

OMAHA COMES IN SECOND.

Defeated After a Gallant Fight For the Convention.

CHICAGO CAPTURES THE PLUM.

The Gathering Will Be Held the Nineteenth of June—Three Ballots Necessary For Choice of Location.

Omaha Did Nobly.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Chicago is to be the place and Tuesday, June 19, the date for holding the national republican nominating convention.

This conclusion was reached by the national republican committee late this afternoon after two hours of speeches by representatives of the various cities competing for the convention and three ballots by the committee.

Omaha came to the front in better form than was anticipated. On the first ballot she was second choice, Chicago leading with eleven votes and Omaha receiving ten.

The Proceedings in Detail.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—The republican national committee was called to order at 11 o'clock this morning in the Arlington hotel by E. F. Jones, of Pennsylvania, its chairman.

The Republican League's Reception.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—One of the most notable social gatherings of republican leaders ever held in this city assembled at the clubhouse of the republican national league this evening on the occasion of the reception tendered by the league to the national republican committee.

Most's Punishment.

He is Sentenced to the Penitentiary for One Year.—New York, Dec. 8.—Horr Most, the anarchist, who was convicted of a misdemeanor, was arraigned in the general sessions court today.

Troops to Prevent Rioting.

CLEVELAND, O., Dec. 8.—Two hundred members of the Fifth regiment, Ohio national guards, have been sent to Fairport, Gen. Henderson, of Missouri, acted as spokesman for a large delegation of gentlemen who commended to the advantages of St. Louis as a convention city.

LAYING FOR THE REDS.

Chicago Police Collecting Evidence to Rid the City of Them.

CHICAGO, Dec. 8.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Few people, besides Chief of Police Ebersole and Captain Lyman Lewis, are acquainted with the fact that in the upper right hand drawer of the captain's desk in the Desplaines street station there is a bunch of papers containing information about the hotbed of anarchists on the West Side that would cause some of the reds to shake in their boots if they only knew the substance of it.

John Bull's Queer Ideas.

[Copyright 1887 by James Gordon Bennett.] LONDON, Dec. 8.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to the Bee.]—Cleveland's Christmas conundrum is being gussed all round, but nobody seems to know the answer.

Englismen to Erect a Statue to the President.

THE MESSAGE FOR FREE TRADE.

That is the Eronous Interpretation Placed on the Document By John Bull—A Blow to Fair Trade.

John Bull's Queer Ideas.

[Copyright 1887 by James Gordon Bennett.] LONDON, Dec. 8.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to the Bee.]—Cleveland's Christmas conundrum is being gussed all round, but nobody seems to know the answer.

FIVE FESTIVALS.

To Be Held in Chicago For Dead Anarchists' Relatives.

CHICAGO, Dec. 8.—Instead of one entertainment, President Cleveland has yet some distance to travel before he can get to the heart of the hostility of Mayor Roche, or three that were talked of yesterday, the anarchists have decided to have no less than five different festivals at five different halls in various portions of the city for the benefit of the families of the dead and imprisoned anarchists.

TARIFF REFORMERS.

Congressmen of Both Parties Polled on the Subject.

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The result of the World's expedition to Washington to get the views of congressmen and senators regarding President Cleveland's message is as follows:

The Outlook in France.

PARIS, Dec. 8.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—M. Lejeune, of Paris, member of the French parliament, Count Legrand and Gustave Moreau, the latter a distinguished mining engineer, are in the city.

Leading Statesmen Talk on the President's Message.

[Copyright 1887 by James Gordon Bennett.] LONDON, Dec. 8.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to the Bee.]—President Cleveland's message obtained entrance into the London press by a ranging convention held at the national association for the preservation of agriculture and other industries.

Prohibition Platform.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Dec. 8.—In the prohibition convention to-day a platform was read and adopted. It declares the liquor question the most important political issue of the day, and asserts the necessity of a third national party, declares that slavery prohibition can only be maintained by national prohibition; specially declares against any compromise of prohibition; and recommends the organization of local prohibition clubs in every town, and commands every citizen to join the Women's Christian Temperance Union.

Fatal Wreck on the Northern Pacific.

GRAND RAPIDS, Minn., Dec. 8.—A freight train on the Northern Pacific road was wrecked near Kimberly this morning, and two brakemen named Kline and Holmes were killed. Engineer Travis was badly injured.

