

COMMITTEE CHAIRMANSHIPS

Names of the Men Who Will Head the Most Important.

SPEAKER CARLISLE AT WORK.

Representative Holman Talks on the Government Incompetence of the Pacific Roads—Sherman's Coming Tariff Speech.

A Deserter Captured.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—An original pension was today granted to Phillip Elliott of Fort Omaha.

Public Debt Statement.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—An original pension was today granted to Phillip Elliott of Fort Omaha.

The Red River Controversy.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The president has issued the following proclamation: Whereas, the title to all that territory...

A Swarm of Candidates.

DES MOINES, Ia., Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The candidates for the various legislative positions are beginning to arrive.

National Capital Notes.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Senator Aldrich, chairman of the senate committee on rules, has prepared a resolution which will offer in a few days and ask to have referred to his committee...

Death of an Eccentric Widow.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Mrs. Sarah Brinton McConkey, a wealthy and eccentric widow, died quite alone and in splendor.

What Some Noted Fast Walkers and Athletes Are Doing.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Hoagland, the winner of two medals for rapid walking and remarkable endurance in Kansas City, is resting today and preparing for the walk which will probably occur at Topeka next week.

Death of General Alexander.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—General E. B. Alexander, of St. Paul, Minn., died in this city last evening, aged eighty-six.

Postal Changes.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Emma Elta Reel was today appointed postmistress at Reel, Pottawattamie county, Iowa, vice L. A. Axtel, resigned.

Accidental Death.

NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—August Sauterback, brother of the well-known attorney and railroad man, while on a picnic at Central park, yesterday afternoon, was thrown to the ground and killed.

THE HAWKEYE SENATORSHIP.

Hon. James F. Wilson Already on the Battleground.

STRINGING POLITICAL WIRES.

Candidates For Office in the Iowa Legislature Swarming in Great Numbers at the Capital—Mine Accidents.

Senator Wilson on Hand.

DES MOINES, Ia., Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Senator Wilson arrived today and has opened his senatorial campaign at the Kirkwood. So far he is in advance, not only of any rivals, but practically of any members, only three or four of the 150 having reported.

A Swarm of Candidates.

DES MOINES, Ia., Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The candidates for the various legislative positions are beginning to arrive.

Effect of the Trust.

NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—There was great excitement in the oil market today and the crowd around the oil pits was one of the largest ever seen.

Death Banishes a Convent Shadow.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Jacob Gibson died at Loretto recently and bequeathed $1,000 each to fifteen widows and fifty orphans of the convent.

Death of an Eccentric Widow.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Mrs. Sarah Brinton McConkey, a wealthy and eccentric widow, died quite alone and in splendor.

What Some Noted Fast Walkers and Athletes Are Doing.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Hoagland, the winner of two medals for rapid walking and remarkable endurance in Kansas City, is resting today and preparing for the walk which will probably occur at Topeka next week.

Death of General Alexander.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—General E. B. Alexander, of St. Paul, Minn., died in this city last evening, aged eighty-six.

Postal Changes.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Emma Elta Reel was today appointed postmistress at Reel, Pottawattamie county, Iowa, vice L. A. Axtel, resigned.

Accidental Death.

NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—August Sauterback, brother of the well-known attorney and railroad man, while on a picnic at Central park, yesterday afternoon, was thrown to the ground and killed.

SHAFFER SKIPS.

He Jumps His Bond at Kansas City and Goes to Canada.

HONORING EDITOR HARDING.

Very Rich Gifts Presented to Him By English Admirals.

KILRAIN'S NEW YEAR'S PRESENT.

A Diamond Ring From Mitchell—Sullivan at Cardiff—Bismarck on German's Strength—A Furious Gale at Queenstown.

Rich Gifts for Harding.

[Copyright 1888 by James Gordon Bennett.] LONDON, Jan. 3.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to the Bee.]—The Canterbury theater, varieties, Westminster bridge road, was crowded to-night with sports to see the advertised presentation from English representative sportsmen to Wm. E. Harding.

