

MR. LAMAR ON LAND GRANTS.

One Feature of the Secretary's Forthcoming Annual Report.

HISTORY OF CORPORATE CRIME.

How the Public Domain was Seized By the Railroad Octopus and Honest Settlers Robbed of Their Rights.

A Dark Record.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—One of the most important features of Secretary Lamar's forthcoming annual report is the part which relates to the adjustment of railroad land grants.

Shortly after my appointment, and as I became somewhat familiar with the public land system, its organization and the workings thereof, I became more and more impressed with the fact that the public domain was being diverted from its legitimate purpose and converted to the inevitable effects of the perversion of the public domain.

DUBLIN UNIONISTS.

A Monster Meeting Addressed by Hartington and Goschen.

DUBLIN, Nov. 29.—The grand meeting for the purpose of addressing which Lord Hartington and Goschen visited this city, was held at Leinster hall this evening.

Riddleberger's Power.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—There are conflicting stories in circulation to-night in regard to the attitude of Senator Riddleberger.

Patents to Westerners.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Patents were today granted Nebraska and Iowa inventors as follows:

What Cannon Means.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—J. G. Cannon, of Illinois, one of the oldest and strongest republican members of the house, does not believe a tariff bill can be passed.

Two More Bankrupts.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—Two handsome entertainments were given this evening in honor of the English and Canadian members of the fisheries commission.

Postal Changes.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The postoffice at Vincent, Furness county, will be discontinued December 15.

Consul to Durango.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—The president today appointed James B. Chess, of Indiana, to be United States consul at Durango, Mexico.

Blaine's Political Plans.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Herald's Washington special says: "Mr. James G. Blaine is expected to reach San Francisco, Cal., on his return to the United States on the 29th of June next.

The Knights of Labor.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The World gives figures this morning showing that the Knights of Labor in New England number only 25,000 against 55,000 in 1886.

Losses on the Lakes.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 29.—A special from Chicago says the tug Cuylog, which was reported lost in the recent gale, arrived in port this morning.

Corea's Independence Recognized.

SHANGHAI, Nov. 29.—The king of Corea will immediately dispatch ministers to England, France, Germany, Russia and America.

Forged Tickets to Unionist Meeting.

DUBLIN, Nov. 29.—Much excitement has been caused by the discovery of forged tickets for the meeting of the board of aldermen of the said city which granted it, or of any member thereof who voted for the same.

Greys Requested Not to Resign.

PARIS, Nov. 29.—A number of members of the chamber of deputies to-day went to Paris. Eliezer asked President Grevy not to resign.

The French Crisis.

PARIS, Nov. 29.—[New York Herald Cable Special to the Bee.]—The radicals are getting in a bad way.

Charged With Assault.

DUBLIN, Nov. 29.—A writ has been sworn out by Mandeville against the governor of Tullamore prison for assault.

Articles Signed For a Fight and First.

LONDON, Nov. 29.—[New York Herald Cable Special to the Bee.]—In a small private house near the houses of parliament to-night your correspondent, John L. Sullivan, his backer, Harry Phillips of Montreal, his manager, Ed Holke, and his secretary, W. Bennett.

Perils of the Ministry.

A Commoner on the Pitfalls Before Salisbury's Government.

The Discontent is Voiced.

Conservatives Publicly Condemn Any Attempt to Frame a Land Purchase Bill—Sullivan and Mitchell Sign Articles.

The English Situation.

[Copyright 1887 by James Gordon Bennett.] LONDON, Nov. 29.—[New York Herald Cable Special to the Bee.]—Conservative discontent is no longer voiceless.

The New Navy.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Contractors for the new ships are still in trouble on account of some of the tests applied under the regulations of the department.

Will Be a Great Struggle.

Cities Working Hard For the Republican Convention.

OMAHA'S CHANCES OF SUCCESS.

It Must Be Proven That She Can Accommodate the Crowd—Confronting Reports About the New Navy—Capital News.

Candidates For the Convention.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Whoever secures the next national convention will not have a walk.

Cleveland and Gray.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Representative Watson, who aspires to succeed Governor Gray, and is just now profuse in complimenting Indiana democrats in various ways.

Nebraska and Iowa Pensions.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Pensions have been issued for Nebraska as follows: Minor of Benjamin Moore, Cook, Mexican war—James S. Blythe, Tecumseh; Joseph C. Walter, Dorsey.

