

LONSDALE'S ILLICIT LOVE

Violent Cameron's Manager on the Witness Stand.

AN ENTERTAINING EXAMINATION.

Some Very Cold Facts Brought Out Regarding His Relations With the English Actress—Mrs. June's Reception.

Some Scandalous Admissions.

Copyright 1888 by James Gordon Bennett. LONDON, Feb. 17.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to the Bee.]—Toujours terrible—once more to the Bee!—Toujours terrible—once more to the Bee!—Toujours terrible—once more to the Bee!

ENFORCING THE LIQUOR LAW

Aurora Offenders Made to Pay Some Heavy Fines.

M'COOK PRESSING HER CLAIMS.

She Sends a Delegation to Washington—Midland Pacific Bonds Repudiated—Death of a Republican Leader—State News.

After the Liquor Dealers.

AURORA, Neb., Feb. 17.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—This session of Judge Norval's court is attracting great attention here. The trials, as they are termed, are to-day and several of them were disposed of. In the appeal case of Emil Svarre, the drug-gist, the appeal was dismissed and the decision of the police court fining him $100 was sustained. In addition there were five other counts against him in which he confessed judgment to one and in the others the district attorney entered a nolle. His fine in the last instance was fixed at $235, making the aggregate $325 and costs, swelling the grand total to between $400 and $500.

Midland Pacific Bonds Repudiated.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The city council last night passed several important measures. Some time ago the council granted a right of way to the Rock Island railroad company through Third street with the expectation that the company would use the franchise before now. As the matter now stands, property-owners on that street, not knowing what the company will do, cannot sell their property or even rent it at an advantage. A proposition was made for paying soon to come up and the city wants to know what is to be done with the street in view of these facts. The city attorney was instructed to prepare an ordinance repealing the former ordinance, granting the right of way through the street. This will be done and on the 22nd the company to either use the street or give it up.

Death of a Republican.

MADRID, Neb., Feb. 17.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—B. F. Brown, a former prominent republican politician of Gage county, this state, and county clerk of the newly organized county of Adams died at his home near this place this evening. He was seized with an epileptic fit in the form of convulsions, at 4 p. m., and gradually passed into a state of coma, ending in death at 6 p. m. His death will probably have an important bearing on the county seat question, as he was waged with great bitterness in this county.

A Farmer's Suicide.

MEAD, Neb., Feb. 17.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Augustus Mead, a farmer, was shot and killed at his home, three miles southwest of Mead, to-day by hanging. No cause for the deed is known. He was a respectable Swede farmer in good circumstances and leaves a large family. An inquest will be held by Coroner Stone, of this place, to-night.

Stock Cremated.

BEATRICE, Neb., Feb. 17.—The large cattle barns of O. L. Thompson, a dayman living three miles west of here, were burned last night. Forty cows and five horses were burned. The fire is believed to be of incendiary origin, and inflicts a crushing loss on Mr. Thompson.

Mayor O'Brien.

OUTRAGED MANNER IN WHICH CORK'S CHIEF MAGISTRATE WAS CONVICTED. [Copyright 1888 by James Gordon Bennett.] COUS, Feb. 16.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to the Bee.]—It has been arranged to-day that James C. Flynn, M. P., for the north division of this city, shall to-morrow be the common assize with Mr. John O'Brien, who was sentenced to fourteen days imprisonment for what at the most is a technical misdemeanor, put into prison uniform by force. His case has been overshadowed by Thomas Gilbooly and Pynes, but really is one exceedingly more oppressive than any yet. He was the main prosecutor of the governor of the jail for indecency with young girls, the governor escaping on the cowardly

THE WESTERN ASSOCIATION

Doubts as to Whether Kansas City Will Be Represented.

A LEGAL FIGHT IN PROSPECT

The American Management Believed to Have the Inside Track at Present—The Omaha Directors Meet.

Kansas City's Base Ball Fight.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Feb. 17.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The directors of the Kansas City Western association club will be well represented by a number of its members at the annual meeting of the American management to be held here to-day. There is no doubt that the old Kansas City base ball association, which now owns the American association franchise, occupied the field first and has the inside track. When the matter comes up before the arbitration committee in New York next month the American association will be well represented by legal talent and will try to force the Western association out under the five-mile rule. Whether it can or not depends on Spaulding. He is a Western association man and if he makes a fight for Kansas City the club will stick, for Spaulding's word is law in base ball circles. Otherwise it will have to go.

