the charge. Prominent leaders of the Christian church, among them Rev. Dr. Evrett, of Cincinnati, Ohio, and Rev. B. B. Tyler, of N. Y., who have been consulted as to a fit successor, unite in commending Messrs. Gaff and Toof as eminently worthy of choice. For twelve months Dr.Foy has been pastor of the First Christian and his connection with the church has resulted profitably to it in more ways than one. He left yesterday for St. Louis, where he will visit friends or a few days, and then proceed to Norfolk. Mr. Kilpatrick Makes a Trip to Eu-Va., where he has accepted the charge of the "Church of the Disciples." The Norfolk papers are welcoming Dr. Foy heartily and the Norfolk church is to be congratulated in securing the services of a genial gentleman and an able, earnest pastor. The departure of Dr. Foy will be earnestly regretted by the many warm friends he has won during his residence in this city, and to his new home he will bear with him the best wishes of many Omahans for his future prosperity.

Pueset Sound Colony. At a meeting of the Omaha branch of the Puget Sound co-operative colony at their hall Sunday afternoon, the question of cooperation as applied to production was ably discussed by F. J. McArdle, the agent of the central society. The drift of his argument was to show that under the present co-operative system no person can be honest, because a premium is set upon dishonest methods in business, manufacturers and commerce. Success is atways honored even by those who are the victims of this system. In co-operation, which only seeks to secure in the result of their honest toil,

Mr. Norman R. Smith, referring to the duty of the members of this branch,, said that while the members on the colony site worked hard to promote the interests of all the members, the members in Omaha should bear in mind that they, too, had a duty to perform. Funds were much needed at the colony site to develope struggling industries that only needed machinery to make them much more productive. The little hall was full, mostly by non-members who sought information by asking juestions. Music and singing interspersed he speaking and business. Seven new rope and Return in Thirty Days. Mr. Thomas Kilpatrick, senior member of the firm of the Kilpatrick-Koch Dry Goods company, is credited with making the quickest journey from Omaha to England and return yet on record. Mr. Kilpatrick left this city on the 1st of October, and after spending one day in New York embarked on the German steamer Aller, of the Nord Deutcher line, on the 5th inst. After an exceedingly pleasant voyage of eight days Mr. Kilpatrick arrived in Southampton. In conversation with a BEE reporter yesterday the merchant said he was more than pleased with the treatment extended to passengers on the German steamer. A magilificent table de hote dinner was served and a band of music hote dinner was served and a bare to be played fine selections during the entire trip. The cleanliness of the steamer and the kind solicitude of the officers for the passengers' comfort was entirely in advance of his previous experiences. At Liverpool Mr. Kilpatrick met his wife and chil-dren and after a two day's sojourn in that city sailed for New York on the Cunarder, Umbria. The weather continued fine through-out and on the 22d New York was reached. The party spent two days in New York, two days in Buffalo and two days in Cleveland, Mr. Kilpatrick's old home. Here he left his family and came on to Omaha, arriving yester-day morning and having accomplished the entire trip of nearly nine thousand miles in precisely thirty days. Mr. Kilpatrick said that he was glad to get back home in time to enjoy the present magnificent weather which is

DAMAGED BY EVICTION. Mrs. Bryant Brings Suit Against Officials and Her Landlord.

Considerable of a stir was created in the district court yesterday afternoon when W. S. Shomaker, lawyer for Mrs. Sarah A. Bryant, filed a claim for $10,000 damages against James H. McCullough, William Coburn, Dorsey P. Houck, Samuel D. Mercer and Byron Reed as defendants. According to Mrs. Bryant's story, she has been a very badly treated woman. She sets forth in her complaint that she was in lawful possession of the house No. 314 North Fourteenth street on the first of last September; that she was an invalid and was compelled to keep to her bed the greater part of the time. On the day in question she alleges that she had just arisen from her bed when twelve men an two express wagons in the employ of Samue two express wagons in the employ of Samuel D. Mercer, drew up in front of her house. A constable accompa-nied the invaders, and in terms more forcible than polite ordered Mrs. Bryant to vacate. She was alone in the house and her appeals to the constable to give her a little time to gather up some bric-abrae, and other valuables were followed by a-brac and other valuables were followed by an exhibition of force and brutality. Mrs. Bryant says that her household effects were thrown promiscuously in the streets and tha it is her honest belief that now some of he neighbors are masquerading in a part of he wardrobe to the value of $150. O'Grady Ran Him In.

E. W. Ewell, a boarder at the Emmet house who owes a very large bill for accommodations received, was discovered yesterday by the proprietor, Jerry O'Grady, to be making preparations to skip. Ewell became greatly enraged over the frustration of his well-laid plans and some hot words passed between the two. Ewell finally, with an outh, told O'Grady he intended to kill him. At the same instant he drew a revolver from his nodet but inst as he was about to each his pocket, but just as he was about to cock it the powerful ex-policeman sprang forward and wrested it from his grasp. Then, seizing the fellow by the collar, O'Grady, despite the annulment of his official power and pay by the police commission, marched the dead-beat to the central police station, where he was put under lock and key.

South Omaha Realty.