Senator Ingalls' Opinion.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Post reporter has attempted to interview Senator Allison on presidential candidates.

Fight On the Southern Issue.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Senator Blackburn, of Kentucky, said this morning that the south would make a most vigorous effort next summer to have one of its men nominated for second place on the presidential ticket.

Patents to Westerners.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Patents were today granted Nebraska and Iowa inventors as follows:

What Cannon Means.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—J. G. Cannon, of Illinois, one of the oldest and strongest republican members of the house, does not believe a tariff bill can be passed.

Two More Bankrupts.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—Two handsome entertainments were given this evening in honor of the English and Canadian members of the fisheries commission.

Postal Changes.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The postoffice at Vincent, Furness county, will be discontinued December 15.

Consul to Durango.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—The president today appointed James B. Chess, of Indiana, to be United States consul at Durango, Mexico.

Blaine's Political Plans.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Herald's Washington special says: "Mr. James G. Blaine is expected to reach San Francisco, Cal., on his return to the United States on the 29th of June next.

The Knights of Labor.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The World gives figures this morning showing that the Knights of Labor in New England number only 25,000 against 55,000 in 1886.

Losses on the Lakes.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 29.—A special from Chicago says the tug Cuylog, which was reported lost in the recent gale, arrived in port this morning.

Corea's Independence Recognized.

SHANGHAI, Nov. 29.—The king of Corea will immediately dispatch ministers to England, France, Germany, Russia and America.

Forged Tickets to Unionist Meeting.

DUBLIN, Nov. 29.—Much excitement has been caused by the discovery of forged tickets for the meeting of the board of aldermen of the said city which granted it, or of any member thereof who voted for the same.

Greys Requested Not to Resign.

PARIS, Nov. 29.—A number of members of the chamber of deputies to-day went to Paris. Eliezer asked President Grevy not to resign.

The French Crisis.

PARIS, Nov. 29.—[New York Herald Cable Special to the Bee.]—The radicals are getting in a bad way.

Charged With Assault.

DUBLIN, Nov. 29.—A writ has been sworn out by Mandeville against the governor of Tullamore prison for assault.

Articles Signed For a Fight and First.

LONDON, Nov. 29.—[New York Herald Cable Special to the Bee.]—In a small private house near the houses of parliament to-night your correspondent, John L. Sullivan, his backer, Harry Phillips of Montreal, his manager, Ed Holke, and his secretary, W. Bennett.

Perils of the Ministry.

A Commoner on the Pitfalls Before Salisbury's Government.

The Discontent is Voiced.

Conservatives Publicly Condemn Any Attempt to Frame a Land Purchase Bill—Sullivan and Mitchell Sign Articles.

The English Situation. [Copyright 1887 by James Gordon Bennett.] LONDON, Nov. 29.—[New York Herald Cable Special to the Bee.]—Conservative discontent is no longer voiceless.

MR. LAMAR ON LAND GRANTS.

One Feature of the Secretary's Forthcoming Annual Report.

HISTORY OF CORPORATE CRIME.

How the Public Domain was Seized By the Railroad Octopus and Honest Settlers Robbed of Their Rights.

A Dark Record.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—One of the most important features of Secretary Lamar's forthcoming annual report is the part which relates to the adjustment of railroad land grants.

Shortly after my appointment, and as I became somewhat familiar with the public land system, its organization and the workings thereof, I became more and more impressed with the fact that the public domain was being diverted from its legitimate purpose and converted to the inevitable effects of the perversion of the public domain.

DUBLIN UNIONISTS.

A Monster Meeting Addressed by Hartington and Goschen.

DUBLIN, Nov. 29.—The grand meeting for the purpose of addressing which Lord Hartington and Goschen visited this city, was held at Leinster hall this evening.

Riddleberger's Power.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—There are conflicting stories in circulation to-night in regard to the attitude of Senator Riddleberger.

Patents to Westerners.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Patents were today granted Nebraska and Iowa inventors as follows:

What Cannon Means.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—J. G. Cannon, of Illinois, one of the oldest and strongest republican members of the house, does not believe a tariff bill can be passed.

Two More Bankrupts.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—Two handsome entertainments were given this evening in honor of the English and Canadian members of the fisheries commission.

