cod people everywhere the citizens of WestPoint applaud the signal heroism of Nebraska's teachers during the recent blizzard. Regretting sincerely our inability to suitably express our admiration of each heroine, we are pleased to tender herewith the poor solace, for all, of our sympathy in their misfortunes, and especially for Miss Etta Shattuck we enclose $12.25, collected at a school and juvenile band concert last evening. We trust that you will keep on in the good work you have inaugurated until each sufferer shall have been recompensed—as far as dollars and applause may—in full for her part so well done in the hour of peril. Could not each teacher in Nebraska well afford to contribute a dollar to the fund!

For those for whom I speak, as well as myself, I desire to again express the greatest sympathy and admiration for our heroines.

MADISON, Neb., Jan. 30.—To the Editor of the Bes: We enclose you Omaha draft for $45 and $1 in money, being the amount of con-tributions by the people of Madison yester-day to a fund to be raised for Miss Etta Shatday to a fund to be raised for Miss Etta Shat-tuck, the Holt county teacher who suffered so severely in the storm of the 12th Instant. In directing this money to be placed to the credit of the Miss Shattuck fund it must not be understood that our people fail to appreciate the splendid conduct of Miss Royce and Miss Freeman, but they are so forcibly struck with the utter helplessness of Miss Shattuck that they believe all of the sum enclosed should go to her relief.

Mr. Frank B. Hibbard sends the Ber #31, the contribution of the citizens of fryington, Neb., #25 for Miss Shattuck, #5 for Miss Royce. The list of contributions will be published to-morrow.

While we recognize and applaud the heroic acts of Misses Freeman and Royce, we think Miss Shattuck really needs the help on account of her losing both limbs and having no one to take care of her. Hoping these funds may reach a good round sum, I remain

FROM THE FIGHTING PARSON.

MT. VERNON, IA., Jan. 30,—To the Editor of the Bas: I write you from the sprightly, little town of Griswold, Ia., where I gave an an entertainment last week, and have to "try tover again" to-night. Last evening I preached to a union meeting in the Methodist church, and at the close I read from Saturday's Ber the appeal in behalf of Miss Ettle Shattuck, and then Paster Stevens and Post Commander Dickey passed the baskets. Herewith I send a draft with the "results," $12. The response was so cheerful and Post Commander Dickey passed the baskets. Herewith I send a draft with the "results," $12. The response was so cheerful and patriotic that I wished that poor suffering daughter of a disabled veteran could have witnessed it. It would have lighted up the gloom of her chamber of suffering. I hope many other pastors and post commanders may, this wock, or as soon as practicable, arrange to work together like Stevens and Dickey, "as true yoke-fellows" in this behalf. Commander Dickey is not a church member, but nobody regarded it as sacralize for him to perform this service. I imagine the repetition of such a scene in a thousand of bur churches would make the angels glad, as well as enlighten the now deeply shadowed home of our poor comrade and his terribly afflicted daughter.

You suggest that the Omaha teachers unite in our effort for their afflicted sister. Might not the Grand Army posts and teachers of Omaha very successfully combine in an effort of the kind you suggest? It seems to me that an entertainment might be gotten up; and that enough tickets could be sold at 50 cents apiece to crowd your largest audiorium. Other Nebraska cities might do likewise. In the absence of something better, I would cheerfully give one of my entertainments for this worthy object. Many Omaha comrades will remember meetings and hearing me at your state encampment. A letter will reach me at any time if addressed to my home, Mt. Vernon, Iowa; but I shall be in Nebraska the 3d, 4th, 6th and 7th of February, having engagements on those dates at Wahoo, Wisner, Wayne and Hastings 'respectively, and if I can render any service, I will be glad to do so on either the 8th or 9th before returning to fill engagements to castward.

PROM IOWA PRIENDS.

NEOLA, Ia., Jan. 30.—To the Editor of the Bee.—Enclosed please find two drafts for the Nebraska heroines. One for $10.95 in favor of Miss Etta Shattuck; one for $10 in favor of Miss Louise Royce. Please acknowledge receipt of them through the Bee, as donations from the citizens of Neola. Ia. We started this collection last Saturday morning by collecting 10 cents from every one and some gave 25 cents, with the above result. Would suggest that each town in Iowa and Nebraska try the same plan, they can no doubt do as well as we have and say that each town in Nebraska and Iowa raise $15 each and take it for granted that there are 500 towns at $15, would equal $9,000 which would be quite a sum and easily raised if anyone takes hold of it. Please note the drafts as funds from the citizens of Neola. Ia., and vicinity.

