

THE DAILY BEE. PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION. Daily Morning Edition including Sunday... For One Year... For Three Months... For Six Months...

The Bee Publishing Company, Proprietors. E. ROSEWATER, Editor.

THE DAILY BEE.

Sworn Statement of Circulation. State of Nebraska, County of Douglas, J. S. Tschuck, Secretary of the Bee Publishing Company...

Sworn to and subscribed in my presence this 19th day of November, A. D. 1887.

Notary Public. State of Nebraska, County of Douglas, J. S. Tschuck, being first duly sworn, deposes and says that he is secretary of the Bee Publishing Company...

Sworn to and subscribed in my presence this 19th day of October, A. D. 1887.

Notary Public. The general objection urged against heating railway cars with stoves was never suggested in speaking of Omaha's street cars.

It may be an easy matter to secure a man who will fill Mr. Beecher's shoes and hat and pulp, but to fill the pews of his church will be the question.

When Herr Most was in jail the other day, some curious medical students ascertained that his brain weighs an ounce and a half, while the weight of his mouth is estimated at fifteen pounds.

SAN FRANCISCO reaches out after the national democratic convention. There will be no use to go far west to place a ticket in the field to be beaten. It would be less expensive to transact the business nearer home.

A WRITER in an eastern journal deprecates the decadence of taste in Boston. He has reference to art, music and the drama. As to baked beans the taste of Boston is still unimpaired.

OMAHA merchants and manufacturers have complained to the interstate commerce commission, asking that certain discriminations against Omaha by the roads out of Chicago be stopped.

It is the duty of every loyal citizen in Omaha, to subscribe something to the fund being raised to secure the republican national convention.

THE jealous organs of Denver fly into a rage because the enterprising people of Omaha propose to bid with cash for the national republican convention of 1888.

FRANCE is confronted by another ministerial crisis. A defeat of the government in the chamber of deputies yesterday brought from the prime minister an immediate announcement of the resignation of the cabinet, and the event that some had hoped and fought for and others feared was consummated.

THE packing business at South Omaha is assuming wonderful proportions. And as the packing houses increase in number and capacity, so the town expands in trade and in population.

There are bright things in the future for Omaha, and her shrewd and sagacious public-spirited citizens are causing them to materialize in a most gratifying manner.

A Striking Instance. Some days ago we spoke of the want of care and thoroughness in the system of bank examinations, as shown by facts developed in the cases of bank failures...

THE failure of Roscoe Conkling, in arguing the Virginia case before the supreme court of the United States to gratify the state sovereignty views of his clients and democrats generally, was a very great disappointment to them, and the distinguished lawyer has suffered a great decline in their regard.

THE failure of Roscoe Conkling, in arguing the Virginia case before the supreme court of the United States to gratify the state sovereignty views of his clients and democrats generally, was a very great disappointment to them, and the distinguished lawyer has suffered a great decline in their regard.

THE failure of Roscoe Conkling, in arguing the Virginia case before the supreme court of the United States to gratify the state sovereignty views of his clients and democrats generally, was a very great disappointment to them, and the distinguished lawyer has suffered a great decline in their regard.

THE failure of Roscoe Conkling, in arguing the Virginia case before the supreme court of the United States to gratify the state sovereignty views of his clients and democrats generally, was a very great disappointment to them, and the distinguished lawyer has suffered a great decline in their regard.

THE failure of Roscoe Conkling, in arguing the Virginia case before the supreme court of the United States to gratify the state sovereignty views of his clients and democrats generally, was a very great disappointment to them, and the distinguished lawyer has suffered a great decline in their regard.

THE failure of Roscoe Conkling, in arguing the Virginia case before the supreme court of the United States to gratify the state sovereignty views of his clients and democrats generally, was a very great disappointment to them, and the distinguished lawyer has suffered a great decline in their regard.

THE failure of Roscoe Conkling, in arguing the Virginia case before the supreme court of the United States to gratify the state sovereignty views of his clients and democrats generally, was a very great disappointment to them, and the distinguished lawyer has suffered a great decline in their regard.

THE failure of Roscoe Conkling, in arguing the Virginia case before the supreme court of the United States to gratify the state sovereignty views of his clients and democrats generally, was a very great disappointment to them, and the distinguished lawyer has suffered a great decline in their regard.

