

THEOBRE REMAINS IN HIS SHOP

While Speaker Carlisle Retains His Seat in Congress. NO FURTHER LIGHT ALLOWED.

All the Democrats and Three Republicans Vote Against Reopening the Case For Additional Testimony.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—With members of the house committee on elections was in attendance to resume consideration of the Theobres-Carlisle contested election case.

Wants of the Wool Industry.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The wool conference has reached an agreement, which will be formulated at once. It will advocate a return to the tariff of 1867, and a corresponding readjustment of wool and worsted rates.

Given a Hearing.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The committee appointed by the Memphis waterway convention, held in October last, was given a hearing before the committee on rivers and harbors in the house of representatives today.

She Wants $20,000 Damages.

HUMPHREYS, Neb., Jan. 13.—A ripple of excitement was caused here by the serving of a summons upon the bondsmen of J. H. Ray, sheriff of Richardson county, to appear before the United States court and answer to the statement of John B. Beck, who claims damages in the amount of $20,000 by reason of false imprisonment.

The Death Record.

NASHVILLE, Jan. 24.—Mrs. Anna B. Cheatham, widow of the late General B. F. Cheatham, who presided here as postmaster in this city, died at her residence this morning.

TWENTY-THREE BELOW ZERO.

Omaha's Coldest Day of the Winter Season.

A GOAL FAMINE IMMINENT.

The Startling Report Sent in to the County Commissioners—Dorsey Houck's Narrow Escape From Death—Other Accidents.

Notes of the Storm.

Yesterday was without doubt the coldest day of the winter season in Omaha, and the demoralizing effects of the storm were everywhere to be seen.

DORSEY HOUCK'S PERIL.

Major Dorsey Houck, the muscular deputy sheriff, had an exciting experience yesterday afternoon. Enveloped in a big storm overcoat, and bundled up in the warm robes of his cutter, he was driving his horse along the road in the vicinity of Thirty-third and Dodge streets, which was left in a dangerous and impassible condition by the graders who have been at work there of late.

HE HAD HIS FINGERS FROZEN.

While walking down street yesterday afternoon, Henry Blach, of 310 North Twenty-third street, had his fingers frozen.

HIS FINGERS DROPPED OFF.

Yesterday morning one of the drivers of Anheuser-Busch Brewing company, John Friedman, had his fingers frozen.

HE WAS IN THE SNOW WHILE CROSSING TO THE BLUFFS IN THE EXCURSION OF THURSDAY LAST.

Charles White, who received a telegram yesterday morning announcing that the Bluffs had been cut off, was in the willows two miles below the city.

POOR PEOPLE WHO ARE BROUGHT IN CONTACT WITH COUNTY AGENT MAHOONEY SEEM TO MAGNIFY HIS VICES.

Yesterday afternoon a young gentleman walked into the room in the county building set apart for supplies for the poor and informed County Agent Mahoney that he had a number of children who were employed $1.50 and been raised in 50 cent subscriptions among the clerks to be devoted to the poor.

THE COLD IN OTSE COUNTY.

NENAH, Neb., Jan. 14.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The thermometer registered fifty-two below all day and last night reached twenty-two.

DEAD AND MISSING.

LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 14.—The weather has been the coldest of the season, the thermometer being down 18 below.

THE BLOCKADE AT SIOUX CITY.

SIOUX CITY, Ia., Jan. 14.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Sioux City and Pacific railroad is the only one making any attempt to get through the blockade.

THE MISGUIDED MR. MILLS.

He Assumes Too Much Importance and Makes Himself Absurd.

MAJOR PROVE A COSTLY BLUNDER.

Not Unlikely to Lose Him Prestige in the House—A Full Blooded Omaha Distinguishes Himself—Dakota Affairs.

Made a Mistake.

WASHINGTON BUREAU THE OMAHA BEE, 513 FOURTEENTH STREET, WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 14.

THE OAKLAND WRECK.

