

THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS. OFFICE NO. 12, PEARL STREET

MINOR MENTION. N. Y. Plumbing Co. Reitor, tailor. Fall goods cheap.

Mr. George Hansen and Miss Katie D. Nieman were married yesterday afternoon by Rev. G. W. Crofts.

Mrs. W. Wallace entertained the members and friends of the Congregational church in a sociable last evening.

The regular meeting of the city council that was to have been held last evening, was adjourned until Monday night.

The grand jury returned an indictment against John Hamilton for larceny from the person. Hamilton is in custody.

All members of Harmony Chapter, O. E. S., are requested to meet at the residence of Miss Potter, 920 First avenue, this evening.

Only forty more names are wanted to make the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium an assured fact. Two hundred is the total to be secured.

Photographs of the pretty "Musketiers" are displayed at Dohany's opera house. One would hardly know they were not professionals, so soldier-like is their bearing.

The Musketiers are meeting every evening for rehearsal. They will appear in public next week. Those who do not secure tickets will wish they had when it is too late.

Captain D. R. Van Etten addressed a fair sized audience at the Baptist church last evening. He is a hustler in temperance work and does not allow his audience to go to sleep.

The patrol house is being plastered and painted. The interior woodwork is painted a gray tint, with bright red trimmings. It makes a fine looking building, both inside and out.

C. D. Crabb was ordered out of town, and advised to keep several miles between himself and Council Bluffs, where his reputation as an all-around "crook" is fully established. He skipped, without even a fond goodbye.

Mable Luella, the three-year-old daughter of George W. and Hattie M. Smith, died yesterday of membranous croup. The funeral will take place at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon from the residence, 126 Baughn street.

James Jacoby was before Judge Aylesworth yesterday morning, for having no license as a common carrier. He was discharged, with the order to get one immediately if he wished to continue his business as usual.

Mr. D. L. Rohrer has purchased three lots in Park addition, upon which he intends to erect two elegant residences. The position is most sightly one, giving a full view of both cities, as well as the surrounding country for miles. Dickey & Co. next week.

On Thursday evening at 6:30 o'clock Justice Biggs tied the matrimonial knot for Mr. M. A. Huntley and Mrs. Delia Fletcher. The ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride, No. 1217 Sixth avenue. It may be a trifle late, but congratulations are in order just the same.

After looking over the programme for the Chinese entertainment to be given in the Baptist church next week Saturday evening no one will feel like missing it. The entertainment will be given by Chinese students, who will sing, play, recite, and perform in Chinese style. Tickets are now on sale.

An extensive grain buyer, whose name is prominently connected with the push and improvement of other cities than this, is arranging for an extensive investment in real estate in this city. Should the present prospects materialize, which is almost assured, the city will be augmented to the extent of many thousand dollars and substantial improvements.

Some beautiful photographs of those who take in the leading parts of the Musketiers, are being exhibited in show windows. Some of the subjects could hardly make any other than beautiful pictures, but given the same subjects and there are few photographers who could produce such a fine work as Gorman has in this instance.

The musicale at the residence of J. M. Treynor on First avenue, last evening, was a grand treat for the large company of music lovers that were present. Every number on the programme was a perfect gem, and the rendition all that could be desired. The rooms were all well filled, about one hundred guests being present. The most hearty appreciation was expressed, and it is hoped that this great success is but the first of many.

Frank Johnson, a prominent banker of Randolph, Ia., has been in the city during the past two days. He came to investigate the advantages this city possesses for investors, and it is not unlikely that he will remove here at no distant day. He is a man well known for energy and good judgment, and the possessor and controller of large capital. The coming of such men is always most welcome, for all the material interests with which they associate themselves must of necessity feel their influence.

Fritz Fritzmeyer, restaurant, 108 Main st. Meals at all hours.

E. H. Sheafe loans money on chattel security of every description. Private consulting rooms. All business strictly confidential. Office 500 Broadway, corner Main street, upstairs.

J. W. and E. L. Squire lend money.

The Bloodthirsty "Major." A portion of the unsavory career of the notorious Major Williams, as he called himself in this city, is known to many of the readers of the BEE, and the following piece of news in regard to him may not prove uninteresting to them.

Troy, N. Y., Nov. 18.—James Brown, alias Major Williams, was indicted by the grand jury of Hamilton county, for murder in the first degree, in having killed Patrick Kelly. His trial will be called at the coming session of the supreme court.

Personal Paragraphs. S. W. Heiss, of Chicago, was at the Ogden yesterday.

W. H. Saunders, editor of the Industrial West, of Atlantic, is making a short visit in the city.

J. True, of Knox township, and L. A. Hensell, of Grove, as well as the city yesterday. Mr. True is one of the pioneers of this country, and viewed with astonishment and delight the wonderful strides the Bluffs is making toward metropolitanism.

The working man, as well as the married man, can get the furniture and stoves he needs. How? By buying on weekly or monthly payments of Mandel, 225 Broadway.

THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

Council Bluffs. Road and Bridge Petitions Granted at Yesterday's Meeting.

OFFICERS' BONDS ARE FIXED. What Was Done in the District Court—Sold Shooters to Boys—The New Truck Tested—Bluffs News.

Business of the Board. The board of county supervisors completed the work of this session last night, and adjourned until the first Monday in January.

During the session the petition of J. H. Murphy and others asking for the establishment of a new road in Garner township, the petition of W. M. Maxwell and others asking for the vacation of a road in James township, the petition of John Birney for the establishment of a consent road in Valley township, and the petition of Edward Mitchell asking for the establishment of a consent road in Silver Creek and Washington townships were all granted.

The petition for the vacation of a road in Valley township was referred to R. F. Jones to report at the January session. J. J. Shea's appointment of J. H. Smith as deputy clerk of the board at Avoca was approved.

