Law cases continue to occupy the time in the district court.

The trial of Arch Coffman is set for the 8th of next month.

The funeral of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Benedict occurred yesterday.

Regular meeting of St. Albans lodge K. P. to-night. Work on the amplified third.

The funeral of Mrs. Conrad Geise will take place this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the house on Frank street.

All members of the Council Bluffs Robbery Degree lodge No. 3 are requested to attend a social and practice the beautiful work at Odd Fellows hall Tuesday evening. By order of N. G.

The grand jury is in session and the gambling houses are not running. The question is raised whether there is any connection between these two facts, but none answer except by surmises.

The proprietors of the Bechtel house deny that they overtook stealing, etc., as reported by one of the city papers. It occurred there on Sunday or at any other time. Some one evidently got mixed in his places.

The Murray & Murphy combination played last night to a good house. The entertainment is on the original order with a little of the old stagions about it. It gave good satisfaction. The company are working west and appear at Lincoln to-night.

This evening the Fifth Regiment band give their grand concert and ball in the opera house. It is already an assured success. Judging by the number of tickets sold everybody must be going. The concert will be given from 8 until 9 o'clock. Most of the music on this occasion will be the composition of Prof. Dally, of this city.

The contractors who have taken the work of connecting the Pacific house with the Broadway sewer began operations yesterday. On account of the frozen condition of the street progress will be necessarily slow, but for the sake of the traveling public it should be accomplished as soon as possible.

J. W. Merrill, one of the best known Council Bluffs newspaper men, has severed his connection with the Omaha Herald and allied himself with the forces of the World in this city. 'Jace' will never rust out, and he wears well. He has a large circle of friends and acquaintances and he will gather daily his full share of the mantle.

D. L. Royer has recently purchased three lots on Eleventh street. The location is slightly overlooking the two cities and the adjacent country as well. Upon the west lot he will immediately begin the erection of a beautiful $2,500 cottage. This he will occupy as an as it is completed, which he expects will be in March next. Then he will build residences upon the other lots.

Personal Paragraphs.

A. M. Pool of Silver City, was at the Kiel house yesterday.

A number of "Our Irish Visitors" stopped at the Kiel house.

M. A. Farrell, of Creston, Ia., is spending a few days in the city.

George E. Cole, of Pacific Junction, was in the Bluffs yesterday.

J. J. Bolin, Macedonia's insurance ruler, was in the city yesterday.

J. W. Adams, of Signourney, took in the sight of Council Bluffs yesterday.

John Webster, of Avoca, is here visiting his sister, Mrs. Peter Clavdatcher.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Zerely left yesterday for Washington, D. C., where they will remain several weeks.

Mrs. R. A. Greenfield, of Creston, is visiting her brothers, C. C. and John E. Yancey, at the Bechtel hotel.

The Murray and Murphy company were entertained at the Bechtel house and Biel's hotel. A total of twenty-two people are embraced in the company.

A. A. Richardson, of this city, was seen on Broadway shaking hands with his friend John Evans, who has just returned from a two months' business trip to Rock Springs, W. T.

Judge Carson is remaining at home for a few days, his household having been enlarged by the arrival of a son, who is just now receiving the special attention of the entire family.

At the Creston: J. M. Walker, of Loveland; J. C. Walker, of Newmarket; Iowa; S. T. M. Tall, of Macedonia; W. H. Young, of Macedonia; J. B. Mathews, of Taylor; G. A. Stevens, of Living Springs.

John Martin is still suffering very seriously from intermittent fever. His condition is not deemed critical, however, and there seems every reason for the belief that he will soon be restored to health.

H. E. Barlow, representing the White-water, (Wis.) Wagon company, visited the Bluffs yesterday. The wonders of our beautiful and growing city, were fully described to him by his friend, Captain Mel. Falsett.

The Gymnasium.

The full amount required for the establishment of this needed auxiliary to the work of the Y. M. C. A. has been secured. Two hundred men subscribing $5 each for the gymnasium association. The money has been paid in and the apparatus ordered. It is expected to arrive the latter part of the present week. The orders were placed with Chicago and New York manufacturers, and will include the most modern things in use in the largest and best equipped gymnasiums of the country. The room which has heretofore been used as a lecture room will be devoted exclusively to this apparatus. It is expected that the room will be ready for use by the 12th of December.

A Reckless Drunken Man.

A. J. Klippenger, while in a reckless state of intoxication, last evening, started down Broadway on horseback at a furious gait. Theodore Beckman, a young lad who happened to be crossing the street, was struck by Klippenger's horse and seriously hurt. Klippenger was arrested and taken to the city jail. The full extent of young Beckman's injuries have not been ascertained.