The boom still continues in South Omaha. Recently two lots on the corner of N street and Railroad avenue were sub-divided and sold for $15,000 each. The South Omaha National bank paid $2,500 for a sub-division of one of the lots, on which they commence work at once on a three story building. The corner fragment of the same lot was sold for $253 per front foot, the highest price yet paid in South Omaha for real estate.

We are determined to keep it up, and the more the public favor us with their patronage, the more will we show them that we appreciate their confidence, and will strive to retain it. Just now Overcoats are in great demand, and are going off like hot cakes. The styles and prices take. But as fast as the piles are disappearing from the counters they are replenished by new and choice arrivals, which our buyer is daily sending us from the east. We have new styles to show every day and the prices we mark them at must be very tempting, as the people buy them so quick. Evidently there must be a great difference between our prices and those of other houses.

Other departments that are booming are Gloves. Underwear and Ho siery. Our corner window this week gives you a small idea of what we are doing in the latter lines. Where could you get such a good scarlet all wool shirts and drawers at 45c each, or such all wool seamless socks at 15c a pair? employed in the Union Pacific upper and lower yards promises to result in a general strike of the men employed in all the yards unless the demands of Grand Master James L. Monaghan, in behalf of the Switchmen's Mutual Aid society, are not complied with. The presentation of their grievances was made yesterday before Mr. Blickens-derfer, superintendent of the Nebraska di-vision of the Union Pacific and Mr. McClint-ock, terminal agent of the B. & M. lines. A large number of witnesses testified and Mr Blickensderfer reserved decision until the return of Superintendent Dickenson, which is expected some time during the present

Grand Master Monaghan was seen yes Grand Master Monaghan was seen yes-terday at the Windsor hotel and asked concerning the trouble. He said: "The trouble is not of recent origin. It began some months ago when the Switchmen's Mutual Aid society expelled P. H. Meehan, one of the head offi-cers of the lodge. He was charged with crookedness, and it was proven to my mind that he had been guilts of appropriating that he had been guilty of appropriating money belonging to the order. Mechan swore vengeance, and openly stated that he would some time hold a position in the Union Pa-cific yards that would enable him to put his cific yards that would enable him to put his foot on the neck of every man belonging to the society. At this time the upper yards were under the charge of Yardmaster Davis, and the lower one of Yardmaster Tighe. These men were and are common drunkards, and have been noted for their outrageous treatment of the men under them. Old, ex-perienced and steady switchmen have been turned out and their places supplied by imturned out and their places supplied by imported men; favorites of the two tyrannical yard masters. Most of them were drinking men, and utterly incapable of performing the duties to which they were assigned. Meenan then began training with these men, and soon 'stood in solid.'

"Soon it was given out that Mechan had been appointed foreman in the lower yards, and he proceeded at once to make good his threats of revenge against the union men. Every indignity that he could think of he heaped upon them, and while drunk, which was often his abuse was simply outrageous. Tighe, in the meantime, rendered valuable assistance in helping Meehan in his revenge, and several old and trusted men were sum marily discharged. This man Tighe is a con-firmed drunkard, and was discharged from the Santa Fe yards at Kansas City for drunkenness and neglect of duty.

"All of these charges were substantiated by twenty to thirty witnesses before the officers of the road, and we hope that our demand, viz., the release of Mechan and Tighe from the yards-will be granted If not there will undoubtedly be a genera strike. We don't care to what other department they are assigned, but we won't have them in the yards if we can help it. Davis resigned simply because he dare not face an investigation and this he told me himself. The constitution of this he told me himself. The constitution of our order is very conservative and especially provides against the admitting to membership of drunkards or criminals. We only admit competent switchmen and use every endeavor to protect the interest of the company and the public at large. I am going to Denver for a few days but shall return as soon as Mr. Dickenson and shall then act according to his decision " cision." In connection with the above it is stated by men thoroughly acquainted with the work-ings of both yards that if the public could only know of the neglect and incompetency of many men employed in the yards, of the fearful amount of drunkenness and the abuse to which patrons of the road are subjected there would be an investigation demanded instantly. If this is true the lives of citizens are in constant jeopardy.

MORTUARY MATTERS.

Facts About Those Who Have Departed This Life.

JAMES O'BOYLE. The funeral of James O'Boyle took place Sunday afternoon from his late residence, 519 North Eighteenth street. It was one of the largest funerals ever held in this city, and testified to the deep respect in which the modest virtues of the deceased were held by all his acquaintances. The remains were enclosed in a beautiful cloth-covered casket, on the lid of which rested a silver shield, inscribed with the name of the deceased and his age, forty-four years. The remains were borne to the church of the Hely Family,

The programme consisted of recitations and songs by the little folks, each of whom rendered his or her part in a decidedly pleasing manner. The church choir, composed of rich and pleasing voices, rendered a number of appropriate selections. A short address to the little ones was made by Judge Fawcett, late of Illinois. At the com pletion of the programme subscriptions were taken, the result of which was the complete for the erection of the church. The audience was a thoroughly appreciative one, and the little participants in the evening's programme were accorded many ecomiums for the rendi tion of their parts. The next concert will take place within three months, and carnest endeavors will be made to make the affair even more pleasing than the one of last night.