Kilrain's New Year's Present.

[Copyright 1888 by James Gordon Bennett.] DUBLIN, Jan. 3.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to the Bee.]—Parnell arrived at Kingstown this morning on the royal mail steamer.

A Great Gale at Queenstown.

[Copyright 1888 by James Gordon Bennett.] QUEENSTOWN, Jan. 3.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to the Bee.]—The Herald's predicted gale burst with unerring accuracy over this port early in the forenoon today and greatly increased in fury as the day advanced.

Bismarck on Germany's Strength.

[Copyright 1888 by James Gordon Bennett.] BRUSSELS, Jan. 3.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to the Bee.]—In an interview with Councillor von Ledenberg, the German consul at Paris who has called to express the fears of the German business people for the immediate future, Bismarck made an interesting statement with regard to the ability of the empire to resist foreign aggression.

The Pope and Pilgrims.

[Copyright 1888 by James Gordon Bennett.] ROME, Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The pope addressed the pilgrims today in the presence of the whole city. After expressing joy at the cohesion of Catholics, the pope said: "You have not given faith to those who with voice of Canaan try to persuade you that the pope is an enemy of Italy."

Why County Meath Was Proclaimed.

DUBLIN, Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The opposition of the farmers to the plan of Lord Londonderry to hunt in the county of Meath, was the only reason for its being proclaimed.

Russian Affairs.

[Copyright 1888 by James Gordon Bennett.] ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Disorders at the university here continue, owing to the expulsion of 200 students. The officials will re-open the university at the end of the month.

The Car Opposed to War.

VIENNA, Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Official declarations of a decidedly pacific character are expected at an early date. Colonel Ziefloff, who has returned to his duties as military attaché to the Russian embassy, says he found the czar absolutely opposed to war.

A Master Mechanic Resigns.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—E. Steffy, of this city, who has been master mechanic of the St. Joseph & Granddale for a long term of years, has resigned, the resignation to take effect February 1.

Mary Anderson's Success.

LONDON, Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Miss Mary Anderson made her one hundredth appearance in "A Winter Tale" at the Lyceum theater this evening and was welcomed by a large and brilliant audience.

Birmingham Canal Bursts.

LONDON, Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Birmingham canal burst today at a point near Dudley. Hundreds of families are rendered homeless by the inundation.

Killed By a Blast.

ALBANY, Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—John Hresce, a miner employed in the Jack Oak mines, was killed by a blast while at dinner to-day. The miners in the adjoining room placed a blast which broke through the wall into the room occupied by Hresce. A large fragment of rock struck him on the head killing him instantly.

Given the Mexican Mission.

FOY DE LAC, Wis., Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—General Bragg quietly left home Saturday in response to a message from President Cleveland, and he is probably at Washington to-day. It is considered certain that he has been given the Mexican mission and that he will accept it.

FORMED A REPUBLICAN CLUB

Lincoln Sets the Example For the Coming Campaign.

CONDUCTORS' BALL AT FREMONT

A Brilliant Social Event—A Reverend Celestial Who Will Bear Watching—Lottery Ticket Proceeds Go Up in Smoke.

Lincoln Republicans Organize.

LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—A preliminary meeting was held at the court house to-night for the purpose of organizing a republican club with some seventy-five republicans in attendance.

The Conductor's Ball.

FREMONT, Neb., Jan. 3.—[Special to the Bee.]—The grandest ball of the season was given last night at Fremont. Division No. 229, Order of Railway Conductors, owing to the burning of the opera house on Saturday evening the ball was divided, one portion using the new town hall, and the other the elegant apartments of the Fremont club.

A Catholic Cathedral For Lincoln.

LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—At a largely attended meeting of prominent Catholics in this city last evening, Bishop Bonacum presented the question of the erection of a Catholic cathedral in the city of the present year.

