CHICAGO PRODUCE MARKET.

CHICAGO, Feb. 6 .- [Special Telegram to the BEE.]-In the wheat pit, with trifling exceptions, prices were held all morning within a limit of 14c. At the lower edge of this limit Hutchinson bought wheat for sale. At the upper edge he sold what was wanted. At a point 3c above this limit there were abundant orders to sell, and at an equal distance below there were abundant orders to buy. But the market was never permitted to touch them. The result was dullness and small business. May wheat opened at 82%c and never advanced beyond that price. Once only 82c was touched, but barely touched, and with this exception the price held between $21/c and $25/c throughout the session and closed at 1 o'clock at 821 @821 c. For March wheat 76%c was asked at the opening, and that was the nominal close at 1 o'clock. At the highest point 85% c was bid for that delivery. The war scare appears to have died out for the present. The visible supply statement of a decrease of 670,000 bushels was encouragement to the bulls, as it was considerably more than had been excted and it seemed to cause some buying, ut not enough, however, to break over the

An increase of 679,000 bushels in visible corn was considerably more than had been expected, but the greatest extent of weakexpected, but the greatest extent of weakness which could possibly be attributed to that fact was but \(\frac{1}{2} \text{c}. \) The entire range of prices during the session, with the exception of the first sales, was embraced in that figure. Trading was light. Hutchinson was buying corn moderately and so were William Dunn & Co. and Schwartz & Dupee. Boyd, Paxton & Boyd were selling. May corn opened at 52\frac{1}{2}\text{c} & 32\frac{1}{2}\text{c}, fell to 52\frac{1}{2}\text{c} and closed at 1 o'clock at 52\frac{1}{2}\text{c} & 32\frac{1}{2}\text{c}. March corn was nominally 48\frac{1}{2}\text{c}. The receipts of corn here were 203 cars and 450 cars are expected to morrow. inally 48%c. The receipts of corn here were 203 cars and 450 cars are expected to-morrow.

There was but little interest in the speculative oats market and there were but two prices. May outs opened at 33c, sold also at 32%@33c and closed at the last named price at 1 o'clock. June outs sold at 33%c.

In provisions considerable strength characterized the market. Fluctuations in the different lines were confined to a rather moderate range and the prices obtained averaged a little higher than those of Saturday. On pork an advance was established of 5c and on lard of 2½@5c. Short ribs were unchanged at the close. Trading was spasmodic and largely on local account.

APTERNOON SESSION—Wheat lower under free selling and a general absence of buyers; May opened at 82% c and fell to 81% c, closing at about 81% c. Corn lower; May opened at 52% c and fell to 52c, closing at 526 bid. Oats weak and about 1/6 lower Pork was 10c weak and about 14c lower. Pork was 10c lower; May closed at $14.47\(\)4@14.50. Lard declined 2\(\)4@5c, closing at $7.75 for February, $7.77\(\)6 for March, $7.87\(\)4@7.90 for May and $7.95 for June. Short ribs were 2\(\)4c lower; February closed at $7.55, March at $7.57\(\)4

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK.

CHICAGO, Feb. 6.- Special Telegram to the BRE.] - CATTLE-Trade was rather slow at the start. Buyers seemed to await orders, and it was late in the forenoon before any great amount of business was transacted, but after the terms of the market were settled between buyers and sellers there was a large number of cattle sold-in fact, about all went over the scales, and prices underwent little or no change as compared with the close last week. But few Texans were on close last week. But few Texans were on sale, hence there was a fair demand for native butchers' stock that would suit the city shop trade. Canning stock is as low as at any time. Dealers are anticipating a good trade in stockers and feeders for the coming week, yet transactions today were few and unimportant. Choice steers, $5.25; good, 1350 to 1500 lbs, $4.50@5.00; medium, 4.00@4.40; poor, $3.00@3.75. Stockers and feeders, $2.10@3.55; cows, bulls and mixed, $1.90@3.40; bulk, $2.10@2.40; grass steers, $2.30@3.00. Corn-fed cattle, $3.25@4.00.

Hogs—Business was fairly active all along the line, with an up turn of about 5c, in some the line, with an up turn of about 5c, in some cases 10c, yet outside of one lot of fancy that made $5.75, best heavy only made $5.60(\omega.5.75) and prime light butcher weights, say 240 to 250 lb averages, made $5.25(\omega.5.50), with light mixed at $5.10(\omega.5.20). Light assorted, averaged to the control of the c aging 160 to 170 lbs, sold at $5.10@5.15 and pigs at $4.80@4.95.

FINANCIAL.

New York, Feb. 6 .- [Special Telegram to the BEE.]-STOCKS-Stocks were scarcely more settled to-day than Saturday, but the indications are in favor of a stronger market. In most cases the opening prices were the lowest of the day and the closing figures were the best, or within a small fraction of the best. Of thirty active stocks, comparing to-day's close with Saturday's close, about half were 1/6% per cent lower and the balance 160% per cent higher. There was no marked movement either way. It was a dull and profitless day to all concerned. The market opened feverish, with evidently a very nervous feeling all around the room, which was flooded with stories of strikes and rate cutting at home and war talk in Europe. Private cables announced that Bismarck's address advocated peace, and this tended to strengthen foreign markets, and when quotations arrived they did show some increased firmness. Traders hammered stocks without much success. London advices show that the market for securities has been subjected to a strain, but the latest phase of the feel ing is one of more confidence, with some rally in prices. The total sales were 159,000

OMAHA LIVE STOCK.

Cattle. Monday, Feb. 6, 1888. The receipts of cattle were very light and the number sold on the market was lim-ited. If buyers desire to purchase cattle on this market a demand of something like ordinary prices paid on other markets, must be created. Judging from the sales made prices are about steady although it is an extremely difficult matter to quote anything in the present condition of affairs.

As is usual on Monday the receipts were light. Prices on some grades were at least 10c higher but this advance was owing to light receipts and the fact that buyers were anxious to fill their orders, which action salesmen took advantage of and bulled prices.
Had the receipts been heavier the market would have in all probability been about steady with Saturdday or possibly 5c higher.
