equal reaction. The other Gould stocks developed surprising strength, Western Union and Missouri Pacific being the leaders, and advanced ⅝@¾ per cent. A good deal of Western Union was unloaded at 79 and caused a recession of ⅝ per cent. Parties in the Richmond Terminal deal are also interested in the East Tennessee and Norfolk & Western, and the report of the Richmond Terminal being leased to the Georgia Central was renewed. The total sales were 142,000 shares.

GOVERNMENTS—Government bonds were dull and heavy.

OMAHA LIVE STOCK.

General.

UNION STOCK YARDS, 6 p. m. Thursday, Feb. 24, 1888.

The receipts to-day of both cattle and hogs were moderate and a decline is noted in prices on hogs and an advance in cattle. The receipts thus far for this week show again in all classes of stock over that of the same line last year.

Cattle.

The receipts of cattle were light and the general quality only fair. Prices were somewhat stronger than yesterday, some salesmen quoting the market about 10 cents higher. The top price paid was $4.25. The local and shipping demand was only fair. Everything was taken.

Hogs.

The receipts of hogs were moderate. The market opened with buyers buying to bear the market. Salesmen were slow to concede anything, but reports from Chicago indicated a weaker feeling and the market here closed 10 cents lower with several loads unsold. The local demand was fair at prices quoted.

Sheep.

There was no fresh receipts to-day and nothing was done on the market.

Live Stock Notes.

Hogs lower.

No sheep here.

Cattle a shade higher.

J. D. Boyles, of Crete, marketed a load of porkers.

H. M. Cone, of Hebron, disposed of a load of cattle.

J. M. Paddock, of Percival, Ia., marketed cattle to-day.

T. B. Nicholson, of Western, was on the market to-day.

Joseph Wardle, of Chicago, is visiting Lee Truitt at the yards.

J. F. Fisher, of Fisher & Co., of Prague, marketed a load of hogs.

Crane & Bro., of Rising, had cattle and hogs on to-day's market.

J. T. Goodell, of Western, had hogs and cattle on to-day's market.

Lee Truitt, who has been rusticating in Chicago, returned yesterday.

Fred Ley, of the firm of Ley & Peters, of Stanton, marketed hogs and cattle.

Peter Ackur and Mr. Belsley, of Bellwood, were among the visitors at the yards to-day.

J. C. Connelly, of Decatur, was the lucky man who received the top price for a load of hogs.

Thomas Self, of Brock, marketed a car of light steers to-day. Mr. Self formerly shipped his stock to Kansas City, but has reformed.

It is rumored that a detective will be employed to look up the druggist who has been following his vocation at the exchange without license.

Complaints are still heard concerning the action of the inspectors in regard to dockage on hogs. As this is a very important feature on the market all care should be exercised.

Mr. Bone, of the firm of Scott & Bone, of Genoa, marketed hogs. The salesman who disposed of the porkers informed the BEE man that this was Mr. Bone's first trip, "and," said he, G'noa he will come again! The reporter fled.

The market reporter in an afternoon paper who quoted the hog market to-day as steady and the receipts all sold early must have left the yards about 6:30 in the morning. His sale of 54 311-lb hogs at $4.30 was an extraordinary sale to say the least.

The Stockman of last evening contains the following pertinent suggestions to shippers in Iowa and Nebraska which they would do well to paste in their hats: "In order to fully appreciate the prices which hogs have been bringing here it is necessary to compare this market with others. For at least a month back this market has averaged higher than Kansas City, which can be seen not only from the market reports of the two places, but which is proved beyond dispute by the cost of the hogs bought by the packers who have buyers on both markets. This difference has run all the way from 2c up to 12c. For example, Armour's hogs bought on this market yesterday averaged precisely the same, in weight, as the drove bought in Kansas City, and the average cost was 2½c more for the hogs bought here. No one in Nebraska City, at least, can afford to go to Kansas City with hogs even if it is more convenient. As a matter of fact Kansas City is the older market and a number of shippers of southern Nebraska have been shipping there for so long a time that they are prejudiced in favor of it, but it does not look right for anyone to allow a mere whim to carry them away from what is their best market. The same thing is true of the shippers of western Iowa, who have always been going to Chicago with stock, but who are gradually changing their shipments over to this market. When hogs are selling here within 10c of the top price in Chicago, it is folly for a shipper of western Iowa to think that he can make as much by shipping to the latter place. Not only are hogs selling here within 10c of Chicago, but what is more the hogs here are sold as mixed, which is another advantage."

OMAHA WHOLESALE MARKETS

Produce, Fruits, Nuts, Etc.

Thursday, Feb 24.

The following quotations are wholesale and not retail. Prices quoted on produce are the rates at which round lots are sold on this market. Fruits or other lines of goods requiring extra labor in packing cannot always be supplied on outside orders at the same prices quoted for the local trade. Rates on flour and feed are jobbers prices. Prices in grain are those paid by Omaha millers delivered. All quotations on merchandise are obtained from leading houses and are corrected daily. Prices on crackers, cakes, etc., are those given by leading manufacturers.

The produce market to-day was slow, and about the only feature worth noting was that strawberries made their appearance and were quoted at $1 per quart. Receipts of poultry were liberal and the demand was fair and prices unchanged. Should a cold spell set in the prospects are that prices would improve. There was a good demand for eggs, and 16c was the ruling price. Butter was somewhat scarce, the supply not being sufficient to meet the demand, and prices were firm and higher.