How a Road-Agent Agreed Not to Molest a Stage Company.

PIERRE, Dak., special: The singular freedom enjoyed by the Northwestern Stage & Transportation company from road agents during the early days of its existence when the trail led from Bismarck to Deadwood, was a welcome fact which many a weary traveler in search of the land of promise can cheerfully testify to, but nevertheless it was a source of much speculation as to how the immunity granted the line was to be accounted for. The story was held up on nearly every trip, messengers killed, and passengers robbed.

Hamm Defeats McKay.

PALATKA, Fla., Feb. 17.—Hamm and McKay rowed over a three and a half mile course here this afternoon. Hamm beat McKay by a half length in 22 minutes and 12 seconds. Teemer is ill.

Meeting of Base Ball Directors.

The directors of the Omaha base ball club met at President McCormick's office yesterday afternoon. Present, Messrs. McCord, McKnight, Hardin, Phillips, Morrison and Worley. The matter of the score card privilege was first brought up, and John Rawlins was named as the referee for the payment of his bid, the bid of R. E. McKelver, the next highest bidder, was $100. The referee was authorized to correspond with Manager Selee with reference to train uniforms, to be purchased of Wright & Ditson, of Boston.

City League Meeting.

A meeting of the city base ball league was held at Penrose & Hardin's sporting head quarters last evening. Representatives of the Crane Brothers Manufacturing company, C. E. Mayne, Metz Brothers, Penrose & Hardin, South Omaha and Richardson Drug company were present. H. A. Penrose, the president, made a motion, which was carried, that the league embrace but six clubs on each trip, about 100 yards extra put up or before the 1st day of March, upon which day the clubs be named from those having deposited with the secretary the necessary amount of money to cover a two-thirds vote.

Local Sporting Notes.

George J. Small and W. E. Nason, of the Leflore club, will play a billiard match, "Splice" Kennedy will shoot a blue rock match, 25 balls each, on the Omaha Gun club grounds. A benefit for Henry Miller at the Grand opera house this evening promises to be a roving affair. The programme is a very attractive one and there is every assurance of a large attendance. Pat Killen will arrive in Omaha this morning and will be the guest of Ed Rothery during his stay in the city.

Got Even With Gross.

A Contractor's Ping Hat and Overcoat Captured by Creditors. Fred Gross, who was thrashed by Attorney Ed Crowell last week for insulting a respectable young lady, is again in trouble. This time it is over an execution that has been served on him. Fred is a contractor for grading, and it is said that he has failed to pay a number of workmen whom he employs on his grading. Some of these workmen have been living in tents in the outskirts of the city all the winter and have suffered greatly because they could not collect their wages. They have been without coal and other necessities of life. A number of judgments have been issued against Gross, but he has not paid them. The creditors of Gross' poor creditors appealed greatly to Ed's sympathies and he determined to head the contractor off in some manner. Gross was a slinking pug and elegant fur overcoat, and Ed, finding he could not get hold of any other property belonging to Gross, determined to seize these. Accordingly the Gross was sitting supper at Lewis' sixteenth street restaurant, Ed quietly took possession of Gross' pug and overcoat, and the Gross, charging the contractor, offered no resistance to the seizure, however, as he found Ed very determined. The coat and hat have been advertised for sale by the sheriff, and will be knocked down to the highest bidder to-morrow. Yesterday Gross appeared on the street with a 25-cent summer hat, and, as a witty young attorney expressed it, has "thinking God that the weather was favorable to the shorn lamb." Of late Gross has been advertising himself as a loan agent.

A Dusky Lover's Revenge.

Ed Moore tries to kill Lizzie Porter because she jilted him. Ed Moore, a negro, was arrested last night for attempting to kill Lizzie Porter, the dusky object of his affections. Ed is desperately in love with Lizzie, but she fails to reciprocate, and his attentions have been annoying to her. They both had been employed at the same place, and on his account she finally left yesterday. Last night he hunted her up, and told her if she would not marry him he would kill her. She refused, however, and the drew his revolver when Fred Warren happened to appear on the scene. Warren rushed up to Moore and pulled his gun on the negro, who was so frightened for just at that moment Moore pulled the trigger and the bullet was imbedded in the wall just above Lizzie's head. Moore then crossed the link in the street and fell into the arms of Officer McGrath, who took him to the central station.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

When baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a woman, she clung to Castoria. When she had children, she gave them Castoria.