Maine's Governor Seriously Ill.

AUGUSTA, Me., Dec. 8.—Governor Bodewell, who has been suffering for several days with an attack of pneumonia, is in a serious condition.

Rains in Texas.

GALVESTON, TEX., Dec. 8.—Heavy rains are reported throughout southern Texas during the past forty-eight hours, breaking the drought and saving the wheat crops for a

CLEVELAND BESIDE COBDEN.

Englismen to Erect a Statue to the President.

THE MESSAGE FOR FREE TRADE.

That is the Eronous Interpretation Placed on the Document By John Bull—A Blow to Fair Trade.

John Bull's Queer Ideas.

[Copyright 1887 by James Gordon Bennett.] LONDON, Dec. 8.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to the Bee.]—Cleveland's Christmas conundrum is being gussed all round, but nobody seems to know the answer.

Englismen to Erect a Statue to the President.

THE MESSAGE FOR FREE TRADE.

That is the Eronous Interpretation Placed on the Document By John Bull—A Blow to Fair Trade.

John Bull's Queer Ideas.

[Copyright 1887 by James Gordon Bennett.] LONDON, Dec. 8.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to the Bee.]—Cleveland's Christmas conundrum is being gussed all round, but nobody seems to know the answer.

FIVE FESTIVALS.

To Be Held in Chicago For Dead Anarchists' Relatives.

CHICAGO, Dec. 8.—Instead of one entertainment, President Cleveland has yet some distance to travel before he can get to the heart of the hostility of Mayor Roche, or three that were talked of yesterday, the anarchists have decided to have no less than five different festivals at five different halls in various portions of the city for the benefit of the families of the dead and imprisoned anarchists.

TARIFF REFORMERS.

Congressmen of Both Parties Polled on the Subject.

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The result of the World's expedition to Washington to get the views of congressmen and senators regarding President Cleveland's message is as follows:

The Outlook in France.

PARIS, Dec. 8.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—M. Lejeune, of Paris, member of the French parliament, Count Legrand and Gustave Moreau, the latter a distinguished mining engineer, are in the city.

Leading Statesmen Talk on the President's Message.

[Copyright 1887 by James Gordon Bennett.] LONDON, Dec. 8.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to the Bee.]—President Cleveland's message obtained entrance into the London press by a ranging convention held at the national association for the preservation of agriculture and other industries.

Prohibition Platform.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Dec. 8.—In the prohibition convention to-day a platform was read and adopted. It declares the liquor question the most important political issue of the day, and asserts the necessity of a third national party, declares that slavery prohibition can only be maintained by national prohibition; specially declares against any compromise of prohibition; and recommends the organization of local prohibition clubs in every town, and commands every citizen to join the Women's Christian Temperance Union.

Fatal Wreck on the Northern Pacific.

GRAND RAPIDS, Minn., Dec. 8.—A freight train on the Northern Pacific road was wrecked near Kimberly this morning, and two brakemen named Kline and Holmes were killed. Engineer Travis was badly injured.

Maine's Governor Seriously Ill.

AUGUSTA, Me., Dec. 8.—Governor Bodewell, who has been suffering for several days with an attack of pneumonia, is in a serious condition.

Rains in Texas.

GALVESTON, TEX., Dec. 8.—Heavy rains are reported throughout southern Texas during the past forty-eight hours, breaking the drought and saving the wheat crops for a

CLEVELAND BESIDE COBDEN.

Englismen to Erect a Statue to the President.

THE MESSAGE FOR FREE TRADE.

That is the Eronous Interpretation Placed on the Document By John Bull—A Blow to Fair Trade.

John Bull's Queer Ideas.

[Copyright 1887 by James Gordon Bennett.] LONDON, Dec. 8.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to the Bee.]—Cleveland's Christmas conundrum is being gussed all round, but nobody seems to know the answer.

Englismen to Erect a Statue to the President.

THE MESSAGE FOR FREE TRADE.

That is the Eronous Interpretation Placed on the Document By John Bull—A Blow to Fair Trade.

John Bull's Queer Ideas.

[Copyright 1887 by James Gordon Bennett.] LONDON, Dec. 8.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to the Bee.]—Cleveland's Christmas conundrum is being gussed all round, but nobody seems to know the answer.

