CHICAGO PRODUCE MARKET.

CHICAGO, Nov. 17 .- Special Telegram to the BEE]-After a five days' continuous advance in wheat prices amounting to 23400 25ce, most of the professional traders seemed to think that at last a temporary "top" had been reached if not a permanent one. They were disappointed. Neither were the hopes of enthusiastic bulls altogether realized. The result of the day's trading was to put prices still higher, but there were periods of considerable depression and the volume of business, although still quite large, appeared to be rather less than yesterday. The opening was, right up to the advance established by yesterday afternoon's short session at 75%c for December, 76%c for January and 81%c for May. There appeared to be a strong disposition to realize profits on grain bought at lower prices and under this free selling prices fell to 751; e for December, 76e for January and 813,6681%c for May. It was a temporary weakness, however, and on the upturn which followed December touched 76%c, January 7634c and May 8234c. Here again the market became top-heavy and dropped quite steadily to nearly the opening figure, December again touching 75%c, January reaching 760276%c and May 81%c. The weakest point on this drop was at about noon. Half an hour later buyers were numerous enough to absorb all offerings and send prices up steadily to the close, which was strong at 76% c for December, 76% c nominally for January and 82% c for May.

The corn market appeared to be in rather The corn market appeared to be in rather an over-fed condition this morning, and if, as there are plenty of people to believe, it is going a long way higher up, it certainly halted to-day to digest the advance already gained. The volume of business was not so large as yesterday and the market was sensitive enough to show wide fluctuations under the influence of preponderance of buying and selling orders. The opening was at 45½c for December, 45%c for January and 49½c for May. Under realizing sales of long corn prices fell during the early trading to 45% May. Then began the rush to seil. There was said to be unlimited amounts of May corn for sale at 50c, and when the price came so near this seiling figure there were enough who shaded it a little to start prices on the downgrade again and they dropped steadily until December touched 44%c, January 44%c and May 48% 48%c. During the last half hour there was a rally and the close was at 45c for December, 45% 48% 46%c for January and 40%c.

494c for May.

The oats market had considerable attraction for traders to-day and while speculation was again confined almost exclusively to the May Future, it is large in that. Prices, too, showed a further improvement, cash and November closing nominally $\gamma_c$ higher than yesterday at $27\gamma_c$. For December and Janyesterday at 27 %c. For December and Jan-uary 27c was the nominal closing, a few trades being made in December early at 26%c. May opened at 30%c, sold at a range of 30% (a)31 %c and then back to 30%c at the 1 30 clock close. On the bulge Ream was a heavy buyer all the way up and these pur-chases stiffened the macket perceptibly in the face of the weaker tone developed in corn.

The provision trade was again the center of more than ordinary interest. The feeling was perhaps more nervous than on any of the previous days of the week and the boom experionced at vesterday's afternoon session was supplanted by an easier movement. Still, considering the realizing by small holders on recent profitable purchases and the break witnessed in corn, the market commanded a good support. Prices ruled with some irregularity, but under the circumstances the fluctuations covered only a moderate range and the decline actually suffered was comparatively limited. In pork the day's actual deprectation, based on last night's final quotations, was 123-(a20c.

APTERNOON SESSION—Wheat unsettled;
May 823cc bid, December 703cc, January
763cc. Corn opened at 493cc for May, sold at 493cc, then broke to 483cc, closing at that.
Oate opened firmer, but closed weak and a shade eiseer on May, with sales at 30% (#316 and closed at 30% (c. Pork declined 12% of for and closed at 3934c. Pork declined 1234c for January and February and 5c for May. The closing stood at $13.3734 for January, at $13.50 for February and $13.8734 for May, lard at $6.7234 for November and December, $6.7734 for January, $6.85 for February and $7.0734 for May. Short ribs closed 234c lower, or at $6.75 for January, $6.85 for February and $6.9234 for March.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK.

