

TAKES TOO MUCH FIRE WATER

Mayor Sawyer's Charges Against Chief Newbury of Lincoln.

AN INVESTIGATION BEING MADE.

Storm Water Sewerage to Be Put In—A Train Load of Insane People—County Division Called For.

[FROM THE BEE'S LINCOLN BUREAU.] The mayor has his war paint on and is after Chief Newbury, of the fire department. At the last session of the council the mayor stated that he had seen the warden the worse for whisky and that prior to their visit to the Omaha jail he had asked the resignation of Mr. Newbury, but that, under the promise of total abstinence, he had allowed him to remain in office. Since that time he had evidence that the warden was not keeping his pledge and he recommended that his services be dispensed with. The question was referred to the fire committee to investigate and report at the next meeting. The mayor, in presenting the complaint to the council, was making inquiries of certain citizens after evidence against the warden and the investigation will undoubtedly develop just how much there is in the charges. Mr. Newbury has certainly built up the Lincoln fire department to one of the most efficient in the west and if the city decides to dispense with him it will be a very difficult task to secure his equal in department work; which will make many wish that inquiry will show the charges not well founded.

STORM WATER SEWERAGE. The city is evidently experiencing a change of heart on the question of storm water sewerage. When an election was held last summer to provide for a system it was in the midst of the paving controversy and the asphalt men turned in, with every evidence of a spirit of revenge, and defeated the sewerage. Since then it has been pointed out that a system of sewerage to convey surface water from the streets is a certain necessity in a city so nearly on a level as Lincoln. At the last session of the city council the city engineer presented the question of the sewerage again and presented a plan for a system that would protect private property and protect the paving—that has already been laid. The cost of the system as proposed by the city engineer would be about $25,000 and the city would be restricted through the business center from Sixth street to Tenth and from J to Q streets. The council instructed the engineer and city attorney to draft an ordinance providing for a levy to meet the expense of the sewerage.

A QUAKER TRAIN LOAD. A somewhat remarkable train will leave this city this morning at 9 o'clock over the Union Pacific. The train will be a special, comprising two coaches and a baggage car, and it will contain ninety-eight insane patients from the state asylum here, who are being transferred to the new hospital at Norfolk. The special train has been prepared for their comfort and safety and it will run to Valley on the Lincoln branch, thence over the main line to Columbus and over the Norfolk branch to Norfolk. Dr. Kelley, superintendent of the Norfolk asylum, arrived to-day with six assistants, and Dr. Knapp, of the asylum here, with four experienced men, will accompany the patients to their new home. It is expected by the superintendent that with the ten assistants the transfer can be made with perfect safety and without trouble. The ninety-eight patients selected for the new asylum comprise both the harmless and the violent, but they have been selected with regard to their particular degree of insanity, but wholly from counties in the vicinity of the new hospital. The special train will be the first one in the state wholly devoted to the transportation of the insane and its trip will be noted with a great deal of interest along the route. The transfer of these patients is the opening of the new asylum for inmates and it will relieve the hospital here, which has had to refuse patients for want of room. Counties that have hitherto been unable to place in jail pending the completion of the Norfolk asylum will appreciate this movement, that means relief for them.

TO DIVIDE HOLT COUNTY. Doolittle Bros., of Atkinson, Holt county, have the honor of presenting to the general a map outlining a proposed division of Holt county into four counties, two of the new ones to be called Elkhorn and Union counties in the plan, leaving O'Neill City in Holt county, putting Atkinson in Union county and Ewing in Elkhorn county. A portion of the old county lying on the northwest, the parties advocating a division want to join with the unorganized territory across the Niobrara river and the attorney general has been asked if this can be done.

A GROCERS FAILURE. The stock of the Enterprise grocery owned by G. W. Rummel, has been taken possession of by creditors. Plumer, Perry & Co., in possession of the stock under a chattel mortgage for $1,500, and there is an additional chattel mortgage on the stock for $500, held by Henry Schmidt. Besides these claims there are up to date eleven attachments in various amounts taken out against the stock through Justice Cochran's office, where the papers have been issued.

STATE VETERINARY ASSOCIATION. A number of veterinarians have been considering the advisability of a state association, and to secure that end the following circular has been issued as a call for the meeting for organization and one will be forwarded to each known veterinarian in the state.

LINCOLN, Neb., Feb. 14, 1888.—Dear Sir: After the deliberation of the undersigned deem it advisable to organize a State Veterinary association for the purpose of cultivating a fraternal feeling among veterinarians, and promoting the interests and general welfare of the profession by scientific discussion. Arrangements will be made for a meeting at the Paxton hotel, Omaha, Neb., on Thursday, March 1, 1888. Hoping that you will attend, we remain, very respectfully yours,

L. RAMACCIOTTI, D. V. S. J. GERTH, JR., D. V. S. SUPREME COURT PROCEEDINGS. In the supreme court yesterday Henry C. Hitt, of Dodge county, was admitted to practice. The following cases were argued and submitted: Forney vs Fremont, Elkhorn & Missouri Valley railroad company; Means vs Webster; Berggren vs Fremont, Elkhorn & Missouri Valley railroad company; State ex rel W. W. Cemetery association vs Harding; Kottmann vs Bartling, information, submitted.

