MINOR MENTION.

N. Y. Plumbing Co. Reiter, tailor, Fall goods cheap. See Chapman's pictures for Christmas. The P. E. O. society will meet at Mrs. Elwell's at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

A marriage license was issued yesterday to George A. Maxwell and Ettie E. Hurd.

District court was destitute of business yesterday, no cases being ready for trial.

Beginning with the first of next week the Union Pacific sleeping cars will run through to the coast without change.

The soft weather of the past few days has shown what a lamentable condition the principal streets of the city are in.

As a gift of friendship from Rudie, Yennarine wears a new silk tie. Business must be good, new houses and new hats the same year.

Joseph S. Ellison, of Linn county, Iowa, and Lucy B. Helty, of Buffalo county, Nebraska, were married yesterday by Justice Schurz.

Delegations of Odd Fellows from DeWitt, Avoca, Logan and Glenwood will assist Council Bluffs lodge, No. 49, in degree work this evening.

The management of the Council Bluffs department of the Omaha Republican has been resigned by A. B. Howe, and is succeeded by Mr. Poland, who has been connected with the paper since its introduction into this city.

The farm house of John Bennings, near Minnola, Ia., burned Tuesday night. The furniture and contents of the house were saved. There was partial insurance, and the actual loss will amount to about $1,500. A defective flue was the cause of the conflagration.

The Council Bluffs club has consummated the purchase of a very fine Hardman Grand piano for use at their rooms. It was purchased from the Mueller Music company. It is a beautiful instrument, both in tone and finish, and the club may well congratulate itself upon its possession.

Miss Ethel Lundgren, seventeen years of age, died Tuesday night at the dead end of the street, at which she was a student. Her home was at Sandon, Ia. Mr. Lundgren, father of the deceased, was present at the funeral, which took place yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The remains were buried here.

The Bluff City Typographical union, No. 281, will give their sixth annual masquerade ball December 21st. Some very unique and expensive costumes are being made for the occasion, and the present outlook is that it will eclipse all its predecessors. The balls given by this society have obtained a widespread reputation for their enjoyable features, and it will not be diminished on Christmas.

Yesterday morning the delivery team of the Boston Tea company took a terrific run down Scott street. Arriving at Broadway they dashed across the street, striking the sidewalk, which they turned up Broadway. They were brought to a standstill by colliding with a hack belonging to William Lewis, which was standing in front of his office. The hack was badly damaged, but the team escaped without injury. This is their third run lately, and they are getting it down to a science.

The funeral of Mrs. M. C. Christensen was held at 2 o'clock p. m. on Tuesday at the family residence on upper Broadway, Rev. J. Fisk officiating. The services were very affecting and were listened to by a large number of friends of the deceased. A kind husband and five children are left to mourn their irreparable loss. The youngest child is only a few hours old and is being cared for by a sister of the deceased. Mrs. Christensen was a member of the Seventh Day Adventist church, and left the testimony of a pure Christian life.

Mr. Vivian, of Jonesville, Wis., was in the city yesterday looking for a favorable location for the establishment of a large bakery, wholesale and retail. He became thoroughly convinced that Council Bluffs was a good point for such a business, and if he can secure just the right sort of a building, he will doubtless open business here speedily. He has gone further west and will decide within a few days concerning the matter. He was surprised at the few store buildings for rent here, in comparison with other cities, and this was one of the strongest recommendations which the city presented. It is a solid assurance of the prosperity of this city that there are no vacant houses and no vacant blocks, and a constant demand for more.

Notice. Taken up an estray mare; bay, with white hind feet, scar on forehead, long mane and tail, his saddle marks. Animal in good order. Owner must prove property and pay charges of keeping and notice. S. STITT, 9th avenue, Burns' addition.

Personal Paragraphs. Hon. W. M. Hill and wife, of Hebron, Neb., were in the city yesterday, en route to Chicago.

Fred Rettig and wife left last evening for a few weeks visit with friends and relatives at Horton, Kan.

J. B. Christian, a prominent grain buyer on the road, has located in this city, with office at 520 Broadway.

Mr. Otis, of the firm of Otis & Otis, of Tabor, Ia., purchased his holiday stock of Council Bluffs merchants yesterday.

P. H. Woods, of Sioux City, who is extensively engaged in the grain business, was registered at the Bechtel yesterday.

W. T. Wright, of Oskaloosa, state master workman of the Knights of Labor will be in the city next Wednesday and Thursday.

The following railroad surveyors from Red Oak registered at the Bechtel yesterday: F. P. Wilson, T. W. Hewitt, George H. Brenner and B. F. Salisbury.

B. Newburger, of St. Joseph, Mo., was in the city yesterday on business connected with the Well failure. He returned last evening. He was accompanied by L. R. Lancaster, of the same city.

The following Iowans were in the city yesterday: C. G. Ferguson, Preston, T. J. Davenport, Clinton, D. E. Osborn, Orange City; John Danforth, of Logan, and Joe Samuels, of Riverton, both looking for real estate.

If you wish to buy a lot cheap go to Jobstson & Van Potter, 33 Main st.

The Switchmen's Association. A special meeting of the S. M. A. A. will be held this evening at 7:30 o'clock to arrange for the funeral of their brother, S. A. Anderson, which is to take place Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Members of Lodge No. 11, Omaha, are invited to participate.