THE failure of Roscoe Conkling, in arguing the Virginia case before the supreme court of the United States to gratify the state sovereignty views of his clients and democrats generally, was a very great disappointment to them, and the distinguished lawyer has suffered a great decline in their regard.

THE failure of Roscoe Conkling, in arguing the Virginia case before the supreme court of the United States to gratify the state sovereignty views of his clients and democrats generally, was a very great disappointment to them, and the distinguished lawyer has suffered a great decline in their regard.

THE failure of Roscoe Conkling, in arguing the Virginia case before the supreme court of the United States to gratify the state sovereignty views of his clients and democrats generally, was a very great disappointment to them, and the distinguished lawyer has suffered a great decline in their regard.

THE failure of Roscoe Conkling, in arguing the Virginia case before the supreme court of the United States to gratify the state sovereignty views of his clients and democrats generally, was a very great disappointment to them, and the distinguished lawyer has suffered a great decline in their regard.

THE failure of Roscoe Conkling, in arguing the Virginia case before the supreme court of the United States to gratify the state sovereignty views of his clients and democrats generally, was a very great disappointment to them, and the distinguished lawyer has suffered a great decline in their regard.

THE failure of Roscoe Conkling, in arguing the Virginia case before the supreme court of the United States to gratify the state sovereignty views of his clients and democrats generally, was a very great disappointment to them, and the distinguished lawyer has suffered a great decline in their regard.

THE failure of Roscoe Conkling, in arguing the Virginia case before the supreme court of the United States to gratify the state sovereignty views of his clients and democrats generally, was a very great disappointment to them, and the distinguished lawyer has suffered a great decline in their regard.

THE failure of Roscoe Conkling, in arguing the Virginia case before the supreme court of the United States to gratify the state sovereignty views of his clients and democrats generally, was a very great disappointment to them, and the distinguished lawyer has suffered a great decline in their regard.

THE failure of Roscoe Conkling, in arguing the Virginia case before the supreme court of the United States to gratify the state sovereignty views of his clients and democrats generally, was a very great disappointment to them, and the distinguished lawyer has suffered a great decline in their regard.

THE failure of Roscoe Conkling, in arguing the Virginia case before the supreme court of the United States to gratify the state sovereignty views of his clients and democrats generally, was a very great disappointment to them, and the distinguished lawyer has suffered a great decline in their regard.

THE failure of Roscoe Conkling, in arguing the Virginia case before the supreme court of the United States to gratify the state sovereignty views of his clients and democrats generally, was a very great disappointment to them, and the distinguished lawyer has suffered a great decline in their regard.

THE failure of Roscoe Conkling, in arguing the Virginia case before the supreme court of the United States to gratify the state sovereignty views of his clients and democrats generally, was a very great disappointment to them, and the distinguished lawyer has suffered a great decline in their regard.

THE failure of Roscoe Conkling, in arguing the Virginia case before the supreme court of the United States to gratify the state sovereignty views of his clients and democrats generally, was a very great disappointment to them, and the distinguished lawyer has suffered a great decline in their regard.

THE failure of Roscoe Conkling, in arguing the Virginia case before the supreme court of the United States to gratify the state sovereignty views of his clients and democrats generally, was a very great disappointment to them, and the distinguished lawyer has suffered a great decline in their regard.

THE failure of Roscoe Conkling, in arguing the Virginia case before the supreme court of the United States to gratify the state sovereignty views of his clients and democrats generally, was a very great disappointment to them, and the distinguished lawyer has suffered a great decline in their regard.

THE failure of Roscoe Conkling, in arguing the Virginia case before the supreme court of the United States to gratify the state sovereignty views of his clients and democrats generally, was a very great disappointment to them, and the distinguished lawyer has suffered a great decline in their regard.

THE failure of Roscoe Conkling, in arguing the Virginia case before the supreme court of the United States to gratify the state sovereignty views of his clients and democrats generally, was a very great disappointment to them, and the distinguished lawyer has suffered a great decline in their regard.

THE failure of Roscoe Conkling, in arguing the Virginia case before the supreme court of the United States to gratify the state sovereignty views of his clients and democrats generally, was a very great disappointment to them, and the distinguished lawyer has suffered a great decline in their regard.

THE failure of Roscoe Conkling, in arguing the Virginia case before the supreme court of the United States to gratify the state sovereignty views of his clients and democrats generally, was a very great disappointment to them, and the distinguished lawyer has suffered a great decline in their regard.

