MEXICO'S WICKEDEST MAN.

The Remarkable History of the Prince of Villains.

THE LATEST PARIS DUEL Calls to Mind the Previous Career of One of the Principals—Senior Carmona's Greed For Gold—A Man to Be Shunned.

Written for the Sunday Bee.

The cablegram from Paris announcing a duel between Thomas Potter and Senior Carmona at the forest of Germaine, in which all of honor both men were wounded, brings to mind the remarkable history imparted to me in Mexico of this prince of villains, Senior Carmona...

THIS DARING MAN coveted, for with that he could buy what he desired, high position in the world and a fortune, and for the attainment of his ends he would stop at nothing. Strange tales are told concerning his career, which is full of dark deeds...

THE FINGER OF SUSPICION was pointed at Carmona, but nothing could be proved against him; so he went his way rejoicing, while scheming himself minister to France from Spain filled his head and much money was required. The guardian appointed over his wife's children was a man of great intellect and high social standing, supporting his family by the brilliant efforts of an able lawyer...

THE VICTIM TO AVENGE fell face downward—dead. It is said that Carmona watched the progress of the affair from the opposite side of the street. The murderer of this distinguished man was detected after some time had elapsed, and seized and confined in Belem, the prison in Mexico. Two years ago the trial of this unscrupulous man took place in the city and he was condemned to death...

SHOT HIM THROUGH THE HEART. On another occasion when Carmona was losing his game, he resorted to cheating and was observed in so doing by a gentleman, who reached over the table pinning Carmona's hand to the table with a knife, then departed from the house leaving this singular gentleman in rather a painful situation...

AMONG THE SOCIETY PEOPLE. Pleasant Events of the Past Week in Omaha. THE HYPERION party held last Tuesday evening at Masonic hall was the third of its social series this season. Although the attendance was somewhat affected by an unfavorable night, the occasion was probably the most pleasant one of the series...

The managers, whose untiring efforts made the party a grand success, were Mrs. W. A. Golden and Miss M. Golden.

A QUIET WEDDING took place Wednesday at Cheyenne, W. T. The principals were Mr. John Horn of this city and Miss Adeline Huff Smith of Cheyenne.

QUITE A large number of Omahans attended a musical Friday night given by Miss Officer at her home in Council Bluffs. There have been few occasions on which the participants have been so numerous to complete a programme similar in its excellence to the one rendered at Miss Officer's musicale.

THE LUTHERS club gave their first ball last Wednesday evening at Masonic hall. Over seventy couples were present. Twenty numbers were danced but the music was so excellent and the floor in such fine condition that many regretted the programme was not longer. The committee on arrangements were B. S. Pelzer, M. J. Harris, B. Rubin, J. Rotholz and Dr. N. Dymenberg.

ECHOES FROM THE ANTE-ROOM. Items of Interest to the Members of the Various Secret Orders. Among the festivities promised for Christmas week is the annual ball of the Molders' union, to be held on Friday night next at Exposition hall, and a pleasant time is guaranteed.

ON THE SATURDAY evening, December 22, Ezra Millard Canyon No. 1, Patriarchs Militant, held their first annual ball at Masonic hall. This will be a great event in Odd Fellows circles and will attract a large attendance.

THERE was an episode at Ashland on the night of the presentation of the Pythian banner which accounts for the number of members of the lodge who were absent from which many of Omaha's best known local Pythians are endeavoring to recover. It was the intention of the lodge to raise a great deal of cash and a great deal of merriment. Two bushels of coals were used in the work and each of the initiated, like soldiers who preserve bullets which almost deprived them of life if they can only get them, has brought his cob with him and hung up in his room or porch with garlands of ribbons as a trophy of his struggle with an unexpected honor.