THE WESTERN ASSOCIATION

Doubts as to Whether Kansas City Will Be Represented.

A LEGAL FIGHT IN PROSPECT

The American Management Believed to Have the Inside Track at Present—The Omaha Directors Meet.

Kansas City's Base Ball Fight.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Feb. 17.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The directors of the Kansas City Western association club will be well represented by a number of its members at the annual meeting of the American management to be held here to-day. There is no doubt that the old Kansas City base ball association, which now owns the American association franchise, occupied the field first and has the inside track. When the matter comes up before the arbitration committee in New York next month the American association will be well represented by legal talent and will try to force the Western association out under the five-mile rule. Whether it can or not depends on Spaulding. He is a Western association man and if he makes a fight for Kansas City the club will stick, for Spaulding's word is law in base ball circles. Otherwise it will have to go.

How a Road-Agent Agreed Not to Molest a Stage Company.

PIERRE, Dak., special: The singular freedom enjoyed by the Northwestern Stage & Transportation company from road agents during the early days of its existence when the trail led from Bismarck to Deadwood, was a welcome fact which many a weary traveler in search of the land of promise can cheerfully testify to, but nevertheless it was a source of much speculation as to how the immunity granted the line was to be accounted for. The story was held up on nearly every trip, messengers killed, and passengers robbed.

Hamm Defeats McKay.

PALATKA, Fla., Feb. 17.—Hamm and McKay rowed over a three and a half mile course here this afternoon. Hamm beat McKay by a half length in 22 minutes and 12 seconds. Teemer is ill.

Meeting of Base Ball Directors.

The directors of the Omaha base ball club met at President McCormick's office yesterday afternoon. Present, Messrs. McCord, McKnight, Hardin, Phillips, Morrison and Worley. The matter of the score card privilege was first brought up, and John Rawlins was named as the referee for the payment of his bid, the bid of R. E. McKelver, the next highest bidder, was $100. The referee was authorized to correspond with Manager Selee with reference to train uniforms, to be purchased of Wright & Ditson, of Boston.

City League Meeting.

A meeting of the city base ball league was held at Penrose & Hardin's sporting head quarters last evening. Representatives of the Crane Brothers Manufacturing company, C. E. Mayne, Metz Brothers, Penrose & Hardin, South Omaha and Richardson Drug company were present. H. A. Penrose, the president, made a motion, which was carried, that the league embrace but six clubs on each trip, about 100 yards extra put up or before the 1st day of March, upon which day the clubs be named from those having deposited with the secretary the necessary amount of money to cover a two-thirds vote.

Local Sporting Notes.

George J. Small and W. E. Nason, of the Leflore club, will play a billiard match, "Splice" Kennedy will shoot a blue rock match, 25 balls each, on the Omaha Gun club grounds. A benefit for Henry Miller at the Grand opera house this evening promises to be a roving affair. The programme is a very attractive one and there is every assurance of a large attendance. Pat Killen will arrive in Omaha this morning and will be the guest of Ed Rothery during his stay in the city.

Got Even With Gross.

A Contractor's Ping Hat and Overcoat Captured by Creditors. Fred Gross, who was thrashed by Attorney Ed Crowell last week for insulting a respectable young lady, is again in trouble. This time it is over an execution that has been served on him. Fred is a contractor for grading, and it is said that he has failed to pay a number of workmen whom he employs on his grading. Some of these workmen have been living in tents in the outskirts of the city all the winter and have suffered greatly because they could not collect their wages. They have been without coal and other necessities of life. A number of judgments have been issued against Gross, but he has not paid them. The creditors of Gross' poor creditors appealed greatly to Ed's sympathies and he determined to head the contractor off in some manner. Gross was a slinking pug and elegant fur overcoat, and Ed, finding he could not get hold of any other property belonging to Gross, determined to seize these. Accordingly the Gross was sitting supper at Lewis' sixteenth street restaurant, Ed quietly took possession of Gross' pug and overcoat, and the Gross, charging the contractor, offered no resistance to the seizure, however, as he found Ed very determined. The coat and hat have been advertised for sale by the sheriff, and will be knocked down to the highest bidder to-morrow. Yesterday Gross appeared on the street with a 25-cent summer hat, and, as a witty young attorney expressed it, has "thinking God that the weather was favorable to the shorn lamb." Of late Gross has been advertising himself as a loan agent.