It Proves More Serious Than at First Reported. OAKLAND, Neb., Jan. 14.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The railroad accident one mile north of Craig yesterday afternoon proved to be more disastrous than at first reported.

KANSAS CITY TIMES SUED.

HENRY E. DIXEY WANTS DAMAGES FOR EVANGELIST SMALL'S FRIED. KANSAS CITY, Jan. 14.—Friday night Evangelist Sam Small preached a sermon in which he referred to Henry E. Dixey, the actor, as a "blackleg gambler who had lost $1,500 on dice in San Francisco and then squandered it."

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

FOR IOWA: Colder, followed by warmer, fair weather, brisk to high northwesterly winds, diminishing in force.

A DANGEROUS LETHARGY.

SOME POINTS FOR CONSIDERATION OF THE BOARD OF TRADE. To the Editor of the Bee: To one who will state the condition, it is needless to infer of our community in its relations to the railroads controlling the in and out freight rates upon which we so largely depend, is unaccountable and simply appalling.

NEBRASKA AND IOWA PENSIONS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The following pensions were issued to Nebraska to-day: Melissa A. Roscoe, former wife of Jacob Knauber and Joseph M. Jacob Knauber, Republican City; Joseph M. Larrabee, alias Joseph De LaBar, Omaha; Zachariah Kump, Newport, both soldiers of the Mexican war; Jedediah Clark, Seward.

ARMY NEWS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Major Frank T. Bennett, Second Cavalry, and Captain Leopold O. Parker, First Infantry, are ordered for examination by the army retiring board at San Francisco.

THE FISHERIES CONFERENCE.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The fisheries conference resumed its session this afternoon.

EXTIRPATION OF PLEURO-PNEUMONIA.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The senate committee on agriculture to-day continued its consideration of how to extirpate pleuro-pneumonia and kindred diseases among cattle.

A POSTOFFICE DISCONTINUED.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The postoffice at Alder Grove, Burd county, Nebraska, was discontinued today.

PROTESTING KNIGHTS.

NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—The dissatisfied members of the Knights of Labor of New York and vicinity have followed the example of their brethren of Chicago, Cincinnati and Philadelphia and at a mass meeting Wednesday appointed a provisional committee.

THE ICE PLANK COMPLETED.

ST. PAUL, Jan. 14.—The corner stone of the ice plank was laid to-night. There was a parade of snow-shovelers and loggers, and speeches by President Thompson, Governor McGill and Mayor Smith.

THE OMAHA PICKLE AND VINEGAR FACTORY DESTROYED.

At 3 o'clock this morning a still alarm of fire was sent in from the Omaha Pickle and Vinegar works. No. 3 engine responded, and soon a second general alarm was turned in, calling out the entire department.

LOCAL BASE BALL GOSPEL.

There has been no remarkable developments in the local base ball world during the past week, unless the filing of a protest by the association of Presbyterian ministers against Sunday games can be classed under this head.

THE LOCAL TEAM URGED POINTS ABOUT THE PLAYERS—OTHER SPORTS.

The human race want more music, as well as more brain and less brawn, and the blues, and the hand on helm, or pull, or mallet, or racket does well whether it pulls, or turns, or reaches, or strikes for success.

HEAVY E. DIXEY WANTS DAMAGES FOR EVANGELIST SMALL'S FRIED.

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 14.—Friday night Evangelist Sam Small preached a sermon in which he referred to Henry E. Dixey, the actor, as a "blackleg gambler who had lost $1,500 on dice in San Francisco and then squandered it."

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

FOR IOWA: Colder, followed by warmer, fair weather, brisk to high northwesterly winds, diminishing in force.

A DANGEROUS LETHARGY.

SOME POINTS FOR CONSIDERATION OF THE BOARD OF TRADE. To the Editor of the Bee: To one who will state the condition, it is needless to infer of our community in its relations to the railroads controlling the in and out freight rates upon which we so largely depend, is unaccountable and simply appalling.

