Horse Car Accidents.

The season of sliding cars has commenced and was ushered in yesterday with three accidents. A car on Farnam street slid down the hill and when it reached Fifteenth collided with car No. 26 of the cross-town line going north, which had also got beyond the control of the driver on the also got beyond the control of the driver on the slight incline extending to Farnam street from the alley in the rear of Paxton's build-ing. The platform and dash-board of each was broken, but the drivers and passengers escaped.

No. 37, another car, on St. Mary's avenue hill, "got away" from the driver coming east yesterday morning and crashed in to a grocery wagon which could not get out of the way. Both vehicles were damaged.

Wagon when could not get out of the way.

Both vehicles were damaged.

The third accident which occurred on the Thirteenth street line, was the most serious of all and will probably terminate fatally to John Michaels, a boy who drives the extra horse used in pulling the cars up the hill near Williams street. He was riding up the hill on the front end of the car, sitting on the side of the railing, when the horse gave a plunge and pulled him off his seat. The lad fell under the heeis of the horse and was run over by the car. Both legs were crushed in a frightful manner, and his body was bruised all over. The driver attempted to stop the car but could not do so in time to prevent the accident. Michaels was carried into the Washington hotel on Sixteenth street, where a great many of the horse car drivers board, and will be given careful attention.

CAUGHT DEAD TO RIGHTS. Two Counterfeiters Nailed by the Police-An Important Capture.

James McKenzie, L. W. Hill and a colored prostitute named Lou France, are held at the city jail and the charge of counterfeiting is lodged against them. The arrest was made yesterday morning at 4 o'clock by Captain Cormick and Sergeant Hays.

The arrest of these three people is one of the most important ever made in Omaha. For some time Chief Scavey has been aware that counterfeit half dollars have been in circulation in this city and has kept a close watch on all suspicious individuals. He finally located the criminals as living in a small one room cottage in the alley between Webone room cottage in the alley between Web-ster and Burt streets, running from Fifteenth to Sixteenth street. A raid was made yester-day morning. Hill and his dusky mistress had retired and McKenzie lay asleep on the floor. The door was broken in and the two men forced to surrender. The negro woman was discovered under the bed and was dragged out.

Later Captain Green was detailed to thoroughly search the premises. He found a quantity of sheet copper and zinc, a plaster paris mold, a sodering iron, a copy of Dick's encyclopædia, in which is described the methods of coming, and nine counterfeit half dollars. These bogus coins were but half finished and were very crude in design.

They were dated 1859.

The record of the three prisoners is very bad. McKenzie has served a term in the Iowa penitentiary for burglary. He was sent up from Sioux City. Hill served a term in the same institution for passing counterfeit money. He was sent up from Council Bluffs. The colored woman was formerly an inmate of a house of prostitution in Sioux City, run by her sister.

WALTER SAMS' CLOSE.

A Quartette of Mortgagees Place Their Notice on His Doors.

Yesterday the bijou jewelry store of Walter Sams, in Boyd's opera house on Fifteenth street was closed up under several mortgages. One of these was to Edward Sams, the father, living at Warrensburg, Mo., for $1,100. A second was given to Mildred D. Wash, an aunt of the mortgagor, in this city, for $2,200. The next was to Dun-hime & Co., Cincinnati, for $8,900, and the fourth was to C. E. Pond, of Kansas City, for $1.650. There are several local creditors who the attorneys in this case, Cavanaugh & Crane, are satisfied will be settled with satisfactorily. The stock is valued at over $15,000, but it has not been decided how it will be disposed of to satisfy parties interested. Sams was in business on Douglas street, near Fifteenth, where, it is claimed, he lost money. Since his removal to Fifteenth street, however, it is claimed he has made money, but not sufficient to make up for the losses he sustained on the other thoroughfare. It is thought a settlement will be agreed upon. ANOTHER IN TROUBLE Bradstreet's reports the failure of H. R.