A Dusky Lover's Revenge.

Ed Moore tries to kill Lizzie Porter because she jilted him. Ed Moore, a negro, was arrested last night for attempting to kill Lizzie Porter, the dusky object of his affections. Ed is desperately in love with Lizzie, but she fails to reciprocate, and his attentions have been annoying to her. They both had been employed at the same place, and on his account she finally left yesterday. Last night he hunted her up, and told her if she would not marry him he would kill her. She refused, however, and the drew his revolver when Fred Warren happened to appear on the scene. Warren rushed up to Moore and pulled his gun on the negro, who was so frightened for just at that moment Moore pulled the trigger and the bullet was imbedded in the wall just above Lizzie's head. Moore then crossed the link in the street and fell into the arms of Officer McGrath, who took him to the central station.

THE WESTERN ASSOCIATION

Doubts as to Whether Kansas City Will Be Represented.

A LEGAL FIGHT IN PROSPECT

The American Management Believed to Have the Inside Track at Present—The Omaha Directors Meet.

Kansas City's Base Ball Fight.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Feb. 17.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The directors of the Kansas City Western association club will be well represented by a number of its members at the annual meeting of the American management to be held here to-day. There is no doubt that the old Kansas City base ball association, which now owns the American association franchise, occupied the field first and has the inside track. When the matter comes up before the arbitration committee in New York next month the American association will be well represented by legal talent and will try to force the Western association out under the five-mile rule. Whether it can or not depends on Spaulding. He is a Western association man and if he makes a fight for Kansas City the club will stick, for Spaulding's word is law in base ball circles. Otherwise it will have to go.

How a Road-Agent Agreed Not to Molest a Stage Company.

PIERRE, Dak., special: The singular freedom enjoyed by the Northwestern Stage & Transportation company from road agents during the early days of its existence when the trail led from Bismarck to Deadwood, was a welcome fact which many a weary traveler in search of the land of promise can cheerfully testify to, but nevertheless it was a source of much speculation as to how the immunity granted the line was to be accounted for. The story was held up on nearly every trip, messengers killed, and passengers robbed.

Hamm Defeats McKay.

PALATKA, Fla., Feb. 17.—Hamm and McKay rowed over a three and a half mile course here this afternoon. Hamm beat McKay by a half length in 22 minutes and 12 seconds. Teemer is ill.

Meeting of Base Ball Directors.

The directors of the Omaha base ball club met at President McCormick's office yesterday afternoon. Present, Messrs. McCord, McKnight, Hardin, Phillips, Morrison and Worley. The matter of the score card privilege was first brought up, and John Rawlins was named as the referee for the payment of his bid, the bid of R. E. McKelver, the next highest bidder, was $100. The referee was authorized to correspond with Manager Selee with reference to train uniforms, to be purchased of Wright & Ditson, of Boston.

City League Meeting.

A meeting of the city base ball league was held at Penrose & Hardin's sporting head quarters last evening. Representatives of the Crane Brothers Manufacturing company, C. E. Mayne, Metz Brothers, Penrose & Hardin, South Omaha and Richardson Drug company were present. H. A. Penrose, the president, made a motion, which was carried, that the league embrace but six clubs on each trip, about 100 yards extra put up or before the 1st day of March, upon which day the clubs be named from those having deposited with the secretary the necessary amount of money to cover a two-thirds vote.

Local Sporting Notes.

George J. Small and W. E. Nason, of the Leflore club, will play a billiard match, "Splice" Kennedy will shoot a blue rock match, 25 balls each, on the Omaha Gun club grounds. A benefit for Henry Miller at the Grand opera house this evening promises to be a roving affair. The programme is a very attractive one and there is every assurance of a large attendance. Pat Killen will arrive in Omaha this morning and will be the guest of Ed Rothery during his stay in the city.

Got Even With Gross.