NEBRASKA AND IOWA PENSIONS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The following pensions were issued to Nebraska to-day: Melissa A. Roscoe, former wife of Jacob Knauber and Joseph M. Jacob Knauber, Republican City; Joseph M. Larrabee, alias Joseph De LaBar, Omaha; Zachariah Kump, Newport, both soldiers of the Mexican war; Jedediah Clark, Seward.

ARMY NEWS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Major Frank T. Bennett, Second Cavalry, and Captain Leopold O. Parker, First Infantry, are ordered for examination by the army retiring board at San Francisco.

THE FISHERIES CONFERENCE.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The fisheries conference resumed its session this afternoon.

EXTIRPATION OF PLEURO-PNEUMONIA.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The senate committee on agriculture to-day continued its consideration of how to extirpate pleuro-pneumonia and kindred diseases among cattle.

A BAD BLAZE.

At 3 o'clock this morning a still alarm of fire was sent in from the Omaha Pickle and Vinegar works. No. 3 engine responded, and soon a second general alarm was turned in, calling out the entire department.

LOCAL BASE BALL GOSPEL.

There has been no remarkable developments in the local base ball world during the past week, unless the filing of a protest by the association of Presbyterian ministers against Sunday games can be classed under this head.

THE LOCAL TEAM URGED POINTS ABOUT THE PLAYERS—OTHER SPORTS.

The human race want more music, as well as more brain and less brawn, and the blues, and the hand on helm, or pull, or mallet, or racket does well whether it pulls, or turns, or reaches, or strikes for success.

HEAVY E. DIXEY WANTS DAMAGES FOR EVANGELIST SMALL'S FRIED.

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 14.—Friday night Evangelist Sam Small preached a sermon in which he referred to Henry E. Dixey, the actor, as a "blackleg gambler who had lost $1,500 on dice in San Francisco and then squandered it."

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

FOR IOWA: Colder, followed by warmer, fair weather, brisk to high northwesterly winds, diminishing in force.

A DANGEROUS LETHARGY.

SOME POINTS FOR CONSIDERATION OF THE BOARD OF TRADE. To the Editor of the Bee: To one who will state the condition, it is needless to infer of our community in its relations to the railroads controlling the in and out freight rates upon which we so largely depend, is unaccountable and simply appalling.

NEBRASKA AND IOWA PENSIONS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The following pensions were issued to Nebraska to-day: Melissa A. Roscoe, former wife of Jacob Knauber and Joseph M. Jacob Knauber, Republican City; Joseph M. Larrabee, alias Joseph De LaBar, Omaha; Zachariah Kump, Newport, both soldiers of the Mexican war; Jedediah Clark, Seward.

ARMY NEWS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Major Frank T. Bennett, Second Cavalry, and Captain Leopold O. Parker, First Infantry, are ordered for examination by the army retiring board at San Francisco.

THE FISHERIES CONFERENCE.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The fisheries conference resumed its session this afternoon.

EXTIRPATION OF PLEURO-PNEUMONIA.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The senate committee on agriculture to-day continued its consideration of how to extirpate pleuro-pneumonia and kindred diseases among cattle.

THE OMAHA PICKLE AND VINEGAR FACTORY DESTROYED.

At 3 o'clock this morning a still alarm of fire was sent in from the Omaha Pickle and Vinegar works. No. 3 engine responded, and soon a second general alarm was turned in, calling out the entire department.

LOCAL BASE BALL GOSPEL.

There has been no remarkable developments in the local base ball world during the past week, unless the filing of a protest by the association of Presbyterian ministers against Sunday games can be classed under this head.

THE LOCAL TEAM URGED POINTS ABOUT THE PLAYERS—OTHER SPORTS.

The human race want more music, as well as more brain and less brawn, and the blues, and the hand on helm, or pull, or mallet, or racket does well whether it pulls, or turns, or reaches, or strikes for success.