Mewis, a general store man in Douglas Wyo., in whom Omaha jobbers are interested. He was closed on a mortgage of $2,200, with liabilities of between $7,000 and $8,000.

HIGGINS.

The mortgage given by C. S. Higgins to se cure the Omaha National bank and Chapin & Gore of Chicago, was cancelled yesterday morning and another given instead. There was a technical informality in the first which was considered worthy of notice.

MORTUARY.

WILLIAMS. The funeral services over the remains of Frances Silver, Somers Worthington and Charles Meade Williams, the three children of Rev. John Williams of St. Barnabas church, took place yesterday in the beautiful little sanctuary of that name on the corner of Nineteenth and California streets. Notwithstanding the severity of the weather there was quite a large number of sympa-thetic friends present. Mrs. Williams, bearing up bravely, assisted by her husband, was a witness of the services, which served greatly to console her in her affliction. greatly to console her in her affliction. She did not, however, accompany the remains of her beloved ones to the cemetery, having yielded to the wishes of prudent advisors and remained at home in the company of sympathetic friends. The first part of the service was read by Bishop Worthington; Canon Doherty read the burial anthem and was followed by Canon Patterson, and by Bishop Worthington, who read the prayers Bishop Worthington, who read the prayers. The remains of the little ones were enclosed in three caskets of white embossed velvet. The latter was borne to three white hearses in waiting and thence, followed by a number of friends, were conveyed to Prospect Hill cometery, where the remains were temporarily deposited in a vault, awaiting less in-

The remains of Charles Hoot, a consump-tive, who died yesterday at St. Joseph's hospital, are now awaiting identification at sarrett & Heafy's. He was an Englishman by birth, and is supposed to have relatives at La Porte City, Ia., who have been tele-graphed. It is also said that J. McCann, regraphed. It is also said that J. ent weather for burial.

The remains of this man were borne to his home on Jackson street yesterday afternoon, from Drexel & Maul's, and will be buried probably this afternoon.

Turkeys and Supper.

The American Waterworks company on Christmas eve presented each of the married members of the fire department with a turkey for his Christmas dinner. To equalize the matter the same company tendered an clegant supper yesterday evening to the unmarried members of the department at one of the leading hotels of the city. There were nineteen firemen present.

Postmaster Gallagher also gave to the married men employes in the postoffice a handsome turkey for Christmas delectation and tendered the unmarried the practical advice to get married before the next helidays to cutille them to similar consideration.

Internal Revenue Collections. Yesterday's internal revenue collections Cooted up $2,879.85.

CHRISTMAS TREE FESTIVALS. How the Children of the Sunday

Schools Were Made Happy. Over four hundred persons attended the Sunday school festival at Hillside Congregational church Monday night. Two trees briliantly illuminated, stood on the platform. After prayer by the superintendent, A. M. Kitchen, Mrs. Dr. Baldridge sang with beautiful effect. Grace Kanouse, Etta Smith Lena Bauer and Nellie Hannenhopher gave recitations. A duet was given by the Moss sisters. The part of Santa Claus was acted by Assistant Superintendent J. B. Moore, by Assistant Superintendent J. B. Moore, who entered in a sleigh drawn by six boys and six girls, amid a shower of candy and tempest of excitement. He made a witty speech, distributed gifts and promised to return again next year. Frank E. Hamling acted as master of ceremanies.

HAMILTON STREET PRESEYTERIAN.
Christmas was appropriately observed at the Hamilton street Presbyterian church, and the event will long be remembered by all taking part. The Sunday school scholars generously and acceptably coatributed to the entertainment. The efforts of Clara Harvey. Jessie Bunt, Jessie Johns, Laura Johns, Zeima Eppeneter, Fay Neeley, Clara Gardner, Lester Hutchinson, Freddie Van Horn, Ray, Whitney and others were agreeably received. Mr. S. Wilson personated Santa Claus admirably, and Mr. Fleming proved himself a thorough master of ceremonies. thorough master of ceremonies.

