THIRTY_THOUSAND STRONG.

Judge Maxwell's Plurality the Largest in Nebraska's History.

RESULT OF THE OFFICIAL VOTE.

Small Comfort For the Prohibitionists -Winter Meeting of the State Agricultural Society-Items From the Capital.

TEROM THE BEE'S LINCOLN BUREAU. The official vote of the state at the recent election discloses the fact that Judge Samuel Maxwell, republican, has carried the state over O'Day, democrat, by 30,177 votes, the greatest plurality ever given a republican candidate in the state. For the past two days the state board of canvassers have been compiling the returns and the vote for supreme judge is as follows:

Samuel Maxwell, republican 86,725
Thomas O'Day, democrat 56,548
James F. Abbott, prohibition 7,359
For comparison's sake, the following vote for governor one year ago is of interest: John M. Thayer, republican 75,956 James E. North, democrat 52,656 H. W. Hardy, prohibitionist 8,175

It will be observed that while this was considered an off-year in politics and that but one state officer of any prominence was to be elected, the vote of the state has increased nearly 14,000, and that 10,000 of these votes are a gain for the republican party, the percent of gain being much greater for the republicans than the democrats. But to the political prohibitionists, the political wreckers of the state there is neither charm nor satisfaction in the returns. Their loss in the state, despite the fact that the total vote increased 14,000 is nearly 1,000 votes in comparison with the vote for Hardy for governor, and over 1,000 compared with their vote for their remaining state officers a year ago. It is a significant showing that illustrates the decadence of that party that has never reached proportions to entitle it to a position among the political parties of the state. There is a significance of value in the vote of Nebraska, when the coming presidential contest is taken into consideration, and the fact that the recent state convention took hold of vital issues in the state undoubtedly had its effect one state officer of any prominence was to be issues in the state undoubtedly had its effect on the size of the republican vote. The vote for regents of the state university shows but a slight falling off from the head of the ticket, Maxwell running about 1,000 votes ahead of his ticket. The vote for regents is Roberts, republican...... 85,456 Slicker, democrat...... 57,024

THE WINTER MEETING
Of the state agricultural society will be held at the state university in this city on the 17th of January. For the past two days Secre-tary Furnas has been in Lincoln looking after business matters relative to the meeting and securing the programmes for distribution over the state. One of the features of the winter meeting will be the corn exhibit, the first yet made at a winter meeting of the first yet made at a winter meeting of the board, and as the premiums are liberal a fine exhibition of Nebraska's favorite cereal is expected. The usual programme will be followed at the winter meeting and, in addition, Prof. C. E. Beasy will read a paper in the form of a report on the grasses and forage plants of the state. Prof. Hicks, of the state university, professor of geology, who has given much thought and attention and investigation to the problem of immigration with reference to the western part of the state, will read a paper on that subject. The usual reduced railroad rates will be accorded for the winter meeting, and at the meeting

The governor has requested the live stock sanitary commission of Nebraska and State Veterinarian Dr. Gerth to attend a meeting to be held at Springfield, Ill., December 13, at which the live stock commissioners of the northern and western states will be represented. The object of the meeting is to consider the subject of Texas fever and the best way to prevent its introduction into the way to prevent its introduction into the northern states and to conduct the traffic in souther cattle with safety to the stock interests of the northwest. Among the Omaha atterneys in Lincoln yesterday were A. J. Poppleton, George S. Smith, E. M. Bartlett and George M. O'Bricu, jr. Thomas L. Kimball, assistant to the vice president of the Union Pacific, was also in the city yesterday.

MORTUARY MATTERS.

RUTHERPORD. Dr. Rutherford died yesterday morning at 3:10 o'clock, from the effects of the overdose of morphine, under the effects of which he was found Monday afternoon, as recorded in the BEE. After he had been treated for some time by the physicians, it was supposed that he had recovered from the effect of the drug, yet it was decided that he should be watched during the night. Ac-cordingly several friends, Messys, H. Strick-ler, G. O. Calder and Mr. Krause, together with Drs. Rebert and Brown, attended him, ler, G. O. Calder and Mr. Krause, together with Drs. Rebert and Brown, attended him, taking turns in watching his condition. Late in the evening it became apparent that the effects of the morphine were too great and that it would not be possible to relieve the prostrate physician, and accordingly at the hour mentioned above, the victim died. The remains were yesterday removed to Drexel & Maui's, where at 10 o'clock an inquest was held which resulted in a verdict that death had resulted from an overdose of morphine, taken with what intent could not be ascertained. A telegram was received yesterday by Mr. Calder, mentioned above from Frank Rutherford, brother of the deceased, residing at Utica, New York, and supposed to an attache of the Herald of that place. It requested that the remains be forwarded to him and he would come out here later and pay all the costs. The doctor left a number of books and other small property, in the pocket of one of his coats there being found between $0 and $40. It is claimed that some of the surviving members of his family own a considerable number of lots in this city. The remains were embalmed and were forwarded to their destination last evening. and were forward nation last evening.