HEAVY E. DIXEY WANTS DAMAGES FOR EVANGELIST SMALL'S FRIED.

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 14.—Friday night Evangelist Sam Small preached a sermon in which he referred to Henry E. Dixey, the actor, as a "blackleg gambler who had lost $1,500 on dice in San Francisco and then squandered it."

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

FOR IOWA: Colder, followed by warmer, fair weather, brisk to high northwesterly winds, diminishing in force.

A DANGEROUS LETHARGY.

SOME POINTS FOR CONSIDERATION OF THE BOARD OF TRADE. To the Editor of the Bee: To one who will state the condition, it is needless to infer of our community in its relations to the railroads controlling the in and out freight rates upon which we so largely depend, is unaccountable and simply appalling.

NEBRASKA AND IOWA PENSIONS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The following pensions were issued to Nebraska to-day: Melissa A. Roscoe, former wife of Jacob Knauber and Joseph M. Jacob Knauber, Republican City; Joseph M. Larrabee, alias Joseph De LaBar, Omaha; Zachariah Kump, Newport, both soldiers of the Mexican war; Jedediah Clark, Seward.

ARMY NEWS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Major Frank T. Bennett, Second Cavalry, and Captain Leopold O. Parker, First Infantry, are ordered for examination by the army retiring board at San Francisco.

THE FISHERIES CONFERENCE.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The fisheries conference resumed its session this afternoon.

EXTIRPATION OF PLEURO-PNEUMONIA.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The senate committee on agriculture to-day continued its consideration of how to extirpate pleuro-pneumonia and kindred diseases among cattle.

BATTLE TALK OF WINTER.

No Remarkable Developments Except the Ministers' Protest. TALKING ON THE PASTIME. The Need of a Charged Catcher For the Local Team Urged—Points About the Players—Other Sports.

LOCAL BASE BALL GOSPEL.

There has been no remarkable developments in the local base ball world during the past week, unless the filing of a protest by the association of Presbyterian ministers against Sunday games can be classed under this head.

THE LOCAL TEAM URGED POINTS ABOUT THE PLAYERS—OTHER SPORTS.

The human race want more music, as well as more brain and less brawn, and the blues, and the hand on helm, or pull, or mallet, or racket does well whether it pulls, or turns, or reaches, or strikes for success.

HEAVY E. DIXEY WANTS DAMAGES FOR EVANGELIST SMALL'S FRIED.

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 14.—Friday night Evangelist Sam Small preached a sermon in which he referred to Henry E. Dixey, the actor, as a "blackleg gambler who had lost $1,500 on dice in San Francisco and then squandered it."

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

FOR IOWA: Colder, followed by warmer, fair weather, brisk to high northwesterly winds, diminishing in force.

A DANGEROUS LETHARGY.

SOME POINTS FOR CONSIDERATION OF THE BOARD OF TRADE. To the Editor of the Bee: To one who will state the condition, it is needless to infer of our community in its relations to the railroads controlling the in and out freight rates upon which we so largely depend, is unaccountable and simply appalling.

NEBRASKA AND IOWA PENSIONS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The following pensions were issued to Nebraska to-day: Melissa A. Roscoe, former wife of Jacob Knauber and Joseph M. Jacob Knauber, Republican City; Joseph M. Larrabee, alias Joseph De LaBar, Omaha; Zachariah Kump, Newport, both soldiers of the Mexican war; Jedediah Clark, Seward.

ARMY NEWS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Major Frank T. Bennett, Second Cavalry, and Captain Leopold O. Parker, First Infantry, are ordered for examination by the army retiring board at San Francisco.

THE FISHERIES CONFERENCE.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The fisheries conference resumed its session this afternoon.

EXTIRPATION OF PLEURO-PNEUMONIA.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The senate committee on agriculture to-day continued its consideration of how to extirpate pleuro-pneumonia and kindred diseases among cattle.