FIVE FESTIVALS.

To Be Held in Chicago For Dead Anarchists' Relatives.

CHICAGO, Dec. 8.—Instead of one entertainment, President Cleveland has yet some distance to travel before he can get to the heart of the hostility of Mayor Roche, or three that were talked of yesterday, the anarchists have decided to have no less than five different festivals at five different halls in various portions of the city for the benefit of the families of the dead and imprisoned anarchists.

TARIFF REFORMERS.

Congressmen of Both Parties Polled on the Subject.

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The result of the World's expedition to Washington to get the views of congressmen and senators regarding President Cleveland's message is as follows:

The Outlook in France.

PARIS, Dec. 8.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—M. Lejeune, of Paris, member of the French parliament, Count Legrand and Gustave Moreau, the latter a distinguished mining engineer, are in the city.

Leading Statesmen Talk on the President's Message.

[Copyright 1887 by James Gordon Bennett.] LONDON, Dec. 8.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to the Bee.]—President Cleveland's message obtained entrance into the London press by a ranging convention held at the national association for the preservation of agriculture and other industries.

Prohibition Platform.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Dec. 8.—In the prohibition convention to-day a platform was read and adopted. It declares the liquor question the most important political issue of the day, and asserts the necessity of a third national party, declares that slavery prohibition can only be maintained by national prohibition; specially declares against any compromise of prohibition; and recommends the organization of local prohibition clubs in every town, and commands every citizen to join the Women's Christian Temperance Union.

Fatal Wreck on the Northern Pacific.

GRAND RAPIDS, Minn., Dec. 8.—A freight train on the Northern Pacific road was wrecked near Kimberly this morning, and two brakemen named Kline and Holmes were killed. Engineer Travis was badly injured.

Maine's Governor Seriously Ill.

AUGUSTA, Me., Dec. 8.—Governor Bodewell, who has been suffering for several days with an attack of pneumonia, is in a serious condition.

Rains in Texas.

GALVESTON, TEX., Dec. 8.—Heavy rains are reported throughout southern Texas during the past forty-eight hours, breaking the drought and saving the wheat crops for a

CLEVELAND BESIDE COBDEN.

Englismen to Erect a Statue to the President.

THE MESSAGE FOR FREE TRADE.

That is the Eronous Interpretation Placed on the Document By John Bull—A Blow to Fair Trade.

John Bull's Queer Ideas.

[Copyright 1887 by James Gordon Bennett.] LONDON, Dec. 8.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to the Bee.]—Cleveland's Christmas conundrum is being gussed all round, but nobody seems to know the answer.

Englismen to Erect a Statue to the President.

THE MESSAGE FOR FREE TRADE.

That is the Eronous Interpretation Placed on the Document By John Bull—A Blow to Fair Trade.

John Bull's Queer Ideas.

[Copyright 1887 by James Gordon Bennett.] LONDON, Dec. 8.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to the Bee.]—Cleveland's Christmas conundrum is being gussed all round, but nobody seems to know the answer.

FIVE FESTIVALS.

To Be Held in Chicago For Dead Anarchists' Relatives.

CHICAGO, Dec. 8.—Instead of one entertainment, President Cleveland has yet some distance to travel before he can get to the heart of the hostility of Mayor Roche, or three that were talked of yesterday, the anarchists have decided to have no less than five different festivals at five different halls in various portions of the city for the benefit of the families of the dead and imprisoned anarchists.

TARIFF REFORMERS.

Congressmen of Both Parties Polled on the Subject.

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The result of the World's expedition to Washington to get the views of congressmen and senators regarding President Cleveland's message is as follows:

The Outlook in France.

PARIS, Dec. 8.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—M. Lejeune, of Paris, member of the French parliament, Count Legrand and Gustave Moreau, the latter a distinguished mining engineer, are in the city.

Leading Statesmen Talk on the President's Message.

[Copyright 1887 by James Gordon Bennett.] LONDON, Dec. 8.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to the Bee.]—President Cleveland's message obtained entrance into the London press by a ranging convention held at the national association for the preservation of agriculture and other industries.

