It is reported that the Every Sunday Morning, now published at Creston, is to be removed to this city. The more the merrier.

Mrs. Hayes, an aged lady living on Seventeenth avenue, has been adjudged insane and will be taken to Mt. Pleasant for treatment.

The supervisors were busy yesterday with routine work. The entire day was taken up with examining petitions and locating new roads.

The indications are that the policemen's ball on Thanksgiving night will be a grand affair. About two hundred tickets have already been disposed of.

The regular meeting of the M. L. S. K. C. will be held this evening at the residence of W. N. Young, 414 Broadway. All members are requested to be present.

Superintendent J. C. Holmes, of the United States treasury department, was in the city Tuesday inspecting the government building, or that portion of it that is visible to the naked eye.

Iron bunks are being placed in the city jail by Schultz & Hill. There will be three in each of the large cells and two in the steel cell, making accommodations for eleven evil-doers.

In the police court yesterday morning William Powell was fined $7.60 for a drunk, and A. Hoiland, arrested for peddling without a license, was discharged upon the payment of costs.

The spire of the new German Catholie church has been sheeted, and workmen were busy yesterday putting on the galvanized iron cornice. The slate covering will probably be put on this week.

Yesterday morning a little son came to the household of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Grason, No. 726 Mynster street. The parents are doubly happy in that this is their third child, but both the preceding ones have died.

Mr. S. B. Wadsworth has removed his family and household effects to this city and will make his future home He occupies the house lately ochere. cupied by Mr. Charles Officer, near Oakland avenue.

A wire is being put up between the waterworks and the center of the city. A gong will be placed there and connected with the fire alarm system. The addition is being made by Chief En-gineer Birkenbine, of the waterworks company.

Whether you believe in prohibition or not it will pay you well to attend the temperance meeting at the opera house this evening. Hon. E. R. Hutchins and Captain Van Etten will say something will be well worth listening to. All the reading rooms, offices and ante-rooms in the lower story of the Ogden house are undergoing quite a change, in the hands of the painters and paper-hangers. These improvements point to the general opening of

How Did It Happen ? H. R. Yolton, an accident insurance agent from Lincoln, met with a little mishap at the Bechtele house, last evening about half past 6 o'clock, that may possibly help him in his business. He claims that as leaving the water-closet, he was confronted by a man who covered him with a revolver, and demanded his money. He refused to hand it over. whereupon the other shot him through the hand, and snatched his watch. He rushed into the house and made his statement of the affair, but no trace of the assailant could be found. His watch and chain were picked up just outside the door. Yolton immediately skipped for Lincoln after notifying the police, not even waiting to have the bullet extracted. The prevailing im-pression is that he intentionally inflicted the wound upon himself. A reputable citizen who lives in the immediate vicinity was in his back yard at the time, but saw no one run-ning away. Another man who was just entering the alley when the shot was fired, hurried to the place, but saw no one but the victim. He told a man whom he tried to insure that he was carrying a heavy insurance himself. It is said that since his arrival in the city, last Sunday, he lost con-siderable money in the gambling houses. The idea of such a bold attempt at robbery being perpetrated in almost broad daylight, and not a stone's throw from Broadway, is altogether improbable, and those who know the ex-will say inpossible.

That Got Him. The case of C. B. Ruggs, charged with isting state of affairs in Council Bluffs

maltreating the wife of his bosom, came before Judge Aylesworth in the superior court, yesterday morning. Ruggs is an African of the most pronounced type, and in point of color is several shades darker than the proverbial ace of spades. His home is in Omaha, and his wife left him about a month ago and came to this city, and has since been an inmate of a dive on Pierce street. He visited her at that place Tuesday, and upon her refusing to live with him again, he deliberately proceeded to "mop up the floor" with her. He entertained the court with a pathetic story of his affection for the erring woman, but it failed to touch a responsive chord in the magisterial bosom as the judge told him that his manner of expressing his love was altogether too demonstrative, and ask him to con-tribute $15 and costs. M. R. Snyder, counsel for the defense, introduced Oscar Brewer, of the Council Bluffs

"No, no; of the defendant." "Seeh talk as dat gits me. I gib it up. I dunno nuffin erbout it." The testimony was too much for even the dignity of the court, and an audible smile pervaded the length and breadth of the hall of justice.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Cook, 134 Vine street, was gladdened Monday morning by the advent of a charming little daughter. Mrs. Cook and daughter are doing well. Mr. Cook is a cashier of the Missouri Pacific railroad company in their Omaha offices. He is proud as a father well can be.

Beebe & Co. are sending their catalogues to the jobbing trade that buys from them. They cover the west, north-west and southwest with a radius of two hundred miles, besides doing no small business east, where they are brought into direct competition with the manufactures of the older cities.

W. J. Davenport, general freight and passenger agent of the Chicago, Bur-lington & Quincy road, W. C. Brown, superintendent of the Iowa division of the same road and A. E. Martin another Q man were in the city yesterday looking after the interests of that road.

Patrick Brennan, of Creston, is in the city looking for a location for the erec-tion of a foundry. He is engaged in that business at present and has had many years experience. He is favora-bly impressed with the advantages pre-sented here and the prospects of his locating here are good.

The street improving force took possession of Glen avenue yesterday. It will require about two more days to finish the grading, and the curbing is nearly completed. The paving will only extend to High School avenue, although it has been graded through to the reservoir.

The Right Rev. Bishop Cosgrove, of Davenport, was in the city yesterday and solemnized the marriage of his sister, Miss Teresa Cosgrove, and Mr. F. M. Gilmore, at St. Francis academy, where the bride had received her education. The wedding was a strictly private affair.

Notwithstanding the claim that there is little movement in real estate mat-ters, there is quite a steady trade. Per-sons from abroad, as well as those at home, are taking up the more advantageous properties, either for personal use or speculation. Mr. S. B. A decision in the injunction case of the Rock Island railroad company against the Manawa motor line has been rendered by Judge Loofbourow. He refused to dissolve the injunction. The hearing as to whether the temporary injunction shall be made perma-nent will probably be heard at the January term of the district court. As the completion of the line will result in such decided advantages, it is hoped that the decision which will compel the crossing of the tracks to be made farther east than was contemplated will not cause any delay in the prosecution of the work.