A Contractor's Ping Hat and Overcoat Captured by Creditors. Fred Gross, who was thrashed by Attorney Ed Crowell last week for insulting a respectable young lady, is again in trouble. This time it is over an execution that has been served on him. Fred is a contractor for grading, and it is said that he has failed to pay a number of workmen whom he employs on his grading. Some of these workmen have been living in tents in the outskirts of the city all the winter and have suffered greatly because they could not collect their wages. They have been without coal and other necessities of life. A number of judgments have been issued against Gross, but he has not paid them. The creditors of Gross' poor creditors appealed greatly to Ed's sympathies and he determined to head the contractor off in some manner. Gross was a slinking pug and elegant fur overcoat, and Ed, finding he could not get hold of any other property belonging to Gross, determined to seize these. Accordingly the Gross was sitting supper at Lewis' sixteenth street restaurant, Ed quietly took possession of Gross' pug and overcoat, and the Gross, charging the contractor, offered no resistance to the seizure, however, as he found Ed very determined. The coat and hat have been advertised for sale by the sheriff, and will be knocked down to the highest bidder to-morrow. Yesterday Gross appeared on the street with a 25-cent summer hat, and, as a witty young attorney expressed it, has "thinking God that the weather was favorable to the shorn lamb." Of late Gross has been advertising himself as a loan agent.

A Dusky Lover's Revenge.

Ed Moore tries to kill Lizzie Porter because she jilted him. Ed Moore, a negro, was arrested last night for attempting to kill Lizzie Porter, the dusky object of his affections. Ed is desperately in love with Lizzie, but she fails to reciprocate, and his attentions have been annoying to her. They both had been employed at the same place, and on his account she finally left yesterday. Last night he hunted her up, and told her if she would not marry him he would kill her. She refused, however, and the drew his revolver when Fred Warren happened to appear on the scene. Warren rushed up to Moore and pulled his gun on the negro, who was so frightened for just at that moment Moore pulled the trigger and the bullet was imbedded in the wall just above Lizzie's head. Moore then crossed the link in the street and fell into the arms of Officer McGrath, who took him to the central station.

THE WESTERN ASSOCIATION

Doubts as to Whether Kansas City Will Be Represented.

A LEGAL FIGHT IN PROSPECT

The American Management Believed to Have the Inside Track at Present—The Omaha Directors Meet.

Kansas City's Base Ball Fight.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Feb. 17.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The directors of the Kansas City Western association club will be well represented by a number of its members at the annual meeting of the American management to be held here to-day. There is no doubt that the old Kansas City base ball association, which now owns the American association franchise, occupied the field first and has the inside track. When the matter comes up before the arbitration committee in New York next month the American association will be well represented by legal talent and will try to force the Western association out under the five-mile rule. Whether it can or not depends on Spaulding. He is a Western association man and if he makes a fight for Kansas City the club will stick, for Spaulding's word is law in base ball circles. Otherwise it will have to go.

How a Road-Agent Agreed Not to Molest a Stage Company.

PIERRE, Dak., special: The singular freedom enjoyed by the Northwestern Stage & Transportation company from road agents during the early days of its existence when the trail led from Bismarck to Deadwood, was a welcome fact which many a weary traveler in search of the land of promise can cheerfully testify to, but nevertheless it was a source of much speculation as to how the immunity granted the line was to be accounted for. The story was held up on nearly every trip, messengers killed, and passengers robbed.

Hamm Defeats McKay.

PALATKA, Fla., Feb. 17.—Hamm and McKay rowed over a three and a half mile course here this afternoon. Hamm beat McKay by a half length in 22 minutes and 12 seconds. Teemer is ill.

Meeting of Base Ball Directors.

The directors of the Omaha base ball club met at President McCormick's office yesterday afternoon. Present, Messrs. McCord, McKnight, Hardin, Phillips, Morrison and Worley. The matter of the score card privilege was first brought up, and John Rawlins was named as the referee for the payment of his bid, the bid of R. E. McKelver, the next highest bidder, was $100. The referee was authorized to correspond with Manager Selee with reference to train uniforms, to be purchased of Wright & Ditson, of Boston.

City League Meeting.

A meeting of the city base ball league was held at Penrose & Hardin's sporting head quarters last evening. Representatives of the Crane Brothers Manufacturing company, C. E. Mayne, Metz Brothers, Penrose & Hardin, South Omaha and Richardson Drug company were present. H. A. Penrose, the president, made a motion, which was carried, that the league embrace but six clubs on each trip, about 100 yards extra put up or before the 1st day of March, upon which day the clubs be named from those having deposited with the secretary the necessary amount of money to cover a two-thirds vote.

Local Sporting Notes.

George J. Small and W. E. Nason, of the Leflore club, will play a billiard match, "Splice" Kennedy will shoot a blue rock match, 25 balls each, on the Omaha Gun club grounds. A benefit for Henry Miller at the Grand opera house this evening promises to be a roving affair. The programme is a very attractive one and there is every assurance of a large attendance. Pat Killen will arrive in Omaha this morning and will be the guest of Ed Rothery during his stay in the city.

