What Makes a Lady—Lines to a Shy Young Woman.

WOMEN OF THE FRONTIER.

A Maiden Assurance Society—Some Professional Women—Female Violinists—Prominent Colored Women.

Lines to a Very Shy Young Woman.

False Violet, I sought for thee That I might know If thou didst bend so low, Prompted by tender modesty, Or shyness?

What Makes a Real Lady.

Harper's Bazaar: There seems to be the minds of most young people launching forth into society to-day an idea that a certain manner is necessary if one would be "good form."

A Maiden Assurance Society.

Washington Critic: The Maiden Assurance society of Denmark aims to provide for ladies of well-to-do families; shelter and cares for them, and furnishes necessary "pin money."

ing, and, at a fixed time, her income. When she dies or marries, all right to income lapses, and the money paid in swells the endowment of the association. Her father may have paid for twenty years, when, by marriage, she forfeits all right of insurance.

Women of the Frontier.

Mrs. O. O. Howard in Daughters of America: The wife of a recent governor of a far western state used to take her blankets and go cautiously out, after nightfall, to some sheltered nook, there to sleep with the stars for company.

Small Women in Style.

New York Letter: A recent work on physical beauty asserts that the tendency in women of the present day is toward smallness of stature. Big women, in fact, are going out of fashion.

Women Worth Their Weight in Gold.

Mrs. John Minturn is worth $2,000,000. Mrs. Joseph Harrison, the widow of the man who built the first railroad in Russia, has $4,000,000. Mrs. Kate Terry is worth nearly $6,000,000.

Mrs. Thomas A. Scott counts her wealth at $5,000,000. Mrs. John Jacob Astor is worth about $8,000,000.

Mrs. Edwin Stevens, of New York, has $15,000,000. Mrs. Hetty Green, of New York, is worth about $40,000,000.

Mrs. Josephine M. Ayer, who gets her money from patent medicine, is estimated to be worth $4,000,000 to $5,000,000.

Mrs. Marshall O. Roberts is the eight-millionaire widow of a mining king.

Mrs. Martin Bates was left $1,500,000 which her husband made in dry goods.

Mrs. Jane Brown received from her husband's estate about $4,000,000, which was accumulated in banking.

Sometimes I am asked out to dine, and my hostess inquires of me if I think her own food is good for her. She doesn't think of my health. I am a professional woman. How often my heart has ached at this treatment. I know that some professional women bring this upon themselves. But those of us who would like occasionally to take a woman's hand for some other purpose than feeling her pulse are stored at it we do it."

Female Violinists in Boston.

A correspondent from Boston writes: Female violinists are to be the rage this winter. The coming of several girls who can make the cutgut sing with skill and power has stirred the ambitions of our local amateurs, and the dear things are seen daily going to and from the rooms of their teachers with fiddle-bows in their hands.

"First Ladies" Now Living.

Mrs. Grover Cleveland. Mrs. Julia Gardiner Tyler, widow of President Tyler. Mrs. James K. Polk, widow of President Polk. Miss Rose Elizabeth Cleveland had the place for fifteen months.

Prominent Colored Women.

Mr. T. Thomas Fortune is one of the ablest and best known colored men in the country. "I will give you some things," Mr. Fortune was asked a few days since, "about the women of your race who have done the most for it and for themselves."

and ability. There is Mrs. Fanny Jackson Coppin, the lecturer, who devotes most of her time to the institute for colored youths there, and Mrs. Gertrude Moselle, who used to conduct the women's department on the New York Freeman, and who has written for the Philadelphia Times and the Philadelphia Press, as well as for papers published in the interest of the negro race.

HONEY FOR THE LADIES.

Fine all-wool black serges make useful dresses. Tulle is in the ascendant for evening wear for young girls. Steel gray alpaca and mohair are the popular materials for traveling suits.

IMPIETIES.

A band of bunco-steerers call themselves a salvation army because they prey on the streets. Speaking against long prayers, Brother Talmadge says: "When Peter was endeavoring to walk on the water, he met his Master, and was about sinking, had his supplication been as long as the introduction of some of our modern prayers, before he got half through he would have been fifty feet under water."

JACOB E. TROIEL & COMPANY.

2709 Leavenworth street.

Would like to call the attention of the public to their full assortment of JEWEL STOVES and RANGES, manufactured by the Detroit Stove Works.

Special Attention is Called to the Sovereign Jewell, the Best and Handsomest Heater in the Market.

A Philadelphia paper of Sept. 1, says: "To dwell upon the beauty, elegance and utility of the Sovereign Jewell, would find us without language to do it justice. It is truly the world's wonder." This stove has the spiral ventilating hot air flue and a radiating surface of 1984 square inches.