Car Load Rates and Discrimination. A BEE reporter yesterday had a short talk with Commissioner Grifflitts and W. A. L. Gibbon, both of whom have but recently returned from Washington, where they appeared before the inter-state railway commission to inveigh against the discrimination which several railroads are practicing against this city. They, with other members of the delegation, impressed the commission with the gravity of the question that that body expressed a desire to hear the question discussed in this city. Since the return of Mr. Griffitts from Washington, he has been notified by the commission that the question of car-load rates, which is also a vital question to Omaha, will not be heard until the 24th of next month, when it will be discussed in New York. This will be bringing the question up on the very ground of the jobbers, who are working to destroy the the jobbers, who are working to destroy the car-load rate from the east to the west.

A THIEVING SERVANT.

Lottie Andrews is the name of a pretty, buxom servant girl who for a year past has been living at the home of N. B. Falconer. Lottie's vanity was stronger than her con-science, and in an evil moment her covetous instinct induced her to steal from her mistress one pair of gloves, three handkerchiefs and one pair of stockings, valued at $3. Lot and one pair of stockings, valued at $3. Lot-tie was arrested and locked up. She burst into tears when brought before his honor yesterday, and pleaded guilty to the charge. She was remanded to await sen-tence, It is the general opinion of the court loungers that Lottie should be sentenced for life. Any girl who will lay thieving hands on five articles of the value of $3 and then get caught in the act deserves severe punish-ment.

The unseasonable warm weather has left a few more Overcoats on our hands than we desire to carry over into the new year, and in order to sell them right now, we have cut the prices all to pieces. Commencing to-morrow we will offer our very finest Overcoats at prices heretofore asked for medium qualities. The biggest cut we will make on our fur and plush trimmed goods. There are not many of them, but we have a few very fine garments trimmed with good fur and silk plush. We want to make a sweep with these goods and close them out before we take stock. We invite those who have so far managed to get along with their old or light weight Overcoats, and whom the open winter has kept back from buying a heavy one, to inspect these garments. They will be surprised to see how little money it takes now to procure such an elegant Overcoat. This is really a grand opportunity and the last chance this season.

In Men's Dress and Business Suits we have a beautiful stock--the largest in the city--and our prices are known to be by far the cheapest. Many fine suits have been marked away down in order to reduce stock and we will save you fully 25 per cent--if not more--on every suit,

The big trade we have had in Boys' Overcoats last week has broken up the sizes of several lots, but we still have a fair assortment. The prices are such that we expect them to be cleaned

Our Hat Department is known to offer better hats for less money than any regular hat house in the city. The fine Fur Derby's which we are selling for one dollar have made a name for us. No other house sells a hat of equal quality for less than $2 or $2.50. We have received several new styes for the holidays. Our finest hats at $2.50, $3 and $3.25 cannot be bought at any other house for less than $3.50, $4 and $5. We offer in this department a splendid line of Fur Caps at just one-half their regular retail prices.

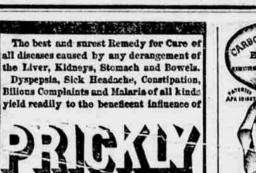

The beautiful and artistic display of Men's Furnishings in our large windows will give an idea of the variety of goods we have and the prices we ask. We invite those who are puzzled with the all-aborbing question, "What to give." to look at our window and they will see what we can offer in the way of presents for gentlemen. Sensible and thoughtful men prefer and enjoy substantial Christmas gifts of this nature. There is a satisfaction in giving or receiving a present that one can be seen wearing, a gift that combines utility and beauty, and nowhere else can you get such goods so cheap. Our popular system of selling goods at the lowest prices will be continued during the holiday season. We have no fancy prices and those who purchase of us can save enough on each purchase to buy a nice present for themselves.

Beginning Monday we will present visitors at our store with a beautiful holiday souvenir, copies of which are displayed in our windows.

All goods marked in plain figures and at strictly one price.