THE failure of Roscoe Conkling, in arguing the Virginia case before the supreme court of the United States to gratify the state sovereignty views of his clients and democrats generally, was a very great disappointment to them, and the distinguished lawyer has suffered a great decline in their regard.

THE failure of Roscoe Conkling, in arguing the Virginia case before the supreme court of the United States to gratify the state sovereignty views of his clients and democrats generally, was a very great disappointment to them, and the distinguished lawyer has suffered a great decline in their regard.

THE failure of Roscoe Conkling, in arguing the Virginia case before the supreme court of the United States to gratify the state sovereignty views of his clients and democrats generally, was a very great disappointment to them, and the distinguished lawyer has suffered a great decline in their regard.

THE failure of Roscoe Conkling, in arguing the Virginia case before the supreme court of the United States to gratify the state sovereignty views of his clients and democrats generally, was a very great disappointment to them, and the distinguished lawyer has suffered a great decline in their regard.

THE failure of Roscoe Conkling, in arguing the Virginia case before the supreme court of the United States to gratify the state sovereignty views of his clients and democrats generally, was a very great disappointment to them, and the distinguished lawyer has suffered a great decline in their regard.

THE failure of Roscoe Conkling, in arguing the Virginia case before the supreme court of the United States to gratify the state sovereignty views of his clients and democrats generally, was a very great disappointment to them, and the distinguished lawyer has suffered a great decline in their regard.

THE failure of Roscoe Conkling, in arguing the Virginia case before the supreme court of the United States to gratify the state sovereignty views of his clients and democrats generally, was a very great disappointment to them, and the distinguished lawyer has suffered a great decline in their regard.

THE failure of Roscoe Conkling, in arguing the Virginia case before the supreme court of the United States to gratify the state sovereignty views of his clients and democrats generally, was a very great disappointment to them, and the distinguished lawyer has suffered a great decline in their regard.

THE failure of Roscoe Conkling, in arguing the Virginia case before the supreme court of the United States to gratify the state sovereignty views of his clients and democrats generally, was a very great disappointment to them, and the distinguished lawyer has suffered a great decline in their regard.

THE failure of Roscoe Conkling, in arguing the Virginia case before the supreme court of the United States to gratify the state sovereignty views of his clients and democrats generally, was a very great disappointment to them, and the distinguished lawyer has suffered a great decline in their regard.

THE failure of Roscoe Conkling, in arguing the Virginia case before the supreme court of the United States to gratify the state sovereignty views of his clients and democrats generally, was a very great disappointment to them, and the distinguished lawyer has suffered a great decline in their regard.

THE failure of Roscoe Conkling, in arguing the Virginia case before the supreme court of the United States to gratify the state sovereignty views of his clients and democrats generally, was a very great disappointment to them, and the distinguished lawyer has suffered a great decline in their regard.

THE failure of Roscoe Conkling, in arguing the Virginia case before the supreme court of the United States to gratify the state sovereignty views of his clients and democrats generally, was a very great disappointment to them, and the distinguished lawyer has suffered a great decline in their regard.

THE failure of Roscoe Conkling, in arguing the Virginia case before the supreme court of the United States to gratify the state sovereignty views of his clients and democrats generally, was a very great disappointment to them, and the distinguished lawyer has suffered a great decline in their regard.

THE failure of Roscoe Conkling, in arguing the Virginia case before the supreme court of the United States to gratify the state sovereignty views of his clients and democrats generally, was a very great disappointment to them, and the distinguished lawyer has suffered a great decline in their regard.

THE failure of Roscoe Conkling, in arguing the Virginia case before the supreme court of the United States to gratify the state sovereignty views of his clients and democrats generally, was a very great disappointment to them, and the distinguished lawyer has suffered a great decline in their regard.

THE failure of Roscoe Conkling, in arguing the Virginia case before the supreme court of the United States to gratify the state sovereignty views of his clients and democrats generally, was a very great disappointment to them, and the distinguished lawyer has suffered a great decline in their regard.

THE failure of Roscoe Conkling, in arguing the Virginia case before the supreme court of the United States to gratify the state sovereignty views of his clients and democrats generally, was a very great disappointment to them, and the distinguished lawyer has suffered a great decline in their regard.

THE failure of Roscoe Conkling, in arguing the Virginia case before the supreme court of the United States to gratify the state sovereignty views of his clients and democrats generally, was a very great disappointment to them, and the distinguished lawyer has suffered a great decline in their regard.