The Bee has received $6.80 from Council Bluffs, $1 for Miss Royce, $5.80 for Miss Shattuck. The following are the contributors: Dam Carrigg, Council Bluffs, $2; Charlotte Camm, Council Bluffs, $2 council Bluffs, $2 council Bluffs, $2 council Bluffs, $3 from Council Bluffs, $2 council Bluffs, $3 from Council Bluffs, $2 council Bluffs, $3 council Bluffs, $2 council Bluffs, $3 council Bluffs, $3 council Bluffs, $3 council Bluffs, $3 council Bluffs, $4 council Bluffs, $6 council Bluffs,

Those Who Have Recognized Courage and Devotion.

Every mail brings new contributions to the BEE fund and adds new names to the Roll of Honor. It is certainly gratifying to observe the interest the people are manifesting in the good work. It is true that many who are especially indebted to the cause have not yet been heard from and that a few who have contributed have given much less than they should, yet the great majority of the contributions received have been exceedingly liberal. The citizens of Nebraska owe it to themselves to see that this fund is swelled to grand proportions. The fact of the inauguration of this movement has gone abroad and followed in the wake of the fame of the beneficiaries. The people of other sections will watch with interest the manner in which the citizens of Nebraska-care for these young ladies. It will be to the credit of this state if these witnesses are startled by the generous treatment Nebras-kans accord their heroines. The Ber extends to the people in every quarter an ear nest invitation to add their mite to the fund Have you recognized courage and a devotion! Have you contributed to the BEE fund! If not come to the front and be enrolled smong the many others who have given substantial evidence of their sympathy in the cause.

Appreciative Firemen. A fund for the benefit of the storm heroines, Misses Shattuck, Royce and Freeman, has been started at the office of the chief of the fire department, and the firemen who are no strangers to privation, danger and suffering are responding with a lavish hand. The amount raised will be sent into the Beg Friday.

A Dinner. To the Editor of the BEE: Not wishing to be behind our liberal citizens in contributing be behind our liberal citizens in contributing toward the funds for our Nebraska heroines, I desire to inform your readers that on Saturday, February 4, I will give a dinner, the entire receipts thereof to be added to the funds as follows: One-half to Miss Shattuck, the other to be divided equally between Miss Freeman and Miss Royce. The menu will be very elaborate, comprising all the delacacies of the season. I should like a representative of your paper to be present during the dinner with authority to receive the money and receipt for same, so that all may know that this is not meant for a business "ad." or to catch trade.

The Three Heroines. By Lieut. C. D. Toursley. While man, poised on a point between The past and future all unseen, Pollutes with fratracidal gore The fairest scenes the sun streamed o'er, Weak woman from such strife at rest Pursues the promptings of the breast; To meekness lent and sacrifice On which rains incense from the skies The love surpassing that of woman Surpasses surely all things human.

As points the needle toward the pole, As longs for heaven each passing soul, Aspire to do a hero's part.

Kicking Up a Rumpus. The retrenchment ordered by the county commissioners in reference to salaries and the number of clerks to be employed in the respective county offices is kicking up a rumpus in the county building, and heads of departments are vigorous in their condemnation of what they term hasty action on the part of the board. By the new rules Mr. Megrath is compelled to dispense with four clerks, and yesterday was sharpening up the official axe to begin the slaughter. He also had a consultation with Chairman O'Keeffe and told him that under the present arrangements he could not conduct his effice that of ments he could not conduct his office, that of register of deeds, in justice to himself or the public. What the outcome is to be will be watched with interest by all parties inter-ested.

Stand From Under. Obstructions to prevent persons from pass ing on the walks below the embankments on all streets have been erected and danger signals are posted up. It is feared that there will be a number of casualties if this warm weather continues and that as soon as the frost goes out of the ground there will be a number of cave ins. The two banks at the corner of Sixteenth and Harney streets are considered especially dangerous.

Awaits that countless army of martyrs, whose ranks are constantly recruited from the victims of nervousness, and nervous diseases. The price of the boon is a systematic course of Hostetter's Stom-ach Bitters, the finest and most genial of tonic nervines, pursued with reasonable persistence. Easier, pleasanter and safer this than to swash the victualling department with pseudo-tonics, alco-holic or the reverse, beef extracts, nerve foods, narcotics, sedatives and poisons in disguise. "Tired Nature's sweet restorer, balmy sleep," is the providential recu-perant of weak nerves, and this glo-rious franchise being usually the conse-quences of sound digestion and increased vigor, the great stomachie which insures both, is productive also of repose at the required time. Not unrefreshed awakens the individual who uses it, but vigorous, clear headed and tranquil. Use the Bitters also in fever

The train was running at the rate of forty miles an hour. Mr. Johnson climbed out of the cab and made his way to the head light to adjust the wick. While returning he slipped and just managed to catch the rail with one hand. He hung there until religion!