CITY BRIEFS. There is in the city at the present time, from a careful estimate, 116 miles of sidewalk, and at the last session of the council the office of sidewalk inspector was created, the salary to be $75 per month. The appointment has not yet been made. To fill the office of sealer of weights and measures V. H. Dyer has been appointed and confirmed. One of the questions that confronts the council is that of paving before the different churches in the city that are located in the paving districts. To settle the question a committee has been appointed to confer with the churches. The charter for the lodge of Elks in this city is expected in a few days, when the Omaha Elks will be down to institute the lodge here. At a recent meeting the charter members elected the following officers: Frank Zerung, ruler; R. H. Townley, leading knight; Malcolm McKinnon, royal knight; C. E. Magdon, lecturing knight; W. P. Hois-kell, tyler; A. E. Hargreaves, treasurer; A. B. Smith, secretary; J. H. Harley, C. C. Burr, Frank Sheldon, trustees.

The prohibition state convention, which assembled in this city to-morrow, will meet in the new hall in Bohannan's block instead of in Temple hall, as previously announced. The local thirty party people predict a large attendance. The girl, Etta Davis, at the Opelt hotel, who attempted suicide by taking morphine, is rapidly recovering and the people at the house have raised a purse sufficient to cover her expenses on a journey to her home in Indiana. E. J. Hergen, proprietor of the Capital hotel, has had a long series of throat difficulties almost the entire winter and is again confined to his room with the same disease. Major John C. Watson, ex-sheriff; W. T. Canada and Frank T. Ransom were a quartette of Nebraska City people at the Capital hotel yesterday. The work of furnishing the room of the Lincoln Press club, located in the opera house block, is progressing finely. J. E. Miller furnishes a handsome velvet carpet for the floor and Messrs. Hardy & Pitcher the tables and chairs. The newspaper men in the city will not fail to appreciate these very liberal courtesies extended them.

Divorces continue to be objects of supplication in the district court, the two latest additions being Sarah Kelley vs. James Kelley for habitual drunkenness, and Bertie Moore vs. William Moor for excessive cruelty, threatening her life and failure to support her. This latter couple were married in Omaha in 1881. Isaac Oppenheimer, who has been out of business since his return from the trading post in the Indian territory, has formed a partnership with C. C. Pace and with parties in the east, and the new firm will do a wholesale and retail commission business. Early yesterday morning the cottage of Robert Dolan, on Thirtieth and R street, was discovered on fire, and as it lies eighteen blocks beyond the fire limits the city department could render no assistance and the building was lost. Only a small amount of insurance is reported on the building. Two great enemies—Hood's Sarsaparilla and impure blood. The latter is utterly defeated by the peculiar medicine.

SOUTH OMAHA NEWS. A. D. Wilson, of Logan, Ia., brought in one car of cattle. B. McBride, of Loveland, Ia., is on the market with a car of cattle. Charles Carr, of David City, is on the market with a car of hogs. S. A. Myers, of Myers & Crownover, Benedict, is with a car of hogs. Only one rag was accommodated at the lock-up and he swept the floor and tended the fire for a night's lodging. Preparations are now being made for a more extensive building trade than ever, and the coming summer promises to be a busy one. About forty members of the South Omaha lodge of Odd Fellows, and a few of their friends, were invited to the Belmont Monday night. The dinner was good, and so was the time they had. Mrs. Ora Cunningham, whose husband was killed by falling over an embankment last summer, is in rather poor circumstances, and charitably disposed persons wishing to aid her can notify Councilman Loeschner. The Exchange hotel guests yesterday were: C. T. McKenney, Lyons, Ia.; A. Agrun, Hillsdale, Neb.; John Knox, Palmyra, Neb.; J. M. Munroe, Chicago, Ill.; William Donerty, Hawthorne, Iowa; Martin Dur-rall, Tekamah, Neb. The standing committee appointed by Mayor Savage to investigate the working of the present system of licensing has been heard at work and will probably report next council meeting. The result of their labor is anxiously awaited by those interested. The building on O street wrecked last fall still hangs threateningly over the roadway, and should be removed or repaired before the March winds blow. If it isn't, the city may have another law suit on hand. At the same time the lumber office should be moved back to the line of the street. Some time ago Mrs. Walldredge rented a house from one of the local agents, but by some mistake was shown through the wrong house. She was satisfied with it and moved in, but two weeks later was astonished to receive a call from the owner, who demanded by what right she was there. Explanations followed, and she vacated the house, but refused to pay for the two weeks rent as the expense of moving more than balanced it. Suit was brought before Justice Levy to recover the amount and was continued eight days.

FALLS VIEW was unknown until created by the Michigan Central Railroad, which stops its trains at this point to enable its passengers to enjoy the grandest view of the city and the view of the falls that is to be anywhere obtained. Before that time people came in carriages from the American side to "Inspiration Point," the view from which Howells said was "unequaled for sublimity." Falls View, being more elevated, the scene from it is much finer. No other road runs to or near this point, and through passengers by the Michigan Central, "The Niagara Falls Route," have this great advantage without detention or additional expense.

Bricklayers' Wages. The boss masons of this city have engaged convenient rooms in the Paxton building, Sixteenth and Farnam streets, and yesterday afternoon held an important meeting upon the question of wages during the coming summer. There were present besides the committee appointed for the purpose by the boss masons association, a committee from the bricklayers' union. Both of these committees met about a week ago. The latter presented a scale of prices which the bricklayers' union desired to govern during the coming season. It was considered carefully by the representatives of the boss and by the president of the latter organization. At the last meeting of the bricklayers' union, the committee appointed by their reported progress.

Matrimonial. At St. Philomena's cathedral yesterday morning at 8 o'clock, Mr. Daniel Ryan and Miss Katie Hogan, both of this city, were united in marriage by Father McCarthy. A number of friends were present to officiate at the ceremony. Miss McDonough acted as bridesmaid and Mr.

John Hogan attended the room. The young couple have a large circle of friends in the city who join in wishing them a long and happy life.