THE failure of Roscoe Conkling, in arguing the Virginia case before the supreme court of the United States to gratify the state sovereignty views of his clients and democrats generally, was a very great disappointment to them, and the distinguished lawyer has suffered a great decline in their regard.

THE failure of Roscoe Conkling, in arguing the Virginia case before the supreme court of the United States to gratify the state sovereignty views of his clients and democrats generally, was a very great disappointment to them, and the distinguished lawyer has suffered a great decline in their regard.

THE failure of Roscoe Conkling, in arguing the Virginia case before the supreme court of the United States to gratify the state sovereignty views of his clients and democrats generally, was a very great disappointment to them, and the distinguished lawyer has suffered a great decline in their regard.

Organized Charity. The season is at hand when the demands on charity will be largely increased and become more urgent. It is well to consider how they may be met, to the best advantage, and to the objects of the charity.

Organized charity is the outgrowth of a progressive civilization. It exemplifies the higher and broader humanity of this age. Not very many years ago paupers were subjected to indignity.

Organized charity is the outgrowth of a progressive civilization. It exemplifies the higher and broader humanity of this age. Not very many years ago paupers were subjected to indignity.

Organized charity is the outgrowth of a progressive civilization. It exemplifies the higher and broader humanity of this age. Not very many years ago paupers were subjected to indignity.

Organized charity is the outgrowth of a progressive civilization. It exemplifies the higher and broader humanity of this age. Not very many years ago paupers were subjected to indignity.

Organized charity is the outgrowth of a progressive civilization. It exemplifies the higher and broader humanity of this age. Not very many years ago paupers were subjected to indignity.

Organized charity is the outgrowth of a progressive civilization. It exemplifies the higher and broader humanity of this age. Not very many years ago paupers were subjected to indignity.

had been robbed by the paying teller to the amount of $100,000, all of which had been lost in speculation. The sums making this amount were taken at various times covering a period of about a year.

It would perhaps not be just to the majority of bank examiners to suppose they could be as easily deceived as was the examiner who accepted the statement of the defaulting teller regarding the bags of silver.

It would perhaps not be just to the majority of bank examiners to suppose they could be as easily deceived as was the examiner who accepted the statement of the defaulting teller regarding the bags of silver.

It would perhaps not be just to the majority of bank examiners to suppose they could be as easily deceived as was the examiner who accepted the statement of the defaulting teller regarding the bags of silver.

It would perhaps not be just to the majority of bank examiners to suppose they could be as easily deceived as was the examiner who accepted the statement of the defaulting teller regarding the bags of silver.

It would perhaps not be just to the majority of bank examiners to suppose they could be as easily deceived as was the examiner who accepted the statement of the defaulting teller regarding the bags of silver.

It would perhaps not be just to the majority of bank examiners to suppose they could be as easily deceived as was the examiner who accepted the statement of the defaulting teller regarding the bags of silver.

forth the facts, and this Mr. Conkling did, but the state rights people were looking for a ten thousand dollar argument in support of their doctrine, and not getting this they are deeply disappointed and deplore the expenditure.

THE papers of Philadelphia are discussing the Married Women's act, as passed by the last legislature of the Keystone state. One paper argues that while married women have long been favorites of the courts of Philadelphia, the new law does not deprive the woman of the special privileges heretofore enjoyed by her.

A NEW YORK court has decided that a bucket shop is a gambling house. An appeal has been taken, and it is to be hoped the decision will be affirmed by the higher courts.

THE Gresham presidential boom has been started. Don Cameron insists that Allison will be the second choice of the Blaine men. The election in New Jersey was more than a republican victory. It was a small revolution.

THE Atlanta National (rep) has a programme for 1888, which included a "stump" tour through the southern states by Governor Foraker for Robert T. Lincoln for president.

THE Philadelphia American (rep) thinks that the "struggle will be useless" in New York next year unless the republican candidate has "all of these points in his favor."

THE Philadelphia American (rep) thinks that the "struggle will be useless" in New York next year unless the republican candidate has "all of these points in his favor."

is proud of her growth. It makes Lincoln scratch gravel to keep up her position, five years in her rear. It was named about the commencement of the present decade by dint of hard work in the latter half of the seventies, but we haven't dropped any steps so far, and are making as good a pace in 1887 as she was making in 1882.