Prohibition Platform.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Dec. 8.—In the prohibition convention to-day a platform was read and adopted. It declares the liquor question the most important political issue of the day, and asserts the necessity of a third national party, declares that slavery prohibition can only be maintained by national prohibition; specially declares against any compromise of prohibition; and recommends the organization of local prohibition clubs in every town, and commands every citizen to join the Women's Christian Temperance Union.

Fatal Wreck on the Northern Pacific.

GRAND RAPIDS, Minn., Dec. 8.—A freight train on the Northern Pacific road was wrecked near Kimberly this morning, and two brakemen named Kline and Holmes were killed. Engineer Travis was badly injured.

Maine's Governor Seriously Ill.

AUGUSTA, Me., Dec. 8.—Governor Bodewell, who has been suffering for several days with an attack of pneumonia, is in a serious condition.

Rains in Texas.

GALVESTON, TEX., Dec. 8.—Heavy rains are reported throughout southern Texas during the past forty-eight hours, breaking the drought and saving the wheat crops for a

CLEVELAND BESIDE COBDEN.

Englismen to Erect a Statue to the President.

THE MESSAGE FOR FREE TRADE.

That is the Eronous Interpretation Placed on the Document By John Bull—A Blow to Fair Trade.

John Bull's Queer Ideas.

[Copyright 1887 by James Gordon Bennett.] LONDON, Dec. 8.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to the Bee.]—Cleveland's Christmas conundrum is being gussed all round, but nobody seems to know the answer.

Englismen to Erect a Statue to the President.

THE MESSAGE FOR FREE TRADE.

That is the Eronous Interpretation Placed on the Document By John Bull—A Blow to Fair Trade.

John Bull's Queer Ideas.

[Copyright 1887 by James Gordon Bennett.] LONDON, Dec. 8.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to the Bee.]—Cleveland's Christmas conundrum is being gussed all round, but nobody seems to know the answer.

FIVE FESTIVALS.

To Be Held in Chicago For Dead Anarchists' Relatives.

CHICAGO, Dec. 8.—Instead of one entertainment, President Cleveland has yet some distance to travel before he can get to the heart of the hostility of Mayor Roche, or three that were talked of yesterday, the anarchists have decided to have no less than five different festivals at five different halls in various portions of the city for the benefit of the families of the dead and imprisoned anarchists.

TARIFF REFORMERS.

Congressmen of Both Parties Polled on the Subject.

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The result of the World's expedition to Washington to get the views of congressmen and senators regarding President Cleveland's message is as follows:

The Outlook in France.

PARIS, Dec. 8.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—M. Lejeune, of Paris, member of the French parliament, Count Legrand and Gustave Moreau, the latter a distinguished mining engineer, are in the city.

Leading Statesmen Talk on the President's Message.

[Copyright 1887 by James Gordon Bennett.] LONDON, Dec. 8.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to the Bee.]—President Cleveland's message obtained entrance into the London press by a ranging convention held at the national association for the preservation of agriculture and other industries.

Prohibition Platform.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Dec. 8.—In the prohibition convention to-day a platform was read and adopted. It declares the liquor question the most important political issue of the day, and asserts the necessity of a third national party, declares that slavery prohibition can only be maintained by national prohibition; specially declares against any compromise of prohibition; and recommends the organization of local prohibition clubs in every town, and commands every citizen to join the Women's Christian Temperance Union.

Fatal Wreck on the Northern Pacific.

GRAND RAPIDS, Minn., Dec. 8.—A freight train on the Northern Pacific road was wrecked near Kimberly this morning, and two brakemen named Kline and Holmes were killed. Engineer Travis was badly injured.

Maine's Governor Seriously Ill.

AUGUSTA, Me., Dec. 8.—Governor Bodewell, who has been suffering for several days with an attack of pneumonia, is in a serious condition.

Rains in Texas.

GALVESTON, TEX., Dec. 8.—Heavy rains are reported throughout southern Texas during the past forty-eight hours, breaking the drought and saving the wheat crops for a

CLEVELAND BESIDE COBDEN.

Englismen to Erect a Statue to the President.

THE MESSAGE FOR FREE TRADE.

That is the Eronous Interpretation Placed on the Document By John Bull—A Blow to Fair Trade.

John Bull's Queer Ideas.