A Wily Celestial.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Jan. 3.—[Special to the Bee.]—An educated and oily tongued celestial traveling under the name of Rev. Osato H. Fang, of Shanghai, China, attempted to improve his financial condition at the expense of the citizens of this place by delivering a lecture, the proceeds of which were, as represented by him, for the benefit of a foreign missionary society.

A Laundry Burned.

NORFOLK, Neb., Jan. 3.—[Special to the Bee.]—The Elkhorn Valley steam laundry of this city, owned by Gillett & Davenport, burned at early hour this morning.

No Recess.

FREMONT, Neb., Jan. 3.—[Special to the Bee.]—At their school meeting held last evening the Fremont school board decided to adjourn the meeting to the first day of the winter term, during the winter term just begun.

Funk's Opera House Changes Hands.

LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Funk opera house has been sold to Fred Funk, retiring and Messrs. Crawford and M. C. Reynolds assuming control.

Death of Colonel Chambers.

CHICAGO, Ill., Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Word was received here today of the death at San Antonio, Tex., yesterday of Colonel Chambers, commander of the Seventeenth infantry and commandant of Fort D. A. Russell at this place.

Cutting Freight Rates.

CHICAGO, Ill., Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The St. Louis & San Francisco road to-day sent notice to the Northwestern association that on January 15 it would reduce the rate on corn to St. Louis 5 cents from all stations in Kansas.

Russian Affairs.

[Copyright 1888 by James Gordon Bennett.] ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Disorders at the university here continue, owing to the expulsion of 200 students. The officials will re-open the university at the end of the month.

The Car Opposed to War.

VIENNA, Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Official declarations of a decidedly pacific character are expected at an early date. Colonel Ziefloff, who has returned to his duties as military attaché to the Russian embassy, says he found the czar absolutely opposed to war.

A Master Mechanic Resigns.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—E. Steffy, of this city, who has been master mechanic of the St. Joseph & Granddale for a long term of years, has resigned, the resignation to take effect February 1.

Mary Anderson's Success.

LONDON, Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Miss Mary Anderson made her one hundredth appearance in "A Winter Tale" at the Lyceum theater this evening and was welcomed by a large and brilliant audience.

Birmingham Canal Bursts.

LONDON, Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Birmingham canal burst today at a point near Dudley. Hundreds of families are rendered homeless by the inundation.

Killed By a Blast.

ALBANY, Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—John Hresce, a miner employed in the Jack Oak mines, was killed by a blast while at dinner to-day. The miners in the adjoining room placed a blast which broke through the wall into the room occupied by Hresce. A large fragment of rock struck him on the head killing him instantly.

Given the Mexican Mission.

FOY DE LAC, Wis., Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—General Bragg quietly left home Saturday in response to a message from President Cleveland, and he is probably at Washington to-day. It is considered certain that he has been given the Mexican mission and that he will accept it.

HONORING EDITOR HARDING.

Very Rich Gifts Presented to Him By English Admirals.

KILRAIN'S NEW YEAR'S PRESENT.

A Diamond Ring From Mitchell—Sullivan at Cardiff—Bismarck on German's Strength—A Furious Gale at Queenstown.

Rich Gifts for Harding.

[Copyright 1888 by James Gordon Bennett.] LONDON, Jan. 3.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to the Bee.]—The Canterbury theater, varieties, Westminster bridge road, was crowded to-night with sports to see the advertised presentation from English representative sportsmen to Wm. E. Harding.

Kilrain's New Year's Present.

[Copyright 1888 by James Gordon Bennett.] DUBLIN, Jan. 3.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to the Bee.]—Parnell arrived at Kingstown this morning on the royal mail steamer.

A Great Gale at Queenstown.

[Copyright 1888 by James Gordon Bennett.] QUEENSTOWN, Jan. 3.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to the Bee.]—The Herald's predicted gale burst with unerring accuracy over this port early in the forenoon today and greatly increased in fury as the day advanced.

Bismarck on Germany's Strength.