By order of JOHN T. HURLEY, Master.

his acquaintance. The happy couple will proceed immediately to Omaha where the groom has a home recently finished for his own occupation.

FOLEY-BURGESS. Yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, Mr. Fred Foley and Miss Carrie Burgess were united in wedlock. The ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Burgess, No. 329 Logan street. The ceremony was strictly private, only the immediate relatives and a few intimate friends being present. The young couple are well known in the city and from all they will receive a hearty God speed in the journey they have just begun.

BARRETT-ABBOTT. Last evening at the residence of E. J. Abbott, 506 Damon street, occurred the marriage of Miss Nellie E. Abbott to Mr. James R. Barrett. At 8:30 o'clock the young couple took their places before the Rev. T. J. Mackey, who joined their hands and lives in the beautiful and impressive service of the Episcopal church. No guests were invited, the wedding presents were received, among which were an elegant upholstered arm chair from Abe Lincoln Grand Army post No. 29 to the bride, who is, or was, the daughter of the post, and a French time piece of exquisite workmanship, the gift of thirty-six associates of the groom in his railroad work. There were many others, but space forbids particular mention.

Both bride and groom are well known to the readers of the Bee, having resided here during the most of their lives. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Abbott, and the groom is the son of Mrs. Susan Barrett. He has been for six years past engaged as bill clerk at the Northwestern freight depot.

No couple ever beyond married life with brighter prospects than they, and it is the hope of all that the hopes which crown this hour may be realized in their fullest measure.

Tokens of Appreciation. We have 10,000 customers in Council Bluffs, Omaha and vicinity. As a token of appreciation for past patronage we will present them on January 1, 1888, with a beautiful organ, containing two and three-fifth sets of reeds and an elegantly finished case and nineteen other beautiful gifts. Every customer receives a ticket.

All holiday goods closed out regardless of cost. Prices on all goods reduced until January 1. Mail orders promptly filled and tickets accompany goods.

METLER MUSIC CO. For Sale Cheap—Lots near the bridge to parties who will build at once. Address or call on J. R. Rice, No. 110 Main street, Council Bluffs.

Stealing Sand. It is currently reported that certain teamsters at work on lower Broadway are taking sand from the levee, and either selling or using it themselves. It is to be presumed that those who have bought sand from these men were not aware that they were laying themselves liable to prosecution by so doing, but such is the fact. It is hardly possible that the men who are drawing it away do not know that they are committing theft and are as liable to legal prosecution on such a charge as though they took another thing that was not as public as this, but it is so. The city authorities should take such action as will secure them against this sort of petty thievery. In this appropriation of sand a double wrong is done, as the levee is liable to be weakened. The levee is an important protection to a large portion of the city.

J. W. and E. L. Squire lend money.

For an elegant birthday gift for Christmas present, a Domestic sewing machine leads them all.

A Short Stop Train. Parties wishing to come from Omaha to the Bluffs on the 6:10 dummy are very liable to make an annoying mistake. The regular Union Pacific train pulls into the depot just before the dummy train from South Omaha arrives, and many passengers for Council Bluffs scramble aboard. They are in a happy frame of mind until they arrive at the transfer, where the train stops, and those who wish to come to the Broadway depot have to wait for the dummy train, and then pay an additional 10 cents. Several Bluffites have been caught in this way, and their feelings were considerably hurt at being compelled to pay the extra amount. They indulge in a vigorous "kick" and then enlarge on the great benefits that will accrue to this city from the new bridge now in course of construction.

You Want Them. Domestic patterns and patterns for stamping and embroidery. Latest styles and finest designs. "Domestic" office, 105 Main street.

Money to loan. Cooper & Judson.

Stories of the Stars. Judge Aylesworth had a fair-sized grist at the police court yesterday morning. The majority of the victims had been disturbing the peace. F. H. Clark, a telegraph operator from Weston, was fined $9.00. Bill Christ, colored, for war-like demonstrations, was ordered to appear this morning. Jeff Green, another lanky-haired gentleman, and George Peyton, a barber, told nondescript stories concerning a little "scrap" on Broadway, and their cases were continued until afternoon.

The cases of A. J. Crittenden for fast riding, and Henry Kimball for assault and battery were continued until this morning.

E. H. Sheafe loans money on chattel security of every description. Private consulting rooms. All business strictly confidential. Office, 50 Broadway, corner Main street, up-stairs.

Insure with Wadsworth, Etnyre & Co.

A Fireman's Badge. Charles Nicholson moved into his new quarters in the patrol house yesterday afternoon. After the change was made City Marshal Guanelta took the floor and in behalf of the old volunteer fire boys presented him with a handsome gold badge. "Nick" blushed like a school girl, but took his medicine bravely and expressed his heartfelt thanks for the token. The badge was pinned upon his manly bosom, and now "he who runs may read." "C. Nicholson, driver patrol, Council Bluffs police department."

Don't Freeze Up! We are bound to close out our large line overcoats. Will make them up at greatly reduced figures.

This is the opportunity of a lifetime. A. REITER, 310 Broadway.

Are to Make Ready. The new engine has arrived at the electric light station and has been placed upon its bed. The armature ordered to take the place of the one recently burned has also arrived and is nearly ready for work. All the machinery is now here and the tower lights will be running in about a week. One of the lights on the tower at the corner of Little Frank and Pierce streets was tested Tuesday night and worked admirably. Three of the towers have been supplied with lights and the others will be to-morrow.