[Copyright 1887 by James Gordon Bennett.] LONDON, Dec. 8.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to the Bee.]—Cleveland's Christmas conundrum is being gussed all round, but nobody seems to know the answer.

Englismen to Erect a Statue to the President.

THE MESSAGE FOR FREE TRADE.

That is the Eronous Interpretation Placed on the Document By John Bull—A Blow to Fair Trade.

John Bull's Queer Ideas.

[Copyright 1887 by James Gordon Bennett.] LONDON, Dec. 8.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to the Bee.]—Cleveland's Christmas conundrum is being gussed all round, but nobody seems to know the answer.

FIVE FESTIVALS.

To Be Held in Chicago For Dead Anarchists' Relatives.

CHICAGO, Dec. 8.—Instead of one entertainment, President Cleveland has yet some distance to travel before he can get to the heart of the hostility of Mayor Roche, or three that were talked of yesterday, the anarchists have decided to have no less than five different festivals at five different halls in various portions of the city for the benefit of the families of the dead and imprisoned anarchists.

TARIFF REFORMERS.

Congressmen of Both Parties Polled on the Subject.

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The result of the World's expedition to Washington to get the views of congressmen and senators regarding President Cleveland's message is as follows:

The Outlook in France.

PARIS, Dec. 8.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—M. Lejeune, of Paris, member of the French parliament, Count Legrand and Gustave Moreau, the latter a distinguished mining engineer, are in the city.

Leading Statesmen Talk on the President's Message.

[Copyright 1887 by James Gordon Bennett.] LONDON, Dec. 8.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to the Bee.]—President Cleveland's message obtained entrance into the London press by a ranging convention held at the national association for the preservation of agriculture and other industries.

Prohibition Platform.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Dec. 8.—In the prohibition convention to-day a platform was read and adopted. It declares the liquor question the most important political issue of the day, and asserts the necessity of a third national party, declares that slavery prohibition can only be maintained by national prohibition; specially declares against any compromise of prohibition; and recommends the organization of local prohibition clubs in every town, and commands every citizen to join the Women's Christian Temperance Union.

Fatal Wreck on the Northern Pacific.

GRAND RAPIDS, Minn., Dec. 8.—A freight train on the Northern Pacific road was wrecked near Kimberly this morning, and two brakemen named Kline and Holmes were killed. Engineer Travis was badly injured.

Maine's Governor Seriously Ill.

AUGUSTA, Me., Dec. 8.—Governor Bodewell, who has been suffering for several days with an attack of pneumonia, is in a serious condition.

Rains in Texas.

GALVESTON, TEX., Dec. 8.—Heavy rains are reported throughout southern Texas during the past forty-eight hours, breaking the drought and saving the wheat crops for a

CLEVELAND BESIDE COBDEN.

Englismen to Erect a Statue to the President.

THE MESSAGE FOR FREE TRADE.

That is the Eronous Interpretation Placed on the Document By John Bull—A Blow to Fair Trade.

John Bull's Queer Ideas.

[Copyright 1887 by James Gordon Bennett.] LONDON, Dec. 8.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to the Bee.]—Cleveland's Christmas conundrum is being gussed all round, but nobody seems to know the answer.

Englismen to Erect a Statue to the President.

THE MESSAGE FOR FREE TRADE.

That is the Eronous Interpretation Placed on the Document By John Bull—A Blow to Fair Trade.

John Bull's Queer Ideas.

[Copyright 1887 by James Gordon Bennett.] LONDON, Dec. 8.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to the Bee.]—Cleveland's Christmas conundrum is being gussed all round, but nobody seems to know the answer.

FIVE FESTIVALS.

To Be Held in Chicago For Dead Anarchists' Relatives.

CHICAGO, Dec. 8.—Instead of one entertainment, President Cleveland has yet some distance to travel before he can get to the heart of the hostility of Mayor Roche, or three that were talked of yesterday, the anarchists have decided to have no less than five different festivals at five different halls in various portions of the city for the benefit of the families of the dead and imprisoned anarchists.

TARIFF REFORMERS.

Congressmen of Both Parties Polled on the Subject.

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The result of the World's expedition to Washington to get the views of congressmen and senators regarding President Cleveland's message is as follows:

The Outlook in France.

PARIS, Dec. 8.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—M. Lejeune, of Paris, member of the French parliament,