Because all Flesh is Grass. An annual ceremony in British Columbia is the pouring of a keg of whisky on the grass in the presence of the young Indians. The grass is killed, and the Indians are told by the missionary that they lay themselves liable to the same fate if they become addicted to drink.

Oh! Happy Children Here Behold. Oh! happy children, here behold, and old, with not the smallest scrap of meat, or aught but crusts of bread to eat, when thousands lay a feast in bountiful array.

THE CHILDREN'S NURSERY. A few weeks since notice was given in the newspapers of Omaha that a company of women in this city were about entering upon the work of establishing here a day nursery.

SHOT IN THE LEG. A few minutes before 11 o'clock last night the patrol wagon was called to the drug store of Kuhn & Co., corner of Fifteenth and Douglas streets, where lay John Donohue, aged eighteen years, better known to the patrons of Gaynor's dances by the title of "Kid," with a bullet in his left leg.

RECKLESS DRIVING. While Henry McKee, a young fellow from Council Bluffs, was driving recklessly down Jones street yesterday afternoon, he knocked over an old man named John Jones, and ran over him.

RECKLESS DRIVING. While Henry McKee, a young fellow from Council Bluffs, was driving recklessly down Jones street yesterday afternoon, he knocked over an old man named John Jones, and ran over him.

Desperate Struggle of Officer Ormsby With a Prisoner. The patrol wagon about midnight last night there enacted one of the most desperate and bloody struggles and exhibition of courage and pluck on the part of an officer yet known in the police history of Omaha.

Tom Ormsby's Gallant Fight. In the patrol wagon about midnight last night there enacted one of the most desperate and bloody struggles and exhibition of courage and pluck on the part of an officer yet known in the police history of Omaha.

Blow Out His Brains. J. F. Kuhn, painter and artist, committed suicide at his home, No. 222 North Thirteenth street, yesterday morning, by blowing out his brains. He had been in health for some time, and despondent led him to commit the rash act.

Personal Paragraphs. W. C. Lyon, Sioux City, Ia., is at the Paxton. F. Balch, of St. Paul, Minn., is at the Millard.

NATIONAL W. C. T. U. NASVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 19.—In the W. C. T. U. convention today Mrs. Susant, president of the Indian territory, W. C. T. U., spoke eloquently of the condition of the territory regarding temperance, and how liquor is smuggled in in egg shells, sacks of flour, sold as kerosene oil, and every possible way.

KANSAS CITY ROAD MORTGAGED. KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 19.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—A mortgage was filed in the county office this morning by the Kansas City & Sabine Pass railroad, to the Union Trust company, of New York, for $248,000. This mortgage was given to secure $248,000 bonds at a par value of $200,000, held by the Trust company.

KANSAS CITY ROAD MORTGAGED. KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 19.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—A mortgage was filed in the county office this morning by the Kansas City & Sabine Pass railroad, to the Union Trust company, of New York, for $248,000.

Dr. Sherwood says that as she was leaning over a table, it is a very difficult and dangerous matter to probe the wound where the body is in its natural position. The location of the ball cannot therefore be ascertained, and her chances for surviving the accident cannot yet be determined.

Blow Out His Brains. J. F. Kuhn, painter and artist, committed suicide at his home, No. 222 North Thirteenth street, yesterday morning, by blowing out his brains. He had been in health for some time, and despondent led him to commit the rash act.

Personal Paragraphs. W. C. Lyon, Sioux City, Ia., is at the Paxton. F. Balch, of St. Paul, Minn., is at the Millard.

NATIONAL W. C. T. U. NASVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 19.—In the W. C. T. U. convention today Mrs. Susant, president of the Indian territory, W. C. T. U., spoke eloquently of the condition of the territory regarding temperance, and how liquor is smuggled in in egg shells, sacks of flour, sold as kerosene oil, and every possible way.

KANSAS CITY ROAD MORTGAGED. KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 19.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—A mortgage was filed in the county office this morning by the Kansas City & Sabine Pass railroad, to the Union Trust company, of New York, for $248,000.

KANSAS CITY ROAD MORTGAGED. KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 19.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—A mortgage was filed in the county office this morning by the Kansas City & Sabine Pass railroad, to the Union Trust company, of New York, for $248,000.

KANSAS CITY ROAD MORTGAGED. KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 19.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—A mortgage was filed in the county office this morning by the Kansas City & Sabine Pass railroad, to the Union Trust company, of New York, for $248,000.