More Dry Injunctions.

Judge Loofbroy yesterday issued permanent injunctions against three Mindenites—Doerscher, Grunau and Jensen—restraining them from selling intoxicating liquors. The cases against those men were among the earliest started and have been hanging in court for nearly two years. It takes time to close the saloons. The mills grind slow, but very fine.

DOINGS IN DISTRICT COURT.

A Mistake in a Telegram Leads to a Suit—Resignation of Secretary Curtis of the Y. M. C. A.

—The City Council.

A Bold Burglary.

Yesterday noon a bold bit of burglary was accomplished at the ticket office of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy, corner of Broadway and Pearl streets. The ticket agent, Captain O. M. Brown, shortly after 12 o'clock left for dinner. General Agent M. M. Marshall was in the office at the time, talking with some gentlemen on business, and Captain Brown set a chair against the side door in such a way as to make it difficult to open without using some force. He handed Mr. Marshall the key to the front door, so that when he got ready to leave he might lock up. About half an hour later Mr. Marshall locked the door and stepped across the street to get shaved at the Pacific house. He left his overcoat in the ticket office. He was not gone more than fifteen minutes. On his return he had discovered that some thief had forced open the side door and taken the overcoat, which was valued at $50. A case containing tickets was overturned and somewhat disarranged. It is not known whether any tickets were taken, and it will be necessary to check all up before this can be ascertained. It is supposed that some thief climbed to see the view of the city, which the door was fastened and concluded to improve the opportunity. Mr. Marshall's brief absence gave little time for extended plundering. It is strange that such a theft could be committed in so prominent a place, and with the interior of the office a full view of many passers-by, but these very peculiarities of the situation would allay suspicion in the minds of most people, even if they saw the man entering or coming out.

A Costly Mistake.

Yesterday Judge Loofbroy listened to arguments in the case of Z. T. Lindsey against the Western Union Telegraph company. The cause of the suit was a mistake made in the transmission of a telegram. Mr. Lindsey was on the road looking after his wholesale customers, and he sent a message to have his trunks of samples sent to Salida, Col. By some mistake of the operator the telegram read, "Salt Lake" instead of "Salida" and the trunks were sent. Mr. Lindsey was greatly puzzled at the non-arrival of his samples, and while waiting for them lost much time at a season when time was especially valuable to him. He was also at considerable expense while hunting up the missing trunks. To cover this he commenced this suit. The telegraph company did not deny the fact, as a defense claimed that the company was not responsible. It fell back upon the printed contract at the head of the blanks on which messages are written, and which binds the sender to bear the responsibility of mistakes. If the sender would hold the company for such mistakes he must have the message repeated back and pay the extra charges. The controversy is, therefore, one of law rather than of facts. Judge Loofbroy has taken the question under consideration.

Don't Freeze Up!

We are bound to close out our large line overcoats. Will make them up at greatly reduced figures.

Resignation of Harry Curtis.

A change is about to take place in the management of the work of the Y. M. C. A. of this city which the readers of the BEE, who have been associated with that organization, will learn with regret. Harry Curtis has tendered his resignation as secretary of the association to take effect on the 12th of December, and it has been accepted. This move has been made, though reluctantly, that Mr. Curtis might accept the post of general secretary of the association at St. Joseph, Mo. Mr. Curtis has been connected with the work in this city nearly four years. During this time the order has grown in numbers from twenty to about three hundred and seventy and in interest from the most indifferent to a body of workers whose efforts for good are known and appreciated at home and abroad. His active work is known to the people of the city and need not be repeated here. Much credit is due Mr. Curtis, for this success is largely the result of his indefatigable work and his ability as an organizer. He will probably be succeeded by Mr. C. W. James, of Grinnell, Ia., a man well qualified by education and experience to fill the position. The field to which Mr. Curtis goes is one of the largest in the United States. It ranks fifth in its membership, buildings and work. The people of the city will unite in the heartiest wishes for the success of Mr. Curtis in his new field of labor, and the same time extend to his successor the same cordial support which has marked their record during the past four years.

Nipped in the Bud.

