Didn't Vote. The Pennsylvania Dutch would like to say a word or two. Of course we did not know that last Tuesday was election day and we were too dumb to vote. Some persons think we are too dumb to sell groceries because we sell so cheap, but we have a nickle between us and the confidence of the people who have bought from us and continue to buy, which is the best evidence we sell goods for less money than any other house in the city. We have secured the agency for the celebrated Crawford County (Pa.) Buckwheat Flour, where the farmers carry it to mill on horseback—stones in one end of the bag and buckwheat in the other. We are selling this strictly pure Flour at 5c per lb., the only house in the city that carries this grade of Buckwheat Flour. We also have Maple Syrup at $1.00 per gal., choice $1.25 per gal., strictly pure $1.50 per gal. Give us a call. Everything in season. Full supply of Thanksgiving delicacies. Coover & Wats, N. E. Hurrah for the Ice. A mammoth "Ice Skating Pavilion" will be opened on or about the first of December, and continued until the 31st of March, 1888, on Twenty-third and Harney streets, one block from the Farnam and Twenty-fourth streets, Park avenue and St. Mary's avenue crossings. No expense will be spared to make it a first class place of amusement for the citizens of Omaha, where they can have a most enjoyable time during the coming winter. The Pavilion will be entirely covered over, well protected from the inclemency of the weather, beautifully decorated, and brilliantly illuminated by the Thompson-Houston Electric Light Co.

A large and commodious structure will be erected on the west end of the Pavilion, well heated and made comfortable for the skaters. A promenade, seven feet wide, will encircle the whole enclosure, where those who dare not venture on the glacial carpet may enjoy the dazzling scene before them. A refreshment counter will also be provided, where hot coffee, tea, cakes, etc., may be had during the evening. A good band will be in attendance every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday throughout the season. It has been decided to limit the number of season tickets, so that those wishing to procure such had better avail themselves of the opportunity at an early date. They may be purchased at C. S. Saxe, 13th and Farnam; Max Meyer & Co., 11th and Farnam; Riley & Robinson, exposition building, N. 15th st., and at Kaufman Bros.' cigar store, South 15th st. A Valuable Invention. Charles J. Beckman, of Council Bluffs, Ia., has completed a 550 foot, three-rail tubular fence for Mr. J. Rush, city treasurer, corner of Arbor and South Twelfth streets; a 186 foot fence of the same kind for Mr. Michael Dee, corner of Eleventh and Cassel streets; also a 114 foot two-rail fence for Mr. Dee at the South Omaha cemetery. The latter has the patent "Locking Bracket." By the use of this device—which is Mr. Beckman's own patent—on any kind of fence, pipe, bar or gas pipe, any panel can be readily removed and firmly replaced again, or the entire fence moved to some other place without damage, as the bracket protects the end of the rail where it joins the post. This protection prevents rotting of a wooden rail and gives the advantage of putting the full strength of the rail inside the bracket. No nails are used, therefore, no split rails where they join the post. Address C. J. Beckman, 728 Seventh avenue, corner South Eighth street, Council Bluffs, Ia.

A MAGNIFICENT STORE. Dazzling Diamonds, Beautiful Bronzes and Glittering Jewels.

A BEE man attracted by the beautiful display in the windows of Edholm & Akin's superb jewelry establishment, 101 and 103 North Fifteenth street, stopped within its portals. The inside of the store was even more attractive than the exterior. The scribe was met at the door by one of the gentlemanly proprietors and courteously invited to inspect the stock. The first thing to engage his attention was a magnificent tray of diamonds. These were set after the latest designs. To mention all of the beautiful pieces of workmanship would be impossible. One handsomely designed star and crescent studded with diamonds beggars description. A magnificent pair of solitaire diamonds was shown which sell for the modest sum of one thousand dollars. There were leaves, fruits studded with diamonds. A beautiful pin was exhibited representing a chaste crescent and star which by its attachments could be used either for a breast pin or a hair ornament. This beauty was so mounted that every movement of the wearer was communicated to the sparkling pendant. A ladies' watch was shown having a horse shoe engraved upon its surface, bedusted with diamonds. Another was ornamented with a neat anchor, also brilliant with diamonds.

A large tray of presents, such as rings, brooches, etc., together with their diamond settings not yet mounted were shown. These, said Mr. Edholm, are Christmas presents, which have been purchased and laid aside. Further along was a beautiful show case filled with brooches, bracelets, earrings and breast-pins, every one of which was a beauty. Every diamond genuine and every piece solid gold. Their display of rings could not help pleasing the most fastidious. Their stock of plain and circle wedding rings seems inexhaustible. All as pure in their golden circles as the truth they will one day cement. There was a profusion of studs, sleeve buttons and collar buttons, plain and with settings, also a nice line of emblematic pins and clasms. Passing around the store more cases appeared in different colored gold. Beautiful chains for ladies and gentlemen, including the latest thing—the Queen chain for ladies. A short chain with ball link up with diamonds. Next came a magnificent line of ladies' and gent's watches, including everything that is new, unique and valuable of the watch kind. These goods need to be seen to be appreciated. Some of them having beautiful carvings, others ornamented with flowers, bluebells, butterflies, all done in different colored gold. Their line of silverware includes the newest, the most unique in design and the most useful in the market, suitable for presents. Their oxidized silver fruit baskets are elegant. A nut dish, also of oxidized silver, with a sprig and nuts carved on the outside, was a rare and beautiful thing. This particular ware was never seen in this city before. The next department visited contained a splendid array of bronze clocks and figures of their own importation, many of which are heroic in design and style and all are the work of a master hand. Two beautiful water sets occupied a shelf, which for workmanship and ornamentation in silver and gold are certainly equal to any ever manufactured. Every article shown was genuine of its kind. Throughout the immense and beautiful stock which filled every available nook of their double store there was nothing shabby.

Every thing bore the impress of being just as represented. This store was established in 1879, and has always held a popular place in the good opinion of the public. Messrs. Edholm & Akin have lately fitted up their rooms with new and elegant furniture and intend to keep a store which will be surpassed by none in the city. These enterprising gentlemen have established a new store in South Omaha, for the accommodation of their south side customers. This store is nicely stocked and presided over by a competent jeweler. A visit to the store of Edholm & Akin will convince you that the above sketch of a beautiful store is a true one.