Postal Changes.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The postoffice at Vincent, Furness county, will be discontinued December 15.

Consul to Durango.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—The president today appointed James B. Chess, of Indiana, to be United States consul at Durango, Mexico.

Blaine's Political Plans.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Herald's Washington special says: "Mr. James G. Blaine is expected to reach San Francisco, Cal., on his return to the United States on the 29th of June next.

The Knights of Labor.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The World gives figures this morning showing that the Knights of Labor in New England number only 25,000 against 55,000 in 1886.

Losses on the Lakes.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 29.—A special from Chicago says the tug Cuylog, which was reported lost in the recent gale, arrived in port this morning.

Corea's Independence Recognized.

SHANGHAI, Nov. 29.—The king of Corea will immediately dispatch ministers to England, France, Germany, Russia and America.

Forged Tickets to Unionist Meeting.

DUBLIN, Nov. 29.—Much excitement has been caused by the discovery of forged tickets for the meeting of the board of aldermen of the said city which granted it, or of any member thereof who voted for the same.

Greys Requested Not to Resign.

PARIS, Nov. 29.—A number of members of the chamber of deputies to-day went to Paris. Eliezer asked President Grevy not to resign.

The French Crisis.

PARIS, Nov. 29.—[New York Herald Cable Special to the Bee.]—The radicals are getting in a bad way.

Charged With Assault.

DUBLIN, Nov. 29.—A writ has been sworn out by Mandeville against the governor of Tullamore prison for assault.

Articles Signed For a Fight and First.

LONDON, Nov. 29.—[New York Herald Cable Special to the Bee.]—In a small private house near the houses of parliament to-night your correspondent, John L. Sullivan, his backer, Harry Phillips of Montreal, his manager, Ed Holke, and his secretary, W. Bennett.

Perils of the Ministry.

A Commoner on the Pitfalls Before Salisbury's Government.

The Discontent is Voiced.

Conservatives Publicly Condemn Any Attempt to Frame a Land Purchase Bill—Sullivan and Mitchell Sign Articles.

The English Situation.

[Copyright 1887 by James Gordon Bennett.] LONDON, Nov. 29.—[New York Herald Cable Special to the Bee.]—Conservative discontent is no longer voiceless.

MR. LAMAR ON LAND GRANTS.

One Feature of the Secretary's Forthcoming Annual Report.

HISTORY OF CORPORATE CRIME.

How the Public Domain was Seized By the Railroad Octopus and Honest Settlers Robbed of Their Rights.

A Dark Record.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—One of the most important features of Secretary Lamar's forthcoming annual report is the part which relates to the adjustment of railroad land grants.

Shortly after my appointment, and as I became somewhat familiar with the public land system, its organization and the workings thereof, I became more and more impressed with the fact that the public domain was being diverted from its legitimate purpose and converted to the inevitable effects of the perversion of the public domain.

DUBLIN UNIONISTS.

A Monster Meeting Addressed by Hartington and Goschen.

DUBLIN, Nov. 29.—The grand meeting for the purpose of addressing which Lord Hartington and Goschen visited this city, was held at Leinster hall this evening.

Riddleberger's Power.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—There are conflicting stories in circulation to-night in regard to the attitude of Senator Riddleberger.

Patents to Westerners.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Patents were today granted Nebraska and Iowa inventors as follows:

What Cannon Means.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—J. G. Cannon, of Illinois, one of the oldest and strongest republican members of the house, does not believe a tariff bill can be passed.

Two More Bankrupts.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—Two handsome entertainments were given this evening in honor of the English and Canadian members of the fisheries commission.

Postal Changes.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The postoffice at Vincent, Furness county, will be discontinued December 15.

Consul to Durango.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—The president today appointed James B. Chess, of Indiana, to be United States consul at Durango, Mexico.

Blaine's Political Plans.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Herald's Washington special says: "Mr. James G. Blaine is expected to reach San Francisco, Cal., on his return to the United States on the 29th of June next.

The Knights of Labor.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The World gives figures this morning showing that the Knights of Labor in New England number only 25,000 against 55,000 in 1886.

Losses on the Lakes.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 29.—A special from Chicago says the tug Cuylog, which was reported lost in the recent gale, arrived in port this morning.

Corea's Independence Recognized.