The official bonds of A. C. Rayburn as constable of Macedonia township, William Stueve, constable, and John Nippis, justice of the peace of Lewis township, were approved. The sureties furnished by Joseph A. Spaulding in place of those withdrawing were accepted. Erasmus C. Brown, a registered pharmacist of Council Bluffs, was granted permission to buy and sell intoxicating liquors as provided in chapter 83, laws of 1885.

Bill of W. D. Hardin, overseer of the poor, to the amount of $300,000, was approved. The change of road petition for in Minden township was granted as recommended.

The bridge petitions of D. F. Perry, of Hardin township, and H. U. Sucksdorf, of Washington township, were referred to S. G. Underwood, to report at the January session. The bridge petition of E. B. Ryan, of Boomer township, was referred to C. B. Waite, to report at the next session. The bridge petition of B. F. Bobb, of Waveland township, was rejected, as there is no road at the place named in the petition. The petition of G. Hoyer for reduction was rejected. The refund petition of O. A. Elliott was granted.

The bonds of the county officers were fixed as follows: Auditor, $10,000; treasurer, $10,000; sheriff, $10,000; supervisor, $3,000; superintendent of schools, $1,000; coroner, $1,000.

John Lindt was appointed to attend to the burial of indigent soldiers.

Money to loan. Cooper & Judson.

Up in the World. The official test of the new aerial extension truck took place yesterday afternoon at the government building. The trial was a pronounced success, exceeding even the expectations of the most sanguine. The long seventy-five-foot ladder was tried at different angles and elevations and was mounted by both Mr. Bruegger, agent of the builders of the truck, and Chief Templeton, of the fire department. When placed against the building a half dozen of the boys quickly skipped to the top, their combined weight making no perceptible strain upon the ladder. Mr. Bruegger complimented the boys very highly for their work, and then, in a few phrases the speedy arrival of the time when they will beat the record of the boys across the river, who, he says, can raise their ladder eighty feet in fifty seconds. Although there are but few buildings in the city that would require a seventy-five-foot ladder, there are many that could receive no benefit from the ones on the old truck. The many three and four-story buildings in the city would be decidedly "pokerish" places in case of a fire, unless the department was supplied with an apparatus similar to the new one.

Sold Firearms to Boys. Among the indictments returned by the grand jury was one against Joseph Riche and M. A. Pierce. The crime alleged is selling firearms to minors. Upon this finding four informations were issued yesterday by Justice Barnett, and warrants for the arrest of Riche and Pierce. The informations were returned out by the grand jury of the boys to whom the firearms were sold. These are as follows: O. P. McKesson, arms sold to his son, Frank McKesson; W. B. White, arms sold to his son, Clinton White; C. Deekin, arms sold to his son, Henry Deekin; and William Van Deunberg, arms sold to his son, Albert Van Deunberg. The indictments were returned separately and the cases will come up for trial next Monday at 9 o'clock a. m. Bonds in each case were fixed at $200. Sureties were furnished. These four boys are the ones mentioned in the BEE of yesterday as the braves who started east to kill Indians, and came back from Weston with a policeman.

Every one making a cash purchase of 25 cents at T. D. King & Co.'s cigar store gets a chance in the annual prize drawing. Twenty elegant prizes.

"The Musketiers." Manager Dohany yesterday informed the young ladies in charge of the comic opera, "The Musketiers," that while they held his written contract for the use of his opera house on Thanksgiving day, he had just discovered another given by him last January, to the "Alone in London" company. This necessitates a change of dates by one of them, and in consequence "The Musketiers" will be presented on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, November 22 and 23. The date of the matinee will be announced to-morrow morning. The young ladies very much disliked to relinquish their claim upon Mr. Dohany for the holiday, as many would be prevented from hearing the opera if not DRIVEN ON THAT DAY, BUT AS IT WAS IMPOSSIBLE FOR THE OPERA HOUSE MANAGEMENT TO SECURE ANOTHER HOUSE FOR THE TRAVELING COMPANY, AND AS IT WOULD LAY HIM OPEN TO A PROBABLE SUIT FOR DAMAGES IF THE CONTRACT WITH THE HOME COMPANY SHOULD BE FULFILLED, IT WAS DEEMED BEST TO MAKE THE CHANGE. IT IS VERY UNFORTUNATE THAT MR. DOHANY SHOULD HAVE MADE SUCH A MISTAKE IN HIS BOOKINGS, BUT IN SPITE OF THE CHANGE, THE TROUPE SHOULD BE GREETED WITH THREE FULL HOUSES. THE COMPANY HAS ITS OWN ORCHESTRA, IMPORTED COSTUMES, AND A CHORUS OF FIFTY TRAINED VOICES. TICKETS WILL BE ON SALE AT BUSHNELL'S THIS MORNING. LET EVERY ONE TURN OUT, AND BESIDES ENJOYING A GOOD LAUGH AND HEARING A LOT OF GOOD MUSIC, SHOW THAT MUSICAL EDUCATION IS APPRECIATED IN COUNCIL BLUFFS.

District Court. District court convened yesterday morning. The arguments in the case of M. J. Blair against C. M. Witt et al, for $5,000 damages, were concluded and the case went to the jury at 10:30 o'clock. They were still out at adjournment last evening. A disagreement is looked for. The case then taken up is a complicated one, four cases being combined in one. The substantial facts are as follows: Four brothers, Thomas J. Joseph, H. B. M., and W. T. Collison, owned together a large property. The two former died without having made a division of the estate. Robert Motherell was made their executor. In settlement, claims and counter claims were put in by both the living brothers and the executor. The brothers sue a claim against the estate and the executor sues them for the amount of a note he holds against the estate. The case will continue to-day.