Again has the proverb, "The course of true love never runs smooth," been proven beyond doubt. Mr. Wesley Sumner and Miss Emma Lee and Mr. J. C. Higging and Miss Etta Malloy, of South Omaha, were the prospective bridegrooms and brides in a matrimonial event which was to have taken place yesterday afternoon. Miss Lee is a little little woman just sweet sixteen, while Miss Malloy is about six months her senior. All the parties have for some time contemplated marriage, but the consent of the respective guardians of the young ladies could not be obtained and an elopement was planned. They left South Omaha about 11 o'clock yesterday and came to this city. Their surprise can be imagined when a policeman arrested them. They were induced to change their minds in an incredibly short space of time and returned home to live in the state of single blessedness for a season.

The Chief's Accident.

Those who saw Chief Mullen, of the police force, tumble down on Broadway might have thought he was drunk, if it was not known that "Jerry" is a teetotaler. The fact is that the chief had so merry a time at the policeman's annual ball, and danced so much, that his numerous glidings across the floor made the soles of his shoes glossy. In passing along Broadway he struck the combination of an icy pavement and an old banana-skin, and when he came down he struck with such force as to leave a record on his cheek bone. He was pretty badly shaken up, but is now able to be on duty again. Such might have been the cause of the reports circulated that the chief was hurt in a wrestle with Johnnie Harleycorn. Mayor Groves says that he has not heard any such reports, and that he does not believe them, for he had seen the chief daily, and was certain Jerry was as temperate as ever.

Gone for the Furniture.

On Sunday evening last Postmaster Bowman and Supervisors Trait and Underwood left for Chicago. The object of their visit is of interest to the readers of the BEE. The new government, or postoffice building and the new court house are rapidly approaching completion. It is safe to say that the middle of March will see them both completed, supplied with the furniture and other accessories and ready for occupancy. Mr. Bowman has gone to select the furniture, etc., for the postoffice and the other gentlemen act as the county's agents in selecting what is required to furnish the court house. Under the instructions given, the furnishings for both buildings will be made to secure the double purpose of stability and elegance. Council Bluffs may well feel proud of these permanent additions to her architecture and beauty.

For bargains in real estate go to Johnston & Van Patten, 33 Main st.

Samples of Art.

Allen & Bell, architects, have on exhibition at their studio water-color drawings of the residences of J. J. Stendman and C. H. Moore, which are to be erected as soon as the weather will permit. Aside from the architectural design of the residences, which is excellent, Mr. Allen has shown that he is an artist of no mean ability, for these pictures are really models of their kind. This firm are turning the more recent developments of photography to good account in their business. By a process which is original with them they get a perfect picture (which they call "blue print") of their plans and designs. These present perfectly all the detail which forms the original. Judging from the work now upon their tables the year of 1888 will be the greatest in the history of Council Bluffs.

Common Council.

Common council met last evening pursuant to adjournment. Present, Mayor Groneweg, Aldermen Lacy, Metcalf, Hammer, Danforth and Keller.

Bonds of H. E. Owens and John C. Lee, each in the sum of $500, were presented and accepted.

Bids were opened and read for grading Seventh street from Tenth avenue to Fifteenth avenue, Tenth from Main to Sixth street, Sixth avenue from Tenth avenue to Chicago street, and Quincy grounds, Seventh avenue from Tenth to Twentieth street, North Seventh street from Washington avenue to Avenue F. A clerical error appeared in the advertisement for bids, and on motion the bids were all rejected and the clerk was instructed to readvertise for bids. Bids are to be opened at noon on Monday, December 5.

On motion the fire committee were instructed to set a price on one fire engine and make sale of same.

Adjourned until Monday evening December 5.

Costly Coal.

James Curry was tried before Justice Biggs yesterday on the charge of petty larceny. It was alleged that on the 17th inst. he took coal from a cart standing on the tracks of the Rock Island and the amount of 200 pounds. He pleaded guilty to the charge and stated that at the time his wife was very ill, and he could not leave the house long enough to go to a coal office. The justice considered this mitigating circumstance and let him off with a small fine ($6.50) and a lecture.

Attention, Company A.

All members of Company A are required to be present at their annual experience, growing through years of critical and practical test, become as rooted and immovable as the rock of Gibraltar in public opinion, and henceforth need no other guarantee as to their genuineness. The indisputable fact that Swift's Specific is the best blood purifier in the world, is one of those memorable things which have been spoken, and every day's experience roots this conviction deeper and deeper in public opinion. Every class of our people in America and in Europe, every trade, calling and profession, including the medical profession, have borne voluntary testimony to the remarkable virtues of S. S. S. and its indubitable efficacy in curing all diseases of the blood. These testimonials are on file by the thousands, and open to the inspection of all. Now come, unswayed, two distinguished members of the most exclusive and aristocratic of the most exclusive circles of the world, who have been admitted to the public without further comment—let them speak for themselves.