SHANGHAI, Nov. 29.—The king of Corea will immediately dispatch ministers to England, France, Germany, Russia and America.

Forged Tickets to Unionist Meeting.

DUBLIN, Nov. 29.—Much excitement has been caused by the discovery of forged tickets for the meeting of the board of aldermen of the said city which granted it, or of any member thereof who voted for the same.

Greys Requested Not to Resign.

PARIS, Nov. 29.—A number of members of the chamber of deputies to-day went to Paris. Eliezer asked President Grevy not to resign.

The French Crisis.

PARIS, Nov. 29.—[New York Herald Cable Special to the Bee.]—The radicals are getting in a bad way.

Charged With Assault.

DUBLIN, Nov. 29.—A writ has been sworn out by Mandeville against the governor of Tullamore prison for assault.

Articles Signed For a Fight and First.

LONDON, Nov. 29.—[New York Herald Cable Special to the Bee.]—In a small private house near the houses of parliament to-night your correspondent, John L. Sullivan, his backer, Harry Phillips of Montreal, his manager, Ed Holke, and his secretary, W. Bennett.

Perils of the Ministry.

A Commoner on the Pitfalls Before Salisbury's Government.

The Discontent is Voiced.

Conservatives Publicly Condemn Any Attempt to Frame a Land Purchase Bill—Sullivan and Mitchell Sign Articles.

The English Situation.

[Copyright 1887 by James Gordon Bennett.] LONDON, Nov. 29.—[New York Herald Cable Special to the Bee.]—Conservative discontent is no longer voiceless.

MR. LAMAR ON LAND GRANTS.

One Feature of the Secretary's Forthcoming Annual Report.

HISTORY OF CORPORATE CRIME.

How the Public Domain was Seized By the Railroad Octopus and Honest Settlers Robbed of Their Rights.

A Dark Record.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—One of the most important features of Secretary Lamar's forthcoming annual report is the part which relates to the adjustment of railroad land grants.

Shortly after my appointment, and as I became somewhat familiar with the public land system, its organization and the workings thereof, I became more and more impressed with the fact that the public domain was being diverted from its legitimate purpose and converted to the inevitable effects of the perversion of the public domain.

DUBLIN UNIONISTS.

A Monster Meeting Addressed by Hartington and Goschen.

DUBLIN, Nov. 29.—The grand meeting for the purpose of addressing which Lord Hartington and Goschen visited this city, was held at Leinster hall this evening.

Riddleberger's Power.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—There are conflicting stories in circulation to-night in regard to the attitude of Senator Riddleberger.

Patents to Westerners.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Patents were today granted Nebraska and Iowa inventors as follows:

What Cannon Means.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—J. G. Cannon, of Illinois, one of the oldest and strongest republican members of the house, does not believe a tariff bill can be passed.

Two More Bankrupts.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—Two handsome entertainments were given this evening in honor of the English and Canadian members of the fisheries commission.

Postal Changes.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The postoffice at Vincent, Furness county, will be discontinued December 15.

Consul to Durango.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—The president today appointed James B. Chess, of Indiana, to be United States consul at Durango, Mexico.

Blaine's Political Plans.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Herald's Washington special says: "Mr. James G. Blaine is expected to reach San Francisco, Cal., on his return to the United States on the 29th of June next.

The Knights of Labor.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The World gives figures this morning showing that the Knights of Labor in New England number only 25,000 against 55,000 in 1886.

Losses on the Lakes.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 29.—A special from Chicago says the tug Cuylog, which was reported lost in the recent gale, arrived in port this morning.

Corea's Independence Recognized.

SHANGHAI, Nov. 29.—The king of Corea will immediately dispatch ministers to England, France, Germany, Russia and America.

Forged Tickets to Unionist Meeting.

DUBLIN, Nov. 29.—Much excitement has been caused by the discovery of forged tickets for the meeting of the board of aldermen of the said city which granted it, or of any member thereof who voted for the same.

Greys Requested Not to Resign.

PARIS, Nov. 29.—A number of members of the chamber of deputies to-day went to Paris. Eliezer asked President Grevy not to resign.

The French Crisis.

PARIS, Nov. 29.—[New York Herald Cable Special to the Bee.]—The radicals are getting in a bad way.

Charged With Assault.

DUBLIN, Nov. 29.—A writ has been sworn out by Mandeville against the governor