minims of course must be paid upon such purchase, that there may be a large part of these held as investments which cannot be purchased at any price and that combination of holders will be able to sell them at an unreasonably enhanced cost of such bonds to the government.

It is a very simple proposition to refund at a less rate of interest, and the difference between the old and new securities paid in the refunding use for the sinking fund. It is apparent, must be founded upon the volition of the holders of the bonds; and it is entirely certain that the refunding which must be offered to the government than the purchase of bonds, and that the refunding would reduce the principal of the debt by actual payment, instead of extending it.