[Copyright 1888 by James Gordon Bennett.] BRUSSELS, Jan. 3.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to the Bee.]—In an interview with Councillor von Ledenberg, the German consul at Paris who has called to express the fears of the German business people for the immediate future, Bismarck made an interesting statement with regard to the ability of the empire to resist foreign aggression.

The Pope and Pilgrims.

[Copyright 1888 by James Gordon Bennett.] ROME, Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The pope addressed the pilgrims today in the presence of the whole city. After expressing joy at the cohesion of Catholics, the pope said: "You have not given faith to those who with voice of Canaan try to persuade you that the pope is an enemy of Italy."

Why County Meath Was Proclaimed.

DUBLIN, Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The opposition of the farmers to the plan of Lord Londonderry to hunt in the county of Meath, was the only reason for its being proclaimed.

Russian Affairs.

[Copyright 1888 by James Gordon Bennett.] ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Disorders at the university here continue, owing to the expulsion of 200 students. The officials will re-open the university at the end of the month.

The Car Opposed to War.

VIENNA, Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Official declarations of a decidedly pacific character are expected at an early date. Colonel Ziefloff, who has returned to his duties as military attaché to the Russian embassy, says he found the czar absolutely opposed to war.

A Master Mechanic Resigns.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—E. Steffy, of this city, who has been master mechanic of the St. Joseph & Granddale for a long term of years, has resigned, the resignation to take effect February 1.

Mary Anderson's Success.

LONDON, Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Miss Mary Anderson made her one hundredth appearance in "A Winter Tale" at the Lyceum theater this evening and was welcomed by a large and brilliant audience.

Birmingham Canal Bursts.

LONDON, Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Birmingham canal burst today at a point near Dudley. Hundreds of families are rendered homeless by the inundation.

Killed By a Blast.

ALBANY, Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—John Hresce, a miner employed in the Jack Oak mines, was killed by a blast while at dinner to-day. The miners in the adjoining room placed a blast which broke through the wall into the room occupied by Hresce. A large fragment of rock struck him on the head killing him instantly.

Given the Mexican Mission.

FOY DE LAC, Wis., Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—General Bragg quietly left home Saturday in response to a message from President Cleveland, and he is probably at Washington to-day. It is considered certain that he has been given the Mexican mission and that he will accept it.

FORMED A REPUBLICAN CLUB

Lincoln Sets the Example For the Coming Campaign.

CONDUCTORS' BALL AT FREMONT

A Brilliant Social Event—A Reverend Celestial Who Will Bear Watching—Lottery Ticket Proceeds Go Up in Smoke.

Lincoln Republicans Organize.

LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—A preliminary meeting was held at the court house to-night for the purpose of organizing a republican club with some seventy-five republicans in attendance.

The Conductor's Ball.

FREMONT, Neb., Jan. 3.—[Special to the Bee.]—The grandest ball of the season was given last night at Fremont. Division No. 229, Order of Railway Conductors, owing to the burning of the opera house on Saturday evening the ball was divided, one portion using the new town hall, and the other the elegant apartments of the Fremont club.

A Catholic Cathedral For Lincoln.

LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—At a largely attended meeting of prominent Catholics in this city last evening, Bishop Bonacum presented the question of the erection of a Catholic cathedral in the city of the present year.

A Wily Celestial.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Jan. 3.—[Special to the Bee.]—An educated and oily tongued celestial traveling under the name of Rev. Osato H. Fang, of Shanghai, China, attempted to improve his financial condition at the expense of the citizens of this place by delivering a lecture, the proceeds of which were, as represented by him, for the benefit of a foreign missionary society.

A Laundry Burned.

NORFOLK, Neb., Jan. 3.—[Special to the Bee.]—The Elkhorn Valley steam laundry of this city, owned by Gillett & Davenport, burned at early hour this morning.

No Recess.

FREMONT, Neb., Jan. 3.—[Special to the Bee.]—At their school meeting held last evening the Fremont school board decided to adjourn the meeting to the first day of the winter term, during the winter term just begun.

Funk's Opera House Changes Hands.

LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Funk opera house has been sold to Fred Funk, retiring and Messrs. Crawford and M. C. Reynolds assuming control.

Death of Colonel Chambers.

CHICAGO, Ill., Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Word was received here today of the death at San Antonio, Tex., yesterday of Colonel Chambers, commander of the Seventeenth infantry and commandant of Fort D. A. Russell at this place.

Cutting Freight Rates.

CHICAGO, Ill., Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The St. Louis & San Francisco road to-day sent notice to the Northwestern association that on January 15 it would reduce the rate on corn to St. Louis 5 cents from all stations in Kansas.

Russian Affairs.

[Copyright 1888 by James Gordon Bennett.] ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Disorders at the university here continue, owing to the expulsion of 200 students. The officials will re-open the university at the end of the month.

The Car Opposed to War.

VIENNA, Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Official declarations of a decidedly pacific character are expected at an early date. Colonel Ziefloff, who has returned to his duties as military attaché to the Russian embassy, says he found the czar absolutely opposed to war.

A Master Mechanic Resigns.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—E. Steffy, of this city, who has been master mechanic of the St. Joseph & Granddale for a long term of years, has resigned, the resignation to take effect February 1.

Mary Anderson's Success.

LONDON, Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Miss Mary Anderson made her one hundredth appearance in "A Winter Tale" at the Lyceum theater this evening and was welcomed by a large and brilliant audience.

Birmingham Canal Bursts.

LONDON, Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Birmingham canal burst today at a point near Dudley. Hundreds of families are rendered homeless by the inundation.

Killed By a Blast.

ALBANY, Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—John Hresce, a miner employed in the Jack Oak mines, was killed by a blast while at dinner to-day. The miners in the adjoining room placed a blast which broke through the wall into the room occupied by Hresce. A large fragment of rock struck him on the head killing him instantly.

Given the Mexican Mission.

FOY DE LAC, Wis., Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—General Bragg quietly left home Saturday in response to a message from President Cleveland, and he is probably at Washington to-day. It is considered certain that he has been given the Mexican mission and that he will accept it.

HONORING EDITOR HARDING.

Very Rich Gifts Presented to Him By English Admirals.

KILRAIN'S NEW YEAR'S PRESENT.

A Diamond Ring From Mitchell—Sullivan at Cardiff—Bismarck on German's Strength—A Furious Gale at Queenstown.

Rich Gifts for Harding.

[Copyright 1888 by James Gordon Bennett.] LONDON, Jan. 3.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to the Bee.]—The Canterbury theater, varieties, Westminster bridge road, was crowded to-night with sports to see the advertised presentation from English representative sportsmen to Wm. E. Harding.

Kilrain's New Year's Present.

[Copyright 1888 by James Gordon Bennett.] DUBLIN, Jan. 3.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to the Bee.]—Parnell arrived at Kingstown this morning on the royal mail steamer.

A Great Gale at Queenstown.

[Copyright 1888 by James Gordon Bennett.] QUEENSTOWN, Jan. 3.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to the Bee.]—The Herald's predicted gale burst with unerring accuracy over this port early in the forenoon today and greatly increased in fury as the day advanced.

Bismarck on Germany's Strength.

[Copyright 1888 by James Gordon Bennett.] BRUSSELS, Jan. 3.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to the Bee.]—In an interview with Councillor von Ledenberg, the German consul at Paris who has called to express the fears of the German business people for the immediate future, Bismarck made an interesting statement with regard to the ability of the empire to resist foreign aggression.

The Pope and Pilgrims.

[Copyright 1888 by James Gordon Bennett.] ROME, Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The pope addressed the pilgrims today in the presence of the whole city. After expressing joy at the cohesion of Catholics, the pope said: "You have not given faith to those who with voice of Canaan try to persuade you that the pope is an enemy of Italy."

Why County Meath Was Proclaimed.

DUBLIN, Jan. 3.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The opposition of the farmers to the plan of Lord Londonderry to hunt in the county of Meath, was the only reason for its being proclaimed.

Russian Affairs.