Got Even With Gross.

A Contractor's Ping Hat and Overcoat Captured by Creditors. Fred Gross, who was thrashed by Attorney Ed Crowell last week for insulting a respectable young lady, is again in trouble. This time it is over an execution that has been served on him. Fred is a contractor for grading, and it is said that he has failed to pay a number of workmen whom he employs on his grading. Some of these workmen have been living in tents in the outskirts of the city all the winter and have suffered greatly because they could not collect their wages. They have been without coal and other necessities of life. A number of judgments have been issued against Gross, but he has not paid them. The creditors of Gross' poor creditors appealed greatly to Ed's sympathies and he determined to head the contractor off in some manner. Gross was a slinking pug and elegant fur overcoat, and Ed, finding he could not get hold of any other property belonging to Gross, determined to seize these. Accordingly the Gross was sitting supper at Lewis' sixteenth street restaurant, Ed quietly took possession of Gross' pug and overcoat, and the Gross, charging the contractor, offered no resistance to the seizure, however, as he found Ed very determined. The coat and hat have been advertised for sale by the sheriff, and will be knocked down to the highest bidder to-morrow. Yesterday Gross appeared on the street with a 25-cent summer hat, and, as a witty young attorney expressed it, has "thinking God that the weather was favorable to the shorn lamb." Of late Gross has been advertising himself as a loan agent.

A Dusky Lover's Revenge.

Ed Moore tries to kill Lizzie Porter because she jilted him. Ed Moore, a negro, was arrested last night for attempting to kill Lizzie Porter, the dusky object of his affections. Ed is desperately in love with Lizzie, but she fails to reciprocate, and his attentions have been annoying to her. They both had been employed at the same place, and on his account she finally left yesterday. Last night he hunted her up, and told her if she would not marry him he would kill her. She refused, however, and the drew his revolver when Fred Warren happened to appear on the scene. Warren rushed up to Moore and pulled his gun on the negro, who was so frightened for just at that moment Moore pulled the trigger and the bullet was imbedded in the wall just above Lizzie's head. Moore then crossed the link in the street and fell into the arms of Officer McGrath, who took him to the central station.

THE WESTERN ASSOCIATION

Doubts as to Whether Kansas City Will Be Represented.

A LEGAL FIGHT IN PROSPECT

The American Management Believed to Have the Inside Track at Present—The Omaha Directors Meet.

Kansas City's Base Ball Fight.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Feb. 17.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The directors of the Kansas City Western association club will be well represented by a number of its members at the annual meeting of the American management to be held here to-day. There is no doubt that the old Kansas City base ball association, which now owns the American association franchise, occupied the field first and has the inside track. When the matter comes up before the arbitration committee in New York next month the American association will be well represented by legal talent and will try to force the Western association out under the five-mile rule. Whether it can or not depends on Spaulding. He is a Western association man and if he makes a fight for Kansas City the club will stick, for Spaulding's word is law in base ball circles. Otherwise it will have to go.

How a Road-Agent Agreed Not to Molest a Stage Company.

PIERRE, Dak., special: The singular freedom enjoyed by the Northwestern Stage & Transportation company from road agents during the early days of its existence when the trail led from Bismarck to Deadwood, was a welcome fact which many a weary traveler in search of the land of promise can cheerfully testify to, but nevertheless it was a source of much speculation as to how the immunity granted the line was to be accounted for. The story was held up on nearly every trip, messengers killed, and passengers robbed.

Hamm Defeats McKay.

PALATKA, Fla., Feb. 17.—Hamm and McKay rowed over a three and a half mile course here this afternoon. Hamm beat McKay by a half length in 22 minutes and 12 seconds. Teemer is ill.

Meeting of Base Ball Directors.

The directors of the Omaha base ball club met at President McCormick's office yesterday afternoon. Present, Messrs. McCord, McKnight, Hardin, Phillips, Morrison and Worley. The matter of the score card privilege was first brought up, and John Rawlins was named as the referee for the payment of his bid, the bid of R. E. McKelver, the next highest bidder, was $100. The referee was authorized to correspond with Manager Selee with reference to train uniforms, to be purchased of Wright & Ditson, of Boston.

City League Meeting.