DYesterday Vincent Burkhard, aged five years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Burkhard, and grand son of Vincent Burkley, died at the residence of of his parents, 1213 North Eighteenth street. The little boy had been ill but a few days, having been severely attacked with pneumonia.

SOUTH OMAHA NEWS.

Miss Austa Clark, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Weil, left yesterday for Tarkio, Mo. On their return these two ladies will engage in the millinery business. The building is now being erected on a lot recently purchased by Miss Clark.

Ground was broken yesterday for the foundation of a handsome business block east of the postoffice. The property is owned by J. Abrains. An itinerant phrenologist who claimed to be a lineal descendent of Suworrow, the cele-brated Polish general, was in the city yes-terday feeling the bumps of the younger members of the population.

A heifer which had three cars, the third being quite small and situated just alongside the right auricular, was one of the curiosities at the stock yards yesterday.

The grading of N street has again been resumed and every effort will be made to complete it before the ground freezes. James Brittain, a prominent stockman of Wood River, Neb., is in the city.

The eastern extension of the stock yards will be ready for use on Monday. Work will then begin on the northern annex. Henry Morgan, a butcher at the Fowler packing house had a finger cut off while trimming horns yesterday. Dr. Kirkpatrick dressed the wound.

George Selden of Aurora, is in the city. Considerable complaint is heard on the part of stock shippers concerning the action of the B. & M. management relating to the shipping of cattle and hogs to this market. It is claimed that stock is sidetracked at Lincoln and other points for three or four hours when it should be forwarded as rapidly as possible. A petition asking that this action be cor-rected is being prepared and will be for-warded at an early date. Should the result be not satisfactory other measures will be resorted to.

G. F. Swift, the Chlcago packer, was again on the market yesterday, and is giving his personal attention to building a cattle market. There is not much doing in this line, and as the Swift house can handle from eight hundred to one thousand per diem, it is to their interest to induce shippers to send their cattle to this market.

AMUSEMENTS.

The second performance of a "Great Wrong" took place last evening at the Grand Opera house before a large and enthusiastic audince. All the parts seemed even more harmoniously balanced than they did on the preceding night. Mr. Studley made a commendable effort to correct the faults noticed with the result that his reading was rendered much more satisfactory to the audience. The other actors sustained the estimate rendered of them in yesterday's paper.

THE PEOPLE'S.
Katie Pearson's company appeared last night at this theater in Laura Dainty's favorite, "Mountain Pink." The company and star appeared to decided advantage, giving a very satisfactory entertainment.

A Chronic Tendency Overcome. Many persons are troubled with a chronic tendency to constipation. They are of billious temperament. The com-plaint to which they are subject, though easily remediable by judicious treatment, is in many cases aggravated by a resort to drastic purgatives and chola-gogues. As the human stomach and bowels are lined with a delicate membrane, and not with vulcanite, they cannot stand prolonged drenching with such medicines without serious injury. Nothing restores and counteracts an habitual tendency to constipation so efcetually as Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Its laxative effect is gentle and progressive. It neither convulses nor weakens the intestines, and its effects are unaccompanied by griping pains. It arouses the liver when the organ is sluggish, promotes digestion and encourages appetite and sleep. For fever and ague, kidney troubles, nervous complaints, and incipient rheumatism it is incomarable. Take a wineglass before meals and see how soon you will relish them.

In Defense of Her Son.

Mrs. Mary O'Garmon, mother of Thomas Carroll, who was referred to in yesterday's BEE, called at the BEE office in the morning. Mrs. O'Garmon says it is absolutely false that Carroll was guilty of highway robbery, nor was he even charged with that crime Upon the night of the alleged robbery of Mr. Frank Gibson, Mrs. O'Garmon says there is ample evidence to prove her son was not out of her house. The mother says that while her of her house. The mother says that while her son has faults as other men, he is not the man to be guilty of dishonesty. His besetting sin is his love for liquor, and while in his cups he has had many little difficulties, none of them have verged upon dishonesty. Mrs. O'Garmon regrets with all her mother's heart the faults her son really possesses, but will not stand idly by and hear him accused of a wrong of which she and many reputable citizens know him to be innocent.

Food makes Blood and Blood makes Beauty. Improper digestion of food necessarily produces bad blood, resulting in a feeling of duliness in the stomach, acidity, heartburn, sick headache, and other dyspeptic symptoms. A closely confined life causes indigestion, constipation, biliousness and loss of appetite. To remove these troubles there no remedy equal to Prickly Ash Bitters. It has been tried and proven to be a

Held For Robbery. On last Thursday night a crook and confidence man styling himself Charles White took a young fellow named A. J. Shinke the rounds of the saloons, and after he thought rounds of the saloons, and after he thought he had him sufficiently drunk to be unable to help himself, led him back of the Millard hotel, where he robbed him of a valuable gold watch. Yesterday White fell into the hands of Officer Mayhood, and was taken to the central station. A few minutes later he was summoned before Judge Berka, who, after hearing the case, put the thief under $1,000 to appear before the district court.

We expect to finish the building in August, though we have until fall for that purpose if anything unusual should occur or we should desire to avail ourselves of the time specified."
