A Famous Deer Killed. "Old Golden," the famous buck killed by a party of hunters near Graveling last week, says the Cassilage (Wis.) Democrat, was as well known to hunters and settlers of the region where he ranged as a noted trotting horse to devotees of the track. Formerly he ranged through the northern part of Kalkaska county.

PRO BONO PUBLICO.

A Statement Made by a Husband. Is Confirmed by his Wife. And It is of Great Importance to the Public in General - A Good Record for an M. D.

What is more pleasing to the children, and in fact, is not even displeasing to those of more mature years, than to sample the different varieties of candies? A candy manufactory is one of the most interesting industries that children can visit.

With his keen senses ever on the alert, and with an intelligence almost human, the wild animal will keep for years, simply a wild deer of the forest, Old Golden will be the theme of admiring story for years to come in the region where he once roamed.

German John has an experience and seeks newer fields of labor. A triling mistake on the part of a green German on Compton hill led to a small sized riot in that section of the city a few days ago, says the St. Louis Republican.

AMUSEMENTS. An Excellent Production of "Lights O' London" at the Grand. This celebrated melo-drama was produced for the third time in Omaha last night at the Grand opera house before a large and appreciative audience.