A meeting of the city base ball league was held at Penrose & Hardin's sporting head quarters last evening. Representatives of the Crane Brothers Manufacturing company, C. E. Mayne, Metz Brothers, Penrose & Hardin, South Omaha and Richardson Drug company were present. H. A. Penrose, the president, made a motion, which was carried, that the league embrace but six clubs on each trip, about 100 yards extra put up or before the 1st day of March, upon which day the clubs be named from those having deposited with the secretary the necessary amount of money to cover a two-thirds vote.

Local Sporting Notes.

George J. Small and W. E. Nason, of the Leflore club, will play a billiard match, "Splice" Kennedy will shoot a blue rock match, 25 balls each, on the Omaha Gun club grounds. A benefit for Henry Miller at the Grand opera house this evening promises to be a roving affair. The programme is a very attractive one and there is every assurance of a large attendance. Pat Killen will arrive in Omaha this morning and will be the guest of Ed Rothery during his stay in the city.

Got Even With Gross.

A Contractor's Ping Hat and Overcoat Captured by Creditors. Fred Gross, who was thrashed by Attorney Ed Crowell last week for insulting a respectable young lady, is again in trouble. This time it is over an execution that has been served on him. Fred is a contractor for grading, and it is said that he has failed to pay a number of workmen whom he employs on his grading. Some of these workmen have been living in tents in the outskirts of the city all the winter and have suffered greatly because they could not collect their wages. They have been without coal and other necessities of life. A number of judgments have been issued against Gross, but he has not paid them. The creditors of Gross' poor creditors appealed greatly to Ed's sympathies and he determined to head the contractor off in some manner. Gross was a slinking pug and elegant fur overcoat, and Ed, finding he could not get hold of any other property belonging to Gross, determined to seize these. Accordingly the Gross was sitting supper at Lewis' sixteenth street restaurant, Ed quietly took possession of Gross' pug and overcoat, and the Gross, charging the contractor, offered no resistance to the seizure, however, as he found Ed very determined. The coat and hat have been advertised for sale by the sheriff, and will be knocked down to the highest bidder to-morrow. Yesterday Gross appeared on the street with a 25-cent summer hat, and, as a witty young attorney expressed it, has "thinking God that the weather was favorable to the shorn lamb." Of late Gross has been advertising himself as a loan agent.

A Dusky Lover's Revenge.

Ed Moore tries to kill Lizzie Porter because she jilted him. Ed Moore, a negro, was arrested last night for attempting to kill Lizzie Porter, the dusky object of his affections. Ed is desperately in love with Lizzie, but she fails to reciprocate, and his attentions have been annoying to her. They both had been employed at the same place, and on his account she finally left yesterday. Last night he hunted her up, and told her if she would not marry him he would kill her. She refused, however, and the drew his revolver when Fred Warren happened to appear on the scene. Warren rushed up to Moore and pulled his gun on the negro, who was so frightened for just at that moment Moore pulled the trigger and the bullet was imbedded in the wall just above Lizzie's head. Moore then crossed the link in the street and fell into the arms of Officer McGrath, who took him to the central station.

THE SPECULATIVE MARKETS.

Wheat Lacking in Interest and Prices Not Affected.

A STRONG SESSION IN CORN.

CHICAGO, Feb. 17.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The wheat market was lacking in interest and there appeared to be no new thing about it, certainly nothing which could in any way affect prices. There was some good buying early for outside account, which made the market strong early, but resulted only in a slight advance. The trade was very small and was confined largely to local traders, such fluctuations as occurred being caused by the immediate necessities of buyers and not by any news received. The operations of the heavier traders were on too small a scale to be noticeable or to influence prices. Light receipts at primary markets and especially here, where cuts in freight and storage were expected to bring increased receipts, were talked about as a strengthening feature, as were also liberal shipments of flour from Baltimore, but it appeared that these things were only talked about and not acted upon. Some bullish news came from the winter wheat belt concerning stocks and the condition of the crops, a gentleman connected with the Eastern Illinois road said that the last three weeks had wrought damage to winter wheat in the eastern and western Illinois. May wheat opened at 80 1/2c and after selling at 80 1/2c advanced to 80 3/4c, then fell to 80 1/2c and hung between 80 1/2c and 80 3/4c for some time. It advanced to 80 3/4c again and closed at 1 o'clock at 80 3/4c, which was the starting point. June wheat opened and closed at 80 1/2c and during the