CHICAGO, Nov. 17 .- [Special Telegram to the BEE.]-CATTLE-The run continues largely on the increase, but that fact left little or no impression on the market to-day, as there were liberal shipping orders and dressed beef dealers were also liberal buyers. Prime natives continue scarce and a few lots of fancy show cattle good enough for Christmas steers have made $5.25@5.70, prices that look big in this period of low values and depressed markets. The great bulk of best fat steers continues to sell within a range of $4.50@4.90 and to bring anywhere near the outside figures they would have to be almost prime. Plenty of good and useful steers are selling within a range of $3.75@4.25 and stock good enough for shipment to eastern markets at $3.00@3.50. Range cattle are making more money than last week, also Texans and good native butchers stock. Shipping steers, 1350 to 1500 lbs, $4.20@4.90; 1200 to 1350 lbs, $3.60@4.40; 950 to 1200 lbs, $2.80@ 8.75. Stockers and feeders, $2.00@3.20; cows, bulls and mixed, $1.20@2.75. Texas steers, $2.30@3.15; cows, $2.00@2.40. Western rangers, steady; natives and half breeds, $3.00@3.75; cows, $2.00@2.70. Wintered Texans, $2.90@3.25.
Hogs—Trade was brisk, with an up turn that was sustained from first to last of about 10c, packers paying about as high as any other class of buyers. The market closed steady, with fewer left than for any night this week. Heavy sorts were scarce, selling up to $4.90. The bulk of the best packing sorts sold at $4.70@4.85 and $4.50@4.60 for common and ordinary; light sorts, $4.000; 4.70; pigs, $4.20@4.40.

FINANCIAL.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17 .- | Special Telegram to the BEE]-STOCKS-The foreigners took their profits in their holdings of American securities this morning and turned the market downward, the opening being at declines extending from 1/4 to 3/4 per cent. Business was active and the market excited the first half hour, the sales being the largest of any previous time this year and were well distributed in both stocks and bonds. Commission houses also reported a large supply of outside orders. The bears sold a little stock, but the short interest, except in a few stocks, has been well eliminated. Professionals who had good profits evinced more desire to sell and followed the lead of the foreigners. The latter, however, were evidently only playing for a small reaction, as the market turned after the first hour and prices moved up 1/4 to 2 points on increased buying by room traders. Deacon White remains bullish on Coalers and his friends have bought largely of Lackawanna the past four days. They expect great things from it, but the indications are that on a further rise of 5 points they would let the outsiders have it. Cotton Oils, which have been very quiet of late, were taken hold of and lifted 2 points, but, like the whole list, when let alone it sagged perceptibly. Wabashes were the weakest securities on the list and dropped I point without any special reason. The last hour witnessed a decidedly ragged market. There was heavy selling of the gen. bral list and most properties went off from 14

THE SPECULATIVE MARKETS. to 1 point, the exceptions being Pullman, St. Paul and Missouri Pacific, which had more support than the others. Last sales showed a decline from yesterday of 1% on Reading, 😘 on Lackawanna, 🎋 on Northwestern, 🎉 on Western Union and 14 per cent on Canada Southern, an advance of 36 on St. Paul, 236 on Pullman, 14 on Missouri Pacific and 114 per cent on Cotton Oils. The latter was due o the recent advance in lard. Advices at the close were mostly in favor of higher prices, as there are more traders in the market who evince a desire to buy on all reactions. The aggregate business, although large, did not reach that of yesterday, being 463,269 shares, against 562,854 shares yester-

Cattle. The fresh receipts of cattle were very light, there being only twelve loads received. The market was inclined to be dull on all grades. The packers were very light buyers and were inquiring mostly for prime corn-fed steers, but did not want many of them. The medium grades of corn cattle were neglected for the most part and the market was weak. A few feeders changed hands at about steady prices. Cows are bringing a little better prices, but there is apparently a correspond-ing improvement in the quality. Old, thin cows are not wanted and would not bring any better prices than a month ago.

Hogs. The recent decline of prices on the hog market made itself felt yesterday in light re-ceipts. There were only 75 cars in as against 113 on Wednesday. The market opened ac tive with all the buyers on hand and at an advance of fully 10c over Wednesday's market. The market gained strength as the day advanced and closed fully 15@20c higher than the day before. The buying was active and the buyers took the hogs as fast as they were unloaded, not even waiting until they could be yarded. Toward the close, in some in-stances, mixed loads of hogs of medium quaiity were sold for all of 25c more than the same grade of hogs brought on Wednesday. The market closed early with everything
